

Love Rats 37

Chapter 37

Selena snorted, her fingers brushed through her hair, tilting her chin slightly as she looked at Dominic, "Dominic, my patience is limited."

Osvaldo was still waiting for her outside.

She didn't want to waste too much time on the Walson family.

The difference only lies in the credibility of the bystanders and the strength of the blow to Leah.

What Dominic was thinking was another matter, at the beginning of that incident, only the three of them knew the truth. Selena had no proof, so no one would believe her if she said it.

That was an accident, and Leah was a victim. She had already paid the price and chased after Selena to apologize countless times, but it was Selena who was aggressive and kept holding on to her.

To this day, he has forced to tell the truth in public, to hurt Leah to set her right!

Dominic's face was grim as he stared at Selena, something sharp in his eyes, "Do you have to hurt your sister before you'll stop?"

The smile on Selena's face disappeared.

She was not a patient person, and something that she could make her repeat more than three times had not yet come up, and in order to save Selena's reputation, with Dominic, she had used all her patience.

But this man had completely let her down!

When Dominic looked at the expressionless Selena, his heart inexplicably skipped a beat and he had a bit of a bad feeling. Luke, who had been watching the drama, finally opened his mouth, "I see that Mr. Walson is really in a difficult situation. If you don't mind, Selena, tell us what happened. You are the shareholder of the Olympus Group and also my boss, I think I have the obligation to seek you justice."

Mrs. Walson almost fainted with anger, she glared at Dominic viciously, if this was not her son, she would have strangled him to death.

Was it because Selena had been so humble to him in the past that she gave Dominic the illusion that she would tolerate him until her death?

Once the matter came out of Selena's mouth, it was equivalent to Dominic not agreeing to her request, and the twenty percent of the Riddle family's shares would have nothing to do with him at all.

Mrs. Walson was shaking with anger, "How could I have given birth to such a stupid?"

Brodie comforted his wife at the side and looked at Dominic with a hint of hatred in his eyes, "Maybe he really likes Leah, you're the one who pushed him too far."

"Leah..." Mrs. Walson took a deep breath and suppressed the resentment in her heart.

Apart from being more ruthless than Selena and more underhanded than Selena, how could Leah compare to Selena? Mrs. Walson did not say this out. Selena already did not like Dominic, if even Leah was lost, Dominic would really get nothing.

Selena looked straight at the stiff-faced Dominic and Leah, her tone lightly, "It's nothing, just that I heard many people say that Leah and Dominic together is a match made, and that I was completely to blame for my fiancé's cancellation of the wedding and being driven out of my home to end up with nothing."

Leah realized what Selena was going to say, her heart tightened and a flash of panic swept through her eyes.

Dominic's eyes jumped fiercely, and an endless panic and despair spread across his heart, "Shut up!"

He should be the one to say it, so that he could still get married with Selena and have the chance to get the twenty percent share.

But Selena said it meant he got nothing!
