

Love Rats 40

Chapter 40

Leah's heart tightened slightly when Angie brought the topic to this point, and in a moment she realized that it was wrong and said softly, "Angie, stop it!"

But once again, her words were too late, Selena put on a smile, her gaze carried something as sharp as a knife, "No matter how bad my character is, it's not as bad as you siblings and Leah! Calling me slutty and shameless, how disgusting Dominic and Leah who had sex long ago in front of me?!"

Dominic's brain "boomed", cold sweat covered his body, and he stared deadly at Selena, as if he could not believe that she actually dared to say this matter in public.

Leah's legs went limp, her face lost all its blood, and her slender body fell to the ground, but Molly was quick to help her. Angie froze.

Mrs. Walson closed her eyes, and at this moment she felt like strangling Dominic to death.

Those gathered around, too, were stunned.

"What?! Dominic and Leah had sex long ago? And they had sex in front of Selena, his fiancée? Crap, that's disgusting!" "Although there are rumors that they are matched. If this thing is true, I just feel really sorry for Selena."

"Yeah, anyone can see how much she liked Dominic before, and watching the man she loves have sex with her sister with her own eyes, it must be hard for her."

"If this incident really happened, then shouldn't Dominic treat Selena with guilty? But he's not only justified, he's so cold and arrogant. He's so fucking inhuman!"

Dominic's ears buzzed as all the voices around him accused him and Leah of being shameless, scum and bitch.

He looked at Leah, who had fallen into Molly's arms and was weeping profusely, her face was ashen, seemed like a flower that had been destroyed to the point of withering.

He remembered that when it first happened, Leah had fallen into his arms in the same way, her face ashen as she said she was sorry for Selena, and even sought death at one point.

He was guilty at first, but for a year afterwards, Leah had been chasing after Selena to apologise incessantly with the intention of gaining Selena's forgiveness, but every time she was faced with Selena's cruel accusations.

In time, he was completely worn down by the guilt of what Selena had done and became more and more impatient with her. After that, Leah had a hard time coming out of the shadows and regaining her smile.

Now that Selena is bringing up the old story in public, Leah's heart is ashen and she will probably not be able to think straight.

Anyway, it was already impossible for him to get Selena's twenty percent share, so why did he still let that vicious woman hurt Leah?

He wants to protect Leah!

Selena is already infamous anyway, so it is okay for her to have another charge to the list, but Leah is pure, she can't be ruined!

With determination, Dominic raised his head and stared deadly at Selena.

"Have you made enough? Selena, I didn't expect you to be so vicious, you made up things out of nothing, yes, I do like Leah, but because of you, she never said yes to me, we love each other but can't be together."
