

Love Rats 401

Chapter 401 I believe, I don't lose

On the third morning, Selena got everything ready, walked out of the flower room and drove to the Olympus Group.

The International Scents Competition is already warming up, and the whole of Creephia can feel the buzz of a different atmosphere.

Selena stepped into the perfumery department on her high heels and outside the lift, she ran into Mandy and the others who had just returned to the company after the qualification trials.

When Mandy and her group saw Selena, they all froze.

But no matter how resentful they were at heart, they had to put on a respectful attitude on their faces, "Lady Selena."

The tone, while not cynical, was not much friendly either.

Selena nodded her head with no emotion and took the lead in the lift.

As soon as she left, the faces of the group of people behind Mandy sank.

The Olympus Group believes in strength above all else, and Selena, who is parachuted in by nepotism, is really unlikable.

Especially, she has a real history of being banned.

Mandy, as the third runner-up in the last International Scents Competition, had to stoop to the level of all the newcomers to participate in the selection and elimination rounds, and these days many people were mocking her.

Selena, on the other hand, did not need to do the same, as she, who had been banned from the competition and had a tainted career, had advanced straight to the finals of the domestic perfume competition.

Almost everyone in the entire perfumery department was angry for Mandy, but no one dared to say anything because of Luke's attitude towards Selena.

"I'd like to see how good a ranking this Lady Selena, who has been praised by Mr. Jordon, can get in this perfume competition."

"Mandy, don't be sad, Mr. Noch is your teacher, and you have worked so hard this year to create a superb perfume recipe, you will be the winner of this year's perfume competition."

"Yes, as long as you win the championship, even if Mr. Jordon wants to protect her, the position of the No. 1 perfumer of Olympus Group, is still yours."

Mandy heard the encouragement from the group of people and spoke indifferently, "Stop it, if word gets to the ears of Mr. Jordon and Lady Selena, it won't be good."

The group had to keep their mouths shut reluctantly.

...

When Selena walked into the office, Luke and Olympus Group's shareholders were already waiting inside.

She walked over to the seat next to Luke and sat down with a smile.

Looking at her bright face, Luke knew she was in a good mood, and with the corners of his lips hooked, he asked, "Lady Selena, won't you miss your boyfriend after being away for so long?"

Selena blinked and said seriously, "When I went to Tonyan Town to shoot a movie before, I was away for half a month, I didn't even miss him for half a month. Why should I miss her in seven days?"

Luke was speechless.

He bet that if he heard that, he would really have to argue with his wife.

Before long, everyone in the perfumery department had arrived.

After the meeting, Luke put down the information in her hands and said with a smile, "There will be a reception at the Sophia Hotel tonight."

The women in the perfumery department, collectively, cheered.

Everyone at Olympus Group knows that although Mr. Jordon has a flirtatious and philandering face, this boss has never had a fling with any woman.

The reception is a great place to be and romance is possible when he gets drunk.

Even though the chance is slim, just in case they succeed.

When Luke finished, he asked Selena, "Lady Selena, would you like to join us?"

Selena knew what Luke meant, but shook her head, smiling sweetly, "I'm going back to say goodbye to my boyfriend, and," her dark eyes sweeping over everyone in the scene, she said, "I believe, I don't lose."

She knows that people from the perfumery department is upset with her, and Luke wants to use this reception to get each other closer, but for Selena, there's no need.

She will not be staying at Olympus Group in the future, and she will not have any conflict of interest with them except for this perfume competition, so naturally she does not care much about what these people think of her.

Moreover, she has always believed in the law of the jungle, where strength is enough to prove everything, and beyond that, it would be impossible for her to take the trouble to please others.

The crowd on the floor was stunned.

Selena smiled at Luke and stood up on her high heels, and walked out.

Luke looked at this delicate-looking, but in fact, arrogant girl, "tsk", although the expression is different, but this nature is really quite like Osvaldo.

...

Selena drove back to the castle.

Osvaldo was working in his study when he heard a knock at the door.

A bright light swept across his dark eyes as he stood up, walked over and opened the door, leading Selena in.

He raised Selena's chin and stroked her hair, "In future, no need to knock at the door."

There was no place in his territory where she could not go.

Selena looked at him with wide eyes and smiled faintly, "I'm going to be away for a while."

Osvaldo looked at her delicate and beautiful face, his thin lips hooked, "I have to leave for a while too."

Selena was stunned for a moment, then smiled, "What a coincidence."

The eyes of Osvaldo were a few shades darker and deeper, "Yes."

Selena thought for a moment and then said with a raised face, "I'll definitely come back with a trophy."

Osvaldo nodded.

Selena finished what she wanted to say and finally said to him, "Goodbye."

Then, turning around, she walked out.

Osvaldo stared at her back as she left, the expression on his face was complicated.

Early the next morning, Selena took Leia with her and followed a group of Olympus Group's participants in the competition onto a plane, leaving Creephia and heading for M City.

...

The news of Selena's departure from Creephia reached Christ's ears in the first instance.

His lips curled into a cold smile, "He's quite arrogant."

Knowing full well that he was keeping an eye on Selena, Osvaldo dared to let that woman out from under his nose.

"Boss, so are we going to M City?"

Christ looked outside the floor-to-ceiling window at the prosperous city of Creephia, his gaze cold, after being silent for a long time, he said, "No need."

He hadn't found the girl yet, and it always felt bad to leave like that.

Outside the door, Isabel got the news that Selena had left Creephia, and a hint of venom swept through her eyes.

She knew Christ refused to leave Creephia was because of Selena.

If he knew that Selena was the one he was looking for and was the owner of the carnelian, then she would certainly die.

Before, with Christ and that man from the Anderson family watching, she didn't dare to act rashly, but now that Selena had left Creephia, then she had to die out there.

Isabel left silently.

Chapter 402 Robbing Selena's things

M City.

The plane landed on the airport.

The people inside came out in turn, pulling their suitcases.

Olympus Group is so strong that apart from Selena, who was qualified for the slot, there were four others who emerged from the qualification trials, Mandy, Hazel, Ayah and Bethany.

Of the four, Mandy was the third runner-up and is already well known, while the other three have more or less their own fans after the selection process.

The four were stylishly dressed, smiling and raising their hands to greet their fans, drawing wave after wave of screams.

Leia, who had just gotten off the plane with Selena's suitcase in tow, listened to the screams and subconsciously wanted to shout "Quiet."

Both Selena and Osvaldo prefer silence, and it has become almost an instinctive reaction for cats to keep the environment they are in absolutely quiet.

But it was stopped by Selena, "It's okay, let's go."

Leia let out a breath and ran down the stairs, dragging her suitcase, with Selena following her, the two of them walking out of the pick-up gate one after the other.

The fans at the pick-up gate froze at first glance when they saw a stunningly beautiful and charming young girl walking out of the Olympus Group's line.

Although she was wearing sunglasses that covered most of her face, the elegance that was almost integrated into her bones still firmly hooked everyone's attention at the first glance.

"Wow, who is this young lady? Super temperament."

"She came off the Olympus Group's plane, is she a perfumer for the Olympus Group? Even though her face is covered, I can imagine how beautiful the young lady must be."

"Which family has raised this noble girl? So good-looking and so talented, how can we compete with her?"

All at once, everyone was looking at Selena, taking pictures frantically and chattering about who she was.

Selena is very famous on the internet, but she is after all new to the city and wears sunglasses, so no one has guessed her identity for a while.

Mandy and others were reduced from the limelight to nobody, standing awkwardly to one side, their faces pale.

Selena was tired after a few hours of flying, and ignored anyone as she walked past the four people accompanying her and towards the car that had come to pick them up.

Leia put the suitcase in the back seat, opened the door and Selena got in, then Leia drove, leaving the airport and driving towards the hotel Luke had booked.

The other four were silent for a moment and got into the car sent by Olympus Group to pick them up. The group arrived at the hotel booked in advance by Olympus Group.

Olympus Group has always been generous, the seven-star hotel they booked has beautiful surroundings and all the amenities.

Mandy asked the waitress for her room card.

The waitress checked the information and handed them the room cards for each of the four people, all of them were luxurious sea view rooms. As the group of people were just getting a smile on their faces, Leia walked over, "Where is Lady Selena's room card?"

The waitress froze, and then picked up a golden room card that was set aside separately and handed it to Leia with both hands, smiling, "Top floor, the one on the right hand side."

Leia took the room card and walked away.

Mandy stood still, watching Selena walk into the lift, squeezing the room in her hand.

Hazel asked, "Are there any other rooms on the top floor? We'd like to change rooms."

The waitress shook her head and smiled courteously, "I'm sorry, the top floor of our hotel is the Supreme VIP room, there are only two rooms on that floor."

Hazel was undeterred and pulled Mandy's hand, her tone already unhappy, "Isn't there another one? Mandy is the third runner up in last year's domestic competition, she will definitely take the trophy in this competition, so that she stays in your hotel is like advertising for you for free."

The waitress, however, continued to shake her head, "I'm sorry, Miss Mandy, those two rooms, which were booked by phone two months ago, have not been occupied by anyone for such a long time."

The four people's faces paled slightly.

To be able to reserve two Supreme VIP rooms for as long as two months in M City, where the world is full of rich families, is definitely not something that can be done by being rich.

Several people dared not ask further questions and all took their luggage and went back to their rooms.

Selena returned to her room, took a shower in the bathroom and went to sleep, and only after the tiredness was gone, did she finally feel more energetic.

This body was really too delicate.

Leia walked in with her lunch, "Madam, let's go out for fun after we eat."

Out for fun?

Selena sipped her soup and gave a smile, so Leia wanted to hang out.

Leia cupped her hands on her face and looked at her with wide eyes, "M City is so prosperous, you makes a rare trip out, won't you bring gifts back for young master and Hattie?"

The main thing is that before she came out, she was admonished by Osvaldo that Selena has stayed in the house all the time, and that she should go out more often.

Selena thought about it, it was a rare trip out, so she should indeed bring back gifts for Osvaldo and Hattie.

She nodded, "Okay."

After eating, Selena took out her mobile phone and sent a text message to Osvaldo to report her safety. Osvaldo replied "Okay" in seconds.

Selena stared at the word "Okay", imaging his usual gentle expression when he said it, smiled, and then she followed Leia out the door.

M City was a world-renowned bustling city, and Leia had made a strategy in advance and took Selena to the most unique shopping malls.

Selena is extremely purposeful in what she does, and when she says she's going to buy a gift for Osvaldo and Hattie, then she's really going to buy a gift.

Selena went around the mall and bought Hattie a beautiful BJD doll that looked a bit like Hattie.

Hattie's gift was easy to buy, but the one for Osvaldo was a major problem.

The main thing is that his looks and aura are so rare that there are so few things to match him.

Selena walked around for a long time and finally saw a watch from a luxury shop.

Her eyes glowed at the watch and she said to the clerk, "I'll take this one."

The clerk gave her a surprised look and said with a smile, "Miss, from the design to the material, you won't find a second watch like this in the whole mall."

Selena smiled.

What she has her eye on is usually the best.

The clerk opened the cabinet door and, with white gloved hands, took the watch out, wrapped it up and handed it to Selena.

Selena raised her hand to pick it up, but as the watch was about to fall into her hand, a hand stretched out from the side and snatched it up first, "Excuse me, Miss, I have my eye on this watch, please give it to me."

Chapter 403 Kaitlyn Riddle

After saying that, not even waiting for Selena to refuse, that person had already turned around with the watch in hand.

Selena's gaze went cold.

Leia's eyes narrowed.

The clerk who was handing the watch to Selena froze.

When the three people looked up, they saw that a young girl was putting the watch into the hands of another young girl.

The girl who had grabbed the watch, fifteen years old and dressed in a red leather dress, looked like someone who was used to being difficult and domineering, while the person standing next to her was the complete opposite of her.

She looked slightly smaller than the girl in the red dress, wearing an obviously tailored white dress, with delicate features and an elegant air of softness and good manners all over her body.

She took the watch handed to her by her companion and opened the jewellery box to look at it, immediately afterwards her eyes just lit up and her voice was delicately cheerful, "This watch is a unique design, brother will love it."

Anastasia Watts watched a satisfied smile appear on her face and was secretly relieved, very glad that she was lucky. If she had seen it later, the watch would have been bought.

She took the bank card handed to her by the girl in the white dress and without looking back, she placed it on the counter, "I'll pay for it."

The clerk looked on dumbfounded at the behaviour of the two young girls that could be described as robber barons, "Miss, this young lady had her eye on this watch first."

Anastasia gave the clerk an impatient look, "Swipe the card when you're told to, what's all the nonsense about?"

The clerk had probably never encountered such a situation before and gave Selena an uneasy look.

Selena's tone was icy, "Leia, go and get the stuff back."

Leia walked over to the girl in the white dress and held out her hand with a distinctly nonchalant tone, "Give it to me."

If they weren't underage and dared to rob Selena of the gift she bought for young master, she would have beaten them up severely.

The girl in the white dress was stunned for a moment, displeasure swept through her eyes, turning her head to look at Selena's slightly cold side face, she was stunned for a moment, then a smile appeared on her face, saying in a light voice, "Miss, I didn't rob you, I reserved this watch in advance with the boss, now I'm just coming to pick it up."

Selena inclined her head slightly, her gaze even colder.

The clerk was even more confused, looking at Selena and then at the white skirt girl who was so sure of herself, "I didn't get a notice."

"Then you should go and ask." Anastasia haughtily glared at the clerk, an arrogant and domineering smile on her face as she looked at Selena disdainfully, "Just go and tell your boss that Missy from the Riddle family of the capital has come to pick up a custom-made birthday gift for the young master of the Riddle family, and then she'll tell you if there is such a thing or not."

The clerk, completely frozen, gave Selena an apologetic look and turned back to the phone.

Leia froze, staring at the girl in the white dress.

Miss of the Riddle family of the capital?

Her misplaced expression fell in the eyes of Anastasia and Kaitlyn as one of shock and fear.

Kaitlyn smiled and looked down, lovingly watching the watch in her hand, as if she was trying to show an air of non-arrogance, but probably because she was young and vain, she still couldn't hide a hint of arrogance in her eyes.

Anastasia intimately wrapped her arm around Kaitlyn's shoulder and mockingly looked at Selena who hadn't done anything since the beginning, "Yes, this is the only Miss of the Riddle family from the capital, Kaitlyn Riddle, and her brother is the next heir of the Riddle family, Leon Riddle."

She raised her chin and looked at Selena arrogantly and smugly, towering over them as she waited.

Selena showed an expression of awe and fear, then came forward in a low voice to make amends to them.

Kaitlyn looked at the watch in her hand, seemingly not hearing Anastasia's words, looking like a soft and well-behaved, noble and elegant lady.

Leia looked at the two arrogantly smug people.

From so far away, she could feel Selena's cold air.

Selena loves Hattie so much, and Hattie's mental illness has only just improved a bit, but Kaitlyn dares to offend her.

Even if Selena won't kill her today, she will definitely teach her a lesson.

Leia didn't rush to grab back the watch, walking over to Selena, looking at Kaitlyn with a look of stupidity.

Anastasia and Kaitlyn originally thought that if they revealed their identities, Selena would be just like those people before them, full of fear and trepidation, and take the initiative to come forward to make amends and apologise to them, but after waiting for a while, they did not see any movement from Selena.

Kaitlyn glanced at Selena's cold side face, inexplicably a hint of familiarity, and she frowned, a hint of displeasure at being offended on her face.

She glanced at Anastasia.

Anastasia met her eyes and anger rose in her heart. She raised her hand and pointed at Selena, just as she was about to speak, the owner of this luxury shop walked over. Without even glancing at Selena, she walked straight to Kaitlyn and said with a flattering face, "Miss Riddle, it's really an honor for the shop to have you here. Let me know if you have something you like."

Kaitlyn looked at Selena and said with a naive face, "Boss lady, I customized a birthday gift for my brother in your shop before, but your clerk made a mistake and sold my gift to that lady."

She raised her hand and nodded at Selena, "That lady said that I snatched her watch, so you tell her who the real owner of the watch is."

Dismay crossed the owner's face.

The capital was a thousand miles away from M City, how could Miss Riddle customize a watch in her shop?

She had never met Kaitlyn at all before.

But as she looked at Kaitlyn's firm expression on her face, she immediately reacted and turned to Selena with a less friendly attitude, "Excuse me, Miss, this watch is a custom-made model of the Riddle family's young lady, it originally belongs to her and there is no suspicion of any snatching for it, as she is the owner of this watch."

Selena did not say anything, lowering her eyes.

The clerk following the boss lady looked apologetically at Selena, but due to the Riddle family's power, she did not dare to tell the truth.

Seeing this, Anastasia became even more pleased with herself and looked at Selena arrogantly, "Tell me your name. You robbed Miss Riddle's thing, how dare you not apologize? Although Kaitlyn is kind and not willing to bother with you, the Riddle family from the capital is not one to be messed with, just wait for your clan to have bad luck."

The corners of Selena's lips curled into a cold smile, and under Kaitlyn's innocent and smug gaze, she slowly turned around.

Chapter 404 Smash it

When Kaitlyn saw Selena's face, her smug expression abruptly froze on her face and she took a few panicked steps backwards.

Earlier, Selena had kept her back to her and Kaitlyn only saw her side face, which she vaguely felt looked familiar, but didn't give it a second thought.

At this moment, when she saw Selena's face, which was similar to Hattie's, her heart trembled violently. This face, at first glance, was inextricably linked to the Riddle family from the capital, and although Kaitlyn had never seen it within the Riddle family, she knew that this woman must be from the Riddle family from the capital.

Her face turned white, no longer the smugness. Her grip on her watch tightened uncontrollably, and she felt panicked.

When Anastasia saw this reaction from Kaitlyn, she was taken aback and asked, "Kaitlyn, what's wrong with you?”

Kaitlyn just looked at Selena in shock, unable to speak, and before she could recover from her shock, she heard Selena coldly open her mouth, “Smash it.”

Leia was enjoying all the expressions on Kaitlyn’s face, and when she heard Selena’s words, she clapped her hands, picked up a nearby chair, aimed it at the counter beside her, and smashed it down heavily. With a bang, the clear glass counter instantly shattered and the luxury items inside were destroyed. Kaitlyn and Anastasia were so frightened that they screamed out and scrambled straight backwards to hide.

The boss lady was stunned, and after the shock, she glared at Selena fiercely, “Bastard, how dare you-” No sooner had she said this than Leia swung her chair and smashed it against another counter, accompanied by a crackling sound of breaking glass and another cupboard of luxury goods falling to ruin.

The boss lady lost her mind in anger and pounced on Selena.

Leia sneered, grabbed her by the shoulders and threw her away.

The loud noise drew the attention of everyone around in an instant.

When the crowd turned around at the sound of the noise, they were flabbergasted to see that there was a public trashing of the venue and immediately called the police.

Leia threw away the chair in her hand and smiled at the watching crowd, her voice clear, “You have misunderstood, my lady means no harm, she just wants to ask you all to do justice.”

The group was relieved to hear Leia’s words and to see that the parties involved were a few pretty girls who looked so soft and harmless that they thought it was a disagreement between the capricious young girls.

A person said, “You can’t smash things even if you’re angry, you have to pay for it.”

Leia smiled and shook her head, “It’s okay, someone will help us pay for it.”

When the crowd heard that there would be compensation, they were relieved and began to watch the fun.

Kaitlyn was surrounded by so many people in a flash, became more panic. She looked at Selena who did not say a word, unsure the identity of the cloud, she dare not make a hasty move, but gave in first, “Sorry, Miss, because my brother is going to have his birthday, I want to buy him a birthday gift, so I... I’ll pay you double the price. Don’t be angry with me, okay?”

Anastasia looked at Kaitlyn in confusion, “Kaitlyn, you.”

She looked at Kaitlyn’s expression, and then went to look at Selena, who was all cold and noble, and more fear came to her face.

Kaitlyn was the eldest young lady of the Riddle family from the capital, what could make such a dignified young lady show such an expression of fear and trepidation?

Selena’s dark eyes didn’t have a trace of temperature, they just stared coldly at Kaitlyn.

Kaitlyn felt frozen under her icy sight, and she glanced at the watch in her hand, a hint of reluctance coming out of her eyes.

But in the end she gritted her teeth, held the watch, handed it to Selena with both hands, and said in a pitiful voice, “I’m sorry, Miss, it’s my fault, I don’t want this watch, I’ll give it back to you.”

Selena didn’t look at the watch, a layer of frost covered her beautiful face, staring at Kaitlyn, who shivered coldly.

Instead, Leia sneered and stepped forward to take the watch, “My lady won’t take what you’ve touched.”

After saying that, in face of the boss lady, she slammed the watch as well.

The owner's face twisted in pain as she watched her "treasure of the shop" being destroyed.

At the same time, she was incomparably regretful, regretting that she had rashly taken sides without knowing Selena's identity clearly.

How could Selena's looks and that powerful aura be compared to Kaitlyn's?

When the crowd saw Kaitlyn, a young girl who was underage, lowering her voice to apologise to Selena, while Selena looked indifferent, they were all a bit discontented and accused Selena.

"Miss, why do you have to scare a girl so ruthlessly?"

"That's right, she's just a kid, even if she did something wrong, she's already apologized to you, why don't you let her go?"

"What do you mean by messing with a young girl and trashing the boss lady's place? How can you bully people like that just because you have money?"

Selena, however, did not pay attention to the accusations around her, she walked up to Kaitlyn, raised her hand and cupped her chin, her tone was cold, "Who are you?"

Kaitlyn's face was white and seemed to be on the verge of tears, "I'm sorry, Miss, I was wrong."

She could show off to everyone that she was the only Missy of the Riddle family, but she couldn't justify saying she was the only Missy of the Riddle family to Selena.

If she was Hattie, who had no one to rely on, perhaps she wouldn't have been so panicked, and could even have abused Hattie, for she was a brainless fool who got irritated at the slightest provocation anyway.

But she was not sure of Selena's identity, and Selena looked very scary, so she inexplicably did not dare to play with her heart.

Anastasia looked at Kaitlyn who was bullied by Selena and was on the verge of tears, she loudly threatened, "I'm warning you, let Kaitlyn go right now or I'll call her brother. Kaitlyn is the only lady of the Riddle family from the capital, if you dare to bully her, her parents, grandparents and brother will not spare you."

And the people watching around, hearing Kaitlyn's identity, were in another flurry of excitement.

The Riddle family from the capital is a powerful clan, but anyone with bit of knowledge has heard of it, and when they heard Kaitlyn was the only Miss of the Riddle family from the capital, there was more than shock and awe in the eyes of the crowd.

The eyes that looked at Selena grew more and more unkind.

"You have heard it all, this is the lady of the Riddle family in the capital, not to be messed with, so let her go."

"The Riddle family from the capital represents a quarter of the power in the capital, even though you have power and influence in M City, your clan can't protect you if you bully her, so let her go."

When Kaitlyn heard those voices accusing Selena, she was even more vain, glaring at Anastasia viciously. Selena's hand that was cupping her chin couldn't stop tightening, and there was more than a hint of a smirk on her face.

Chapter 405 Teaching her a lesson

She spoke slowly, her voice clear and audible to the entire audience, "There is only one young lady in the Riddle family in the capital, she is thirteen years old, her name is Hattie Riddle. I don't know when you, such a prominent figure, came into the Riddle family."

Hearing Selena's words, those voices that accused her of being fierce in their accusations came to an abrupt halt.

Unbelievable eyes fell on Kaitlyn's face, filled with shock and confusion.

Even Anastasia, who had been bending over backwards to please Kaitlyn, had more than surprise on her face.

Kaitlyn's face turned even whiter as she was stared at by so many pairs of suspicious eyes, "Miss, I am really the Riddle family's young lady."

This woman knows Hattie, she really is a member of the Riddle family, Kaitlyn thought.

Kaitlyn regretted deeply. She shouldn't have relied on the fact that this was M City, far away from the Capital, and forgotten her mother's advice. She had used her status to snatch Selena's things. If she had known that Selena was from the Riddle family, she wouldn't have dared to put on airs.

Selena's her gaze had more than a hint of hostility, "There is only one young lady in the Riddle family, that is Hattie, how dare you lie?"

Kaitlyn saw the hostility in her eyes and was shocked, "I really am the Riddle family's young lady, I am Hattie's sister."

Selena's lips curled up into a cold smile and gave more force, "Hattie's mother only gave birth to a daughter, where did she get a sister?"

Kaitlyn's jaw was in severe pain, and looking into Selena's hollow eyes, she was frightened and cried, saying brokenly, "We have the same father, and different mothers."

The onlookers instantly heard the trick.

"Same father, different mother. So you are a lowly illegitimate daughter?"

"The Riddle family's illegitimate daughter? Then how does she have the nerve to call herself the only Missy of the Riddle family? She's so cheeky."

"I see, it must be the illegitimate daughter who is relying on the power of the Riddle family to make a fool of herself here, but she didn't expect to have bad luck and run into the real daughter of the Riddle family."

Anastasia looked at Kaitlyn in disbelief, never imagining that the young lady she had been bending over backwards to please for so long was only a lowly illegitimate daughter.

Her face instantly became white as she glared viciously at Kaitlyn, "Kaitlyn, didn't you say that you were the only Miss of the Riddle family? But you're actually just a lowly bastard daughter?"

Kaitlyn heard the incessant words of illegitimate daughter, her heart resented and she couldn't help but roar out, "I'm not an illegitimate daughter, my mother has already married into the Riddle family, I'm the rightful young lady."

Selena smiled coldly, her face icy, "Hattie's mother is a lady of noble status, married to Hattie's father for more than ten years, this is a well-known matter in the capital. What is your mother? Is she worthy of marrying into the Riddle family? Who gave you the courage and confidence to think that you could replace Hattie and become the first lady of the Riddle family?"

Kaitlyn was so resentful. She was so young, as being provoked, she blurted out some words buried in her heart without thinking, "That woman is dead, now my mother is in charge of the Riddle family. Her daughter has been expelled, she is no longer qualified to compete with me, now I am the only Miss of the Riddle family, all the favours of the Riddle family are mine. She doesn't deserve to compete with me."

With these words, how could the crowd of onlookers not see what the hell this was all about?

"She's not only an illegitimate daughter, but an illegitimate daughter with a vicious heart. The mistress killed the original spouse, drove the original spouse's daughter out of the house. How could the Riddle family in the capital have such a family style?"

"Such a young girl with such a vicious mind, you can imagine what kind of a person her mother is? It's not enough to kill the original spouse, she can't even tolerate the daughter left behind by the original spouse, it's disgusting."

"Miss, I'm sorry. I misspoke earlier. For someone with such twisted values and a wicked heart, not only is scaring her justified, but even hitting her would be her just deserves."

When Kaitlyn heard the angry curses around her, she abruptly realized that she had said the wrong thing and her face had turned pale as she cried, "I'm sorry, Miss, I was wrong, I just said those words spoke without thinking."

Selena looked down at her from above, his dark eyes staring at her coldly, "What is wrong?"

Kaitlyn was trembling with fear, "I shouldn't have said I was the only Miss of the Riddle family."

Selena's tone was filled with coldness, "Then who is the only, true and rightful Miss of the Riddle family?"

Kaitlyn cried hard, "It is Hattie."

Selena's gaze held an eerie chill, "What else?"

Kaitlyn had a feeling of being frozen, "I shouldn't have lied and robbed your watch by virtue of the Riddle family's power."

Selena's eyes were wrapped in a smear of gloom, "What else?"

Kaitlyn cried pitifully, "I... I don't know."

Selena's gaze went cold, "What should you call Hattie's mother?"

Kaitlyn quivered, and only after a while did she say in a dumb voice, "Aunt Riddle."

Selena tightened her force, and Kaitlyn changed the address, "Mrs. Riddle."

Selena asked coldly, "Your mother and Mrs. Riddle, who is the third party?"

"It's, it's my mother."

"Do you know what the attitude of an illegitimate daughter should be when she sees the daughter born to her original spouse?"

"Respectful, humble and tolerant."

"Will you dare pick on Hattie in the future and bully her just because she has no one to protect her?"

"No."

Selena looked at her face full of tears and let go of her hand as Leia stepped forward and handed her a clean handkerchief.

Selena looked at Kaitlyn and said coldly, "Remember what you said, if I know that you dare to play mind tricks and bully Hattie..."

She approached Kaitlyn, hostility leaking out of her eyes, "I'll chop off your hands."

Kaitlyn was scared and shook her head, "I don't dare, I won't dare again."

Selena snorted coldly and stood up straight, turning her head to look at the boss lady on the floor.

The boss lady, at this moment, shook her head, "Sorry, Miss, it is my fault to look down on you."

Selena wiped her hands clean, threw the handkerchief to the ground and turned away with a cold face.

Leia glanced haughty at Kaitlyn, who had been cleaned up, and chased after Selena.

She had said that Hattie was protected by Selena and could not be messed with, right?

chapter 406

The aura is truly intimidating.

She bet that if it weren't for the fact Kaitlyn was still underage today, given her actions, Selena would not just scare her with a few words..

Selena left, and the onlookers gradually dispersed when they saw there was no more action to watch. Kaitlyn stopped crying.

Anastasia took a breath after recovering from the overwhelming strength of Selena and looked at Kaitlyn with a touch of contempt and disdain in her eyes.

She was at least a young lady of the powerful in the capital, but she had been complacently sucking up to an illegitimate daughter for so long that it made her diarrhea to think about it.

Now it seems that the young woman just now is more like a real member of the Riddle family.

Anastasia said cynically, "You are just a wild chick, how dare you try to fly up to become a phoenix--"

Just as she finished her sentence, Kaitlyn raised her hand and slapped her fiercely in the face.

Anastasia was shocked when she was slapped, and she screamed out, "How dare you hit me?"

She raised her hand to hit back, but Kaitlyn grabbed her hand, her face, which still had teardrops on it, was now filled with resentment, "I am the only Miss of the Riddle family, if you dare to hit me, I'll have my father screw up your family immediately."

Anastasia's face was contorted with anger.

Even though Kaitlyn was an illegitimate daughter, it was a fact that she had the bloodline of the Riddle family from the capital after all, and that she had her father and mother to back her up, so even though Anastasia was resentful, she could only hold it in.

Kaitlyn turned her head and stared indignantly at the direction Selena had left.

She had to get back to her mother and ask her who the hell that woman was just now.

Kaitlyn turned around and was about to leave, the boss lady grabbed her arm, "Miss Riddle, you haven't paid for the damage to my shop yet."

Selena was angry at Kaitlyn for lying and robbing her, and smashed her shop, and Leia had just said she would pay for it.

The words were clearly referring to Kaitlyn.

If Kaitlyn really learns a lesson and knows that she is wrong, she will definitely take the initiative to make amends.

But Kaitlyn had no intention of making any compensation at all. Knowing her identity as an illegitimate daughter, the boss lady treated her with no more caution than she did a moment ago and immediately came forward to ask for the money.

Kaitlyn broke away the boss lady, "Leave me alone. Do you know who my mother is? If you piss me off, I'll make it impossible for you to open your shop again."

The boss lady's face turned white.

...

It was only after Selena walked out of the mall that she remembered that the gift she had bought for Osvaldo had been smashed.

With a hint of chagrin, she considered whether to go back for another one.

Leia looked at her expression and blinked, "Madam, let's go back first, we're staying in M City for seven days anyway, we can still come out and buy the young master's gift again."

The main reason is that Hattie is involved, and Selena's good mood must have been affected, and she must not be in the mood for shopping at this time.

Selena nodded.

Leia went to the car and took her back to the hotel to rest.

...

And at that moment, some one took a video of the scene and posted it online.

People from M City rarely know about Selena, but on the internet, she is a famous figure who frequently trends on Weibo. As soon as this video was uploaded, it was seen by those who have been following her.

And this person who posted the video, in order to gain attention, did not explain the cause and effect, and even turned off the sound, and the whole scene could only see Selena coldly targeting a young underage girl.

When the sensible fans of Selena saw the video, they knew that Selena was going to be smeared again and hurriedly went to Olympus Group's website to leave a message.

Those who have been criticized by Emperor Entertainment and disliked Selena are like sharks smelling blood when they see this video, calling in friends to stir up the hype.

...

Luke had just sent Selena away in the morning and he received a call from the public relations department in the afternoon, telling him that Selena had just gone into trouble in M City.

Luke wondered if Selena was that lucky.

When he saw the person on the video, his eyes dim before he sent a message to the PR people, "Leave it alone."

The ladies in the PR department were flabbergasted.

Leave it alone?

Is this a sign of letting Selena be smeared?

When did their Mr. Jordon become so generous?

After sending a message to the PR department, Luke thought for a moment and called his subordinates in M City.

...

At this moment, Hattie, who had just finished her morning shooting and was preparing to eat lunch, became acutely aware that the mood of the crew was somewhat different.

A group of people were staring at their phones, frowning as if they had come across some kind of dilemma.

Hattie pursed her lips, walked over, tilted her face up and asked, "Matthew, what are you looking at?"

When Matthew saw her approaching, he put his phone away, stroked her hair and said gently, "Nothing, go and eat, and then get some rest, it's going to be a tough afternoon."

Hattie did not say anything, tilting her face up, stared at him unblinkingly.

Every time Matthew met Hattie's clean, somewhat vacant eyes, chill ran down his spine.

Having gotten along for some time, he knew that Hattie was stubborn and in a sense, even somewhat similar to Selena in that they both belonged to the type of people who would not give up until they achieved their goals.

Matthew sighed and had to tell the truth, "There is news about Lady Selena on the internet, but Mr. Jordon said not to worry about it, it should be fine."

Selena's gaze flickered, stretching out her hand, the meaning of which was clear she wanted to see. Matthew had no choice but to give her the phone.

Hattie frowned and took the phone. As she saw Kaitlyn's name on the screen, a sharp and cold glint flickered in her pitch-black eyes.

She screamed, slamming the phone heavily onto the floor before lifting her foot and stomping it hard.

The sudden movement startled all the people in the crew.

The crowd looked up and in the next second, they were shocked by the hysterical madness on Hattie's white face.

Matthew did not expect this outcome, so he hurriedly raised his hand to hug Hattie.

Hattie is crazy, but Matthew is a man, so he has no problem restraining a thirteen year old girl.

Hattie screamed in his arms, kicking and punching, those cold, dark eyes filled with a sharp madness.

Matthew almost failed to catch her.

A few of the actors immediately went up to help.

Estrella turned around and ran inside the hotel to find Hattie's psychiatrist.

Everyone in the crew knew that Hattie had a mental illness, and Luke had even told them that Hattie had violent tendencies and that they should take care of her.

But not having seen her in real trouble, she was shocked to see it for the first time now.

...

M City.

Selena returned to the hotel and had not long fallen asleep, and the mobile phone placed on the table buzzed.

chapter 407

Selena slowly sat up, her long hair draped over her shoulders, her eyes languid, her eyes sweeping over the number.

As she picked up, a doctor's voice was heard, "Lady Selena, Hattie is sick."

Selena's dark eyes took on an extra sharpness, "What's going on?"

Hattie has been filming in Tonyan Town, and Luke has personally sent someone to watch over her, so even if someone from the Riddle family from the capital wanted to harm Hattie, they wouldn't be able to find the opportunity.

Furthermore, the Riddle family in the capital clearly knew that Hattie was now the one being protected by Osvaldo, and that woman, no matter how arrogant and arrogant she was, should not be so stupid as to run onto Osvaldo's turf and lay hands on Hattie.

Unless she didn't want to live.

The doctor said in a deep voice, "Hattie saw that video on the internet, which caused her to lose control of her emotions."

With a cold gaze, Selena opened Weibo and searched for her name, and sure enough, she saw the video from the morning, no sound, just the image of her targeting a young girl, cold and aggressive.

A cold light swept through her eyes as she stared at Kaitlyn, who was crying with tears on the screen.

If it was just this video, Hattie could not have been sick.

The problem definitely lies with Kaitlyn.

Selena's eyes glanced icily over Kaitlyn's face, "How is Hattie's situation?"

The doctor said, "It was sedated, Hattie fell asleep just now, and we won't know the exact situation until she wakes up."

Selena lifted the blanket, ready to go back to see Hattie, but her movements paused again.

She could not follow Hattie forever.

If she merely saw Kaitlyn through the screen, she would have lost her emotions and gone mad, and it would have been impossible for her to avenge her mother with such weakness.

Selena settled down and calmed down, "Take good care of her, and call me if there is anything."

The doctor was flabbergasted, but out of the kindness of a doctor's heart, he still spoke out to persuade her, "Lady Selena, at this time, Hattie needs the company of someone close to her the most, if possible, I hope you can come back to see her."

Selena lowered her eyelids, her tone light, "Hattie is a very strong and brave child, she should be fine once she wakes up."

The doctor was shocked at Selena's coldness, "But..."

"If she wakes up and doesn't get better, you call me again to let me know." Selena finished speaking and hung up the phone.

She sat on the edge of the bed, her eyes drooping for a moment, then picked up her mobile phone and dialled Osvaldo's number.

Hattie could not have gone mad for no reason after she saw seen Kaitlyn, there must be another reason for this.

It took a while for the call to be answered.

The gentle voice unique to Osvaldo came out from across the room, "Selena."

When Selena listened to his voice, her somewhat sullen mood eased as she inquired softly, "Hattie saw Kaitlyn and became ill, do you know why?"

After a hint, the sullen voice of Osvaldo came through, "Her mother's death may be related to Kaitlyn."

That was all the man said, but it was enough to shock Selena, "She's still a-"

Her words were barely out of her mouth when she stopped them again.

Perhaps it was because Kaitlyn was young, a minor, and looked soft and harmless that she did it without arousing suspicion.

And Hattie most likely knows something. How can she not lose control when she sees her mother's murderer?

Selena squeezed her fingers on her phone, and her eyes became cold and sharp.

She regreted it.

She shouldn't have taught Kaitlyn a lesson as she was just a kid.

She should have just gotten rid of her.

Osvaldo seems to have sensed her emotions, he said in a gentle voice, "Do what you want to do, do not have to worry about anyone."

Selena's eyelashes fluttered, and she softly said goodbye before hanging up the phone.

She opened Weibo, looking at the silent video on it, and didn't speak for a long time.

Leia stood carefully to one side and said softly, "Madam, we could have called Mr. Jordon and suppressed this video."

Leia thought if Hattie didn't want to see the video, then make the video disappear.

Selena tilted her head slightly, the expression on her face blurred, "No need."

Hattie has seen it, and it is too late to suppress it.

And, as Hattie wanted to avenge her mother, it was impossible for her not to see Kaitlyn. Instead of letting Kaitlyn, the scourge, use the leverage she had to threaten her and to harm her in the future, she should be ruthless now and teach her to adapt.

If she wanted revenge, she had to let go of all her fears and terrors.

Just like her.

Selena raised her hand, her fingers pressed her brow, suppressing the gloomy mood, her voice cold, "The bigger the fuss, the more people who see it, the better."

Leia was horrified and looked at Selena with wide eyes in disbelief.

Although she did not know much about power and calculation, she did know one of the most basic truths.

Although this video, for a short time, scolds Selena, once the truth is exposed, it is the Riddle family from the capital that will suffer.

Once the sound and the full video is released, everyone will know that the scandal of Riddle family from the capital, and the Riddle family's reputation may be ruined.

With this move, Selena was standing against the Riddle family from the capital, making an enemy of them.

Leia was tempted to remind Selena that it was her mother's family.

But seeing Selena's ice-cold side face and the faintly bloodshot eyes, Leia shivered, not daring to mess with Selena at this time, and slipped silently out the door to call Luke.

Selena was the only one left in the room, she found her computer and opened the website once more.

The world fell silent when the pitch black page of "HELLOWORLD" came into view.

Selena's restless and depressed nerves relaxed.

She sent a message out.

SR: Six million, create a trending topic on Weibo.

Ace of Hearts: The feeling you give me is becoming more and more familiar, especially this stingy tone of bargaining... someone I used to know, even the initials of the name are the same, but... she's already dead..

Selena stared at those last words, and her dark eyes seemed to travel through the distance of the ages to see the one she once was.

The roar of warplanes drifted back to her ears, and endless blood exploded in her front. She raised her hand, pressed her temples, and suppressed that uncomfortable depression.

In the end, she said nothing, like a cold bystander, and typed out a line as coldly as she could.

chapter 408

SR: Deal?

Ace of Hearts: ok.

...

Leia slipped out the door, found a secluded spot and crouched in the corner to call Luke.

As soon as she opened her mouth, she began accusations, "Mr. Jordon, how can you be so cold-blooded? Hattie is madam's sister, how can you sit back and do nothing? If the young madam knew that you chose to stand by and do nothing when you clearly had the chance to suppress those things in advance, she would definitely let young master beat you into a pig's head."

After all, it was her new apprentice, and compared to Luke, Leia's feelings for Hattie were more profound, so at this moment she was angry.

Selena didn't know about the matter of the Riddle family from the capital, but since Osvaldo had gone out of his way to bring Hattie out of the special school, he must have had Luke investigate the matter of Hattie, and those two men must have known more than others about the death of Hattie's mother.

In other words, it is likely that Luke knew about the video and the stimulated it would bring to Hattie, but he neither cleaned up the video nor stopped the people of Tonyan Town from showing it to Hattie.

It's understandable that Osvaldo is like that, after all, he seems to have been born with a lack of emotion and morality. But Luke actually allowed her disciple to be harmed, as a master, this is absolutely unacceptable!.

Luke, who was in a meeting, held the phone further away, all but waiting until Leia had finished venting her anger before saying, "It's better she sees it now than later."

Most importantly, it was something he couldn't manage.

Selena would run away at any time, and Hattie was the most important chess piece to keep her.

If Hattie could not even keep Selena, it is estimated that all the rest of them combined would have no chance.

Luke lowered his eyelids, and a chill swept over his spine.

Therefore, the deeper Selena's grudge and bond with Riddle's family, the more she could not let go of Hattie, the better it would be for Osvaldo.

Leia couldn't think about it that much, but she knew that Luke was right.

But after all, it was her own apprentice, and as she watched Hattie fall ill, she was angry, but after venting her anger to Luke, it was now the turn of the culprit who had made her apprentice angry to be unlucky.

Leia's eyes were murderous, "Mr. Jordon, can I go and kill that scourge?"

At such a young age, she is so vicious, and when she grows up, she will definitely be just like her mother, and there is no telling how many people she will harm.

Luke's tone was slightly cold, "Don't be ridiculous."

There is an unwritten rule in the killer community that no one should lay a hand on children or pregnant women, even if they know there will be consequences if they stay, but most people still abide by it as long as it is not a blood feud.

Once the rules are broken, peer rejection is insignificant, but may lead to the pursuit of the enforcers.

Kaitlyn is not yet that qualified and worthy of a Leia breaking the rules.

Leia huffed and puffed and couldn't swallow the anger.

Luke reassured her, "Your boss will give her a hard time."

When Leia heard Luke's words, she remembered what Selena had just said and opened her eyes wide, worried, "Young Madam seems to mean that she's going to let that video fester, Mr. Jordon, in case it gets too big..."

Luke's gaze flickered darkly.

Sure enough.

Selena could have no affection whatsoever for the Riddle family in Creephia, and naturally there was even less affection for the Riddle family in the capital.

Not to mention the others, just the two incidents of Nevaeh's death in Creephia and Hattie's expulsion from the family were enough for Selena not to have any good feelings towards the people of that family. It's just that such a lack of regard for blood ties and blatant opposition to the Riddle family is cold, but it is indeed Selena's style.

That woman is truly gentle, but can be cold and frightening.

The corners of Luke's lips curled up, "Don't worry, your boss is on her back."

Leia was so angry that she furrowed her eyebrows, "Mr. Jordon, why do I have the feeling that you are deliberately agitating to turn madam against the Riddle family from the capital?"

It should be her illusion, right?

Even if the Riddle family from the capital was bad, it was still Selena's mother's family, still such a behemoth that it could not be compared to that family in Creephia.

No matter how tough Selena is, she is still a delicate woman and is alone, offending the Riddle family in the capital will do her no good.

Luke smiled inexplicably, "Good girl, your apprentice will be fine, just keep an eye on Lady Selena." Having said that, the phone was hung up.

...

The capital.

Inside the Riddle's building.

Leon had just finished a meeting and walked out of the conference room when he saw his assistant walking up and handing him his mobile phone, "Young master, take a look at this."

Leon's eyes swept over and then faintly stared, he took the phone over and finished watching the video, staring at the scene of Selena aggressively bullying the girl, his eyes complicated.

The assistant spoke up, "I've asked someone to investigate this girl's identity, she looks so much like Hattie, it's likely..."

"No need," Leon handed the phone back to the assistant, the corners of his mouth hooked up, "I know who she is."

Surprised, the assistant observed his expression, paused for a moment and inquired, "Should I delete this video?"

Whether this girl is related to the Riddle family in the capital or not, once it comes out, she has offended the Riddle family, and that new lady of the Riddle family is tough nut.

Leon's clear eyes were filled with an elusive light, "No."

He took a few steps forward, then seemed to remember something and turned his face sideways again, instructing, "If second uncle or grandparents look for me in the next two days, just tell them I'm out of the country for something."

The assistant was even more surprised, but had not pressed the issue but nodded.

...

Selena is not a celebrity, but the traffic she brings with her is unmatched by many celebrities in the entertainment industry.

She is neither an internet celebrity nor a celebrity, and doesn't even have a Weibo account, yet she caused such a sensation on Weibo frequently.

The rumors about her on the internet are extremely polarizing – those who like her are absolutely infatuated, while those who don't will dig up any bit of negative information to disparage her. Under the efforts of her detractors, the video quickly gained popularity and became more widely viewed..

If it were anyone else, if they saw this video, they would have cursed it.

However, this group of netizens, perhaps having experienced multiple provocation and backlash from Selena, were psychologically traumatized and didn't immediately jump to conclusions upon seeing this video, unlike before..

chapter 409

[Wow. Lady Selena really has a beautiful face, even when she's lecturing people with a stern face, she looks so good.]

[You've got the wrong focus, right? Isn't the focus on the girl that Lady Selena taught a lesson to? What exactly did she do to make Selena take a shot at teaching her a lesson?]

[Don't rush to take sides before the truth is known, I made a mistake a few days ago.]

[Have you guys noticed that Lady Selena is getting better and better looking? See her face and her temperament, so attractive.]

[What's wrong with you? How can you justify bullying a child? She is a minor girl, what can she do to upset her? Selena, this bitch, is really good at brainwashing.]

[No matter what the reason is, bullying a child in a public place is a shocking news. From this, we can see how powerful Selena's brainwashing skills really are.]

[It's the first time I've seen someone being complimented by so many people for looking good after she bullied a child. Are you out of your mind? It's like you've been brainwashed by a cult.]

[I do not know about Selena's previous affairs, no comment, but it is a fact that she bullied a girl, the girl cried so pitifully. Some conscience people can not do such a thing, I will never like Selena.]

[You're stupid. Lady Selena didn't scold or hit that girl, so who says that the younger one who can cry must be the victim? If Lady Selena had really bullied her, wouldn't the people standing on the side have stopped it? Do she need to wait for you smearers to do justice?]

[Not even dare to put out the sound, it is deliberately smearing. Just because Lady Selena built the orphanage, we can know that she is kind-hearted, very fond of children, she certainly will not target a girl. Before the fact comes out, smearers, shut up.]

In no time at all, sensible fans and smearers were arguing over it, making this video wildly known.

...

Selena didn't bother to pay attention to the news on the internet, after she had placed her order, she laid down and continued her nap.

But whether she was asleep or not is anyone's guess.

An hour later, Selena sat up from the bed, walked to the balcony and sat down, looking at the sea in the distance, and after a while, she spoke out, "Leia."

Leia bounced over to her, "Madam, what's wrong?"

Selena whispered something in her ear.

Leia nodded and turned to go out.

After Leia left, Selena took out her mobile phone and called the doctor's number.

She sat on a wicker chair with barefoot, her eyes falling on the endless sea ahead of her, her gaze clear and calm.

It took a while before the phone was picked up and the doctor's voice came through, "Lady Selena."

Selena pressed her brow and inquired, "Is Hattie awake?"

The doctor said, "Not yet, according to the sedative dosage, Hattie will probably not wake up until tomorrow morning."

Selena's gaze flickered, "Call me when Hattie wakes up."

The doctor sighed in relief, "Okay, Lady Selena."

He was originally worried that Selena's attitude towards Hattie was too indifferent and would make Hattie suffer, but now it seemed that Selena was not unworried, so he was relieved.

After thinking about it, the doctor added, "Lady Selena, Hattie's mental illness is very special, Mr. Jordon and the others have already found out the things in the juvenile reformatory. Hattie did receive some corporal punishment and abuse in there, but we found out during the treatment that those things are not the main reason why Hattie is suffering from mental illness."

"The reason for the truth has not been found out until now, and every time we ask Hattie, she is very resistant, even if we use hypnosis, it went vain."

"If we can't find the cause of the disease, we can't implement the treatment, if this goes on, it won't do any good to Hattie's condition. Please enlighten her, in addition, if we want to cure Hattie completely, we have to dig out the cause of the disease, in this regard, Lady Selena, please help."

Selena is the person Hattie currently trusts and relies on the most.

Coupled with Selena's methods, Selena could definitely get the answers.

Selena's dark eyes turned icy cold and she hung up the phone.

Hattie's mental illness is related to her mother's death. Only when people fear something will they develop a fearful escape.

To cure Hattie, the real cause of Mrs. Riddle's death must be found out.

And it was certainly cruel to make a thirteen-year-old girl look back on experiencing the death of her mother one more time.

Selena squeezed her fingers tightly and lowered her long eyelashes, hiding the blood in her eyes.

A few floors away, Mandy and the others saw that video on the internet.

A group of people gathered in Hazel's room, all with somewhat uncomfortable expressions and frowns, as if they had encountered some difficult problem.

Bethany said disgruntledly, "It's only her first day here and she's already got herself on Weibo hotspots, that's too much to get into trouble."

If it was in Creephia, it would be fine, after all, Creephia is Luke's territory, and the Riddle family itself is powerful, so if Selena got into trouble, she would be able to cover it.

But now they've only just arrived in M City, not even a day ago, and it's indeed annoying that Selena has gotten herself into the Weibo hot seat.

After all, the five of them came to participate in the perfume competition, representing the image of the Olympus Group, so that Selena incurred a tarnished reputation is not good for them.

Mandy lowered her eyes and scrolled through the comments under the video, her face expressionless. Hazel looked at Mandy, "Mandy, what do you think we should do? The day after tomorrow is the International Scents Competition, but Selena has caused such a scandal at this time, will this affect our qualification?"

Mandy put her phone away and said faintly, "No."

The other three were relieved. Seeing that Mandy was walking outside, Ayah asked curiously, "Mandy, where are you going?"

Mandy stopped and looked back at them, "I'm going up to see Lady Selena, do you want to come with me?"

The other three all looked at Mandy with incredulous eyes.

"We don't know her well, what are we doing up there to see her?"

Mandy said in a light voice, "Lady Selena is a member of Olympus Group, if something happens to her and we don't show concern, I'm afraid it will make Mr. Jordon unhappy."

The others remembered that Luke had openly let it be known that Selena was an important of Olympus Group, so if she was aggrieved in M City, would they who had come with her be blamed?

chapter 410

The three of them hurriedly followed Mandy into the lift to go up to the top floor to visit Selena.

The lift door opened on the top floor and the four people stepped out, jealousy at the sight of the entire top floor with its tranquil and beautiful gardens and all the amenities.

Mandy pushed down the jealousy in her heart, found the room on her right and raised her hand to knock on the door.

A moment later, the door was opened from the inside and Leia blinked her big eyes with a lollipop in her mouth, "What's wrong?"

After all, they are from Luke's company and Leia respected them.

Mandy opened her mouth, "We saw what happened on Weibo and wanted to come and see Lady Selena, is she okay?"

Knowing Selena's nature, Leia must be impatient to deal with this and shook her head, "Lady Selena is fine, she fell asleep just now." She fished out a few different flavours of lollipops and handed them over with a smile, "Thank you for coming to see Lady Selena, please have some candy."

The four people saw the candy handed to them and, after a moment's silence, took it anyway.

Leia clearly had no intention of inviting them in, and the group didn't really want to go in, so they casually asked a few questions and lifted their feet to walk back.

After walking some distance away to make sure Leia was out of sight, Hazel was the first to throw the candy into the rubbish bin.

When the other two saw this, they both casually dropped the candy as well.

Mandy absentmindedly squeezed the stick of lollipop and walked in the direction of the lift. She approached the lift and raised her hand just to press the button, but the lift door opened from the inside.

Mandy was momentarily stunned, and her gaze subconsciously looked into the elevator. Then, she suddenly collided with a pair of bottomless black eyes, which were eerie and made her heart palpitate. Mandy's mind buzzed and her thoughts froze for a moment as she stared at the figure slowly walking out of the lift, losing all words for a moment.

In the room, Selena was looking at the sea. Leia came over and placed a delicate box in front of Selena, saying with a smile, "Lady Selena, this is from the neighbour next door."

Selena was stunned, looking at the gift being handed to her, surprise swept through her eyes, "The neighbour next door?"

Leia nodded, "Yes, a new neighbour has just come in next door and heard that a beautiful young lady lives here, so he sent over a gift."

Selena gave a smile, she knew how wary Leia was, so there must be no problem with the safety of what she could get to her.

Selena lifted the lid of the box and was instantly amazed by what was inside.

They were two small emerald-green porcelain vases, meticulously crafted and beautifully shaped, with a green body, as if the entire forest had been collected in its green colour, making it irresistible.

Selena, already fond of the colour cyan, was attracted in a flash, and at the same time understood the intention of why Leia had made an exception to accept the gift.

She thought for a moment, then said, "Well, I'll take the gift, and you can send a return gift for me."

Leia cupped her chin in her hands and asked with a smile, "What gift would you like to send back?"

Selena thought for a moment, then stood up, walked to the drawing board, picked up the red brush and began to paint on the snow-white paper.

Leia looked on with wide eyes and curiosity, at first she could not see what Selena had drawn, but when the whole outline was revealed, she was amazed.

It was a blood-dripping thornbill, spreading its wings and tilting its head proudly, a steady stream of blood dripping down its slender, graceful neck. It was in pain, yet its eyes were so resilient and reckless that it seemed to be coming to life.

The red is so rich and warm that it almost spills out.

Leia said, "Madam, this is..."

Selena put the painting into Leia's hand with a faint smile, "Send it over."

Leia held Selena's painting, full of excitement, and sent back the gift.

Dropping the pen in her hand, Selena walked to the table and picked up two small porcelain vases, looking at the vibrant green colour in them, and her mood, which had been depressed for half a day, became better.

No matter what the past holds, as long as she and Hattie are still alive, all can be expected in the future.

Selena raised her head and looked at the distant sea, squeezing two small porcelain vases, her gaze becoming confident again.

She smiled faintly, that smile was cold and arrogant.

You will see, my enemy, that one day I will return to my homeland and make you cry, make you hurt, make you bow down and admit your mistakes, make you repent and pay in blood.

...

The public opinion on the internet, after an afternoon of fermentation, had reached the capital.

It was a rare occasion to see a joke about the Riddle family, which is normally high on the pedestal, and people from all major circles flocked over in droves as the heat rose.

The young girls in Olympus Group's PR department, looking at that number one Weibo hotspot headline, shook their heads with emotion.

"It's really too bad that Selena didn't enter the entertainment industry."

"Tch, this flow really makes many stars jealous, but it all attributes to Selena's pretty face."

"Then again, should we ask Mr. Jordon to persuade Lady Selena to have a Weibo account? So much traffic, it's all money."

The young girls were in the middle of a heated discussion, and the door to the PR department was pushed open.

Luke walked over, and asked with a smile, "How did it go?"

"Hello, Mr. Jordon." A group of young girls who were gossiping and excited just a moment ago turned into good staff in seconds.

The head of the PR department's lips twitched and she came over, reporting the situation, "It's a bit perverse, the public opinion has become so big, there's no way the Riddle's didn't get the news, but as of now, they haven't taken any measures yet."

A hint of something swept across Luke's eyes as his slender body leaned against the table and raised a hand to tap his brow.

The person in charge saw his slightly sunken eyes and sighed, "Mr. Jordon, Lady Selena doesn't seem to care about the Riddle's very much, I don't think she will be sad."

The fact that public opinion is in such a state and yet the Riddle family in the capital don't care is, to the average person, clear that they don't care.

Anyway, from the picture, Kaitlyn is the victim and Selena is the abuser, as of now, it is Selena who is being scolded, all Kaitlyn gets is comfort and defence. In such a situation, the Riddle's neither presses the Weibo hotspots nor asks a question about the truth, but lets Selena be scolded, obviously not caring about this granddaughter.
