

Love Rats 41

Chapter 41

“We’ve been in love for a long time, but because you, Leah didn’t want to hurt you and she kept rejecting me.”

“Dominic, stop it.” Leah was in tears, trembling as she grabbed his hand.

“We’ve sacrificed enough for her!”

Dominic stared at Selena, his eyes clouded with a layer of hatred, “Even for you, she forced me to give her up to marry you, if you hadn’t done something shameless like that on your wedding night, I would have married you a long time ago!” “Selena, I’m telling you, I will never marry you, the person I love is Leah. You are a vicious and dirty woman, I’m sick of you!” Selena’s gaze was slightly hostile, the smile on her lips remained unchanged, looking at Leah’s pale and soft face, her expression was cold and strong, “Dominic, you said that you and Leah are innocent?”

When Dominic met Selena’s dark eyes, his heart palpitated slightly, and there was a few seconds of hesitation and guilt, but looking at Leah, who was trembling in Molly’s arms, it disappeared in an instant.

If Selena hadn’t been aggressive and ruined Leah, how could things have come to this point?

She has only herself to blame!

The shame in Dominic’s heart was completely dissipated by Leah’s tears and Selena’s eyes that did not show any warmth.

He forced himself to look straight into Selena’s icy eyes and said in a cold voice, “Leah and I were innocent, if not, why would I have agreed to marry you before?!”

Only the three of them knew the truth of that incident, and as long as he bit the bullet that it was Selena who had slandered Leah, it would only be Selena herself who would end up humiliating herself.

Dominic’s words were so justified that he didn’t even notice Leah’s white face, which was full of disbelief, but a trace of panic.

Fucking bitch, how dare she really say it?

The crowd in the hall was overwhelmed by the ups and downs, but on closer examination, what Dominic said was with merit.

After all, he had already agreed to marry Selena, and if the “promiscuous” incident had not broken out, Selena would have been his wife by now.

Angie said loudly, “My brother and Leah like each other, but they are not together, nor have they done anything wrong to Selena, on the contrary, Selena always bully Leah by virtue of her status as my brother’s fiancée. If she hadn’t gone too far, how would I have pushed her as soon as we met? It’s all Selena’s fault!”

The crowd looked at each other and said anything at once.

“It’s not true. Leah and Dominic, apart from sending gifts to each other, don’t seem to have done anything too out of the ordinary. On the contrary, Selena, her ‘promiscuity’ has been in the newspapers.”

“Leah is talented and Selena is a notorious fool, in terms of character, it is obvious that Leah is more trustworthy.” “Dominic won’t slander Selena with his words, on the contrary, Selena has a bunch of negative news, she must be lying!” “Unless the “promiscuity” never happened, Selena will always be a woman of bad moral character.”

Luke was clearly here to back up Selena today, and with Angie as a precedent, no one dared to scold her too harshly. But Luke could deter their mouths, but not their eyes, and the cynical gazes fell on Selena, wanting to poke holes in her slender body.

From the moment Selena walked into the hall, she alone stole the halo from all the ladies, and the vast majority of men were looking at her with amazed eyes.

She had made such a mess of Leah and Angie, yet she herself was still standing intact.

Chapter 42

Reserved and dainty, arrogant and pretty, this aura of calmness and control over the whole scene, more than anything else, made the many arrogant girls gnash their teeth in jealousy.

Selena didn’t seem to notice the eyes wrapped in malice, she looked at Dominic, her eyes shifted and fell on Leah, coldly smiled, “Leah, you want to say that you and Dominic never had sex?”

Leah was being supported by Molly, her head hanging down, her hair scattered down to cover her face, revealing her lips and chin, devoid of the slightest hint of blood.

When she heard Selena’s voice, she slowly lifted her head and stared straight at her without speaking.

Dominic thought she was feeling guilty and could not bear to contradict Selena, taking her hand and saying in a warm voice.

“Leah, we’ve sacrificed enough for her, even if you owe her, you’ve paid her back enough after all these years, it’s her who is getting ahead of herself and has to ruin us, and now, you still want to protect her?”

Selena raised her eyebrows and smiled, cocking her head, her gaze carrying deep meaning as she looked at the woman with a soft face and a malicious heart.

Leah’s eyes hid a resentment and grimness that only she could see, and if the sight was tactile, Selena would have been eaten alive by her by now.

Everyone was staring at Leah, Dominic and Selena were making different statement, as the person in question, what will Leah say?

For a moment, the lively hall was so quiet that a pin drop could be heard.

Leah twitched her lips, smiled sadly and made a move that no one had expected.

She turned to Selena and knelt heavily.

“Leah!”

“Daughter!”

Molly was stunned and scrambled to help Leah.

Dominic’s gaze was gloomy, looking at the scene in front of him with love and hate. He had already decided to defend Leah against his conscience, why couldn’t she still be cruel to Selena?

The woman, obviously, had left her no way out!

Without a trace of blood on her lips, Leah’s face was white as she turned to Selena, “Selena, it’s me and Dominic who have wronged you, all the faults are mine alone, please don’t blame Dominic.”

Seeing Leah’s sudden move, the whole room was in an uproar.

“What’s going on here?”

“Leah means that things are true? She really had sex with Dominic in front of Selena a long time ago.”

“Dominic denied it so righteously, I almost believed it, I didn’t think it was actually true, sister and fiancée, so disgusting!” “Dominic is too bad, Selena just wanted to seek justice for herself, he actually slandered Selena for the sake of Leah and his own reputation, saying that she made up a story. What a selfish man!”

“Dominic’s character is bad, he betrayed Selena first, by didn’t admit his mistake, but actually slandered his fiancée. How can the Walson family have such a young master with corrupt morals?”

Dominic’s mind was buzzing, all his ears were filled with the accusations and angry curses of the people around him. If the rebuttal was from Selena, he could still argue, but Leah admitted it herself.

Chapter 43

Selena looked at Leah’s move to kneel in public and frowned, a faint haze tinting her eyes.

Leah was really ruthless!

The lesser of two evils, in this way, even if she took out what was on Selena’s phone, it would not be enough to shake her position in Dominic’s heart.

Leah was even able to use her “viciousness” as a stepping stone to make Dominic dislike her even more and feel more and more like she was the victim.

But with such an admission, her reputation and Dominic’s would, in any case, be ruined.

Leah is the same generation as Selena, according to the blood relationship, she is Selena’s sister, Leah’s kneeling probably may not be accepted to others.

But Selena stood still, not dodging or evading, and accepted Leah’s knee with a straight face, not looking the least bit uncomfortable.

For a while the atmosphere fell into dead silence.

Many people looked at Leah with a completely changed look.

It's only been a few days since Selena cheated.

And Leah had sex with Dominic years earlier.

It turns out, she is not as innocent and harmless as she presents herself!

Although Selena strictly was not a good person, but who of true integrity and kindness would do such a thing as stealing her sister's fiancé?

"So there really has been nastiness between Dominic and Leah for a long time!"

"Leah first killed Selena's mother and then stole her sister's fiancé, Selena hates her, she is entirely to blame and deserves it!"

"I now believe that Leah is definitely not a good person, seducing her sister's fiancé, inhumane!"

Leah knelt on the ground, feeling disgusted and contemptuous eyes falling on her, inwardly gritting her teeth.

Selena's transformation was so unexpected and so complete that even she didn't expect that she really didn't care about Dominic at all anymore.

How is this possible?

Leah couldn't have imagined Selena's weirdness today, she was unprepared and was destined to fall.

Leah shook her head, teary-eyed, her shoulders jerking as she cried, her face full of guilt, "But Selena, please believe, it was really just an accident. It was someone who drugged me and Dominic's wine, after that I always regretted it, I kept pushing Dominic and begging him to accept you."

Dominic stiffened his face, looking at Leah's heartbroken, crying appearance, he could no longer bear it, raising his hand and embracing Leah into his arms, his gaze shadowy as he looked at Selena.

"Yes, it was me and Leah who wronged you for what happened at the beginning, but we explained to you countless times that we were being set up. Leah felt sorry for you and gave in to everything, even seeking death at one point, she spent a year putting up with everything just to get your understanding. What more do you want from her?"

"You only see the harm you've suffered, but you don't see a single bit of Leah's pain, Selena, you're selfish to the point of being disgusting!"

Selena's gaze was extremely cold, looking at Leah who was hiding in Dominic's arms crying.

Leah flaunted that incident every day to zap Selena's heart. During that time, it was a nightmare for that girl, who opened and closed her eyes to see her fiancé lying in the same bed with her sister when she pushed open the door.

Leah haunted her like a ghost, reminding her all the time how her mother stole her father in the first place, and how she stole Dominic.

Chapter 44

Selena was tortured so badly, and Dominic still accused her of being selfish, saying that it was her fault that she didn't forgive Leah?

A dark hostility emerged in Selena's eyes, and her face was cold as ice.

"Oh? It was an accident that you had sex, so it was an accident that she sent me pictures of you having sex, bragging that she had finally managed to steal my fiancé?"

Selena's words were like a thunderclap, shocking the group once again.

Leah hung her head, her delicate face that nearly distorted.

She cowered in Dominic's arms, her heart filled with hate and anger.

If she hadn't had such a damning handle in Selena's hands, how would she have willingly knelt down for Selena in public and confessed to that incident?

It just didn't occur to her that even though she had shown her weakness to this extent, Selena still chose to drive her to the end, not showing her any mercy at all.

Leah sent Selena bed photos of her sleeping with Dominic.

Not to mention the others, even Dominic was frozen, he subconsciously looked down at Leah in his arms, his eyes full of disbelief.

Under the gaze of everyone, Leah shook her head in a panic, her eyes filled with tears, "No, I didn't."

Selena sneered, "If you haven't send me the photos, how would I ran into that scene you are having sex? You rely on the past 1 like Dominic, can not bear to let him lose his reputation, you recklessly show off your cheating process, as for the fact you chased me to beg for my forgiveness, and even once sought death."

She paused, her tone full of sneer and mockery.

"Every time you came for an apology, it causes Dominic to get even more fed up and distant from me. Before you committed suicide and slit your wrists, you had to send Dominic a text message so that he would come to your rescue, to see your bleeding appearance, you even made Dominic almost hit me. Leah, how can your character be corrupted to this extent?"

As Selena revealed more of her inner workings, everyone's gaze at Leah was tinged with a strong and bitter disgust.

If what Selena said is true and all of this was calculated by Leah, Leah is vicious!

Leah grabbed Dominic's sleeve and shook her head in panic, crying sadly, "It's not like that. Dominic, believe me, I didn't."

Dominic's expression was wrongly flabbergasted and his mind went blank as he looked at Leah's teary face, and for the first time he was at a loss for words.

Naturally, he did not want to believe that Leah had done such a thing, except that Leah did send him a text message before she committed suicide.

She said Selena would not forgive her even if she died, she was too guilty and in too much pain, living was a sin, and she hoped he would not be looking for her.

He was very fortunate at the time that he rushed there in time and Leah was rescued in time and stayed in hospital for several days.

He was so angry that he blamed all the guilt on Selena, blaming her for being too cruel. No matter how Selena cried and explained, after seeing how much blood Leah had shed, he didn't believe Selena and even almost hit Selena with his hands.

That incident was the beginning of his complete dislike for Selena, and after that, his affection and guilt towards Selena completely dissipated.

Before that time, even if he had sensed his heart for Leah, he still thought of treating Selena as a sister with love and affection, but after that incident, everything had changed.

He felt bored with Selena.

Chapter 45

There were too many transformations that started with that one event.

This includes many things that have happened since, all more or less related to that incident.

He feels that he has ruined Leah's innocence and she is dead set against hurting Selena and becoming his girlfriend. He feels more and more guilty about her and is bent on making it up to her, treating her better and better, and the two of them are getting closer and closer.

On the contrary, he becomes more and more ruthless and indifferent to Selena, plus she keeps stubbornly refusing to admit her mistakes and acts more and more badly. His patience worn out, till their wedding.

Now Selena is saying that it was all calculated by Leah.

The shock he endured was so great that his expression was more than bewildered, and he did not, as usual, sided with Leah and reprimanded Selena for her credulity.

Leah's heart clenched and her expression was more than panicked as she kept crying and explaining, "I didn't, It's not like that."

But Selena had a record of the message and it happened so suddenly that even if she had a hundred mouths, she couldn't explain why she had sent that bed photo to Selena at this time.

She was very afraid that Selena would expose that bed photo in public and then it would be really hard to recover. How could Selena not see what she was thinking?

She tilted her head and smiled slightly, "Leah, you didn't? Do you need me to publish in the newspaper the bed photos of you and Dominic, so that everyone can see it? You may become a hit in the internet."

Dominic's face contorted, if Selena had really exposed that photo, he could almost imagine what scene he and Leah were about to face.

He looked at Leah, hoping strongly that she would deny that she had not done this, so that they would not have to fear being threatened by Selena.

Leah's face was twisted, but she no longer dared to defend herself, but just crouched on the ground and wept.

Dominic looked at her soft and crying appearance, his mind was as hard as pins and needles, Leah did not deny it, that means this matter is true.

She really sent Selena bed photos of the two, that's why it led to the image of Selena catching the the scene.

Dominic didn't know what expression he should make at this moment.

Even Dominic could see the fact that Leah had no way to deny it, how could the others not see it?

In an instant, everyone felt stunned and looked at the Dominic and Leah in the middle of the hall with an expression of unspoken disgust.

"It's true! I can't believe it's true, scumbag and bitch, shame on them."

"Leah is too vicious. She stole Selena's fiance, had sex with him, and sent Selena photos of her having sex with Dominic, it is gross."

"Leah is vicious, Dominic is no better, maybe it's not just the bed photos, the things Selena said later are true, this is a pair of shameless scumbag and bitch!"

After this incident, it was her fault that Selena had messed around with men that cause to the wedding cancellation, but Dominic and Leah were no longer so innocent.

Before they were a match, but if they were to get together, they would be the typical scum and bitch.

Chapter 46

The corners of Selena's lips curled up into a smile, her fingers brushed through her hair, finally barely suppressing the hostility that wanted to kill Dominic outright.

If she had a man like Dominic under her hands, who was so indiscriminate between right and wrong, she would definitely be the first to shoot him without the need for the enemy to make a move.

Luke asked Selena with a smile, "Selena, do you need my help to publish the newspaper? Don't worry, even though the Walson family and the Riddle family are powerful and influential, they are not qualified to spill their guts in Olympus Group. I guarantee to give you headline news, all over the country and abroad.”

Dominic and Leah’s faces completely distorted in a flash.

Even the rest of the Walson family couldn’t sit still.

After all, once Dominic and Leah’s scandal was exposed, not only the two of them would lose reputation, but the entire Walson family and the Riddle family.

Molly was so flustered that she forgot about the lesson given by Selena and screamed in anger, “Selena, how dare you! Leah is your sister-”

There was no need for Selena to say more, some straightforward youngsters had already sneered and intervened.

“When Leah slept with Selena’s fiancé and sent bed photos to her, why didn’t she think that Selena was her sister? And Molly, are you qualified to meddle in Selena’s affairs?”

Molly’s heart clogged and she could no longer speak.

Leah is different from other aristocratic daughters, she is not only the first lady of the Riddle family, she is a shareholder of Riddle’s and a famous perfumer at home and abroad. Once this bed photo is released, it will affect not only her reputation but her future.

Mrs. Walson held back her anger and gave Dominic a fierce glare, stepping forward with a dignified gesture and assuming the stance of a hostess.

“Selena, we all know, it’s Dominic and Leah who have wronged you, if this is your revenge, then they both deserve it, but this is the Walson family, and Cyril has watched you grow up, for his sake and put this matter aside, okay?”

Selena looked at Dominic and Leah, blinking her eyes, “Mrs. Walson, did you forget one thing?”

Mrs. Walson turned back and looked coldly at Leah and Dominic, saying with hatred, “You two, get over here and apologize to Selena.”

If Dominic had bowed down and apologised to Selena earlier, he and Selena would have been able to salvage the situation, but it turned out that Dominic had to apologise, but he got nothing.

Mrs. Walson’s heart ached with anger at the thought of it.

Dominic stiffened his face and looked up at Selena. Selena had ever bowed to him, this was the first time that he needed to look up to her.

Selena looked at him with an icy gaze, as if he was just a stranger who had offended her. Dominic looked at the girl across from him, as if he was meeting Selena for the first time.

If Selena had been so dazzlingly beautiful before, would he still have chosen Leah?

From his few memories, he vaguely remembers that Selena was once well-behaved, lovely, lively and beautiful.

He doesn't know when those wonderful images became more and more blurred, and she became more and more tiresome to him, until now, when he looked at her again, she had turned into such a cold and noble form for him.

Dominic's heart was inexplicably clogged, and he was unwilling to apologize to Selena.

Chapter 47

But Leah sent Selena their bed photos, which led to Selena seeing with her own eyes the image of them betraying her at that time. No matter what the reason behind this matter is, they have wronged Selena after all.

Dominic stared at the bright-eyed woman in front of him, gritted his teeth and said, word for word, "I'm sorry, Selena."

Selena touched her heart in a soothing gesture.

For so many years, Dominic had done countless things wrong, he would always put the blame on Selena, always helping Leah rebuke Selena for being vicious and selfish, this was the first time that this man willingly, solemnly apologized to Selena.

But this is just the beginning, the mistakes that Dominic has made, she will make him pay back to Selena one by one.

Selena glanced at him icily, and then her eyes fell on Leah.

The resentment in Leah's eyes was almost overflowing, compared to Dominic, who at least had some sincerity in his heart, and it was the first time she had fallen so hard at the hands of Selena in all these years.

She looked at Selena, as if she wanted to carve her haughty and icy appearance into her heart and pay her back twice as much in the future.

But the voice she spoke in was as soft as ever, and anyone could hear the deep repentance and sincerity in her tone, "I'm sorry, Selena, please forgive me."

Selena smiled, her dark eyes cold and icy, "Of course I will forgive you."

Selena was a kind-hearted girl who did not deserve to die with hatred.

But she was different.

She was cynical, vicious and had the blood of her enemies on her hands as well as her own.

"All these years, all the things you and your mother have done, I will not forget a single one of them."

All that hurt, bullying, hate, cold violence.

"What I am asking for is really quite simple."

Selena, whose mother was killed, didn't even think of revenge against them, she just wanted to be with Dominic.

But you vicious wolves and tigers have not only taken away the only warmth that belonged to her, you have even taken away her life.

"Leah, we have a long day ahead of us."

What was revealed today was just the tip of the iceberg of so many years of dark life. How could the sins they had done to Selena be repaid so easily?

Leah examined her with a strange gaze, "Selena, you seem to be different."

Selena put on a smile, "It's strange that someone who has died once hasn't changed, isn't it?"

Leah lowered her eyelashes, and stopped talking.

Mrs. Walson looked better as the two had apologized to Selena, and narrowed her eyes as she looked at Selena, "Selena, that photo-

"Don't worry, Mrs. Walson." Selena cut off her words, her eyes lowered as she looked at her nails, her delicate expression cold, "After all, my surname is Riddle, Cyril watched me grow up, the actions of the two of them should not bring shame to the elders together. As long as Dominic and Leah don't come to mess with me again, that photo will not have the chance to come to light."

In other words, if these two people were to bully her and insult her as they did before, she would be blamed for not respecting the Walson family.

Mrs. Walson coldly glanced at Dominic and Leah, with a warning in her eyes, and said faintly to Selena, "Don't worry, Dominic is not someone who doesn't know what's important."

Chapter 48

This was the end of the matter for the time being, but Angie could not see Selena well.

She was used to bullying Selena in the past, now Selena was pretty, pressuring Dominic and Leah to apologize to her, besides there was even Luke personally protect her, the cynicism in her heart surged upwards.

She said angrily, "Mom, even if brother and Leah have wronged her, but it's a fact that Selena has been "promiscuous", she has discredited the Walson family and brother so much, what qualifications does she have to appear in the Walson family and to be brother's fiancée?"

The crowd was startled by Angie's slightly shrill voice, which brought them back from Leah and Dominic's cheating incident.

Indeed.

It was wrong for Dominic and Leah to betray Selena, but Selena's "promiscuity" was the main reason why Dominic repudiated his marriage to her.

Dominic said that he and Leah were drugged and schemed at the time, but Selena was "promiscuous", so it's not like she was schemed, right?

What happened today can at best only mean that Dominic and Leah are not innocent, and Selena is still the same down-on-her-luck daughter who was thrown out of her family.

Selena certainly did not expect to redeem her wretched reputation with just such an incident.

She ignored the looks of contempt or jealousy or disgust, her cold eyes fixed on the Walson family, arrogantly saying, "Miss Walson is right, your brother had an affair with Leah, betrayed me, humiliated me and slandered me, I don't want to be such a scumbag."

"The most important thing is-

Without waiting for the crowd to react, Selena's gaze fell on Dominic, she was smiling but her gaze was extremely cold, "I came here today to break the engagement."

Everyone's expressions were more than surprised.

Dominic abruptly raised his head and stared deadly at Selena, his eyes were not only shocked and unbelievable, but had a few bewildered complications.

Even Leah was shocked and lifted her head.

Selena actually took the initiative to break the engagement with Dominic.

This fact is far more shocking than Leah's sending bed photos to Selena. The fact that Selena likes the young master of the Walson family is something that is almost common knowledge in the noble circles of Creephia.

In order to get the attention of the young master of the Walson family, Selena was willing to do anything and suffer any grievances, for which she had made many jokes and had endured much gossip.

But just such a girl, whose love was known to all, now stood there, said she wanted to break the engagement.

At this moment, even those ladies who were jealous of Selena held back from speaking out to ridicule her.

A person chased another person for more than a decade, for his words, she can endure the winter temperature of dozens of degrees below zero to fish for necklace, for his a smile, she can run all over the city just to find what he wants. Who would be willing to let go of such a deep-rooted love, if not for the fact that she had been heart broken to the core? Dominic's mind went blank, and the expression on his face at this moment could not be described in words.

He was hoping to break off his engagement with Selena, and had even once forced Selena to break the engagement herself.

But the moment he heard these words come out of Selena's mouth, he was not the least bit happy, instead a cold feeling of panic spread in his heart.

Chapter 49

"Selena, do you know what you are talking about?"

Selena smiled faintly, every hair strand on her entire body was permeated with arrogance and pettiness, and said word by word, "Dominic, since you have a bad ear, I don't mind repeating it one more time, I came to the Walson family to break the engagement with you."

Dominic's hands were clenched in fists as he stared at Selena with a deadly gaze. Selena had taken the initiative to say what he had always wanted to do, he should be happy.

But at this moment, his heart could not really feel any joy, there was only an inexplicable panic and despair.

He glared viciously at Selena, but his eyes were unprecedentedly blank, and even mixed with bit of reluctance that he himself did not even notice.

Selena's eyes were cold, and her beautiful face showed her determination.

She could understand what Dominic was thinking.

For everyone, the first love is always different.

No matter how Leah plays tricks, it does not change one fact.

Selena knew Dominic before she did.

Before Leah appeared, they had been good childhood friends, and Dominic had cared for the young Selena like an older brother.

This is probably the reason why Selena is so devoted to Dominic.

Even if Leah spent more than ten years later to make Dominic distant and dislike Selena, it would not change the fact that Selena entered Dominic's heart before she did.

Moreover, men are inferior, especially for a macho scum like Dominic, who can dump Selena, but once Selena dumps him, it will inevitably cause him a psychological backlash.

As expected, Dominic did not remain bewildered for long, he suppressed the frustration that inexplicably sprang up in his heart, his face was more than annoyed. He gave a glance at Luke, sneered and said through clenched teeth, "Having another man, you are eager to break the engagement!"

Selena smiled, arguing with a man like Dominic about right and wrong was a bit of a waste of time.

On the contrary, Luke smiled, "What Dominic said is true, in the future when Selena gets married, I will definitely send a wedding invitation to you, thank you for not marrying her."

Many people did not hold back their laughter after hearing this.

Dominic's face turned somber as he glared at Selena.

Selena glanced at him, and then her eyes fell on Leah's face, and suddenly let out a snort, "Leah, see? The man you've gone to so much trouble to get doesn't love you. You are really a joke!"

Leah's slender body trembled heavily, her head hanging down so that no one could see her expression, only her tense jaw, the corner of her lips bitten to a bloody point.

For Leah, there are probably no more damaging words than these.

She and Selena both grew up with Dominic. If Selena had grown up with Dominic because she liked him, she would have used her heart to get to know that man, but Leah was calculating to get close to Dominic with all her heart.

Having known each other for more than ten years, and having been deliberately calculating and careful in every way, she knows Dominic better than anyone else in this world.

Chapter 50

How could he not see the reluctance of Dominic's heart for Selena at this moment?

Never before had Leah seen as clearly as she did at this moment, that deep down, Dominic liked Selena.

Even if because of her pervasive calculations, so that he is increasingly distant and bored Selena, hurt Selena, saying that he loves Leah, in favor to Leah.

But none of this can change the fact that Selena is the one in Dominic's heart.

She hadn't really won over Selena in more than ten years of carefully planned calculations.

Indeed she was a joke.

This fact, for a woman like Leah, who thinks highly of herself and has always felt that Dominic loves her and that she has long since trampled Selena under her feet, is tantamount to a kind of mental crucifixion.

What's more, this stinging truth was seen through by Selena, whose icy, smiling expression was clearly written with mockery and ridicule.

Never had Leah felt that she was so groundless in front of Selena.

Even in her early childhood, the moment she was taken back to the Riddle family and met Selena, she felt justified.

But today, at the slightest hint of Dominic's unconscious exposure of his heart, Leah was crushed of all her self-congratulation and pride.

She, Leah, had finally lost to Selena!

The mute riddle between the two Riddle ladies was naturally not understood by onlookers, but it did not stop everyone from seeing that Selena was showing off to Leah.

Leah's face, after Selena had said those words, went sullen, faintly revealing despair and desolation.

Angie could not see that Selena was so proud of herself. She was so jealous that she almost wanted to scream. She frantically tugged at Dominic's sleeve and said loudly, "Brother, look! She is bullying Leah, you have to help Leah to get her justice. Selena is a selfish and vicious woman, you should agree to break the engagement!"

Dominic was disturbed by her shouting, and when he heard the last sentence, his face turned pale as he exhaled, "Shut up!" Angie was stopped in public, tears welling up in her eyes, looking at Dominic incredulously, as if she didn't want to believe that Dominic would be mean to her for Selena.

He would not do such a thing before!

In the past, whenever she complained to Dominic, it was always Selena who got scolded, but this was the first time that Dominic was fierce to her for the sake of Selena.

Moreover, Selena was willing to break the engagement with him, her brother should have happily agreed and told Selena to get lost, but why did he still hesitate?

Angie was so aggrieved that her tears kept falling and she flung herself into Mrs. Walson's arms, "Mom, brother-"

Mrs. Walson gave her a cold look, "Shut up!"

Dominic's relationship with Selena has reached this point, and Angie is to blame. Her daughter has developed a brutal and capricious nature because they could not spare the harshness, and because she was jealous of Selena's beauty, being provoked by Leah, she tripped up Selena a lot.

Today's Selena is not what she used to be, so Mrs. Walson absolutely cannot let Angie run wild anymore!

Angie's eyes were wide open. First she was slapped by Selena today, then she was scolded by the crowd for her lack of upbringing, then she was scolded by Dominic, and now even her mother told her to shut up.

Angie was so angry that she shouted in a shrill voice, "Mum, don't let Selena fool you, she is of bad characteristic. No one in our school likes her, everyone wants her to die-"
