

Love Slave 154

154 Late Night Love at the Office

"Someone might come back..." I protested weakly before moaning as my lust took over when he started to suck harder on my neck. It felt so good, I started to feel goosebumps on my skin as my body enjoyed his skillful technique.

"It's almost midnight, no one will disturb us, and you know it," Ace reassured me; however, I was quite certain that he didn't particularly care if someone were to walk in on our lovemaking session. That was just the way he is.

He captured my moans in his mouth as his seductive lips claimed mine. He parted my lips immediately with his exploring tongue as his hot wetness invaded my mouth. He sucked and teased my tongue as he changed the angle of our kiss. As the kiss continued, I felt my body getting weak as I started to melt in his strong arms.

I felt the cold air on my bare breasts after Ace had completely removed my top and my bra, baring my naked breasts to his hungry eyes. He savored the looks of my tits with a satisfied grin on his lips before bending his head down to lick the soft flesh around the base of my nipple in circular motions. His hot and wet tongue turned me on in ways I cannot even begin to describe.

I moaned his name as I closed my eyes and bit my lower lip, enjoying the playful caress of the tip of his tongue on my breast. His large manly hand cupped my other breast and began squeezing it, lightly at first before getting increasingly aggressive, making me moan even louder for him. I felt my love hole contract with pleasure as a pleasurable ache began building in my lower abdomen.

"Stop teasing me, Ace," I managed to pant out in between my lusty moans.

"What do you want me to do?" he asked teasingly before flicking the tip of his tongue on my swollen nipple.

"Suck it...please," I begged him shamelessly, curling my fingertips in his chocolate-brown hair.

Finally, Ace gave me what I wanted as I felt the heat of his wet mouth envelop my erect nipple. He took my nipple into his hot mouth and began sucking on it hard repeatedly. I cried out in bliss while thrusting my chest closer to his face, begging for him to suck on me harder.

"You like this, don't you?" Ace asked mockingly.

I couldn't answer him because my mind was too hazy with pleasure. He began pumping both my breasts with his hands, making me moan louder and louder. I cried out his name as the pleasure in between my legs heightened and I felt myself getting wetter and wetter.

"Spread your legs wider for me, Rina," Ace instructed as he lifted my legs up onto the table with his large hands before using them to spread my legs wide open.

Sitting on the side of his table with my legs spread wide apart, my red-laced crotch was fully showcased to him. I wasn't sure if I chose these sexy red lacy G-string because I was expecting our steamy session tonight or not, but I wore them regardless.

"You're dripping wet here already. Have you been looking forward to this all day?" Ace teased me. He sounded please with how my body was so turned on by him.

"No...I..." I began to make excuses for myself; however, I didn't have much to say in my own defense with the evidence of my desire in plain view.

I felt his thick and long fingers shifting my panties to the side to expose my naked wet slit to him. Then I felt his thick finger touching and then slowly running firmly up and down the wet opening in between my legs. It felt deliciously good, and I bit my lower lips harder as I moaned louder.

I let out a small cry of pleasure as his fingertip started rubbing the swollen and sensitive nub at the center in between my legs. I felt shots of pleasure shoot from where he was stimulating me all over my body as my body got hotter and my love hole got wetter. I wanted him inside of me so much right now.

My hips started moving on its own free will to grind against his hand as it continued to pleasure my sensitive womanly parts. Ace played with my clit but didn't slip his finger inside of my awaiting hole and it was making me feel so frustrated with unfulfilled need.

"Finger me...please...Ace," I begged in such a dirty voice that I couldn't believe was my own.

"You're so wet, I think I can put it in directly. Should we give it a try?" Ace replied before he started kissing me passionately.

His kiss was so hot as always, his tongue thrusting aggressively into my slightly parted lips as he savored my taste. Our tongue danced against each other wildly and I moaned non-stop into his mouth. I wrapped my arms around his neck before running my hands down along his back. I wish he would strip naked so that I could feel the ripped muscle underneath his shirt.

"Put it inside me...I can't wait..." I pleaded in between my labored pants and horny moans.

I heard the sound of Ace impatiently unbuckling his belt and unzipping his pants and I waited with anticipation for his large love tool to enter me and take me to my climax. I waited with bated breath as I held my legs open wide for him in invitation.

"You're so adorable when you beg, Rina..." Ace murmured with clear satisfaction.

He positioned his thick and long shaft at my wet opening. I could feel his thickness right at my entrance as I moaned sweetly. His hazel brown eyes stared deeply into mine and I could see the desire smoldering in the depths of his eyes. I wanted him so badly already that I could hardly breathe. My pussy clenched in anticipation of his entrance.

"Ahhh...Ahhh!" I moaned before I cried out loudly.
