

Love Slave 200

200 Quality Time

It felt so natural when he pulled me into his warm and secure embrace. My heart started racing wildly in my chest as he pressed my body against his and hugged me even tighter than before. My arms automatically wrapped around his broad shoulders as I hugged him back desperately. Now that I was in his arms, I was forced to acknowledge even more than before just how much I missed him and his touch.

Ace's hand moved to stroke my hair and my heart and spirit felt so comforted by him. I felt so simpleminded when his gentle touches helped to ease some of my insecurities. Perhaps it was because my mind desperately wanted to believe in him that I started to feel better. Maybe when work is less crazy, things will get better between us, and I could talk to him then if there were any issues.

"What were you so worried about?" Ace asked gently.

"I think we've both just been so busy with work that we hardly have time for each other, and I was scared that we may be drifting apart...." I confessed truthfully.

Ace slowly let go of me before he silently led me to the bed. He sat down on the side of the bed and beckoned me with his hand to join him. It seemed like Ace wanted to talk things out with me, and I couldn't have wished for a better outcome.

"Sit on my lap," Ace instructed when I made my way to sit next to him on the bed.

Without waiting for my response, Ace pulled me down onto his lap. His arms circled my waist and pulled me closer to against his hard and large frame. I could feel his body heat all along my back and a small whimpering sound escaped my lips. We were so close as he enveloped me in his embrace and his familiar scent.

"Ace..." I murmured his name lovingly.

"Work's been crazy for both of us. I think this is probably your first time working such long hours. I guess you didn't see this coming when you join Project Alpha, right?" Ace asked in a slightly teasing tone.

"I guess..." I mumbled.

I knew that it was going to be tough work working as part of the CEO's office and there were many rumors about the long hours and late nights; however, experiencing it firsthand really was something else altogether. I felt Ace nod his head behind me before he placed a soft kiss on my temple.

"This won't be the first time that our lives will be busy with work, so I suggest that we find some way to get used to it," Ace suggested.

I wondered what he really meant by that. Is he suggesting that I should get used to how things were right now?

"I think it would be better if we had more time together..." I stated my preference straight forwardly.

"I agree with you. This is probably partly my fault. I thought giving you some space for you to focus on your work might be for the best. It's your first big project and I know that you really want to do well. I can't be there to support you throughout all of it, but I could give you the freedom to work as much as you want," Ace explained softly close to my ear.

I leaned back against him as I enjoyed the warmth of his embrace. My greedy heart wanted nothing more for him to hold me like this forever and not let go. Being close to Ace was really what I needed, and I quickly realized that. Before things got crazy at work, we spent a lot of time together and I must have grown very attached to Ace without really knowing it.

"It's not your fault. I'm so sorry, I didn't know that that was what you had in mind..." I mumbled softly.

If he put it that way, then doesn't that mean that he's been trying to help and support me in his own way?

I let out a tired sigh. If Ace is fooling around with me, I wouldn't be able to catch him at this rate. His words were too sweet, and they messed around with my mind. If he's a liar, then he's a very good one.

"Stop feeling so down. Let's enjoy our time together since I did come all the way here to see you..." Ace murmured in a very seductive tone close to my ear.

His warm breath brushed against my earlobe for a moment before he began nibbling on my ear. I knew from the moment that I sat on his lap that this was bound to happen. His tongue began licking my sensitive earlobe and I let out a soft moan as my body began reacting to him. Ace sucked on my earlobe while his hands started to caress my body in just the way that I liked it. His touch turned me on immediately and I closed my eyes and moaned in bliss.

I let the pleasure of his touches invade my body and mind willingly as his hands moved from my waist up to my chest before firmly groping and cupping my breasts. His hands felt so hot as he began massaging my tits boldly through the thin satin fabric of my nightgown.

"Your nipples are already hard, Rina..." Ace coaxed teasingly into my ear.

"Ahhh..." I moaned even louder as Ace bit down on my earlobe.

A delicious shiver ran through my body as he sucked harder on my earlobe. The lewd wet sounds of his sucking filled my brain and triggered all of my dirty thoughts. His hands pumped my breasts together before applying more pressure to massage them. My body burned with desire and every single place that he touched and played with me throbbed with desire. I wanted him to touch and kiss me everywhere.

"Ahhh...Ace..." I whimpered his name weakly.

My body began writhing on his lap as I thrust my chest towards his hands boldly to invite him to pay even more loving attention to my sensitive breasts. Ace kissed my cheek softly before his fingers moved to capture the hardened peaks of my breasts.
