

Love Slave 202

202 Treating My Lover

After thrusting his fingers almost violently against my g-spot, I was on the verge of my climax. I cried out his name before biting hard on my lower lip.

"I'm cumming! Ace...please...make me cum..." I cried out and then pleaded him for my release.

"Cum, Rina..." he whispered seductively to me.

His fingers moved fast and hard in and out of my pussy hole and then his other hand moved to stroke my swollen clit. The double stimulation robbed me of all ability to think as I let the pleasure of his touch take over me completely. I came hard while I cried out his name.

That felt so good...

Ace kissed my forehead softly as I struggled to recover from the devastating aftereffects of my climax. I shifted my weight on his lap before slowly climbing off of him.

"Let me make you feel good too..." I murmured shyly as I stood in between his legs.

Ace watched me intently as my hands reached to free his cock from his pants. I wasn't surprised at how hard and big he already was. After all, this little beast has been hitting against my back for a while now while I was seated on Ace's lap. His cock felt hot in my hand as it twitched a little at my touch. Ace sucked in a breath when I ran the tips of my fingers along his outstanding length.

His cock was so hard and so thick. It turned me on so much just to see it standing up proudly in between his legs. I wanted to take this massive rod inside of my pussy, but I could take the wait. Slowly, I kneeled down on my knees in between his spread legs as Ace watched me with intense interest to see what I had in mind for our next play.

I stroked his cock up and down with one hand before I moved my other hand to cup his balls softly. The way Ace groaned as his cock swelled in my hand told me that he was enjoying my touch. I pumped my hand up and down his cock faster while applying a little more pressure. His cock twitched in my hand as his breathing quickened.

"I want to suck your cock..." I murmured seductively as I stared up into his face.

Ace's hazel brown eyes stared down into mine before he smiled mischievously.

"Suck it..." he commanded.

His hand moved to the back of my head as he urged me to take his thick cock into my mouth. I grabbed his shaft as I bent down closer to his cock. I could smell his manly smell as my face approached his cock. Without any hesitation, I started licking the tip of my tongue up and down his length. Ace tensed for a moment before he relaxed. His cock twitched a few times as I continued running my tongue along his impressive length.

"Suck it, Rina..." Ace demanded like it couldn't wait any longer.

I wrapped my hand around his shaft before positioning its engorged tip at my lips. Ace groaned when I opened my mouth and took the tip of his cock into my mouth. My tongue immediately wrapped around the swollen head of his cock and then I began sucking on it. His taste and smell filled my senses as he groaned from pleasure. I sucked harder on the tip of his cock as my hand stroked up and down its length.

"I want to fuck your mouth..." Ace requested as his hand urged my head down onto his cock.

Just as he wanted, I lowered my head and took him deeper into my mouth. Ace closed his eyes and sighed in bliss before his hands gripped my head and held me steady. Suddenly, Ace moved his hips and thrust his cock into my wet mouth. His abrupt movement stunned me at first and then I shifted my attention to focus on swirling my tongue around the head of his cock and then his length as he continued to thrust his cock in and out of my mouth.

He pushed his cock in so deep that I almost gagged on his cock. I licked the tip of his cock and tasted the virile taste of his precum. Ace fucked my mouth faster and harder just like he said that he would. I let him enjoy himself as I surrendered myself to him.

"Stop it...Rina...I'm going to cum..." Ace said as he winced.

It was clear that he was struggling to hold himself back. I didn't mind if he wanted to cum inside of my mouth; however, I could tell that Ace had other ideas in mind. Carefully, I lifted my head and let his cock slowly slide out of my mouth.

"Come here, Rina. I want to cum inside you..." Ace said desperately as he reached for me.

He pulled me closer to him and urged me to straddle him. His cock was even harder and larger than it was before I put it inside my mouth. His massive love stick stood up proudly in between his legs and my pussy quivered at the thought of taking that massive pole inside of me.

"Ace...it's so big..." I moaned as I positioned his cock at my entrance.

I could feel the heat of his massive cock against my pussy lips, and I could tell that he was extra big today.

"Put me inside you..." Ace instructed as his hands moved to cup the sides of my hips supportively.

He stared at me with eyes heavy with desire. I wanted him so much as well...

Slowly, I lowered my hips onto his upstanding cock, and it penetrated my love hole. Inch by inch, his cock sunk into me as I continued lowering my hips down onto his cock to take him inside me. His cock felt hot, and I was right about him being very big. It hurt a little as his cock stretched my opening and then my pussy walls.

"Ahhh...it's so deep...inside..." I moaned and then sighed at the satisfaction of being fill so completely by him.

"Your pussy is so tight. It's squeezing my cock..." Ace murmured.
