

Love Slave 218

218 Pleasing Him All Night Long

I had just climaxed but already my body was wanting more of him. When did I get this greedy, I had no idea. My nipples were immediately hard, and my pussy throbbed with renewed desire.

"Let's...go to the bed...please..." I managed to whisper in between our wet and ardent kisses.

"If that's what you want..." Ace replied before renewing our wet and passionate kiss.

While I felt thankful that he was willing to go along with my request, I knew that I had to get myself in order because Ace wasn't going to stop, and the night would be a very long one. I let him carry me without a fuss until we reached the bed. By that time, I had managed to calm down my breathing somewhat. Ace laid me down on the bed before getting on top of me and then he lifted both my legs up with his hands.

"Ace...wait..." I murmured.

"What for?" he asked without a care.

His hand kept on lifting my legs upwards and pushing them towards me until my hips were off the bed. My pussy clenched in anticipating of his entrance when I felt Ace positioning his hips close to my ass.

"Keep your legs pressed tightly together, Rina..." Ace commanded in a low growl that sent a shiver up my spine.

"Ahh..." I moaned softly when I felt the heat of his cock against my wet opening.

My soft moans quickly turned into loud cries when Ace thrust his cock all the way into my wet pussy hole. It felt so tight as he stretched me. Although I was already wet, the way he was pressing my thighs closed made me feel even more of him when he began moving his cock inside of me. His massive length caressed the walls of my pussy as he reared back before pumping his cock all the way into me once again.

"Ahh! Ace!" I screamed loudly before I began biting down on my forearm to hold it in.

It felt crazy wild, and I couldn't even move my hips. His cock continued beating into me as our bodies slapped against each other. Ace swung my legs over his shoulders before his hands moved under my ass to keep my hips lifted off the bed. He moved his hips closer to me before pounding his cock even deeper into my love hole.

"Ah! Ah! Ah! Ahh!" I cried out in rhythm to his cock hitting fast and hard against my womb with each of his rough thrusts.

"We're not done yet, Rina. After this, you're going to ride my cock..." Ace hissed through clenched teeth as he exerted himself in screwing his cock in and out of my flooded pussy.

"Ahh...Ace! Ahhh!" I screamed loudly as I felt my climax fast approaching.

His hot and thick cock ramming against my womb and the pleasure spot deep inside of me drove me closer and closer to the edge. My body and mind couldn't take it anymore and my entire body started to spasm and tremble uncontrollably. His thick rod continued pounding fast and hard into my sopping wet hole as I moaned and cried out his name. I closed my eyes in bliss and cried out loudly one last time before the pleasure of my mind-shattering orgasm washed over me like large waves against the sandy beach. I willingly let go of everything and all thought and surrendered myself to the pleasure that Ace gave me.

Everything faded away and I felt like I was just floating around in a vacuum. The sound of Ace's voice calling my name and then the feel of his hand slapping lightly against the side of my face brought me back down to earth.

"Mhmm..." I murmured senselessly.

"Come on, Rina. Get up and ride my cock..." Ace demanded without backing down.

Kill me already...

He pulled my arms and I found myself up in a sitting position on the bed. I knew that Ace could keep on at it until morning if he chose to. The same couldn't be said about me. If I can't make him cum inside of me by riding his cock this round, he's going to make me do something else for him. I took in a deep breath and straddled his hips as Ace sat on the bed with a wicked grin on his face.

"Good girl. Ride me till morning, Rina..." Ace said invitingly as his hands reached to cup and play with my breasts.

His hand teased my soft flesh before his fingers moved to pinch my nipples until they felt swollen and ready to burst. At the same time, his hazel eyes stared into my face as he waited impatiently for me to take his cock inside of me.

"It's still so hard..." I mumbled with a hint of complaint.

Ace just laughed softly at me while I reached my hand to grasp his hard cock. His cock felt hot against the palm of my hand. I couldn't resist stroking my hand up and down his impressive length as I felt his cock twitching slightly.

"Put me inside..." Ace murmured seductively.

I nodded and lifted my hips to position my pussy hole directly on top of his cock while gripping him with my hand to position the thick and engorged head of his cock at the slit in between my legs. Slowly, I dropped my hips down to feel the tip of his cock lodge itself between my pussy lips before it slipped a little inside of me.

"Ahh..." I moaned in satisfaction.

My pussy suddenly felt so hungry for his cock. I lowered my hips and my pussy started swallowing up his cock inch by inch. Ace's hand reached for the side of my face before his lips captured mine in a hot kiss that quickly became very possessive and wet. I parted my lips for him and soon his hot and wet tongue invaded and conquered the depth of my mouth while I moaned repeatedly into our kiss.

I lowered my hips onto his cock to take him in even deeper into me. My love tunnel was so wet and flooded that I could take him in so easily. His cock smoothly slid upwards into my hole as I sat down on him until we were skin on skin with the entire length of his massive cock buried all the way into my pussy.
