

Love Slave 234

234 Extreme Satisfaction

His hands moved to caress my waist before moving lower to caress my ass and my hips. The pleasure of his touch made me moan as desire started to pool in my lower abdomen again. I leaned over on the table and lifted my ass seductively. Ace's hand slipped between my inner thighs and began stroking my wetness, making me spread my legs even wider for him.

"Let me know if I'm being too rough..." Ace said a little sternly.

"Don't worry. I can take it..." I replied bravely.

"Really?" he asked mockingly.

"Ahh!" I screamed at the sudden piercing sensation.

Ace suddenly entered me from behind. His thick rod pounded all the way into my pussy in one aggressive thrust. I could feel him so deeply inside of me from this angle. I pushed my hips upwards and rotated it a little against him. His cock felt so hot and so thick inside of me. Ace reared his hip back while I moaned from the pleasure of his cock caressing the insides of my love hole.

"Ahh! Ahhh! Ahhhh!" I cried out louder and louder with each deep and powerful thrust.

Ace's hands gripped the sides of my hips as he pumped his cock roughly in and out of my pussy hole. The motion of his thrusts rocked my entire body against the table. The angle that his cock was ramming into me felt so good that it felt like my insides were melting from the heat of his passionate thrusting. Our bodies made loud slapping sounds that echoed mixing with the wet squelching sounds of his cock stirring up my wetness. I could feel myself getting even wetter than before and soon my juices were sliding down my legs each time he reared his hips back and withdrew his cock from my wet pussy.

"Your pussy is sucking in my cock. It feels good...Rina..." Ace groaned seductively from behind me.

I felt his body heat against my back as he leaned over me. His hips thrust his cock into me again as I moaned and cried out like an animal in heat. His cock continued to mess up my hot and wet insides. Ace's movements became even wilder than before, and his thrusts began both pleasurable and painful. It was so rough, but I decided to bite down on my lower lips to endure it. Ace's cock pounded deeper and faster into me while I cried out from the immense pleasure that flooded my love hole and my lower abdomen.

"Ace! Ahhh...Ahhh...I'm cumming!" I cried out in a broken voice before all I could do was moan and whimper.

He made me climax again and this time I didn't think that I could go on or keep up with his wild lovemaking anymore. Ace's thick love stick plunged into my hole as he continued pounding my wet cunt. I could feel that he was close to his release as well and he was moaning and groaning louder than before. I clenched and squeezed my pussy around his thick member to heighten his pleasure. It didn't take too long for Ace to still on top of me and then his hot release squirted deep inside of me and flooded my insides.

“Ahhh...” I moaned with utmost satisfaction at the sensation of his warmth flooding into my womb.

Ace came so much inside of me as my pussy gladly sucked in all of his cum. His seed filled my womb and made me feel all warm inside.

“I love you, Rina...” Ace whispered tenderly into my ear.

“I don’t know, you were pretty loud...” Ace replied casually.

I had just asked him if he thought that someone could have heard us after I suddenly recalled that we were pretty loud. Ace didn’t seem to care much about it, but it was clear that he thought that I was the one who was loud.

I blinked at him in shock before I slapped the palm of my hand against my face. I can’t believe I screamed that loudly while we were in the office. To make matters worse, it was still during working hours. I shouldn’t have let him do that to me during working hours. I should have done better at resisting him until we left for dinner together in the evening.

The sex did feel extra wild and pleasurable, though...

After the rough sex that we had, I spent a lot of time cleaning up and didn’t end up getting any work done for the rest of the day due to my inability to focus. Ace didn’t seem like he was in the mood for work either. I spent some time arranging the reservation for our evening dinner together and that was about it.

I had to admit that during our passionate sex session, I forgot all about my troubles and the doubt that I felt toward Ace and his relationship with Elizabeth. However, those feelings came flooding back right after we were done with our passionate tryst. My pussy started to ache not long after and it bothered me a little when I walked. I still looked forward to our dinner, but I didn’t look forward to the discomfort in my mind.

When am I going to be able to bring myself to ask Ace straightforwardly about Elizabeth?!

At one point, I had no idea if I was more frustrated about Ace or more frustrated about myself and my indecision and hesitation.

“Rina, should we head out for dinner now? It might be better for us to leave now to avoid some rush hour traffic,” Ace suggested.

“Yes, that’s a great idea. Let’s leave now...” I replied without hesitation.

It wasn’t like I was going to get any more work done for the day even if I had stayed longer in the office. I followed Ace to where his car was parked so that we could travel to the restaurant that I had booked. The meeting with the committee for the competition was just around the corner and with the commercial approved and sign-off by Ace, I felt like things were progressing smoothly.
