

Love Slave 267

267 Rough Passion

My pussy clenched in rhythm to his hand squeezing my breasts and soon I felt another gush of hot wetness rushing out from the slit in between my thighs. He was making me so wet for him.

"Ahh!...No..." I cried out when his fingertips captured my swollen and erect perks in between them and started toying with them.

He twirled my nipples skillfully between his fingertips while applying just enough pressure to make me go crazy from the pleasure. I called out his name as my hips bucked and he laughed softly at me. His beautiful eyes stared down at my breasts as his fingers began pinching and then tugging on my swollen nipples.

"Your nipples are so hard. They're begging for me to suck them..." he teased me in such a sexy voice that made my pussy clench at his words.

"No...Ahh!" I cried out as unbelievable pleasure flooded my body.

Ace's hot wet mouth engulfed one of my nipples. The heat and wetness of his mouth surrounded my nipple and then his tongue began lapping at it. He teased my nipple in his mouth with the tip of his tongue before sucking hard on it while I ran my fingers through his hair before clutching at it in my attempt to fight the fire of passion that was consuming me.

"Did you miss me?" he asked after letting go of my erect nipple.

"Yes..." I replied softly.

"Hmm...you're so straightforward today, I really like it..." he whispered teasingly right next to my ear.

His hands slowly stroked its way down the curves of my body until he reached my hips. His eyes studied my reaction as I panted. The heat burning inside of my core felt unbearable and I wanted him to satisfy the need burning deep inside of me.

He shifted his weight a little before inserting his hands between us and started to tug my skirt up my thighs. Ace's lips curved into a satisfied smirk when my thighs were exposed and then his hands were on my thighs and spreading them. He lifted my legs a little before spreading them even further apart before he settled his hips in between my spread thighs.

"I want to fuck you already, Rina..." Ace admitted in a voice thick with lust.

I could feel the proof of his desire against my pussy as he began grinding his erection against my opening. My hips moved immediately to grind my pussy against his hardness as I felt myself getting wetter and hotter down there. His cock was already so hard and big, and I couldn't wait to feel him inside of me.

"Fuck me, Ace..." I pleaded in a whisper.

"You're so bold today..." he said but without any hint of disapproval in his tone.

It didn't seem like Ace could wait much longer either. He quickly unbuckled his belt before zipping down his pants. I watched in amazement when he freed his gigantic cock from its restraint. His beast was already thick and long as it stood proudly in between his legs. My pussy quivered as my eyes took in the amazing size of his gigantic cock.

"Spread your legs wider for me, Rina," he instructed as he guided his thick cock to my sopping wet entrance.

I felt him pulling the thin fabric covering my hole to the side and then the heat of his cock lodged itself in between my pussy lips. After taking in a deep breath, I tried my best to relax to prepare my pussy to take in his cock. Ace reared his hips back and thrust his massive love stick into me as I cried out from the force of his entrance. His cock stretched my opening and began penetrating into me. I could feel his thickness filling me up inside and it felt so fulfilling that it made my toes curl.

"You're so tight, Rina. Is it because I didn't finger you first?" he asked teasingly.

His cock felt so hot inside of me as its thickness stretched my insides. My pussy clenched wildly around his cock as he continued to thrust deeper into me. I moaned softly as he continued to push his thick cock into my wet pussy hole.

He's filling me up with all of him...

"Take all of me inside you, Rina..." he murmured seductively.

I spread my legs further apart and lifted my hips a little off the sofa to draw his cock even deeper into my sopping wet hole. Ace groaned and his cock twitched inside of me. I could tell that he was feeling good as well. My pussy wrapped itself around his cock as I moaned his name seductively.

"Ahh...it's so deep..." I moaned in complete satisfaction when he buried his entire length into me.

His cock fit so snugly inside of me. Being one with Ace made me feel whole and extremely satisfied. Ace stilled for a moment until my pussy walls relaxed around his cock. He groaned softly as he slowly withdrew his cock from me. His cock stroked along my pussy walls and made my entire body quiver from the pleasure.

His cock almost exited my love tunnel completely before he pounded it back into me. His thrust was more forceful than the one before and I cried out when I felt his cock hitting against my womb. Ace grabbed the sides of my hips and concentrated on pounding his cock faster and harder into me. Our sex slapped against each other as he rode me. I cried out his name as my hips began thrusting up and down to meet his eager thrusts. His cock rammed all the way into me with each thrust and pounded against the pleasure spot deep inside of me.

"Ahh! Ahhh! Ace...Ahhh!" I cried out each time he pumped his cock into me.

His cock felt much hotter, and I was sure that it was reaching ever deeper into me. He grunted as he asserted himself. It had been a while since we had intense sex like this, and it excited me. He was being very aggressive and rough with me, but I didn't mind it at all.
