

Love Slave 297

297 Satisfying Our Needs

I was on the verge of climaxing when I felt Ace's fingers slowly sliding out of my pussy hole. I whimpered as if in pain as the waves of pleasure slowly receded from my body. My pussy clenched wildly at the now empty void inside of me as dissatisfaction welled up inside of me.

"Lift your hips. I want to be inside you now, Rina..." Ace instructed in a voice thick with lust.

"Ace...please..." I pleaded for him to take me.

His hand urged me to lift my hips and then I felt the heat of his cock against my flooded opening. His cock felt so hard and so hot as it lodge itself at my entrance. He must have been very turned on all this time while he was playing around with me. I closed my eyes and moaned as I thought of the pleasure of being stretched and filled deep inside by his massively thick cock. Just thinking about him thrusting his gigantic cock into me made me want to cum.

"Lower your pussy onto my cock, Rina..." Ace instructed seductively.

I did as we both wanted and slowly lowered my hips onto his upstanding cock. His name left my lips in a strangled cry as I felt his hot thickness slowly penetrating into my wet tunnel. His cock felt much hotter and much thicker than his fingers and so much more satisfying at the same time. Ace's hands gripped the sides of my hips before he thrust his cock upwards all the way into me.

"Ahh! Ace...Ahh!" I cried out at the roughness of his thrust.

Ace filled me up with his cock in a single thrust that buried his entire length into me. My pussy spasmed uncontrollably around his cock and it felt like I had just cum. His cock twitched a little inside of me before he began thrusting into me from below. His cock slid out of my hole before he rammed it all the way into me again. I cried out his name before I cried out incoherently with each thrust that slammed his cock all the way against my womb. I could feel his heat moving so fast and deep inside of me as each thrust seemed to mess me up inside.

Ace's hands held my hips in place as he concentrated on ploughing his cock upwards into my flooded pussy hole. The pleasure from his wild thrusts drove me crazy with my need and desire for him. My core felt hotter than before and all I could do was rock my body to match the rhythm of his animalistic thrusts as my pussy worked hard to ride on his cock.

"Your pussy feels hot inside..." Ace groaned before shoving his cock all the way into me over and over again.

I wanted to tell him how good he was making me feel but I just couldn't form the words. All I managed to do was call out his name in between my loud and very lewd moans. His cock stirred up my wetness and made loud wet sounds echoed from where our sex slapped against each other. My pussy was beyond wet at that point and I could feel another wave of my release threatening to overflow deep inside of me. The erotic look on Ace's face as he continued beating his cock deeply into me only worked to turn me on even more as I worked to clench my pussy tightly around his thick dick.

"It's so...good...Ahhh...Ace..." I moaned as my body writhed on his lap from the pleasure of feeling his cock hitting against my womb with each deep thrust.

I wanted to cum again and I knew that I was very close to my release already. His cock beating into me like a blunt tool was starting to become too much for me to take. He was really doing an outstanding job of messing up my wet insides. My hips moved up and down as I rode his cock as my breasts jiggled around to match the movements of my body. Ace's hands reached down to squeeze my breasts and I cried out at the additional stimulation of my womanly flesh. His cock moved wildly inside of me, ramming against my pleasure spot expertly with each thrust.

"Ace...I'm cumming...I can't...Ahh!" I cried out when I finally lost myself to my climax again.

This climax felt much more intense than the one before, but I instinctively knew that Ace would make me climax again very soon. His cock felt so thick and so hard inside of me and that told me that he was far from done. If anything, it just felt like his cock had only grown bigger and longer inside of me.

"Arghh...Rina..." he groaned my name.

His hands lifted me off of his lap while I whimpered weakly at the sensation of his cock slowly sliding out of my pussy. The wetness of my release squirted out of my unplugged hole when Ace completely removed his cock from me. I could feel it leaking out everywhere as it trickled down my thighs. I was panting hard when Ace laid me onto the sofa on my back. His hands spread my legs wide open before he climbed on top of me.

"Let me fuck you hard, Rina..." Ace groaned.

I moaned in anticipation of his entry as he positioned himself in between my legs. His cock looked so virile as it stood up proudly in between his legs. My pussy quivered at the thought of taking something of that size inside. I moaned his name softly when Ace positioned the thick head of his cock at my entrance.

"Ahh! Yes! Yes...Ace!" I cried out in pure amazement when I felt his cock screwing itself into me.

Ace thrust his hips forward and slammed his gigantic shaft forcefully into me. It felt so deep, and I felt so complete to be filled by him. Ace didn't give me a chance to get used to having him penetrate me from this new angle. He reared his hips back immediately before plunging his cock all the way back inside of my pussy.
