

Love Slave 330

330 Pleasure and Rain

"Ahhh..." I let out a muffled cry and lifted my hips.

Ace's fingers slid easily into my warm and wet hole as my legs loosened. I moaned his name before I spread my legs and thrust my hips wantonly against his hand. His other hand moved to pump my breast before moving to pay extra loving attention to my nipples in turn.

"Your nipples are hard and your pussy is flooded, Rina..." Ace informed me as if I should be made well aware of that fact.

"No...please..." I whimpered weakly as I felt like I was about to lose my mind and drown in the desire that he was making me feel.

"Your body is basically begging me for it..." Ace murmured into my ear.

"Ahhh..." I moaned loudly when he began kissing my earlobe.

My moans only got louder when his tongue licked my ear and began sucking on it. All the while, his hands moved to pleasure my breasts and my most feminine part. He pinched my nipples and made me cry out. My body writhed endlessly when his fingers began moving in between my legs. He skillfully found and rubbed my swollen clit until I was panting and moaning his name.

"It's hot inside..." Ace murmured before he chuckled in my ear.

His fingers sunk smoothly into my wetness before he immediately began thrusting it in and out of my body. My hips moved against his hand as my body begged him for more pleasure. I wanted nothing more than for him to finger me faster and harder.

"Ace..." I moaned his name again.

His fingers moved faster inside of me and made my pussy even wetter than before. The loud wet noises that erupted from between my legs as he continued to mess up my wet insides made me feel shy and embarrassed. However, those emotions only lasted for a moment before I parted my legs even wider and thrust my hips to grind my pussy against his hand for even deeper penetration. Ace's fingers found my sweet pleasure spot and thrust boldly against it.

"Ace...I can't...anymore..." I managed to say before my words were swallowed up by my passionate moans.

I was on the verge of my climax when Ace quickly withdrew his fingers out of my pussy. Without wasting any time, he flipped me onto my back and got on top of me. His hands moved to lift and spread my legs wide open in one smooth motion before his hips settled in between them.

"Ace...Ahh..." I moaned when I felt the heat of his hard and gigantic cock settle at my entrance.

Ace entered me in one smooth motion that pierced his cock into my core before pushing it all the way in until he was buried to the hilt in my wetness. The celebration that he had in mind for the progress that we made for our commercial seemed to extend well beyond our first round of lovemaking. If this was the extent of his celebration for the progress that we've made, I didn't want to imagine his way of celebrating our victory when the time would come.

"Ah! Ahh! Ahhh!" I cried out each time his cock thrust hard against my womb.

"Your pussy won't stop clamping down on my cock," Ace teased from above me.

My pussy only clenched even tighter around his cock at his mischievous words. I couldn't deny the effects that he had on me and my body. My pussy hugged itself lovingly around his cock like it was hanging on to dear life. His cock pumping in and out of my hole felt too good and I just couldn't get enough of him. We enjoyed each other's body and company all throughout the morning until I fell asleep again.

This time, I woke up with a start as I bolted upright in bed into a sitting position. My head felt clear, and I felt like I was ready to take on the world. My body didn't quite share the same feeling and the wild lovemaking with Ace did take its toll on my body. Ace stirred next to me before turning onto his side to face my way. I watched as his eyelids twitched and then slowly opened. Although I knew that I should greet him with a sweet 'good morning', those were not the first words that escaped my lips.

"We have to go to work..." I said in a shocked whisper.

My eyes widened before my hands flew to cover my face. I should have realized that we would be late to work if we went for another round like that. Not to mention the fact that I fell asleep right after it ended because I was so exhausted and also probably too satisfied.

"It's a Saturday," Ace's slightly cold voice pointed out.

A Saturday?

Slowly, I turned to face Ace to see him grinning at me before he shook his head slightly from side to side.

"Oh..." I mumbled as his words started to sink in.

It was a Saturday so that meant that we didn't need to work and didn't have to go into the office. With the many things that were going on, it did cross my mind that Ace might opt to work the weekend but that didn't seem to be the case. I stared at Ace before a smile crept onto my lips. Just the thought of spending time alone with him brought me so much joy. Ace came closer before his hand snaked out and pulled me back down onto the bed with him. His strong arms circled my waist and pulled me into a loving and tight embrace that left me laughing from pure joy.

Perhaps this time, things would be different and in the future whenever it rained, I would recall my time in Ace's warm and loving embrace instead of the dark days from my youthful past. The pleasure and security that I found in his arms felt like the warm rays of the sun that would light my path forever.
