

Love Slave 91

91 Two Rounds of Pleasure

Ace smiled at me with extreme satisfaction before he slowly lowered me back onto my back on the bed. His large hands bent and then spread my legs wildly for him. I whimpered at the sensation of my pussy lips begin stretched opened so widely.

“Hold your legs open for me, Rina. That’s it...good girl...” Ace instructed as he placed my hand on my thighs for me to hold my legs open wide for him.

“Ace...” I whimpered his name as embarrassment started taking over me.

He could see my pussy very clearly in this position and that was exactly what he was staring at. Ace smirked at me before he guided the thick head of his swollen cock towards my dripping wet entrance. My pussy twitched in anticipation of taking him inside of me. I had gotten so wet that my love juices had begun leaking out of my love hole onto my inner thighs.

“Rina...” Ace called my name.

I cried out the next moment when he suddenly thrust his gigantic cock into my wet pussy. The wet sound of his abrupt entry echoed from between our body. My pussy clenched madly around his intruding cock as he filled me up completely. Ace reared back his hip and pounded into my wetness again, making me cry out his name louder than before.

It felt crazy good...I wanted him to move faster...

“Don’t clench around my cock too much...” Ace teased from above me.

My breathing was rough as my hip began thrusting up against his seductively. Ace’s eyes narrowed at me knowingly before he reared his hips back again to thrust deeper and harder into my awaiting cunt. I cried out his name again as I ran my hand over the firm muscles of his back. Ace continued giving it to me fast and hard. His cock thrusting in and out of my hole as I moved my hips to meet his wild thrust halfway. His cock buried itself deeply into my wet hole and gave me so much pleasure. The thick head of his cock slid against my pussy walls as he thrust his cock in and out of my cunt. I dug my nails into his back in my frenzy as I tried to deal with the mind-shattering pleasure that his cock was making me feel.

When his cock rammed hard against my pleasure spot before ramming into my womb, I cried out and scratched his back. Ace chuckled above me at my reaction before he screwed his thick love stick deeper into me. My pussy made wet squelching sound as I squirted more of love juices onto his thick shaft. His cock felt so hot inside of me, and it made me feel so good. The sensation of his cock pounding deeply into my wet mess felt so addictive.

“More...Ace...” I begged him shamelessly.

“About to cum already?” Ace teased.

I couldn't reply to him anymore at that point. His wild thrusts and deep thrusts soon sent me over the edge, and I came so hard while screaming his name. Ace continued pounding his cock against my womb as I orgasm spectacularly.

"Can you take one more round?" Ace asked in wonder.

I felt his cock sliding smoothly out of my hole, my wet juices acting as the perfect lubricant for his cock. My breath came out in short bursts, and I whimpered softly when he flipped my body onto my stomach. His large hand grabbed my ass and positioned my hips upwards towards him. I felt his presence close behind me and I knew what he had in mind. My pussy was still extremely sensitive from my climax, but I also wanted to feel more pleasure from him and give him pleasure as well.

I moaned when I felt his cock pounding its way back into my wet cunt. This time he took me from behind and the angle of his thrust felt so different from when he took me from the front. He hit a different pleasure spot and I cried out in ecstasy. Ace leaned over me until his face was close to mine. I could feel the heat of his body against my back as he began moving on top of me, ramming his cock in and out of my hole.

"So good...your pussy feels so good..." Ace murmured with utmost satisfaction.

"Ace! Ahhh! Ahhhh!" I cried out in shock at the raw pleasure erupting from my cunt and spreading all over my body like wildfire.

"I'll make you feel even better..." Ace whispered into my ear.

His hand traced along my arm until his hand overlapped with mine before he laced his fingers with mine. Although his thrusts were rough, I found this gesture so tender and loving that it pulled at my heart and made my chest felt tight. Ace reared back his hips and thrusted into me from a slightly different angle, making me scream out louder at the intensified pleasure. My pussy clenched hungrily around his cock to suck him in even deeper inside of me.

With a few more deep thrusts against my womb, I came again while whimpering his name. This time Ace seemed to be at his limit as well. He whispered loving words into my ear before he bit down on my earlobe when he finally climaxed. His cock twitched wildly inside my flooded love hole before he stilled on top of me.

I closed my eyes and floated in the peaceful afterglow of our loving making. It wasn't like I thought that what we had going on between us was righteous or healthy. However, for just now, please let me enjoy the pleasure of being held in his arms...

Ace's Point of View

My body woke up like clockwork. It had always been like that, and travelling didn't seem to mess up my biological clock. After falling asleep for around 7-8 hours, my body would wake up automatically. I glanced over at the woman sleeping close to me with her head pillowed on my shoulder. Unlike me, Rina was still fast asleep. I found myself debating whether I should leave her to sleep peacefully or...
