

Love Slave 98

98 Hot Night at the Office

I could feel Ace's hungry gaze on my tits as he played with them mercilessly. My lewd moans got embarrassingly loud, and I tried to stifle them by placing my hand over my mouth while Ace continued to pinch and roll my nipples in between his skillful fingers.

"Ace...we're...in the office..." I murmured.

We're not just in his office, we're in the CEO's office team room. Although it was late at night and no one else was here, all the lights are still on!

Instead of responding to me, Ace buried his face into my breasts. I cried out when I felt something warm and wet running along the sensitive skin between my breasts. He's licking me...

"Naughty girls like you need to be disciplined thoroughly," Ace whispered darkly.

My legs immediately grew weak as my pussy began throbbing with need. His lips moved to trial soft and sucking kissing against my breasts. My entire body trembled when he took my nipple into the wet heat of his mouth. My fingers clutched desperately at his hair as he began sucking on my hardened peak. It felt so amazingly good. I cried out his name and threw my head back as I thrust my chest outward towards his seductive mouth.

Ace sucked harder on my nipple as his fingers kept playing with my other nipple. The pleasure was so intense that my pussy began clenching in rhythm to his sucking. It wasn't long before I felt my wetness gush out from the hole in between my legs. He made me so wet for him. I wanted him to touch me there...and then take me...

"Ace..." I whimpered his name sweetly.

When Ace lifted his head from my chest and smirked dangerously at me. He stood up and pulled me up to my feet with ease and then his arms were around my hips. I felt the hardness of my own work desk against my buttocks after he had lifted me up to sit on it. Ace did not waste time before proceeding to the next step of pulling my skirt up. His hands caressed my naked thighs tantalizingly before lifting them up and spreading them widely apart while I whimpered softly.

"Ace...maybe...we should stop..." I suggested meekly.

"Even when you're this wet?" Ace asked with his hand pressed against my wetness.

His manly hand cupped my pussy through my drenched panties as he smirked knowingly at me. I blushed immediately before quickly looking away from him. He chuckled softly at my reaction before his fingers deftly pulled my panties out of the way so that his fingers could caress my wetness directly.

"Ahhh...Ace...Ahhh..." I moaned and threw my head back in ecstasy.

His fingers found my wet entrance and began stroking it teasingly. He ran his fingers up and down the length of my wet slit, making my pussy throb and clench uncontrollably. He had just started touching me, but my pussy was already getting wetter for him.

"Your pussy is fucking wet, Rina..." Ace teased me with a voice dripping with lust.

His amber eyes stared right into my face before he smiled mockingly at me. He's so evil...but his touches feel so pleasurable...

"Ahhh..." I moaned again.

My hips bucked upwards at the sudden entrance of Ace's thick and long fingers into my flooded cunt. Ace thrust his fingers inside of me abruptly and I had to close my eyes to deal with the pleasure as my hands clutched at the side of my desk. His fingers began wriggling inside of me. It felt so strange yet so good as he played around with my wet insides. I could feel his fingers everywhere inside of me as he felt around my wet hole from various angles. My pussy clenched and twitched around his fingers as it tried to feel more of him and suck his fingers in even deeper.

"You're twitching so much inside already. Does doing it in the office turn you on more than usual?" Ace continued taunting me with his dirty talk.

He thrust his fingers in and out of my love hole fast and hard. I lost all control and screamed loudly. At that moment, I forgot about everything including the fact that he was fingering me right on top of my work desk. I was just working here...not so long ago...and now...

"Ahhh! Ace...it's so good..." I cried out as lust flooded my brain and all my senses.

His fingers moved even more roughly inside of me as he thrust in and out of me. Dirty wet sounds echoed all around us as my pussy got wetter for him. The sounds of his fingers pounded into my wetness combined with my lusty moans and whimpers echoed around in the office room.

"Ace...Ahhhh! Ohh...Ahhh!" I cried out even louder as I neared my release.

He's going to make me cum from his fingers. I can't hold on anymore...

"Don't cum just yet..." Ace said with a disapproving shake of his head.

I whimpered my disappointment when his thick fingers withdrew from my pussy. Ace's hands moved to pull my panties off completely after instructing me to lift my ass off the table a little. His hand quickly moved to his own pants, and I watched as he efficiently stripped himself just enough to free his massive and hard cock from its restraints. His thick shaft stood up proudly in between his legs and I could tell that he was already very turned on.

"You really like to stare at my cock..." Ace murmured before he smirked at me.

His dangerous eyes held mine as he tore at the pack of condom in his hands before quickly slipping it onto his cock.

"Ace..." I whispered his name in my need for him.

"I know you can't wait. I'll make you cum with my cock..." Ace offered smugly.

His large hands gripped my thighs and spread them further apart as he positioned himself in between my legs. My pussy quivered in anticipation of receiving his cock deep inside. The heat of his manhood lodge itself between my pussy lips before Ace thrust his cock sharply into my wet cunt.
