

Love So Sweet 529

529 His Last Paper

As Zhang Yi Hai's exam week began, Fang Su Jin was the most anxious.

Zhang Yi Hai listened to her reminders and chuckled at how his girlfriend was more worried than his mother. Fang Su Jin did not forget to remind him to look after his health as well.

Seeing the smile on Zhang Yi Hai's face made Fang Su Jin frown. She has been talking to Zhang Yi Hai for a long time, reminding him about a lot of things, but this person did not seem to worry at all.

Of course, Zhang Yi Hai wanted to work hard as well.

He could not imagine what would happen if his result was not as he expected.

From the very beginning of their relationship, Fang Su Jin had reminded him that she did not want to be the reason his result started to fall.

During his study, Zhang Yi Hai watched how a few of his classmates who were the top scorer in class no longer became the top scorer because they were in a relationship.

A lot of them spend their time dating and neglecting their studies.

Zhang Yi Hai was mostly worried that Fang Su Jin would choose to break up with him because of his result. He really could not bear for that to happen.

.....

Because of that, he has to study well and get a good results. His plans for their future together were his encouragement to study hard.

After chatting with Zhang Yi Hai for a bit, Fang Su Jin headed to her room and started packing up her bag. She planned to arrive in Capital City on the day of Zhang Yi Hai's final paper.

Fang Su Jin could already imagine the surprised look on Zhang Yi Hai's face when she appear in his apartment a few days later.

Fortunately, Zhang Yi Hai had registered her fingerprint to his door. She could enter his apartment and plan a surprise. Fang Su Jin had already thought of buying a few ingredients to cook for him later.

Her lips turned up to a smile and her heartbeat accelerated as Fang Su Jin thought of her plans.

Zhang Yi Hai's had four papers for his final exams. With the gaps between his papers, Zhang Yi Hai was going to complete his exams in two weeks.

His classmates were planning to spend another week in Capital City and arranged a trip for the whole class to go together.

However, Zhang Yi Hai was not interested in this trip. He only wanted to go home after the exam, packed his bag, and go back to Y City on the same day.

Unfortunately, his last paper was in the afternoon. His mother did not want him to rush back to Y City. Instead, she wanted him to rest well for a day and come back the next day.

As he was answering his final paper, Zhang Yi Hai did not forget to answer his paper cautiously. Even though he had finished his paper early, he did not dare to leave early, and instead, he spent a little more time double-checking his paper.

By the time he wanted to leave early, the invigilator had already announced that they could not leave early anymore.

In the end, Zhang Yi Hai had to go out around the same time as the others.

He packed up his things and ran out, wanting to pack up his bag so that he could return to Y City early the next morning.

However, just as he stepped out of the hall, someone had already grabbed his shoulder.

Turning around, Zhang Yi Hai found both Tang Yin and Liu Jin both by his side.

“Zhang Yi Hai, where do you think you are going?” Tang Yin spoke as he placed his arms around Zhang Yi Hai’s shoulder.

His brow furrowed. “Tang Yin, what are you doing?” He was in a hurry, but this person was stopping him. Naturally, Zhang Yi Hai was not happy.

Liu Jin joined to hook his arms around Zhang Yi Hai’s shoulder. “Zhang Yi Hai, you already decline our invitation to join our class’s trip. This time, you can’t decline. Come and join our classmates’ final meal, alright?”

Tang Yin exchanged a look with Liu Jin and smiled. “Zhang Yi Hai, don’t think that you can escape. Everyone is coming together for this gathering. How can you not go?”

“That’s right. This is our final year together,” Liu Jin said. “Who knows if we can meet again after this? Zhang Yi Hai, you have to join us for this last time.”

Zhang Yi Hai was about to reject their invitation to this gathering, However, as he listened to their words, Zhang Yi Hai began to rethink this decision again.

It was true that he would not be able to meet everyone else again after this.

The next time they could see each other again would be during their graduation. He have to wait for a few more months until that happened.

Thinking of his friends who had accompanied him throughout his study, Zhang Yi Hai decided that he could spend a day accompanying everyone to have a drink and have fun.

Anyway, he was a light traveler. He could always pack up his bag once he return to his apartment at night. “Alright then. I’ll go and join you guys. But I won’t be drinking.”

Hearing Zhang Yi Hai’s agreement, both Tang Yin and Liu Jin started to cheer happily. Then, the other classmates who were around them cheered along as well.

Zhang Yi Hai was quite popular among his classmates. The others were just too happy that Zhang Yi Hai would be joining this last gathering as well.

This was not the first time that Zhang Yi Hai had joined his classmates' gatherings. Therefore, everyone already knew that he would not drink alcohol.

"Alright. Both of you can let me go now." Zhang Yi Hai tried to push away both Tang Yin and Liu Jin's arms from his shoulder. "I still have to call my girlfriend."

Tang Yin and Liu Jin were both curious about Zhang Yi Hai's girlfriend. Until this time, no one seemed to have seen his girlfriend. They wanted to eavesdrop on his conversation. However, Zhang Yi Hai's eyes were too piercing.
