

Love So Sweet 570

570 The Wedding (2)

Bai Qi was exchanging a few words with Qi Zheng when staff from the wedding planner agency reminded him that the ceremony would soon begin.

He stood at the altar while waiting for his bride to show up. As Bai Qi looked at the people who gathered to witness the wedding, he could not help but feel tense.

Meanwhile, Zhang Li Xue came out of the room and headed to the hall with her bridesmaid and the flower girl accompanying her.

They arrived in front of the hall and the wedding planner was busy lining them up to enter the hall.

However, Zhang Li Xue's eyes were trained on the elder man who was watching her from a distance. From the moment she walked along this corridor, Zhang Li Xue noticed that this man was watching her.

Suddenly, her eyes and nose were stinging. Zhang Li Xue jogged in her high heel, scaring the wedding planner. Without caring about how she might look in front of others, Zhang Li Xue spread her arms and hugged the man tightly. "Daddy!"

It felt as if she had returned to her childhood. In the past, whenever she jogged over to her father, the man would always be there to catch her.

She was now an adult and her father would still catch her.

"Alright. Don't cry. Otherwise, your mother will be angry at me." Zhang Yu Han stroked his daughter's back and was worrying that he might accidentally ruin her makeup and hair. There was still a flowery crown on top of her hair.

Zhang Yu Han recalled that once upon a time, this little girl had cried when a boy messed up with her crown. She was so angry that she kicked the boy before complaining to him.

Zhang Li Xue forced herself not to cry. She looked at her father with a pair of misty eyes as she tried to suppress her urge to cry.

Taking this chance, Zhang Yu Han took a step back and watched his daughter. Seeing how beautiful she was made him smile. "My little princess, you are so beautiful today."

"Daddy..." There are a lot of things that she wanted to say. However, Zhang Li Xue found that the words she wanted to say were stuck in her throat. Other than looking at her father, there was nothing else she could do.

Zhang Yu Han hugged his daughter again. "Li Xue, you have to live happily with Bai Qi, alright?"

The words that he wanted to say to her were already said before Zhang Li Xue and Bai Qi obtained their marriage certificate.

Bai Qi was living with him at the house and he had witnessed how careful and attentive he was towards his daughter. The man respected his parents-in-law and treated his little sister kindly.

The young man faced a lot of hardship after his parents passed away. But he had never blamed fate and instead worked very hard and stayed kind to the people around him.

Zhang Yu Han thought that Bai Qi was a good choice as his son-in-law. He would feel at ease to let this man marry his daughter.

Her daughter had such a good sight when she was picking up her life partner.

"I've seen the way Bai Qi treated you these past few months and felt assured that he will treat you well," Zhang Yu Han said. "Even so, if he had done something wrong, you can always come back to your family. You have a lot of uncles and brothers who would defend you."

Zhang Li Xue could not help but laugh.

"You must always remember to work hard with him for this marriage. A marriage will not last long if there was only one person who was working hard on it. Li Xue, do you understand?"

"Daddy, I understand." Zhang Li Xue sniffed. "I will work hard and live with Bai Qi for a long, long time."

Zhang Yu Han heaved a sigh.

Then, the wedding planner walked over and helped Zhang Li Xue to dab the tears from her eyes.

After ensuring that everything is ready, they started to queue to enter the hall.

The music played and the huge door was pulled open from the outside.

Bai Xi Xi walked into the hall in her pretty, blush pink dress and flowery crown on top of her head. She grabbed some flowers in her basket and sprinkled them everywhere just like she was taught to do. She looked up, met her brother's gaze, and flashed a smile.

Later, Zhuang Li and Mao Xin Yi walked in as the bridesmaid.

Then, Fang Su Jin was right behind the girls.

Fang Su Jin raised her head and her gaze was trained on the young man who stood beside the groom. Seeing Zhang Yi Hai smiling at her made her shy. Then, Fang Su Jin quickly lowered her gaze and inhaled a deep breath to calm down.

This was Zhang Li Xue's wedding. Why is it that she became anxious when she saw Zhang Yi Hai?

Fang Su Jin had to push a certain thought from running through her mind.

She looked up with a smile on her face and walked over until she reached the altar.

There was a brief silence before the music started to play again. The guests stood up and everyone was looking at the door.

Then, someone pulled the door from the outside again, revealing the bride, who stood beside her father. The smile on her face was especially bright and the joy in her eyes was transparent.

Holding on to her father's arms tightly, Zhang Li Xue finally stepped into the hall.

As she looked up, her gaze has been on Bai Qi.

Her man looked dashing in his tuxedo.

But, the stunned look on his face almost made her laugh.

The moment his bride showed up, Bai Qi could not move his head away. In this big, flowery garden, a fairy suddenly emerged!

Her skirts flowed gently and her steps were slow. As she took a step, the floor underneath her feet would glow up. It was just like a fairy treading on water.

Bai Qi looked at the flowery crown on top of her head and smiled. He suddenly recalled the first time he had seen this little fairy when they were younger.

Back then, he also had the same stupefy look on his face.

His little fairy had grown up to be an adult. And here he was, waiting to marry her.

If it was not for Zhang Yi Hai who poked him in his arms, Bai Qi would continue to stare at this fairy without making a move.

He walked down the aisle and finally met his bride halfway.
