

Love So Sweet 609

Chapter 609 Six Weeks

When they entered the room, Qi Zheng was already waiting for them in the doctor's office and he seemed to be chatting happily with the doctor about trivia matters.

Noticing that they had entered the room, Qi Zheng gave them a quiet nod before motioning them to sit down.

Zhang Li Xue tried to read her uncle's expression to see if she could get an answer from him. However, she could not figure out anything.

Meanwhile, Bai Qi could feel his heartbeat accelerating the moment he sat down. His heart was telling him that what Qi Zheng said earlier might be the truth.

While his wife went into the room to provide some samples for the lab, Bai Qi has been waiting outside while thinking about the possibility that his wife might be pregnant. Counting the days... it seemed that his wife's period this time was a little off.

But perhaps, his wife has been busy with work recently that she did not remember to pay attention to her period.

Thinking that he might become a father made him anxious.

Bai Qi knew that he was always busy at work. He did not know if he could always be by Zhang Li Xue's side as she go through this pregnancy.

His heart would ache as he recalled how Zhang Li Xue ran to the bathroom after waking up and started to throw up.

.....

Will this happen to her every day from now on?

Then, who is going to hold her hair and soothe her when she was feeling uncomfortable?

Fortunately, the two of them were still living with her parents. At least, when he was busy, Zhang Li Xue will have someone to look after her.

"Doctor Bai."

The voice snapped him out of his thought. Bai Qi looked up and saw that the elder doctor was looking at him with a smile.

Of course, Bai Qi knew this doctor well. Currently, Doctor Lin was the best in OB/GYN. Doctor Qi seemed to be quite close with this doctor and they had a few meals together.

"Hello, Doctor Lin," Bai Qi greeted politely.

The two of them exchanged a few words. Bai Qi apologized for taking the doctor's time when this matter could be done by the other doctor.

Of course, Doctor Lin did not mind that she was called to for a consultation. She was close to Doctor Qi and thought that this was a minor favor.

Qi Zheng looked at the couple in front of him and decided that it was better for him to leave the room. This moment was something that the couple should face together privately.

Although he was curious about the result, Qi Zheng decided not to be nosy. After all, he was going to find out the result sooner or later.

He told them that he still have an important matter to attend to and finally left the place.

While waiting for the nurse to come over with the result, Doctor Lin began to ask Zhang Li Xue a few questions. Soon, a knock was heard on the door and the nurse entered.

Zhang Li Xue watched as the nurse walked over to the doctor's desk with her heart beating fast.

Suddenly, a warm palm enveloped her hand. She looked at Bai Qi and saw him flashing an assuring smile at her.

Doctor Lin took the document and studied the report with a serious look on her face. When she looked up again, Doctor Lin could see the couple's anxious faces.

This was an expression that she often see in an expecting parent. Seeing this, the corner of her lips turned up.

The silence in the room was giving both Zhang Li Xue and Bai Qi anxiety.

Then, Doctor Lin finally spoke, "Congratulations. Doctor Bai, Mrs. Bai, you are going to be a parent."

Zhang Li Xue exhaled loudly upon hearing the news. It felt as if something heavy was lifted off her chest. Zhang Li Xue put her hand on her flat stomach. Her eyes and nose turned sour.

She was pregnant!

This was something that she had looked forward to the moment she married Bai Qi. How can she not be happy? Fortunately, she did not have to wait for too long.

Zhang Li Xue looked at Bai Qi again and saw that he was looking at her gently.

Doctor Lin started to explain to the couple about Zhang Li Xue's test result. She was now pregnant for six weeks and it was normal for her to experience morning sickness.

Bai Qi was listening to the doctor's reminder on how he should care for his wife. It seemed that Zhang Li Xue will have to control her diet and eat some supplements. Bai Qi took this chance to ask Doctor Lin a few questions. He had a serious look on his face as he was listening.

Unexpectedly, the two of them spent almost an hour in Doctor Lin's office. Bai Qi had a lot of questions and fortunately, Doctor Lin was patiently answering his every question.

Bai Qi walked out of the doctor's office while supporting his wife. There were a few leaflets on pregnancy in his hand.

He led Zhang Li Xue to a quiet corner and looked at her with worry.

Earlier, the two of them came to the hospital because he was worried that his wife might be experiencing food poisoning. However, they both came out of the doctor's office with the news that Zhang Li Xue was pregnant.

He felt that he might need a while to process this information.

"How are you feeling?" Bai Qi asked his wife.

Zhang Li Xue spread her arms and wrapped them around Bai Qi's waist. Her head was rested against his chest. "It's great. Bai Qi, I am really happy." Thinking that she was going to be a mother soon made her feel emotional. Her nose turned sour again and Zhang Li Xue sniffled.

Seeing the way his wife was reacting made him sigh. He meant to ask if she was feeling uncomfortable... but it's good if she was happy.

Bai Qi wrapped his arms around her and hugged her tightly.
