

Love So Sweet 611

Chapter 611 Don't Make Trouble

After his call with his mother-in-law, Bai Qi put down the phone and went back into the bedroom to look at his sleeping wife.

He climb onto the bed and hugged his little fairy in his arms, spooning with her. Sensing his familiar warmth, Zhang Li Xue leaned over and snuggled to get into a comfortable position in Bai Qi's arms.

Zhang Li Xue always liked it when Bai Qi hugged her from behind. His arm wrapped around her body. This position always made her feel safe.

Her movement made him chuckle.

Bai Qi leaned to kiss the top of his wife's head a few times. Then, he recalled everything that happened today and remembered that in a few months, he was going to become a father.

An indescribable feeling arose in his heart. It made him anxious and excited at the same time. Subconsciously, Bai Qi put his hand on Zhang Li Xue's flat stomach.

It was still unbelievable to think that there was a life forming in there. Everything felt so unreal.

His heart felt hot, thinking that this child would be born between him and his wife, the person that he loved the most. Suddenly, he began to wonder if this baby would look like his wife.

Bai Qi could still remember Zhang Li Xue when she was younger.

It would be best if their child would turn out to be lively as Zhang Li Xue. He did not want the child to be mischievous like him.

At this time, Bai Qi could almost imagine a child, in a flowery dress, looking exactly like her mother. He was looking forward to seeing this scene.

He did not know whether he could be a good father to their child, but Bai Qi made a promise to himself that he will do his best.

After a while, the person in his arms began to move.

Bai Qi loosened his hold around his wife's body and watched as she turned around to face him. The little fairy rubbed her head against his chest a few times.

"Hubby..."

Bai Qi chuckled. He leaned over to kiss the top of her head and spoke, "Are you awake?"

"Un." Zhang Li Xue answered lazily. Her voice was thick with sleepiness. If it was possible, she did not want to move. Zhang Li Xue thought that it would be great if she could stay in Bai Qi's arms forever.

"Then, should we go and eat?" Bai Qi asked. "I already made a few dishes for you."

Suddenly, her nose could pick up the scent of something delicious from the kitchen. Her stomach started to grumble and she was feeling hungry.

"I'm hungry," Zhang Li Xue mumbled. "But I'm too lazy to move."

Bai Qi laughed. "Then, I will carry you out?"

Zhang Li Xue thought about this solution for a while before she finally agreed.

Anyway, her stomach would grow bigger in a few months. When that happened, it would be hard for Bai Qi to carry her again.

Zhang Li Xue thought that she might as well enjoy him carrying her everywhere before her body would grow heavier.

Before she could voice her opinion, Bai Qi had already lifted her from bed.

Her eyes went wide and Zhang Li Xue wrapped her arms around Bai Qi's neck to support herself from falling. Then, she found that this position was quite comfortable and snuggled closer to his chest.

"Don't make trouble," Bai Qi reminded her.

His wife was now pregnant, but she still have this habit to rub her head against his chest.

Didn't she know how this move was enough to stimulate him?

However, Doctor Lin had reminded him that the first trimester was really crucial. He really could not do anything to his wife.

Zhang Li Xue looked at Bai Qi inquiringly. It took her a few seconds to understand his words. And when she finally understood, Zhang Li Xue started to laugh happily.

Of course, this only made Bai Qi's expression turn black.

Bai Qi placed his wife on the chair. Then, he went back into their room and returned with a wet towel. He then wiped his wife's face a little bit before he started serving the food.

Zhang Li Xue watched his every movement with a smile on her face.

Her husband was spoiling her like a baby. Zhang Li Xue thought that once the baby was born, Bai Qi would be a good father to their child.

After all, she could always see the way Bai Qi treat his little sister. He worked hard to raise Bai Xi Xi.

Bai Qi returned to the dining area after reheating the food. Once everything was ready, he then watched as his wife started to eat.

Seeing that she was able to eat the food without throwing up again finally put his heart at ease.

It was only then that Bai Qi started to move his chopsticks.

Then, Bai Qi recalled his mother-in-law's phone call earlier. "Mom called you while you are asleep." He watched as she raised her head to look at him. "She heard that you did not go to work today and started to worry."

Zhang Li Xue paused. "What did you tell her?"

"I told her that your stomach was uncomfortable," Bai Qi said. "Li Xue, I told Mom that we are going to have dinner with her and Dad tonight. Should we break the news to them?"

Zhang Li Xue pondered over this matter. She could not help but feel anxious at the thought of announcing her pregnancy to her family.

"I know that some couples preferred to announce the news after they have passed the first trimester. However, I thought that it would be best if we tell them earlier," Bai Qi continued. "After all, they can look after you. With your morning sickness, it would be difficult to hide this matter for a long time."

Even if they did not say a word, the Zhang couple would know about it after they see Zhang Li Xue vomiting a few times.

Bai Qi thought that her parents would appreciate it more if they announced it to them.

After a while, Zhang Li Xue finally nodded. "Then, I'll listen to you."
