

Love So Sweet 612

Chapter 612 I'm Pregnant

In the evening, both Zhang Li Xue and Bai Qi returned to the house.

Li Qin Yao heard that her daughter had returned and immediately went over to look at her. Seeing her daughter's rosy cheek finally put her heart at ease.

Earlier that day, her husband mentioned that their daughter did not show up at work and Li Qin Yao has been worried ever since.

Even if their children had grown up, as a mother, she would always worry about them.

"Li Xue, are you feeling alright?" Li Qin Yao asked.

Zhang Li Xue glanced at Bai Qi before turning to her mother again. "Mommy, I'm fine. After resting a little bit, I'm already feeling good."

Li Qin Yao heaved a breath of relief. "That's good." She then turned to Bai Qi and shot him a grateful look. Li Qin Yao knew well that it was Bai Qi who had looked after her daughter well.

"Mommy, is Daddy at home?" Zhang Li Xue asked.

Earlier, she and Bai Qi had talked and the two of them had decided to tell her parents about her pregnancy. Zhang Li Xue thought that it would be good to break the news with both of them present

"Your dad should be on his way home," Li Qin Yao said. "It's been a while since we all gathered together for a meal. I already told him not to go out at night."

Zhang Li Xue had a bright smile on her face.

After saying a few words with her mother, Zhang Li Xue went to look for Bai Xi Xi. When she entered the room, Bai Xi Xi was sitting at her desk while reading a book.

Previously, Bai Qi had always reminded her that if she wanted to live a good life, she will have to study well. The little girl was very obedient. After listening to her brother's words, she began to pick up her reading habit.

Bai Xi Xi saw her sister-in-law and subconsciously ran over to hug her.

However, before she could reach her sister-in-law's side, her brother appeared and blocked her way. In the end, Bai Xi Xi was hugging her brother's thigh.

This was not what Bai Xi Xi expected. She raised her head and looked at her brother with an aggrieved face. It seemed that this was the first time that her brother had stopped her from approaching her sister-in-law.

"Don't run around too fast," Bai Qi reminded her. "You might accidentally hit your sister-in-law."

"Oh." Bai Xi Xi nodded, realizing that she almost made a mistake.

However, the little girl still did not expect anything.

Seeing that her sister-in-law was around, Bai Xi Xi took this chance to consult on her homework. Previously, Zhang Li Xue was tutoring Bai Xi Xi on some mathematical problems. Bai Xi Xi found that learning from her sister-in-law was quite easy. Her sister-in-law was always gentle and patient.

After a while, an auntie came over and announced that it was time for dinner.

Zhang Li Xue went with Bai Qi and Bai Xi Xi to the dining room. When they arrived, Zhang Yi Hai was already there waiting for them.

"Are you feeling alright?" Zhang Yu Han asked when he saw his daughter.

Zhang Li Xue lowered her gaze and told her father the same thing she had said to her mother earlier.

Dinner began shortly.

Zhang Li Xue peeked at her parents as she ate her dinner. Her heartbeat accelerated as she thought about what she was going to announce to her family in a while.

Just as she was thinking about this matter, Bai Qi held her hand under the table and gave it a gentle squeeze. Seeing the gentle smile on Bai Qi's face made her feel more at ease.

Zhang Li Xue waited until everyone had almost finished their meal. Then, she glanced at Bai Qi and blinked.

Bai Qi gave her hand a gentle squeeze before he blinked back. He gave her hand another squeeze and flashed a smile.

Zhang Yi Hai raised his head and happened to see the couple's exchange. He did not know what was going on between the couple, but seeing them scattering dog food when his girlfriend was not around made him unhappy.

His expression turned darker. Zhang Yi Hai lowered his chopsticks and spoke, "Sister, what do you think you are doing?"

With Zhang Yi Hai's question, Zhang Li Xue noticed that her family members were now looking at her inquiringly. She shot a displeased look at her brother before turning to look at her mother.

Zhang Li Xue inhaled a deep breath and spoke, "Mommy, Daddy, I have something to announce."

Li Qin Yao exchanged a glance with her husband. Then, they both looked at their daughter again and waited to hear what she was going to tell them.

With her parents watching her intently, Zhang Li Xue suddenly became a little stressed up. "You know that I did not show up at work because I was feeling uncomfortable, right?" Zhang Li Xue began. "Well, Bai Qi took me to the hospital for a check-up."

Everyone at the table heard the word 'hospital' and was suddenly worried about her. Everyone still remembered how Zhang Li Xue was hospitalized after a stomach ache last year.

Li Qin Yao looked at her daughter worriedly. A lot of thoughts came to her mind. Of course, she would think that there was a problem with her daughter's stomach. As the thought came to her mind, Li Qin Yao shifted her gaze to Bai Qi, silently hoping that the man would explain to her about her daughter's sickness.

"What did the doctor say?" Zhang Yu Han asked. His face was calm, but under the table, his hand was clenched into a fist.

Zhang Li Xue was his little princess. It was not long ago that she had an accident. Of course, Zhang Yu Han did not want anything bad to happen to his daughter.

Meanwhile, Zhang Li Xue exchanged another glance with Bai Qi. When she turned to her parents again, there was a faint smile on her face. "I'm pregnant."

The atmosphere in the room was quiet.

Initially, the Zhang family members were thinking that something bad happened to Zhang Li Xue. Therefore, when they finally heard the news, each of them was a little slow to give their reaction.
