

Love Through Time and Space

Chapter 312

When his wife and wife Hunter Jackson changed clothes and came out, Emily Gale was sitting on the bed, playing on her mobile phone.

The little mouth was turned occasionally, as if he was laughing, but he didn't know what he was playing, but he laughed so happily.

However, the signal on this island is not good.

They still use their own special network to communicate with outsiders. How does this girl connect?

Could it be that the kid Ross told her?

After Hunter Jackson walked over, he realized that Emily Gale was not in contact with someone, but was looking at the photos on the phone.

Photos of Jiang Nan and her... I felt a little sour, and suddenly remembered that Jiang Nan was taking care of her when I was away.

For so long, it seems that he and her have not had more opportunities to get along with her.

He walked over, trying to hold her gently in his arms.

Emily Gale was taken aback by his appearance and hurriedly hid the phone and looked back at him: "You..."

"What's wrong? Can't you show me the photos on the phone?" Hunter Jackson's words were just a joke. Unexpectedly, Emily Gale's face sank and she became uneasy.

He smiled: "What's the matter? What did you do without telling me?" "No, nothing."

Emily Gale lowered his head and looked uncomfortable.

Hunter Jackson didn't take such trivial things to heart at all, and helped her get up, and said, "Go, accompany you to lunch. By the way, the boy from Jiangnan is here, and he brought you a lot of delicious food."

They have such a good relationship, they will be happy to meet each other.

I have been busy training everyone these few days, and I don't have time to accompany her.

At least, this girl won't be lonely anymore.

"He's here?" Emily Gale looked surprised and excited.

"It looks like, staying here for a long time has made you bored."

Hunter Jackson smiled lightly, suddenly bent over, hugged her horizontally, and walked outside the door.

Emily Gale's heart is a bit sour, this man, I don't know if he should be short-sighted, or just because he is too open.

She sighed lightly, and when he stepped out the door, she whispered: "Let me down, I... don't want to be seen by everyone."

"Is there a problem?" Although Young Master Jackson didn't want to let her go, , However, now the wife is pregnant with a baby, she is the oldest.

Wife's words are imperial edicts.

Well, my wife...this title, I feel sweet and greasy just thinking about it.

He carefully put the person down, and gently hugged her slender waist.

Looking at the blue sky and white clouds outside, although his voice is not loud, it is sonorous and powerful.

“When this matter is over, we will go abroad to get married.”

In Beijing, you can only get engaged at the age of eighteen, but in some foreign places, you can register for marriage at the age of eighteen.

marry!

Emily Gale’s body trembled for a while, and he didn’t know where it came from.

She was so sore that she almost shed tears.

Whether it is in this life or in the past, this is the first time that Young Master Jackson willingly and actively told her, let’s get married!

Does this count as he is proposing to himself?

But Young Master Jackson is such an arrogant man, I am afraid that he is unwilling to do this kind of proposal.

His usual style is to hug her directly into the auditorium and get married!

Marriage, such a remote matter, is now in front of me.

She turned her face away, did not speak, and her heart was full of emotions.

Hunter Jackson only thought she was shy, after all, it was such an important thing to get married.

Although he deliberately said that he was light and calm, in fact, he was a little uneasy in his heart, fearing that this girl would refuse.

However, even if she refuses, marriage is imperative.

The big deal, when the time comes, they will be taken directly into the auditorium and the wedding will be held forcibly.

As for the future, after the wedding, it doesn't matter if you beat or scold it.

Thinking about it, I feel that blood is surging, and I can't wait to take her into worship now and have a major event in life!

The corner of Joseph's northern lips was smiling, and the eyes were filled with joy.

As he walked on the road, his thin lips moved, and he suddenly exhaled two slight words: "...wife."

Emily Gale's heart slammed and was hit hard by something!

Her breathing suddenly became disordered, her legs softened and she almost didn't stop.

"Huh?" The man didn't seem to know why she was doing this, so he gently took her back and put his arms in his arms.

He raised his eyebrows and was very satisfied with the girl's reaction: "What's the matter?" He even deliberately asked what's wrong!

This is the sum of two lifetimes. For the first time, he called her his wife seriously!

I have been married in my previous life, let alone call her wife, I have never even tried to call her a nickname!

Which time did you call it by your first name or last name, or just ignore it!

But now, he actually called her wife!

“What the hell is going on?” Hunter Jackson’s thin lips came to her ears, whispered: “Huh? Wife?” “Don’t call me like that!” Emily Gale couldn’t stand it, and his liver was beating quickly, breathing even more.

It’s difficult.

Hunter Jackson laughed a little bit before he seemed to realize: “So you don’t like me calling you wife? But, always get used to it, wife!” Wife, wife, wife!

Putting her name by his surname, this day will not be far away.

Emily Gale bit her lip and pressed her heart to the place.

My heart really hurts, sore, and bitter!

Why should you be so good to her, why should you give her so much reluctance?

But she didn’t know whether all this was another disaster for him.

The man next to him still took a steady step and walked into the canteen with his arm around her.

Very big canteen, many, many people

, Are all brothers who have been training in the training ground in the morning.

As soon as he walked in, Emily Gale felt uneasy.

These people always carry more or less hostility, which is even colder than ordinary people.

She knows who they are and why these people are now tamed under the command of Young Master Jackson.

Young Master Jackson is rich and capable. He is the leader everyone wants most.

However, their leader should be aloof, arrogant and unruly, not a man who can be so gentle in front of his own woman.

Emily Gale subconsciously pushed Hunter Jackson, and when he looked up, he happened to see the man entering the door.

"Jiangnan!" She pushed harder and finally left Hunter Jackson's arms and walked towards Jiangnan quickly.

Hunter Jackson frowned. This girl didn't even want her husband when she saw a good friend.

Looking back, you must educate yourself, your husband is bigger than the sky, and you must not leave your husband behind for the sake of your friends!

Well, tonight, I will give you a severe lesson...no, a little criticism.

After all, I am pregnant with a baby, and if I speak louder, I don't know if it will scare the baby.

Seeing Emily Gale walking towards him quickly, Jiang Nan was also uneasy and rushed over.

"Go slow! Be careful! Don't mess around!" This girl is really crazy, don't you know that she is still weak?

The one who dares to walk is faster than the one who runs!

He glanced at the two large packages of snacks he was carrying, and couldn't help but smile: "The boss is treating you badly, didn't he even prepare snacks for you?" He was so excited when he saw him!

It looks like it's crazy!

Chapter 313

This is also my purpose. Emily Gale didn't want to give any explanation, walked in front of Jiang Nan and walked directly beside him.

"Why are you only coming to see me now? I'm here alone..."

"What nonsense? Didn't the boss always stay with you?" Jiang Nan was carrying two large bags, unable to free his hands, and could only look at Hunter Jackson.

"Help, don't let her fall."

Naturally, Hunter Jackson would not let his woman fall. When she walked quickly towards the south of the Yangtze River, he always followed her behind her and kept walking.

However, Emily Gale's words still made him feel guilty.

"I have been training in the morning, and I have no time to accompany her. You just came here, take care of her for me."

Jiang Nan glanced at him, seemingly dissatisfied: "Always throw my own woman to me, so I'm not afraid that I will take it with me.

She ran away?" "Oh, wait until you have this ability."

Hunter Jackson looked disdainful, hugged his woman back, domineeringly announced: "Go to eat!" Jiang Nan walked behind the two, Ross also in.

Seeing the two figures walking in front, Ross felt complicated.

The eldest brother is really different from before. Now the eldest brother not only loves to laugh, but also learns to be gentle.

Although the eldest brother looks gentle, he is actually quite masculine, he doesn't even know how to control his strength.

But he could see that the eldest brother was already working hard, treating his little woman very carefully.

Compared with the cold and inhumane elder brother before, the current elder brother does have a lot of emotions and desires, and it looks more like a living person.

However, Emily Gale has always been his weakness...

"How? Does the food suit your taste? If you don't like it..."

"I like it."

Emily Gale nodded, and said nothing more.

Sitting between Hunter Jackson and Jiangnan, it seemed a little uncomfortable.

Even Hunter Jackson soon felt this uncomfortable.

But he didn't understand a woman's mind, let alone guess what she was thinking.

After lunch, Hunter Jackson only had one hour to rest in the room.

Ross returned to her room, only Jiang Nan stayed with them.

Said it was to accompany, but a certain man actually had an opinion.

"You can come back later."

Hunter Jackson looked at Jiang Nan, who was sitting on the side, overlapping two long legs, with a look of disgust.

"Don't you want me to accompany your woman? What do you mean when I come and hate it? My time is not precious?" Really, he is also the second young master of the Jiang family, the second in command of the Jiang family!

This guy, when calling him, has he considered his feelings?

Emily Gale stared at Jiang Nan, obviously dissatisfied with what he said just now.

"Your time is precious, am I not precious?" "..."

Jiang Nan was stunned.

Did he hear it wrong?

Emily Gale really said this?

She had never said such coquettish words before!

Frozen, he immediately raised his lips, and said with a smile: "Of course you are precious, am I here? I use my actions to prove that you are more important than anyone else.

Are you satisfied?" Is it?" Emily Gale smiled.

Jiang Nan just didn't swear to her: "Really!" Emily Gale satisfactorily opened the packaging bag he sent and found the snack he liked.

They are all non-flammable snacks. When this guy chose, he really did it with great care.

Hunter Jackson hummed, and he had an opinion: "What is said, when I am dead?" Why does this conversation become more and more wrong?

These two guys, dare you to have such a good relationship?

"Your women like to make jokes, what are you yelling at? Beware of scaring the little baby in people's stomach."

Jiang Nan's words made Hunter Jackson's grievances disappear.

It's just a joke, how can it sound uncomfortable?

Is he stupid, one is his friend and the other is his woman, what's the joke?

He has become a little stingy recently, he himself doesn't know why this is happening.

"I'm just kidding."

Although he still felt a little wronged, he was afraid that his bad attitude would scare Emily Gale and the child in her stomach.

No matter what is unpleasant, just digest it by yourself.

"I'm going to prepare. I'm going to take my brothers to training soon. You can keep this guy with you. You can walk around, but don't run too far."

"I know."

Emily Gale just wanted to eat and didn't care about him.

Are you leaving now?

Suddenly Joseph felt even more wronged. He originally thought she would stay, so he stayed with her for a while.

But she just nodded, without even looking at him.

It seems to her that even snacks are more important than him!

The more he thought about it, the more he was wronged, but he had already said he was going to leave, and there was no reason to stay. This was not his Hunter Jackson's style of doing things.

After hesitating again and again, the girl was still eating snacks, and she really ignored him completely!

Finally, Hunter Jackson was stunned, stood up, and left.

The door was closed, and it was clear that Young Master Jackson had a big fire at the beginning, but when the door was about to be thrown, he immediately reached out and stopped it again, and then closed it gently.

Probably, I was afraid that the loud voice would scare Emily Gale.

Such a cautious and considerate boss, even Jiang Nan saw it for the first time.

"What's the matter?" After Young Master Jackson left, Jiang Nan looked at the girl sitting in the chair and frowned, "Fighting?" Emily Gale held the sour plum in his hand, and paused for a moment with his fingertips.

The sour plum reached his lips and took a bite.

"What happened? You usually

Wouldn't joke with me like this, now, in front of the boss, dare you?

"This is not a question of lack of skill, but that her Emily Gale would never do such a naive thing. If it was not intentional, Jiang Nan would not believe it. Emily Gale knows that this guy understands himself, sometimes even her She is not as good as herself.

She looked at the dried sour plums in her hand and thought for a long time before saying: "If I want you to help..."

"Is Ross looking for you?"

Emily Gale looked at him and was a little stunned. Jiang Nan smiled helplessly: "If I said that I was close to your goal at the beginning, in fact, it is the same as Ross's current goal, what will you do?"

"What can I do?"

"Thinking about it now, it seems that everything has changed so naturally. Many mysteries that could not be solved before can now be solved. Sure enough, I approached her with a purpose, but at this moment Emily Gale was not angry at all. .

They are just for Joseph.

"If you want to regain this purpose now, would you still be willing?"

"She asked. This question was put more than a month ago, Jiang Nan didn't need to think at all. Originally, he didn't want her to be with the boss. But now... his eyes couldn't help but fall on her lower abdomen. For a long time , He said: "Are you sure?"

Emily Gale caressed her stomach, her eyes glowing with maternal love, but under her gentleness, she was stubborn and strong.

"I'm sure.

Chapter 314

Boy, I don't want it at dusk when the brothers have finished a day of training and come back from the training ground.

Ross wiped his sweat and walked behind Hunter Jackson.

"Brother, these brothers have their own abilities. I think it won't be long before they can be directly used."

"Yeah."

Hunter Jackson nodded, without any extra comments.

Ross hesitated before asking, "When do you want to start fighting back?" He is now the president of Jackson's family, so he can't stay in this place forever.

Ross actually knew that it was only a small part of the reason why the eldest brother stayed here to train with the brothers.

In fact, after these people received the money and saw the courage of Young Master Jackson, they basically wouldn't leave.

After all, Young Master Jackson can provide them with a future, which is many times better than the days of war in Ali Khan.

Plus, as long as you inquire about the three words Jackson Da Shao in Beiling, who doesn't know how powerful it is?

Following such a boss, there will definitely be a lot to do in the future, and there are definitely not many people who will give up such a good opportunity.

They can work at any time, special training, but let everyone learn to work together.

But his elder brother doesn't need to stay here all the time.

The most important reason for staying here is not for Emily Gale?

How much did Brother sacrifice for that woman?

The pregnancy period is at least ten months. Is it true that the eldest brother plans to stay here and accompany her to make plans after giving birth?

"Brother, our people have touched the nests of those people on Paradise Island.

As long as you give an order, we will immediately join hands with the police to catch them by surprise!" Ross felt excited thinking about it!

Those people who made things difficult for the elder brother before, this time, they must come back with all the profits!

How can they be bullied for nothing?

Hunter Jackson's eyes sank slightly, and two seconds later, he said: "I have my own arrangements.

These days, let everyone know each other first."

"Big brother..."

What makes everyone familiar with each other?

They are all bloody people like wolves, as long as they fight together, they will definitely be familiar with them!

"Our security company is also ready.

As long as you take them back, you can immediately give them a new identity in the name of the employees of the security company!" "I'll talk about it in a few days!" Hunter Jackson walked away, Jackson Ross sighed, looking at his stiff back, helpless.

After all, it was for Emily Gale.

He really couldn't understand, an ordinary woman, what is worthy of the big brother!

Although Hunter Jackson seemed calm, in fact, the little woman who knew she was waiting in the room, her pace had accelerated unconsciously.

She hinted at lunch, she was too lonely here.

Even if he

He left with a grievance, but when he thought that she would be lonely and lonely, he felt very guilty.

So, just after the training, he didn't have the mind to say anything to Ross, and immediately wanted to go back to her.

The thought of seeing Xiaojiao's wife and the little baby in her belly right away—well, the belly is also counted. Young Master Jackson was so anxious that he could not wait to see him immediately.

When he was about to reach the door of the wooden house, Young Master Jackson suddenly stopped.

What's the sound from inside?

"...I really don't want to stay here, Jiang Nan, you said you would tell him about this. Why are we still sneaking up in front of him so far?" What does this mean?

Although Young Master Jackson has been in the business world for so many years, he has never encountered an opponent, but he can't understand a simple sentence.

Maybe it is, do not want to understand.

Jiangnan's deep voice carried an indescribable tenderness and pity.

He didn't know what he was doing, but the voice sounded like he was talking to the girl in his arms.

"The boss really likes you, I can tell..."

"What about you? You said you love me. Did all this lie to me?" Emily Gale has a dumb voice, is she crying?

Hunter Jackson's heart was shocked, even if he was dull, he could hear a general idea now.

But, I still don't want to believe...

"Don't worry, you are pregnant with a baby..."

"I don't want this baby at all! He is the devil! He reminds me of how Hunter Jackson was right that night Mine!" Emily Gale's mood was a little out of control, as if he was struggling.

Jiang Nan hurriedly hugged her, and said anxiously: "The doctor said you are not pregnant, don't mess around, it will hurt the child!" "If you hurt, you will hurt, I said, I don't want him at all! I just want Me and your child! Why is he showing up?" "Of course, don't mess around, listen to me, calm down, calm down first!" Jiang Nan was probably forced by her to have nothing to do. Finally, he gritted his teeth. He said in a deep voice, "Okay! I'll talk to the boss, I'll tell him right away!" He hugged Emily Gale tightly, and gently helped her to sit down by the bed.

He sighed and coaxed softly: "I'll tell him, okay? Don't worry, I will definitely say."

"Aren't you afraid that your brotherhood will be affected by this incident? You are not afraid of him. Do you want to deal with you?" Emily Gale didn't seem to believe what he said, and still remembered it.

Jiang Nan pushed her back again, although the movements were strong, but very gentle.

"I will say, trust me, I will say that it is related to the happiness of both of us, I...I will not give you to the boss anymore."

"Don't lie to me..."

Emily Gale leaned in his arms. Inside, sobbing softly.

Right here

At that time, the door was slammed and kicked open.

The two inside were startled and looked back at the same time.

The wooden door in between was already lying on the ground, and at the door, the figure was lonely and cold, exuding an aura like Shura.

His woman said, don't want their children!

That is his only child!

But she said she didn't want him at all, she said she only wanted her and another man's baby!

The blood in Hunter Jackson's chest was constantly tossing, and he didn't know where he was severely torn apart, torn to flesh and blood!

It hurts!

Even if the bullet passed through the body and the knife struck the flesh, the pain was less than one ten thousandth of the pain now!

The bloody smell has flowed from the chest to the lips, but it was still forced by him.

He stared at the girl who hurriedly got up from the bed, his cold eyes were shocked, and more, he couldn't believe it.

Emily Gale seemed to be frightened, and kept hiding in Jiangnan's arms!

His woman hid in the arms of another man!

"Let go of her!" Hunter Jackson's voice was hoarse and strode over.

"It's none of her business, it's me..."

Jiang Nan hadn't finished saying, suddenly, with a loud bang, Hunter Jackson's fist fell directly on his chest.

Jiang Nan didn't dodge, and abruptly received his punch.

The dull sound of boxing sounded in the air, shockingly indescribable!

Jiang Nan took a few steps back, and finally stabilized his pace.

His complexion did not change, but scarlet bloodshots slipped silently along the corners of his lips...

Chapter 315

As long as you agree, I forgive everything Emily Gale was so scared that he almost screamed.

She didn't expect that Young Master Jackson didn't even say a word, and even started directly.

She thought Jiang Nan was his brother and he would at least be merciful.

Perhaps, Shao Jackson's punch has already saved his affection, otherwise, Jiangnan might not be able to stand.

But no matter what, the blood that Jiang Nan vomited made her almost fainted.

Seeing Hunter Jackson was going to Jiangnan, Emily Gale took a breath and rushed to Jiangnan.

She opened her arms and protected him behind her, looking at Hunter Jackson who was walking towards them step by step, her fingertips trembled in panic.

Young Master Jackson at this moment is really terrifying!

The cold breath is enough to freeze the surrounding air.

"Don't... don't hurt him, you are not allowed to hurt him!" She was really scared.

Young Master Jackson was not a good-tempered person, but she didn't expect that he could put such a heavy hand on her brother.

Is this serious enough to hit him?

“Don’t hurt him!” Watching Hunter Jackson two steps closer to them, she backed away in fright and fell directly into Jiang Nan’s arms.

“I said, let her go!” Hunter Jackson’s voice seemed to be squeezed out of his teeth.

Emily Gale flinched subconsciously, but Jiang Nan stood up straight, not only did not let her go, but even gently hugged her in his arms.

Hunter Jackson’s eyes narrowed, Xiao Sha’s chill suddenly overflowed.

Even Ross, who was standing at the door, quickly walked in, fearing that the eldest brother would be really impulsive, and started to move with Jiang Nan.

Although he was already moving, he hadn’t tried his best with the punch just now.

If the eldest brother doesn’t leave any affection, just a punch will be enough to destroy Jiangnan!

They were brothers who were born and died for more than ten years, and Ross knew that if the eldest brother really killed or maimed Jiangnan, he would regret it in the future.

“Big Brother...”

Hunter Jackson didn’t even look at him, his extremely cold eyes locked on Jiangnan’s arm around Emily Gale.

His whole body was filled with cold murderous aura, without the slightest temperature or the slightest affection.

He, like a killing machine, is ready to kill at any time!

Jiang Nan pursed his thin lips, still hugging Emily Gale, and said lightly: "This matter is my fault."

"No!" Emily Gale hugged his arm and bit his lip before staring at Hunter Jackson.

"It's your fault for Mr. Jackson! You personally pushed me to him! In this situation, why do you only know that you are angry with others, but you never thought that you are also responsible?" He didn't speak, just as if feeling, The smell of blood on the lips is even heavier.

To that face that is always cold

, Flustered and distressed, have been entangled in Emily Gale's heart.

This is the end of the matter and there is no turning back.

Even if it hurts, I can't stop.

She walked out of Jiangnan's arms and walked towards Hunter Jackson.

"Girl..."

Jiang Nan wanted to pull her, but she was pushed away.

It wasn't until less than three steps away from Hunter Jackson that she stopped, raised her head, and met him without the slightest temperature.

"You never gave me the slightest warmth, and even pushed me abruptly from your side and pushed me to other men."

"Young Master Jackson, why do I still like you? What's more, the relationship between us, from Because of a paper agreement at the beginning, do I have the obligation to like you?" She sneered.

Although her heart was bleeding, her expression was more ruthless and disdainful than anyone else.

"I didn't like him originally, it was you! You forced me to like him!" "What am I forcing you? Am I forcing you to climb onto his bed?" Hunter Jackson grabbed her wrist.

The action made Jiang Nan two steps forward immediately.

Even Ross walked over quickly, not daring to approach, but not to stay away.

In any case, Emily Gale is still pregnant with a child. If the first brother loses control and hurts her and the child, he will regret it for life!

"Isn't it? I'm a woman abandoned by my fiance. Suddenly there is a gentle and considerate man next to me.

She is still a super handsome guy. If you are me, Master Jackson, will you be uninterested?" "sh*t!" What is heartbeat?

Could it be that heartbeat is such an easy thing?

Even if there are more women around him, when has he ever been heartbroken?

Emily Gale didn't want to see the disdain and sarcasm in his eyes.

The more so, the more clearly she could see. He really... is not such a man who is easily emotional.

Once emotional, maybe, it's a lifetime.

Do not!

You can't even think about this kind of thing, she is not qualified to think about it now!

"What do you think, it is your own business, I only know that I am in love with Jiangnan, I want to be with him!" "Say it again!" The man's voice was like quenched ice, holding her wrist The five fingers tightened instantly.

Emily Gale's face still changed, because of the pain, a small face was tangled together.

But she still stared at Hunter Jackson, and said loudly: "I want to be with Jiangnan, I love him!" "You!" "Boss! This matter is my initiative, you let her go first."

Jiang Nanyi The face came anxiously, but Hunter Jackson sent it out with a punch.

It seems to be just a random punch, but everyone present knows how heavy Joseph's fist is!

After the second punch, Jiang Nan vomited another mouthful of blood. If he hadn't held the table beside him, even he would be unable to stand!

"Don't hit him again! If you have the ability, you hit me!" Emily Gale wanted

He rushed over, but was always clasped by Hunter Jackson's wrist, unable to struggle.

"Jiangnan!" She looked at the scarlet blood falling on Jiangnan's lips, her eyes distressed, it was true!

Hunter Jackson's heart, because of her look at Jiang Nan, was stabbed again!

pain!

The bloody smell on the lips was so painful that it became rich again.

"Tell me, you were deceived by him."

His breathing was a little messy, his chest was being pulled by something, stabbed, and it was painful, and it was so painful that he could even breathe.

"As long as you say, as long as you promise to forget this man from now on, I... forgive you."

He can't help but forgive!

He couldn't... lose her, and their children, the baby in her belly.

As long as she said, as long as she is willing to return to his side, he can forgive, he can forgive everything.

Stop hurting him by joining hands, his heart will hurt too, it will hurt very much!

"Let's stop making trouble, okay?" The anger just now turned into fear in an instant after she said she loved the man without hesitation.

It turned out that he actually had such a fragile time.

He is afraid, really afraid, afraid that she really doesn't care about him anymore, afraid that she cares about other men already.

He was so afraid that his fingers were trembling, and his tall body was trembling all the time, and he was so afraid that he would fall down at any time.

He is really scared, really scared, does she understand?

Hunter Jackson's thin lips were shaking, and his fingertips were shaking.

He shook her hand, never dared to exert any force, never dared to hurt her again.

"Girl, let's make up, tell me you still want to be with me, let's live a good life, okay?"

Chapter 316

Prove yourself!

As long as you promise, promise to come back to me, I will forgive everything, okay?

Okay?

May I?

Please... No one has seen such a humble side of Young Master Jackson, and no one wants to believe that he can even ask for help in such a low voice.

That's right, his eyes, his words, and his posture are already a plea!

Please, say you still love me, say you are still my woman.

Please... Emily Gale's heart has never been so flustered and sad like this moment.

What I am afraid of is not how I will be treated by him, nor what will happen to Jiangnan, but that he is afraid of something wrong with him.

I don't know why, but there is a feeling that something will happen to him.

She was really panicked, she even turned her head in panic, looking for Jiang Nan's gaze.

She couldn't help but notice, she was afraid, she really regretted it.

However, when he looked up, it was not Jiang Nan, but Ross who was standing not far from them.

Ross looked at them blankly, but she didn't say a word, but the moment Emily Gale saw him, she suddenly felt cold.

The matter has reached this point. When you look back, do you fall short?

Why bother?

Why is this necessary?

She struggled to earn, still unable to earn Hunter Jackson's restraint.

Although he didn't dare to exert any effort, he was not willing to let go.

However, Emily Gale's struggle was already in his heart, severely stabbing several times!

Still unwilling, right?

Is she still reluctant to look back?

Even if he murmured, even if he begged her, he was still unwilling, right?

"Young Master Jackson, thank you for your kindness, but I... the person I love now is him."

Emily Gale waved his hand vigorously again, and finally shook his palm.

She immediately returned to Jiang Nan's side, held up her sleeves, and wiped away the blood on his lips.

"How are you? Are you seriously injured? Let's go to the hospital and let the doctor show you immediately."

Whether it's acting or real, she also cares about Jiangnan's injury.

Joseph's two punches were firm and did not cheat at all.

No one knows what Jiang Nan is hurting now.

Was beaten to vomit blood, it must be an internal injury!

"I'm fine."

Jiang Nan's voice was extremely hoarse, but he managed to give her a comforting smile.

"Don't worry, it's really okay."

"But you vomited blood!" How can this be considered okay?

"It's really okay."

Jiang Nan shook his head and vomited some blood, just a trifle.

Internal injuries are certain, but at least, it won't kill him.

He looked down at Emily Gale and shook her hand, trying to give her courage, but he didn't know whether he was giving her courage now, whether it was right or wrong.

The boss's face was so pale that there was no aura of strangeness, even he was afraid that something would happen to him.

Hunter Jackson's indifferent face became more and more cold, he stood up straight, staring at the two close to each other, his thin lips pursed a bloodthirsty light.

He even tasted the smell of blood.

"Heh..."

The cool low smile, coupled with his face nowadays, looked like a dead person who had lost his breath.

Even if he still breathes, it clearly looks like a walking dead.

He walked towards Jiangnan.

Emily Gale panicked, and immediately turned back to face him, protecting Jiang Nan behind him.

"Don't hurt him anymore! Hunter Jackson, if you... if..."

But he was still walking towards them step by step, Emily Gale was flustered, suddenly didn't know what to pick up, and knocked hard on the table.

"Don't come over!" The sharp glass shards pointed at Hunter Jackson with her raised hands.

"Do you want to deal with me?" At such a moment, he actually wanted to laugh.

Oh, she is a weak woman who has no power to bind a chicken. For a man, she used a broken glass bottle to face him.

Under the light, the glass glowed with Shenren's bleak blue luster.

The ice, piercing, and so cold that all his blood condensed into frost in an instant.

"Don't come here!" Emily Gale was suddenly approached by him, so scared that he almost threw away the broken bottle in his hand.

But she was just a flash away, her hand was already held by Hunter Jackson.

Together with her, he held the glass bottle tightly, and the sharp glass splinter was pressed against his chest.

"You..."

"Prove yourself!" Hunter Jackson stared at her, his gaze was like a merciless night sky, and his voice was like an ice-hardened knife, straight into her heart.

"As long as you stick down, I will let you go! Do it!" "No..."

Emily Gale didn't expect that he would be so crazy!

The glass shards were really sharp, and when he pressed hard on his chest, blood stains leaked through the clothes.

He has no mercy at all, and he can even be so cruel to himself!

If you plunge into it, you will completely stab him.

Emily Gale wanted to let go, but he wrapped her hand tightly.

She was not allowed to let go, and even took her hand to force the glass bottle down her chest!

"Isn't the person you love him? As long as you dare to prove to me, I will believe you! As long as you pierce hard, I promise that you can get out of this island with him safely, and I will never come back!" He sneered.

The smile is good enough to eclipse all things in the world, but it is so cold that it makes all the creatures completely wiped out!

Emily Gale's tears slid, and her whole body was shaking: "Don't force me, don't force me, I just want to be with him, don't force me..."

Don't force her!

She really can't hold it!

"Really? Since you want to be with him so much, then hit me hard!" Specially trained

Brother, everyone has a knife in their boots, and Hunter Jackson will not leave.

Isn't she scared of the glass bottle?

Then use a knife!

Emily Gale could not see at all, when the glass bottle was thrown out of her hand.

When she recovered, what she held in her hand was a shining knife.

The same posture as before, Hunter Jackson held her hand and she held the hilt of the knife.

And the sharp blade is facing his chest, where his heart is.

The tip of the knife has even pierced his skin and flesh, and blood is gushing out, although the blood flow is not much because the piercing is not deep enough, it still seems to be suffocating.

"Big Brother..."

The current situation is completely beyond Ross's expectations.

He hoped that Emily Gale would leave his eldest brother, but he didn't want to let his eldest brother harm himself!

Jiang Nan also did not expect that the boss became crazy, and he could be crazy to this point!

He didn't believe that Emily Gale had transferred to him. He needed to prove it, but the way he proved it was so ruthless!

"Get in! You can be with him!" Hunter Jackson ignored the others at all. In his heart, there was only the crying girl in front of him.

Is she crying because she is afraid, or because she feels distressed?

This is the only way to prove it. If she is really ruthless to him, then why bother with him?

"No, I don't want..."

Emily Gale wanted to throw the knife off, but he held her hand tightly.

The tip of the knife has plunged into his flesh again at this moment.

As long as he moves his hand, the wound on his chest will deepen.

Obviously he was a flesh and blood body, but he didn't feel the slightest pain.

The knife went in, and he didn't even frown his brow!

"Since you are not willing, then come back to me, we can still live a good life."

Hunter Jackson smiled, tightening the five fingers that held her hand, "Come on, make your final decision, or plunge in. Either, come back."

Chapter 317

But he thought he was really crazy!

Jiang Nan and Ross wanted to stop, but the knife was already in the flesh.

If they stop them, he might get the knife in immediately!

Ross is going crazy too!

He took a step forward and said anxiously: "Big Brother, all this..."

"I don't want to be with you!" Emily Gale suddenly yelled, and bumped his head towards a table not far away.

Hunter Jackson was completely dumbfounded. He thought about thousands of possibilities, but never thought that she would rather die than be with him.

Because of his surprise, he let go of his hand, and Emily Gale's hand immediately pulled away from his palm.

The knife fell on the ground with a bang, and he just watched her crash into the marble table and forgot to stop it.

Jiang Nan took a breath, and just like Ross, he passed immediately.

Fortunately, before her head hit the corner of the table, she stopped her.

"It hurts..."

Emily Gale, who was stopped, was holding his stomach, his face pale for a while.

Only then did Hunter Jackson react. He wanted to go and hug her, but he clearly heard her weak call: "Jiangnan, Jiangnan..."

"Don't be afraid, I'm here, I'm here! Don't be afraid!" Jiangnan helped her. When he got up, Emily Gale fell into his arms.

Trying to endure the pain coming from her abdomen, she said dumbly: "Take me away, please, take me away."

Jiang Nan saw that her face was really ugly, and he glanced at Hunter Jackson again. He suddenly bent over and turned her off. Hugged.

"Thousands of mistakes are all my fault! Boss, turn around, I will definitely be guilty of you! Please let us go first!" Emily Gale buried his head in his arms and grabbed his shirt tightly. My forehead was so painful that I was sweating.

But no one knew that she was hurt, only that she looked like she looked like she was the only person she could rely on.

Her harbor, Hunter Jackson always thought it would be himself.

No matter how strong the wind and rain outside, at least, he can shield her from the wind and rain until the moment his life disappears.

But her choice is another harbor, the world that others have supported her.

Emily Gale's body trembled even more severely.

At first glance, his slap-sized face was pale and indifferent, and it seemed that the situation was a bit not optimistic.

Even Ross couldn't help but worry: "Big Brother..."

"Go!" Hunter Jackson clenched his fists, his knuckles creaking.

His face is not even better than Emily Gale's!

Jiang Nan knows how difficult it is for him to say this word.

But now, there is nowhere to go.

"Boss..."

"I will let you go!" Hunter Jackson suddenly raised his fist and hit the marble table with a punch.

A corner of the marble table shattered with a bang!

Emily Gale took a breath, shaking more severely all over.

Even marble can be broken!

His punches can really be so heavy!

The two punches that Joseph landed on Jiang Nan were really very light.

If he fell on Jiang Nan with the same force, would he still live?

Jiang Nan just blinked, and immediately hugged Emily Gale and walked quickly outside the wooden house.

In the open space outside the wooden house, some brothers looked curiously. However, everyone was used to life on the edge of the knife.

They had never paid much attention to the affairs of others, and had not been so curious.

Therefore, Jiang Nan hugged Emily Gale and left, basically not causing much movement.

After getting on the speedboat, he put her down and whispered: "Don't panic, the matter is over for the time being, we..."

"I... my stomach hurts."

Emily Gale grabbed his shirt, her hands trembling constantly.

It was only by the moonlight that Jiang Nan could see clearly that her forehead was full of sweat.

“Don’t panic, take you to the hospital immediately after landing, don’t be afraid!” Vince has been waiting outside, not knowing what happened, and seeing Emily Gale look like this, he panicked too.

Start the speedboat immediately and drive to the other side of the coast at the fastest speed...

The person who stayed in the wooden house could not hear the sound of the sea outside at all, but he seemed to hear the sound of the engine in such a night sky. Below, tore through all the silence.

She left, really chose another man, left from his side.

Hunter Jackson didn’t know what he was feeling now, maybe it was anger, maybe it was despair.

Everything in front of me quickly became blurred, and there seemed to be a lot of voices around me, and finally they all converged into one sentence: The person I love is him, it is him, it is him!

The bloody energy in the chest came to his lips unknowingly.

The smell of fishy sweetness was chilly, and after pressing it several times, it finally couldn’t be suppressed.

With a pop, scarlet blood spilled all over the floor, and the tall body fell straight down.

“Big Brother!” Ross panicked completely.

It is the first time that I have been with my eldest brother for so many years and have seen him fall.

The scarlet in that place, like the bleeding of his own blood, made his eyes sore and uncomfortable.

"Ye Han! Ye Han!" Holding Hunter Jackson in his arms, Ross rushed at the door and called out loudly: "Ye Han! Get me in!" The pale face of the eldest brother, the blood of that whole body, it stabbed his heart deeply.

He thought that as long as Emily Gale left, his eldest brother's life would become clearer.

He thought that as long as that woman was gone, the eldest brother would no longer have weaknesses, and the paradise island would not be considered by the eldest brother!

He thought that everything he did was for the good of his eldest brother.

However, in the end, everything was nothing but what he thought.

Hearing the call, Ye Han hurried in, and saw Ross helping her unconscious.

Hunter Jackson was sitting on the ground, his expression changed, he walked quickly over, and immediately checked Hunter Jackson.

"Blood qi attacks the heart!" Ye Han is not only good at Western medicine, but also very knowledgeable in Chinese medicine.

But after seeing the cases for so many years, when it comes to the words "blood qi attacking the heart", they are basically the records seen in books.

This is the first time I have seen it with my own eyes.

Ye Han was also flustered, vomiting blood with anger, which was very common to say, but it did not happen much.

Once this happens, it means that the internal organs have been severely damaged!

“Hurry up and send him to the medical room!” Without a word, Ross carefully helped Hunter Jackson up, and went to the medical room with Ye Han.

He killed the big brother, everything is caused by him!

If it hadn't been for him to go to Emily Gale, Emily Gale wouldn't come with Jiang Nan like this.

The tacit understanding between the two of them is higher than I can imagine, otherwise, it is impossible for even the eldest brother to be deceived.

What's more, he can clearly see that Jiang Nan cares about Emily Gale.

The eldest brother must have seen this clearly too, otherwise, how could ordinary acting skills fool him?

Will his actions really push Emily Gale to Jiangnan?

What about Big Brother?

Without this woman, can he... really become stronger?

Chapter 318

When she was strong enough, Emily Gale was sent to the hospital, she passed out.

Seeing the blood stain on her skirt, Jiang Nan couldn't wait to kill herself!

He didn't expect that this would be the result.

Maybe Emily Gale couldn't think of it, if she could, she would never do it.

At one o'clock in the morning, the doctor came out of the operating room and shook his head at him.

Jiang Nan only felt that everything in front of him was blurred in an instant.

When the doctor went back and continued to perform surgery on Emily Gale, Vince walked to him and spoke heavily: "Second Young Master...accept the reality."

Jiang Nan did not speak, leaning on the wall with his fists clenched. Tight, the joints turned white.

My child, I can't keep it, it's really gone!

He doesn't want to accept it, but how can he not accept it?

Emily Gale is still in the hospital bed, and she is still unconscious.

She still doesn't know the child has left her, right?

What else can he do besides calming himself down and facing everything?

At about three in the morning that day, Emily Gale woke up in the intensive care unit.

When I woke up, I just looked at the white ceiling quietly, without speaking or doing anything.

In the room, only Jiang Nan was guarding him.

The big wind and waves tonight seem to have passed completely.

Now it's calm and calm, even people are calm.

"RJenni..."

Jiang Nan held her hand and wanted to speak, but his voice was stuck in his throat, and he couldn't squeeze a word out.

There is a feeling of hoarseness and sourness, and when I speak, I almost can't control my emotions.

"I heard... the conversation between the doctor and the nurse."

Emily Gale closed her eyes, and finally a tear slipped from the corner of her eyes.

It's because your mother is not good, and it's because your mother is too self-willed to let you have no chance to come into this world, no chance to see this beautiful world.

It's all her fault... Jiang Nan's fingertips tightened for a while, and he stretched out his hand to wipe her tears away, but his hand was trembling all the time and couldn't reach it out.

Finally, he gave up.

He tightly held her pale little hand and held it on his chest.

"You are still young, don't be afraid..."

"Yeah."

This was the last word Emily Gale said.

She didn't say anything that night.

As dawn approached, Emily Gale developed a high fever, and the doctors and nurses were in a frenzy again.

At noon the next day, the high fever finally went down, but she was always confused.

Jiang Nan stayed by her side, from the first night of admission to the third morning, sixty to seventy hours, his sleep time added up to less than two hours.

He always took a nap when he was too sleepy to hold it, but he woke up immediately after a minute or two.

Feeling uneasy, afraid that she would not notice when she woke up, so she slept extremely restlessly.

Close up

The eyes are disturbed, so I can only rely on coffee to continue my life and keep myself awake.

He hopes that when she wakes up, he can find out at the first time, no matter what she wants, he can prepare it for her as soon as possible.

This persisted for almost three days, but finally couldn't hold it, sat on the edge of the bed, closed his eyes and fell asleep for a while.

When Emily Gale woke up, the first thing he saw was the dark circles under his long eyelashes.

He leaned on the chair, and his sitting posture was very standard even when he was sleeping.

Have you ever seen people sitting so upright when they are sleeping?

Sit tightly, and wake up at any time.

At least it still looks refreshing, except for the dark circles under the eyes that can't be covered anyway.

In these three days, she was not completely lethargic.

She could actually feel everything around her, but she didn't want to wake up.

Because once she woke up, she had to face it, she didn't have enough courage to face it all.

But now, maybe, it's really time to wake up.

She gently clutched her belly, her eyes soft.

The baby has only temporarily left, but one day, he will come back.

Maybe she is not strong enough now and is not qualified to protect him, so the baby chooses to leave.

You will come back when your mother is strong enough, OK?

She moved her upper body, and Jiang Nan, who was sitting in the chair, opened her eyes suddenly as if she was frightened in a dream.

"Wake up?" Seeing Emily Gale looking at himself with open eyes, Jiang Nan suddenly became nervous.

"How? What's wrong? I call a doctor..."

She just held his hand, held it gently, and shook her head.

There are some sentiments that don't need to be said, but she will remember his kindness for a lifetime.

"You..."

I realized that my voice was hoarse to this point, and my throat was squeezed into my throat, almost unable to squeeze it out.

"You just woke up, and your throat is still in sleep clothes. Don't talk first. Slowly."

Jiang Nan felt unsafe, so he called the doctor over.

The doctor checked Emily Gale and said, "The patient is fine, but he slept too long, and his body is still weak."

"When can I drink water? Is it okay now? When can I eat? What can I eat? Is there anything I can't touch? Can I take her out for a walk? I haven't seen the sun for a few days.

And..."

Emily Gale lay quietly on the bed, looking at the man standing by the bed talking to the doctor.

He had joked and complained before that he was going to be a nanny.

At that time, she disagreed.

But now, I suddenly realized that Young Master Jiang had unknowingly played the role of a babysitter for her for a long time.

This kind of long-winded conversation between mother-in-law and mother-in-law, how

Maybe it came from the mouth of the second master Jiang?

When did their relationship become so good?

She suddenly stretched out her hand, Jiang Nan saw it, and immediately broke off the conversation with the doctor, bending over to hold her hand.

"How? Is it uncomfortable? What do you want?" Emily Gale just looked at him without speaking.

With her appearance, Jiang Nan didn't know what she wanted, so she could only ask the doctor for help.

The doctor looked at Emily Gale and Jiang Nan again, and sighed slightly: "At this time, just stay with her."

The child is gone, at least, the love is still there.

"You are still young, and the child will still have it in the future. Take a good rest, take care of your body, and everything will be fine."

Jiangnan's ear roots became hot, and the doctor misunderstood and thought the child was his.

Emily Gale nodded, and tried to squeeze out a few words to the doctor: "I... keep up well."

Emily Gale stayed in the room all day.

Because I slept for too long and my body was still weak, I couldn't go out.

Jiang Nan stayed in the ward with her too. Emily Gale tried to persuade him to sleep for a while, but he refused.

Until ten o'clock in the evening, Emily Gale was helped to bed by him and was about to go to bed. Jiang Nan still just sat in a chair and looked at her.

"I'm okay, you go to bed too."

Continue like this, she suspects this guy will fall before herself.

Jiang Nan shook his head: "I'm not sleepy, I'll go to bed later, and watch you fall asleep first."

But she knew that even if he fell asleep, he would still not want to go to bed.

After thinking about it, she moved her body and vacated half of the bed: "You will sleep here."

"No, I am big and will squeeze you."

Jiang Nan immediately refused.

"Then I won't sleep either."

She said she would even sit up when she said she would not sleep.

Jiang Nan hurriedly pushed her back gently, and seeing her stubborn, he was really going to be completely defeated.

He always seemed to find it difficult to refuse her request, and finally lay down on the other side of the bed carefully.

But in fact, I knew it was just to comfort her, and when she fell asleep, he got up.

Emily Gale finally closed his eyes, but didn't want to just close his eyes, he suddenly felt a chilly breath, pouring in from the door...

Chapter 319

If you are going to hell, Jiangnan will sit up for the first time.

However, it was too late. When Hunter Jackson entered the door, he saw the two people sleeping together.

All the self-conceptions were completely shattered after seeing the two men getting along harmoniously.

There is no such thing as thinking that everything is clearly in front of him.

But he didn't come to see them show affection. He was in a coma for three days and just woke up today.

Thinking of Emily Gale's departure, his face was pale and his whole body was shaking. He didn't think of anything, so he immediately returned from the island.

He just wanted to know if she was okay and had children.

But I didn't want to. When I came back, I found out that she was in the hospital.

"Boss..."

Jiang Nan stood up abruptly from the bed.

At this time, seeing him was still a bit cramped.

Emily Gale suddenly grabbed his wrist and shook it gently, "I have something to say to Young Master Jackson, can you go out first?" "You..."

Jiang Nan looked down at her without responding.

But Hunter Jackson said coldly: "Let him get out! Get away!" It was Emily Gale who said he wanted to talk to him, so he just listened. What else does this woman want to say to herself.

If... she is willing to look back... Jiang Nan hesitated, but Emily Gale shook his head at him.

Jiang Nan hesitated, and finally left the door, guarding the other end of the corridor with Ye Han.

Hunter Jackson and Emily Gale wanted to talk, no matter what they said, it should not be what they asked.

In the room, Hunter Jackson stared at the girl sitting on the hospital bed.

She looked pale and looked very weak, and his condition was not much better.

She was pale as paper.

"You..."

"I decided not to have this child, Young Master Jackson, sorry."

Emily Gale said calmly.

Hunter Jackson was taken aback, completely unable to react. What did she mean by this?

He was about to come back as soon as he woke up, but he did not expect that the first conversation he met was like this!

"The doctor said that I was too weak to have a baby at this time, so I simply asked him to take the baby... away."

"What did you say?" Hunter Jackson's eyes went dark, and his tall body suddenly shocked. , Finally got a hold of it.

He walked quickly and clasped her wrist.

"What did you say? You say it again!" "How many times do you want me to say it! The child is gone! Look, what kind of needle is this? Can you see the anti-inflammatory needle?" She put it on the bedside table and handed it in the morning.

At the time, the list of needles sent with the drip bottle was thrown in front of him.

"Anti-inflammatory injection, understand? You can't get this kind of injection when you are pregnant with a child! I can get it now because the child is gone!" "You lie to me! You lie to me!" How could she be ruthless here Point?

How could she kill their children with her own hands!

"Hunter Jackson, I just don't want to give you any room for fantasy! I have asked the doctor to treat the child...well!" There was a tingling pain on her neck, and her fragile neck fell into his hand.

Joseph's five fingers tightened, his eyes were scarlet!

Ah!

What was he thinking when he came?

Just now, when this woman said something to tell him, what was he thinking?

He actually thought, if she regrets now, she chooses to return to him now, he!

Forgive her!

He actually wanted to forgive her!

After she had killed his child!

Hunter Jackson, you've lived too uselessly in your life!

For this woman, who have you become?

Give back without principle, sacrifice without bottom line, don't want your own career, your own life, or even your own dignity!

But what did he get in exchange?

Women's merciless betrayal, and endless harm!

"How dare you kill my child! Don't you dare!" His five fingers kept tightening, and his eyes glowed like a beast with scarlet luster.

His breathing was chaotic, his whole body was demoralized, and he didn't know what he was doing.

He didn't know anything, only knew that his child was gone, his child was killed by this woman herself!

"Emily Gale! Give the child back to me! Give it back to me!" Emily Gale's eyes widened.

She opened her mouth but couldn't breathe at all.

Young Master Jackson's strength was not something she could resist, and her neck was so fierce that her whole body ached.

In front of him, he was full of angry flames, like an out of control beast!

His cold seemed to come from hell, and the scarlet and violent eyes were enough to kill the animals in the entire forest.

The breath of Xiao Sha completely enveloped her.

Emily Gale couldn't breathe, the air in her chest became thinner and thinner, and her consciousness gradually disappeared.

She doesn't want to die, but she can't even call for help now.

He was really going to kill her... Those bright eyes gradually became muddy, and the palm-sized face became red.

Her hands were shaking, her whole body was twitching, it seemed that she was on the verge of death.

Hunter Jackson still stared at her, his eyes burning with anger that destroyed the world.

Why kill his child?

Why betray him?

Why is it so cruel!

This woman!

She can hurt him or even kill him herself!

But why do you want to start with his children?

Their child, his only child... In the sight of the girl, the girl's eyes widened, but her eyes became more and more absent.

The pupils seemed to be dizzying, her whole body, her breath was quickly disappearing.

His favorite eyes were no longer bright, two clear tears fell at the corners of the eyes... Suddenly, Joseph Muyi

Throw away the girl in your hand.

She was like a fallen leaf in the autumn wind, slipping softly from the head of the bed, slowly sliding towards the side of the bed.

In the end, he fell to the ground with a thump, without any response.

But her chest was still undulating, people still breathed, and chaotic eyes entered the body with the fresh air, slowly, regaining a trace of brightness.

She thought she was really going to die this time, but she didn't want to know that she was still alive.

The man stood in front of her, looking down at her, watching her slide down from the bed and fall to the ground, without the slightest intention to lift her up.

At this moment, Emily Gale didn't even have the strength to lift his fingers.

Only a pair of eyes can blink slightly and look at a man in coldness.

"Heh," Hunter Jackson laughed suddenly, hoarse laughter, there was a breath of deathly silence.

"Want to stay and fly with my child after killing my child?" He knelt down, his long fingers resting on her chin, his fingertips tightened, and her chin was pinched tightly.

"It's good to think, but have you asked me my opinion?" Emily Gale was speechless, and his throat was still hot and painful.

It was not easy to survive. Now, where is the strength to say something?

"Don't think that I will let you off so easily."

At this moment, the young Master Jackson was a little less calm and more, but he was as gloomy as death!

He threw away Emily Gale's chin, as if he had discarded a dirty trash.

Standing up, looking down at her, Xiao Sha's hostility was all in his eyes.

"After I clean up the choppy on Paradise Island, you will be the next one to go to hell!"

Chapter 320

When the wolf-like man Hunter Jackson came out of the ward, he didn't have the slightest breath of strangeness.

I always feel that he is different, but I can't tell the difference.

Ye Han greeted him and said in a low voice: "Young Master."

He didn't say a word, didn't even glance at anyone.

The chilly air lingered around him, accompanied him, and disappeared at the end of the elevator.

Jiang Nan was stunned for a long time, only to remember that Emily Gale was still in the room, and immediately walked over.

When she entered the door, she was frightened by the person who fell on the ground, and quickly walked over and helped her up.

"What's going on?" She looked dying, with bright red fingerprints on her neck, clearly pinched out!

"He did it to you?" The boss never did it to a woman, let alone a woman he likes. What happened?

"No...thing."

Emily Gale grabbed his clothes and said hoarsely: "Don't... alarm the doctor, I'm fine..."

She has relieved, although her throat still stings when she breathes. However, there will be no danger.

Jiang Nan looked ugly, picked her up from the ground, and gently laid it on the ground.

After pouring a glass of boiling water for her to drink, watching her complexion a little better, Jiang Nan squeezed his fist and asked, "What did he do to you?" It was obvious that her neck was pinched with such force. , Till now the fingerprint is still bright red.

There were only two of them in the room just now.

These fingerprints must have been left by Hunter Jackson.

But why... Emily Gale bit his lip, and after the blood faded, his face immediately became paler than before.

She didn't speak, her whole body seemed to have been exhausted from all strength.

Seeing her like this, Jiang Nan couldn't bear to ask no matter how much doubt.

"If you don't want to say..."

Emily Gale's eyes flickered, and finally looked up at him, opening her mouth with difficulty.

"I told him... I asked the doctor to shed the child... and shed the child..."

...

She passed a quiet period, about a month, without any kidnapping, assault, slander, and entanglement.

This whole month was very quiet.

In addition to school, I went to work in Jiang's family. Within a month, not only my body was well developed, but my work was also smooth.

The talent show of Su Xiaomi and He Lingzhi Nong was finally increased by Emily Gale's investment.

Nowadays, the talent show is linked to anime COS performances, and it has become a variety show.

There is a weekly live-action talent show.

After the first episode was broadcast, the effect unexpectedly exceeded expectations, and the ratings ranked among the top three in the variety show!

This is definitely a surprise!

"Are you sure you didn't buy the ratings?" While eating, Su Xiaomi looked at the report and smiled so much

Almost disappeared.

"What nonsense? The industry is suppressing fraud. Our September Media is a big company, so we won't do such a thing!" He Lingzhi rolled her eyes at her: "You really don't talk nonsense, watch out for ears on the wall. , When the time comes, it will really come from nowhere."

What happened to the executives of September Media and heard that they were buying ratings, it was really a disaster.

You know, many things are now easily brought online.

For a company, especially a media company like them that wants to do word-of-mouth, black reviews and other things have a great impact.

After all, just getting started.

"It's just a joke.

As for people to be overheard?" However, Su Xiaomi really didn't dare to say anything about buying ratings.

"Watch TV and watch TV!" Su Xiaomi squeezed a little smile and turned on the TV in the box.

Before Jackson Tianyou and the others came, He Lingzhi ordered some snacks, and the three of them ate and waited in the box.

It took too long to watch TV and didn't know what to watch. Su Xiaomi adjusted the channel casually and put down the remote control.

Several people were chatting while eating melon seeds.

On the TV, suddenly came a few familiar words-Paradise Island.

Emily Gale was taken aback, suddenly raised his head and looked at the TV screen. Unknowingly, the melon seeds in his hand fell on the table.

"Beiling's largest underground entertainment group Paradise Island, the police have recently obtained information on several important behind-the-scenes personnel.

The police are launching large-scale arrests..."

Su Xiaomi and He Lingzhi also watched the news, and He Lingzhi immediately said His face was excited: "Oh! This big malignant tumor will finally be uprooted!" "Is it amazing?" Su Xiaomi didn't know much about this mysterious organization like Paradise Island.

He Lingzhi is a news source, what do you not know?

She quietly said: "Very powerful! It almost monopolizes the entire underground entertainment industry in Beijing."

"Why is there underground entertainment?" Su Xiaomi really didn't understand this.

What do you want to entertain? There are so many entertainment companies and places in Beijing, so many entertainment projects in each place, are they not enough for everyone to play?

"What do you know, that paradise island, many entertainment projects you have never seen before."

Although He Lingzhi has never seen it before, he can imagine it.

"You little yellow-haired girl who doesn't have a lot of trouble doesn't understand the thoughts of those rich and famous men, and they don't care about money, they care about excitement."

"Even the police are dispatched, really so powerful?" Su Xiaomi was right. This paradise island suddenly became curious.

"It's really amazing.

It's said that it has its own power organization."

"Then this time..."

"It seems to say that some forces are helping..."

Things about big people, they are ordinary

The ordinary people will not know the inside story.

But since the news can report this incident today, it shows that the matter has actually come to an end temporarily, that is to say, it is almost over.

Emily Gale didn't hear a word of what they said later.

I just couldn't help it, took out the phone and opened Weibo.

I was still hesitating whether to search for something, but before she could do it, some popular search terms were already in view.

Young Master Jackson, a man like a wolf...

A man like a wolf, she remembered what he said when he left that day, and the murderous aura of destruction.

After Paradise Island, it will be your turn.

It's your turn... I don't know from which corner of the body, a hint of coolness suddenly sprang up.

Those photos that can't be taken at all, can still be vaguely distinguished, it is him.

Leng Yi's profile, arrogant figure, the mysterious second identity speculated by the outside world, rumored to be a wolf-like man.

She closed her eyes, then turned off Weibo, walked outside the box, and dialed a certain number.

"Where?" As soon as the call was connected, a low voice came: "I'll pick you up."

"I want to have dinner with them, and won't come back temporarily."

She smiled, this guy, every time he calls He just said to pick her up, and he wouldn't ask what's the matter first.

Jiang Nan put down the mouse and asked, "Then, what's the matter?" Emily Gale smiled away from her lips and asked in a low voice, "What's going on with the paradise island?"
