

Love Through Time and Space

Chapter 363

Little things, keep up Emily Gale thought that his acting skills were good enough.

At least, what she wants to interpret now is a poor creature who doesn't speak when she is wronged.

But she didn't expect that the old man's words would make her eyes hot, and her eyes immediately became red.

Because she knew that the father's concern was real.

She hurriedly turned away, avoiding the father's gaze.

Obviously this kind of grievance seems more real, but because of the truth, it appears guilty.

She didn't want to act in front of this old man, not at all.

I obviously don't want to act, but I can't control my emotions.

This effect is more real than deliberately acting.

She really didn't expect that after her grandmother was gone, she would still care about her elders in this world.

She thought that grandma was everything to her.

"It's okay."

Emily Gale wiped away tears, not wanting the old man to worry.

"I was playing around with her..."

Kylena Gale originally wanted to scold her for acting in front of the old man.

Unexpectedly, this dead girl didn't seize the opportunity to sue herself in front of everyone.

With a joke, Kylena Gale was about to say those curse words, and suddenly she didn't know where to go back.

Zyden Gale glanced at Kylena Gale.

He inexplicably resisted this Miss Gale Jiasun.

She could see clearly the time she changed her face just now.

But she is Miss Sun of Gale's family, no matter what, she can't be outside, it's too embarrassing to her.

Zyden Gale's eyes fell on Emily Gale: "Really okay?" "Really okay."

Emily Gale shook his head and stood up.

"You..."

Aspen Li said immediately: "Master Gale is here to visit Miss Gale."

Although there are two Miss Gale here, Aspen Li has always been called Madam Emily Gale or Miss Ranran.

So this Miss Gale is obviously referring to Kylena Gale.

The old man said, "Ranran, why are you here?" "Ranran used to be..."

Zyden Gale thought for a while, but decided not to mention the matter in front of the old man.

He changed his words: "Vic lives here, of course it is her sister.

It doesn't hurt to come and live for a while."

Although the old man obviously didn't agree with this statement, he didn't ask.

He looked back at Kylena Gale, and said lightly: "Have you had breakfast?" "...No."

Really not.

After staying up all night, Kylena Gale is actually hungry, tired, and sleepy now!

I want to go back to rest!

But he was afraid that if he walked away, he would have more opportunities to contact Emily Gale.

She walked over and took the old man's arm: "Grandpa, I want to go for a walk, will you accompany me?" "Go down for breakfast first."

The old man is here, and it seems that there are not many guests as guests.

consciousness.

He looked at Aspen Li and said politely: "Can you prepare for these two girls earlier?" "Already ready."

Aspen Li replied immediately.

Kylena Gale was not happy, and shook the old man's hand.

"Grandpa, I just want to have breakfast with you!" "It doesn't matter, I can let someone make a separate table for the three."

Aspen Li smiled, but looked at Emily Gale: "Miss Ranran, the young master is here. Morning exercises in the backyard, I will be back soon, will you wait for him?" Kylena Gale was suddenly depressed!

What the hell!

Ask her to accompany the old man to breakfast, but let Emily Gale and Joseph eat together alone?

Didn't they get along alone enough last night?

Kylena Gale was so angry that she wanted to chop Aspen Li!

"Joseph wants to have breakfast, so I have to accompany him, otherwise, he won't be able to eat it!" She was also worried about asking Emily Gale to accompany the old man.

"Grandpa, if you go back to the hotel first, I will come to you immediately after breakfast with Joseph."

"It's okay, grandpa is here today to visit Young Master Jackson."

He just didn't expect that Emily Gale would also Here, it can be regarded as a surprise.

Originally, Zyden Gale heard that Emily Gale had left the game that night, and he was also going to see her.

But not wanting, she came here.

Kylena Gale was in a meeting for a while, but she couldn't think of an excuse to separate Emily Gale from her father.

Their own performance just now made them feel lumps.

It was Emily Gale who said "joking around" to relieve her.

Although she didn't want to appreciate at all, she was not so stupid that she couldn't see the situation clearly.

At this time, if I have to make trouble, it is really a bit too much.

Just now, even Zyden Gale looked at her a little more distant.

The eldest young master of the Gale family, although only his father's family, he stayed with his mother's family name.

But anyway, now under the hands of the old man, Zyden Gale has the most power.

She didn't want to offend this grandson, at least, before she could stand firm.

The group went downstairs, and Aspen Li asked the housekeeper to prepare earlier.

As soon as I arrived in the hall, I saw Hunter Jackson Chen returning from training.

He was dressed in dark casual clothes, and his body was obviously sweaty. When he entered the door, he brought in a breath of coldness.

It's so cold that it makes people avoid three points!

Sweat wetted his clothes a lot, and sweat dripped on his short hair.

The cold eyes were stained with invisible light, deep and domineering.

Kylena Gale was stunned.

Every time Hunter Jackson appeared in his sight, he always looked better and more attractive every time.

She has been by his side for more than two months, no matter how shocking the world is, she should have seen enough.

However, this man is completely different from ordinary people.

Not enough!

Never see enough!

Even every time, I feel that there are new surprises, which will make people more addicted.

Not to mention Kylena Gale, even Emily Gale, for a few seconds, he couldn't look away from Hunter Jackson's body.

She withdrew her gaze with difficulty, not allowing herself to indulge in the charm of this man.

It's just that my heart is unwilling. Why is my body still aching after one night has passed.

But this man can be full of spirits, refreshed, and even take his brothers to exercise!

She was not reconciled, and had to admit that this man was a deadly poison!

Men do not know what their mentality is when they see it, but women will be poisoned when they see it.

She lowered her head and stood behind Old Man Gale, trying to reduce her sense of existence.

Hunter Jackson had better not see her.

Aspen Li hurriedly walked over, greeted Hunter Jackson, and said, "Young Master, the Gale family is here."

"Yeah."

Hunter Jackson replied lightly and walked to the Gale family: "Welcome, I can't greet you! "Miss Gale and Miss Ranran haven't used breakfast yet, Master Gale is planning to dine with them."

Aspen Li explained.

"Good."

Although Hunter Jackson is habitually cold and arrogant, he at least respects Master Gale.

He has always admired Gale's status in the pharmaceutical industry!

This old man didn't meet many times, but it was rare for him to have such a lofty status and be so gentle with others.

"I'm sorry, Master Gale, Mr. Gale, I'll leave it for a while."

He was sweating, so he had to go to the bath and change his clothes first.

The old man nodded and admired the young man with just one glance.

Zyden Gale also smiled and said, "Then I will dine with my grandfather and the two young ladies first, so you're welcome."

"It's good to be my family."

Hunter Jackson nodded.

After greeting the old man, he walked upstairs.

Emily Gale breathed a sigh of relief.

Probably I am used to being oppressed by Young Master Jackson. This will make Young Master Jackson not trouble her, thank God!

But her happiness seemed to come too early.

Only after Hunter Jackson walked a few steps, behind him, he heard his low voice: "Little thing, keep up!"

Chapter 364

It's just a maid. Hunter Jackson didn't specify who he wanted, but there seemed to be only two people who could be called small things.

Emily Gale is younger, eighteen years old. To Hunter Jackson, 27, he is indeed young.

Although Kylena Gale is older than Emily Gale, she is not much bigger.

This little thing, of course, can also refer to her.

The old man and Zyden Gale naturally didn't know who Joseph called, probably, only the person called would know.

Emily Gale squeezed her palms tightly, hoping that this call without a surname was not called himself.

But he kept calling her that last night.

Can you treat her as absent?

After tossing for most of the night, now, seeing him feel weak.

Kylena Gale didn't know who he was calling, after all, Young Master Jackson had never called herself that way.

But Emily Gale didn't react at all!

She didn't respond, that is to say, Emily Gale wasn't sure if she was calling her, was he?

Kylena Gale waited for another two seconds, but Emily Gale still showed no sign.

She was surprised in secret, and hurried to chase after her.

Emily Gale doesn't know how to praise.

At this time, even if she was the one called by Young Master Jackson, she would be disgusted because she was disobedient.

"Joseph, I will accompany..."

Hunter Jackson stopped, and when he looked back, all Kylena Gale's words were blocked in his throat.

After that, a word could not be squeezed out.

His eyes didn't fall on her, he was clearly seeing Emily Gale!

This girl didn't even react at all, deliberately challenging his patience?

Hunter Jackson squinted his eyes, "Should I carry you up?" Emily Gale sighed, reluctantly, and walked out from behind Old Man Gale.

The old man and Young Master Gale are here, this bastard really doesn't give any face.

Wouldn't she be embarrassed if she didn't know this?

"I, I've been helping here recently."

Emily Gale made an excuse temporarily and smiled awkwardly at the old man, and then immediately walked to Hunter Jackson.

Only then did Hunter Jackson retract his gaze and move upstairs.

The little guy followed behind him pathetically, his legs didn't know what was going on, as if walking a bit unwieldy.

Therefore, it is not fast enough to follow, and it is a bit difficult to follow.

The hall downstairs was suddenly silent.

There is a sense of sight looking at each other.

Finally, Aspen Li coughed lightly and pulled everyone's attention back.

"Um, Master Gale, it's better to go to dinner first."

Aspen Li respectfully invited.

The old man still stared at the stairs without taking his eyes back.

RJenni helping here... is it true?

However, Kylena is here, but it is obviously the status of a young lady...

"Well, she said she wants to experience life, so I asked her to come here as a maid and have a good experience."

Kylena Gale couldn't find a better excuse, just Can follow this

Let's go on.

She did not admit the relationship between Emily Gale and Joseph, nor did she want anyone to admit it!

Emily Gale is a maid here!

Hunter Jackson said this by himself yesterday.

That's right, just a maid!

Father Gale was still suspicious.

The relationship between Young Master Jackson and Ranran... it seemed a bit too casual if it was the young master and the maid.

The attitude that Hunter Jackson had just asked Emily Gale to go upstairs was like asking his closest person to go upstairs with him.

Is it really just a maid?

A young master threatened to carry a maid...?

"Grandpa, I'm a little uncomfortable, I want to go up and have a rest."

Emily Gale followed Joseph up to the second floor, and Kylena Gale just didn't know how to eat.

She wanted to go up and see what they were doing.

Although, she knew she didn't have the courage to push the door of Young Master Jackson's room open.

What kind of fascinating soup did that b*tch pour into Young Master Jackson?

Why does Young Master Jackson hate women approaching so much, but he wants her alone?

"Where is it uncomfortable? Do you want grandpa to take you to the hospital?" The old man still felt sorry for his granddaughter.

Looking at her injured hand, he said softly: "Did the wound hurt again?" "Yes, I was accidentally pinched by Emily Gale in the morning."

Pinch!

This word is a deliberate act, not accidental.

However, after listening to her, the old man didn't even mean to blame Emily Gale.

Kylena Gale bit her lower lip secretly, feeling resentful.

Why can this dead old man be so tolerant to Emily Gale?

Does he really not believe in himself?

She is his granddaughter!

If this continues, Emily Gale will grab her place sooner or later and become Miss Gale Jiasun.

How can I make the old man hate Emily Gale?

... Emily Gale bit the bullet, followed behind Hunter Jackson, and entered the door.

"Close the door."

The man walked in and took off his casual jacket.

Emily Gale closed the door, and when he looked back, he saw his strong and generous back unreservedly presented in front of him.

A tough muscle, strong and powerful!

The body is full of sweat that hasn't dried out, and it's so s*xy!

It's toxic!

Hunter Jackson turned his head suddenly, his sharp gaze fell on her face.

Emily Gale didn't expect that he would suddenly turn around, staring at his back before it was too late to retract.

The next second, it was fixed on his tangled chest.

Suddenly, she couldn't look away, and she was completely stunned.

"I watched it all night, haven't seen enough?" Hunter Jackson was expressionless, not at all joking.

Emily Gale blushed, hurriedly lowered his head, and closed his eyes back.

His tall and perfect body is indeed very attractive, but what she just saw is not

It's his bewitching body.

Rather, his injuries.

The former young master Jackson, although he had some wounds on his body because of his training when he was young.

However, it is definitely not as serious as it is now.

The scars on this body are densely intertwined!

Obviously, he was injured more than a month ago.

The wound is so bad, the wound is dense!

How did he survive that month?

"You..."

Emily Gale's jaw tightened suddenly, and his face was pinched in his palm.

She didn't know how he came here at all, this rapid speed made her unable to adapt.

I knew he was great before, but now, he is even more powerful than she can imagine!

He seems to have higher and higher demands on himself.

Before dawn, I went to the back mountain to train and came back with sweat.

This man is getting tougher!

"What do you want?" He asked, also like an order.

If you don't follow, you will definitely be punished!

Emily Gale let out a sigh of relief, a little helpless: "I'm looking at your injuries..."

"You are not qualified to see it!" He let go of her suddenly, throwing her a cold back.

"Come in!" This injury is an existence she can't mention.

Because it's all for her!

Emily Gale bit her lip and walked behind him silently.

Isn't it just to let her wait on him for a bath?

You can imagine with your toes!

I thought it could be calm, but seeing him standing in front of her, waiting for her to serve her, her face still blushed.

Give Young Master Jackson... take off your pants, it seems to be... the first time?

"Don't do it yet?" The man looked down at her, aloof!

Emily Gale pursed her lips, knowing that resistance would not do any good, so she squatted down in front of him.

After taking a deep breath, he stretched out his slightly stiff hands and opened the zipper for him...

Chapter 365

There is a feeling of being deceived, "I have class tomorrow."

When dressing him, Emily Gale hesitated for a while before finally speaking.

Beg him!

No way, she is completely his vassal now.

If you don't ask him, you probably won't even be able to go back to school.

Hunter Jackson said nothing, not knowing whether it was a rejection or an agreement.

"Major Jackson, can I go back to class?" Emily Gale buttoned his shirt one by one.

The other party still didn't say a word.

Emily Gale was desperate. For these three months, did he plan to trap her in Wangyue Pavilion?

Does she have to thank him and allow her to touch her notebooks and books?

Otherwise, she would not even have the opportunity to study or work.

Reluctantly, he had to retreat quietly after he fastened the belt.

She is a docile maid.

Joseph walked outside the gate of Beichao.

Old man Gale is still down, it's time for him to go and be with others.

Emily Gale was bored and planned to wait for him to leave before going back to the room to work.

But his tall figure stopped at the door.

"What are you doing?" "Eh?" What does this mean?

Emily Gale looked up at him, but didn't understand his intention.

"Don't wait for me to eat breakfast?" The man snorted, with a cold expression on his face: "Want to regret it?" Of course she didn't want to!

If he regrets it, he still doesn't know what will happen to He Lingzhi.

But, she seems to only agree to be his woman, right?

maid?

Inexplicably more title, there is no opportunity to refuse.

Waiting!

Really regard yourself as a king!

But she has to admit that people are heaven here!

King, there is no wrong word.

Emily Gale walked behind Hunter Jackson and followed him downstairs.

Elder Gale and Kylena Gale are still in the side hall.

Kylena Gale originally wanted to go up and rest, but the old man did not intend to leave, insisting on waiting for Hunter Jackson.

She is afraid that when Emily Gale will come down, she will have too much contact with the old man.

After much deliberation, I decided to stay to prevent Emily Gale and the old man from getting alone.

Seeing Hunter Jackson walking into the side hall, Zyden Gale immediately greeted: "It's rude, Young Master Jackson, I treat you here as my own today, please don't mind."

"It's okay, I'm afraid that Old Master Gale and Young Master Gale are too polite. ."

Hunter Jackson walked over, and the butler immediately opened the chair for him.

After Hunter Jackson sat down, Emily Gale stood behind him, and she was no different from the maid.

I really came here to help.

Seeing Emily Gale doing this, Old Man Gale breathed a sigh of relief.

A little girl, it's good to experience life.

As long as you don't... follow Joseph with no name and no points, he will be relieved.

The servant brought up Hunter Jackson's breakfast, which was always so monotonous.

coffee

Coffee, sandwiches, fried eggs.

He is never picky about what he eats, and breakfast is always simple.

On the contrary, in front of Kylena Gale, there are a pile of snacks every day, at least a dozen kinds of snacks.

A rich and aristocratic woman is naturally delicate. If she doesn't even eat breakfast, it will affect her mood all day.

"Grandpa, do you have anything to do with Joseph?" According to the plan, they should return to Lingzhou, but Kylena Gale was reluctant to leave Young Master Jackson so quickly.

But now it seems that I still have to let Grandpa go back quickly, so as not to have long nights and dreams.

The ghost knew that he and Emily Gale also had intersections, and he was really afraid of something.

"I'm here to thank Young Master Jackson for taking care of you during this time."

The old man of the Gale family looked at Hunter Jackson with a gentle expression.

"Our Kylena has been here for so long. Thanks to the care of Mr. Jackson, my old man officially thanked Mr. Jackson."

When he was serious, his usual naughty was different.

This is the temperament that a superior in the business world should have.

"When Master Jackson is free to arrive in Lingzhou in the future, the old man, I will definitely host a banquet in person to entertain you."

"It's a matter of your own."

It means grandma to let Kylena Gale stay by her side.

For this matter, there is no need for others to thank yourself.

But the old man heard another meaning from these words.

"Young Master Jackson, you and Kylena..."

He looked at Kylena Gale, who immediately lowered her head and blushed.

The old man smiled, but he didn't expect that Young Master Jackson would admit it himself.

"However, although Young Master Jackson has a very close relationship with our Kylena, you still have to wait for Kylena to come home with me and return to the clan."

After all, it is Miss Sun of their family who wants to get married. Must appear in the cabinet as Miss Gale Jiasun.

His granddaughter has lived outside for so many years, and he doesn't know how much he suffered.

In the days to come, he must double to compensate her!

"Recognize the ancestor and return to the clan?" Hunter Jackson's eyes narrowed.

He has never paid much attention to Kylena Gale's affairs.

So why Kylena Gale and the Gale family are so close, he didn't care.

Since they are all with the surname Gale, it is not a big deal to have some relatives.

As for Kylena Gale's name as Grandpa Gale "Grandpa", it is understandable to call Grandpa respectfully based on his current age.

However, to recognize the ancestors and return to the ancestors is definitely another matter!

Kylena Gale is grandmother's granddaughter, why is she still related to Lingzhou Gale's family?

"Did Kylena not tell Master Jackson?" The old man looked at Kylena Gale and frowned, "I thought you had already said it."

"I..."

Because Emily Gale was here, Kylena Gale suddenly talked about it.

A guilty conscience.

"Grandpa, can we talk about this later? I'm a little hungry!" But

, Hunter Jackson obviously didn't intend to let this matter just cover it like this.

"Master Gale, please clarify the matter. I wonder what is the relationship between Kylena Gale and your Lingzhou Gale family?" "Kylena is the grandson of our Gale family. Twenty years ago, my son..."

"Grandpa! I really do It's uncomfortable, I... I hurt."

Kylena Gale's face was pale for a while because she was scared.

She should not talk about it in front of Emily Gale.

But Emily Gale didn't know what was going on. Seeing Kylena Gale like this, suddenly her heart trembled violently.

She has a hunch!

There is a feeling of being cheated!

Because of this deception, not the first time!

"Grandpa Gale, Kylena Gale is really not McGraw Gale's daughter?" she asked urgently.

"Grandpa, I..."

"Oh, haven't your parents told you yet? They took care of Sang for my son..."

"Grandpa! I'm sick! I...My stomach hurts! Ah! My stomach hurts!" Kylena Gale grabbed Old Man Gale's hand and screamed: "I hurt, I really hurt, I'm very uncomfortable!" Old Gale was taken aback by her, and immediately helped her and stood up.

"Kylena, what's the matter? Where is it?" "Stomach hurts, it hurts, it hurts, I don't know if it's poisoned!" Kylena Gale has no choice but to interrupt the topic, she doesn't mind any excuses. .

"The breakfast must have been poisoned, and Emily Gale must be trying to harm me! Grandpa, take me to the hospital! Quick!" "Kylena..."

"Let Ye Han come over."

Hunter Jackson gave an expressionless expression.

"I..."

Kylena Gale only realized that she had stepped on a thunder.

The breakfast was prepared by the people at Wangjiang Pavilion.

She said that breakfast was poisonous, wasn't she suspecting Mr. Jackson's people?

But if she didn't stop her, Emily Gale would know everything once Grandpa got involved with Sang Qing!

Mime private 366

I am going home now "Yes!" Aspen Li immediately called Ye Han.

After that, he said to the old man of Gale family: "Don't worry, Mr. Gale, Ye Han is a very famous doctor, he can treat Miss Gale."

The old man nodded and supported Kylena Gale.

Seeing sweat on her face, I thought she was suffering from a stomachache, and suddenly felt distressed.

"It's okay, the doctor will be here soon, don't be afraid!" He glanced at Zyden Gale: "Help her go to the sofa to rest."

Zyden Gale's reaction was a bit slow, and he actually had such an inexplicable feeling in his heart.

It was so good just now, why suddenly it became so strange?

However, Kylena Gale is his cousin after all.

Now that she sees her pain like this, she is really sweating on her face, probably not pretending.

Zyden Gale immediately stood up and supported Kylena Gale.

"Don't panic, go to the sofa to rest first, the doctor will be here soon."

How can Kylena Gale not panic?

Ye Han's medical skills were so good, when he came over, he took some blood to check, and he knew that she was not poisoned.

How to do?

Now, what else can I do?

With Zyden Gale's support, Kylena Gale stood up and walked slowly towards the sofa in the hall.

After only a dozen steps, she suddenly trembled and grabbed the old man's wrist.

"Grandpa, grandpa, I...I want to leave here! Someone here wants to harm me! I want to leave, I want to leave immediately!" "Miss Gale, why would anyone here want to harm you?" Aspen Li disliked this woman the most.

Although her face was sweaty now, he just subconsciously felt that this woman was starting to act again.

As for why he wanted to act, Aspen Li hadn't figured it out yet.

Anyway, she just intuitively believed that she was acting.

Do you want to deal with Emily Gale again?

"Miss Ranran, don't go there, you'd better not touch her."

Aspen Li reminded Emily Gale, pulling Emily Gale behind him.

Emily Gale smiled at him and nodded: "Don't worry, I won't give her any opportunity to slander me."

I've suffered a loss, don't you know how to guard?

However, Emily Gale now doesn't think about slander or slander.

Kylena Gale was still making trouble, she had to make trouble to leave.

Hunter Jackson's expression was indifferent: "Since you don't want Ye Han to watch, then send it to the hospital."

He said, "Qin Yi, prepare the car."

"Yes!" Qin Yi outside the door immediately asked him to prepare the car.

Hunter Jackson looked at Old Man Gale with no expression on his face.

"Master Gale probably misunderstood just now, and I don't have any unusual relationship with Kylena Gale."

He was in the mall, and he was semi-personal.

He also understood what the old man said just now.

"I promised a deceased elder to take good care of her. That's why I let Kylena Gale live in my Wangjiang Pavilion."

"As for the rest, I'm sorry.

Let Master Gale think, Kylena Gale and I are not lovers, and we will not have this relationship in the future.

"Kylena Gale felt a pain in her heart. Young Master Jackson could say such things indifferently! They have lived together for more than two months. Who doesn't know that she is Young Master Jackson's woman? Or because of that kind of relationship, which pair of men and women will live together? Young Master Jackson speaks this way too much! Is he angry, angry with his current performance? "Joseph, I'm sorry, I... I will explain to you.

She still believes that Young Master Jackson said this only because he was angry.

"Grandpa, I'm really uncomfortable. You take me to the hospital first."

Chapter 366

Mr. Gale glanced at Hunter Jackson.

The latter's eyes were calm and there was no wave in his eyes. Zyden Gale also looked at him.

They were all men, so he could see clearly. Hunter Jackson's words were true, and he looked to Gale. Kylena didn't have the slightest idea. Originally thought that the Gale family and Jackson family could marry together, which would be mutually beneficial for the two families. But now it seems that there is no chance. Young Master Jackson has no meaning for Gale Kylena. Grandpa, get in the car first.

"Zyden Gale reminded. Old man Gale was also a little disappointed, he really liked the young man Jackson Da Young. Zyden Gale opened the door, and the old man and Kylena Gale got in the car together. When Zyden Gale was about to go ahead, Emily Gale suddenly chased him. , Quietly told him something. Zyden Gale nodded. Emily Gale nodded again. Zyden Gale still nodded.

After that, he got in the car.

The soundproofing effect of the car is really good. Kylena Gale clearly saw them there. He spoke, but he didn't hear a word.

After Zyden Gale got in the car, the driver immediately drove the car away. Qin Yi also got in the car and drove out in person.

As soon as the car drove out of Wangjiang Pavilion, Kylena Gale went I couldn't help asking: "Big cousin, what did Emily Gale tell you just now?"

"She was very disturbed! Very disturbed! Although it is impossible for Emily Gale to say too many things in such a short period of time. However, she is disturbed.

"Nothing, that is, you have a bad temper. Let me take care of it."

"Zyden Gale smiled.

"Really... nothing else?"

"Kylena Gale stared at his profile, paying close attention to every expression on his face.

"What else can be?"

"Zyden Gale was a little surprised when she heard her tone so calm, he looked back at her.

"Your stomach hurts?"

Old man Gale also stared at Kylena Gale's wet face, and said in surprise:

"Kylena, isn't it hurting?"

"Also, it hurts a little bit."

"Kylena Gale covered her belly.

Although she was a sigh of relief, she was still a little uneasy.

"Grandpa, I...I want to go back to Lingzhou. Grandpa, let's go back now."

"Why do you suddenly say you are leaving?"

"The old man was a little dazed. He said before that he wanted to go back. This girl was unwilling and said that he would stay for two more days. Now, why did I change my mind? "Grandpa, I just want to go back. Let's go back now, OK?"

"Then you have to go to the hospital first.

"The old man is worried about her body.

"No...no, just go back now!"

I'll be better when I go home!

"Kylena Gale tightly grabbed the old man's arm: "Grandpa, let's go home now, okay?"

is it okay?

"If I changed, I would go back now, it would be nothing to embarrass the old man. He came to Beiling just to bring his granddaughter home. But now...there is always a small flash in my mind.

A small face, a slender figure. That little girl, of course. Suddenly he said that he was going back, why did he feel like his heart was being pulled away? He still wanted to see that little family, and even if he wanted to go back, he had to at least make an appointment with her Okay, let her go to Lingzhou to find herself.

It's not that she will go when she is free, but she must go.

It's not easy to say yet, he...reluctant to leave.

"Grandpa, what's the matter with you?"

Isn't you here just to take me back?

"The more the old man doesn't let go, the more upset Kylena Gale is. What is he thinking about? It's weird! "Grandpa..."

"Okay."

The old man looked helpless and glanced at Zyden Gale in front of him. He whispered: "Then, go back to Lingzhou.

Chapter 367

Emily Gale stood in the yard and watched the old man's car leave. Those beautiful eyes gradually became a little complicated. Hunter Jackson wanted to go back to the hall, but saw that the girl was still there. Looking at the direction of Wangjiang Pavilion's gate, he couldn't recover for a long time. He squinted his eyes and said unhappy: "Want to be lazy?"

Emily Gale suddenly returned to his senses, and then took a deep look at the direction of the door.

There, the shadow of the old man's car is no longer visible.

She bit her lower lip and turned her head to follow Hunter Jackson.

The breakfast has not been finished, Jackson After Joseph sat down, she still stood behind him.

"Did I say I wouldn't let you eat?"

Maid? She really performed this stunning performance very well! But, who made her

Why is he so taboo? Emily Gale stood in the yard and watched the father's car leave.

Those beautiful eyes gradually covered a trace of complexity.

Hunter Jackson was about to return to the hall, but saw that the girl was still looking at the direction of Wangjiang Pavilion's gate, unable to return to God for a long time.

He squinted his eyes and said displeased: "Want to be lazy?" Emily Gale suddenly returned to his senses, and then took a deep look at the direction of the door.

There, now the shadow of the old man's car is no longer visible.

She bit her lower lip and turned back to follow Hunter Jackson.

Before breakfast was finished, Hunter Jackson was still standing behind him after sitting down.

"I said I wouldn't let you eat?" Maid?

She really performed this stunning performance very well!

But who made her

The maid?

Emily Gale looked at him. Young Master Jackson meant to let her sit down and eat?

Very helpless, here, she is neither standing nor sitting.

However, when Grandpa Gale left, she was also relieved.

She didn't want Grandpa Gale to know about the muddled relationship between herself and Hunter Jackson.

If Grandpa knew, maybe... would he be disappointed?

She sat down beside Hunter Jackson, and the servant immediately sent her breakfast.

Emily Gale didn't say a word to rectify the breakfast time, and finished the breakfast silently.

When Hunter Jackson put down the chopsticks, she immediately put down the chopsticks and stood up.

"Master Jackson, I will show you out."

"Have I ever said that I want to go out?" Emily Gale panicked at the words of Master Jackson.

Not going out?

Then... he wouldn't want to stay, would he?

What to stay for?

"Come up with me."

In one sentence, Emily Gale's body became stiff in panic, and his legs began to soften again.

A man who can scare a woman into a soft leg is the only one in the world.

What are you going to do with him early in the morning?

She tremblingly walked behind him, and when she entered the room, every cell in her body was crying for help!

Hunter Jackson walked to the table, Emily Gale stopped five steps away from him, and did not dare to pass.

"Afraid of me?" He didn't look back.

Emily Gale didn't know how to answer this question. In fact, this question didn't need to be answered at all.

"When is the exam?" "Exam?" Young Master Jackson's head turned a bit quickly, and it took several seconds for Emily Gale to react.

"One month later."

She said immediately.

"If you fail to pass 90 in each test, the agreement time will be doubled."

Hunter Jackson picked up the computer bag and left.

The back is still so cold and cool.

Can't tell again!

The man's mind, like a needle on the seabed, is really unpredictable.

Emily Gale wanted to go with him and send him out. This was like a maid's job.

However, Young Master Jackson seemed very disgusted: "Stay away from me, annoying!" She immediately stopped her steps, her expression of resentment.

Do you think she wants to go with him?

Wasn't he forced to serve?

Really!

However, each course has to be more than ninety... Wouldn't it be too difficult for her who often skips classes?

Emily Gale sighed.

After Hunter Jackson left, she also moved and was about to return to her room.

But unexpectedly, I saw several books stacked on Hunter Jackson's desk.

Why is this book so familiar?

Emily Gale walked over and picked up one of them.

Isn't it their books this semester?

How could there be their books this semester on Young Master Jackson's desk?

Picking it up and flipping it, Emily Gale's eyes suddenly lit up.

this is

Who made the notes?

On the top of each book, where is the key point, and where you need to pay attention when taking the exam, are all marked.

Although the handwriting is not very beautiful, it becomes more familiar as you read it.

This is...He Lingzhi's character!

Emily Gale turned back abruptly and chased down the stairs with the book.

At the front of the hall, Maybach drove out of the courtyard and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

he's gone.

He unexpectedly called He Lingzhi, made notes for her, and then sent the book over!

The days she went to school were far worse than He Lingzhi.

He is the monitor of the class, and no matter how busy he is, the course is almost never finished.

He Lingzhi did not know how much better the reading notes made than hers.

She just didn't understand, why did Young Master Jackson do this?

Holding the book in his arms and looking at the empty courtyard gate, Emily Gale felt a little sad.

There is a taste of mixed feelings.

I don't know how long it took before Emily Gale turned around and walked upstairs.

As soon as I walked in, I received a call from Yang Yi: "Ranran, where did you go today?" "I..."

Emily Gale was stunned before saying: "I'm with my friend, Yang Yi, what can I do? What did you find?" "There really is no information about Siniya Ye in the immigration system of that airport."

After Yang Yi received her message, he began to look for it in several network system libraries.

But until now, there is no news of Siniya Ye.

"You said that Siniya Ye didn't go abroad.

It seems to be true now. But of course, they must also have very powerful computer experts. Otherwise, the information I found before can't be wrong."

"Yeah.

"Emily Gale nodded.

Behind those people, there must be very powerful computer experts.

They can even break into the hospital's database, and can also modify all the DNA records of the old lady in the hospital.

Not a master, absolutely can't do this.

"Yang Yi, Kylena Gale somehow became Miss Sun of Lingzhou Gale's family. Please help me find out what Siniya Ye did with my dad."

I wanted to ask just now, but Kylena Gale was there.

In fact, Emily Gale already had a hunch that some things, perhaps, had something to do with him.

But she can't check it now, she can check nothing.

The investigation of the grandmother's affairs had already put Yang Yi in danger.

Now before the situation is not clear, she dare not let Yang Yi be involved easily.

Just now when the father moved them away, she asked Zyden Gale for his phone number.

Let her investigate this matter herself.

However, Lingzhou is too far from here, and Hunter Jackson, I am afraid that she will not let her leave for the time being.

To check, it is not the time yet.

I read books in the room all morning, had lunch at noon, and want to go out inexplicably

Walk around.

Not Wangjiang Pavilion, but Jackson's backyard.

Hunter Jackson did not intend to imprison her in Wangjiang Pavilion.

She left the gate of Wangjiang Pavilion alone, drove on a sightseeing car, and drove to the backyard of Jackson's house.

The sightseeing car stopped on the filled lake, and now it has been turned into a garden.

Rockery, flowers from, trees.

Only there is no lake, that road.

And the place where she stood was where the grandmother had an accident.

There was originally a road here, but not far from the road, there was originally a lake.

Why did the old man fill up the lake immediately?

He is a person who has experienced a lot of wind and waves a long time ago, and can't face the death of the old lady?

Why did the old lady's accident make him so taboo?

Even the lake has been filled?

Chapter 368

At the bottom of the lake, what secret is there? Emily Gale squatted down on the ground.

She remembered clearly that this was where the accident happened.

At that time, my grandmother's wheelchair rolled over to the lake.

What is the secret hidden here?

Emily Gale was about to take a step, when suddenly, something tore off his shoes.

But she looked back, but she couldn't see anything.

Going again, the shoe was pulled once again, and it was clear that there was some force pulling her shoe.

Emily Gale was startled, and looked down at the black stone decorations on the bottom of his shoes.

How could this thing be pulled by an invisible force?

No, there is something that entangles the accessories on her shoes.

Emily Gale knelt down and gently untied the mesh.

The color of this mesh is a bit almost transparent. If you don't look carefully, you can't see it at all.

"Madam Young?" Suddenly, the maid in front called softly.

Emily Gale looked up and saw that it was one of the maids who had already been serving in the old lady's yard.

However, there are too many servants in Jackson's family, and the servants in each yard are often mobilized.

She waited on the old lady's side not long before she was transferred away.

Therefore, Emily Gale's impression of her is not very deep.

"I'm not the young wife of the Jackson family anymore, I can't call it casually in the future."

Emily Gale said lightly.

The maid couldn't react violently, and hurriedly said, "Sorry, Xiao...Miss Ranran, I didn't mean it!" "Don't panic, it's okay, do I look like such a terrible person?" Emily Gale smiled. .

Seeing her smile so kindly, the little maid finally felt relieved.

"Miss Ranran, what are you doing?" She came over.

"Something is entangled in my shoes."

Emily Gale was still working on the mesh.

The little maid came over, looked at the things on her shoes, and smiled immediately.

"Madam, you have entangled the water plants in this lake. This is the dried silk of the water plants."

She squatted down and easily removed the water plants for Emily Gale.

"These aquatic plants used to grow in the lake.

After the master asked them to fill the lake, they rarely see their shadows."

"Aquatic plants?" Emily Gale frowned, suddenly thinking of something.

She grabbed the maid's hand and said anxiously: "You mean, there were a lot of this kind of aquatic plants in the original lake? Transparent aquatic plants?" "It's not transparent, but if there is sunlight, plus moisture, It looks like it's transparent."

The maid didn't know why her expression suddenly became so weird.

She picked up the dried waterweed and handed it to Emily Gale.

"Now that it has withered and dried, it will have a color, which is easier to see."

Emily Gale took it and tugged. Unexpectedly, the dried aquatic plants looked so thin that they were not easy to tear.

"You mean, if it's wet, it will look not see?"

Her breathing was a little messy.

At first, the old lady's wheelchair slid into the lake.

It was obviously slippery, not rolling! The wheels didn't roll at all! Slip...If it's sliding, shouldn't it be pulled by external force? Caused such a result? But she didn't see anything at the time. Because she didn't see it, she ruled out the possibility of the old lady's wheelchair being dragged by something and pulled into the bottom of the lake! Everything was because she couldn't see it! What if the "rope" itself is transparent? "Miss Ranran, what are you thinking?"

Emily Gale's expression became more and more solemn, and the little maid was a little uneasy.

"Miss Ranran, did I say something wrong?"

"Are there many aquatic plants like this at the bottom of this lake?"

"Emily Gale clasped her wrist tightly.

Although the maid was upset, she nodded: "Yes... there are a lot of them, because they grow fast, they clean up a batch every year."

"She had also participated in the cleaning of the water plants, so she knows this very well. Only now that the water plants are buried and this work does not need anyone to follow up, she went to help in the main house. Emily Gale's expression seemed to get worse.

The more ugly, the little maid realized that she had said something wrong, and no longer dared to speak indiscriminately.

"I...Miss Ranran, I have something else, I...I'll..."

"Before you, have you been helping here?"

"Emily Gale stopped her.

The little maid was startled by her: "I, I am..."

"You tell me, after the old lady's accident, has Master Jackson ever let him investigate what's in the lake?"

"This..."

"Where is the old lady's wheelchair?"

Did you find it?

"Emily Gale tightened her five fingers.

The maid was a little sore by her grip.

After thinking about it, she shook her head: "I don't know, if the master asked to fill the lake, I was transferred to the main house.

"Miss Ranran, I really have something to do, I'm leaving now!"

The more the maid thinks about it, the more it feels wrong.

Although the master has announced that the old lady's matter was an accident. However, everyone said that when the old lady had an accident, only Emily Gale was on the scene. Now everyone thinks the matter is over. Unexpectedly, Emily Gale was still talking about it.

The maids regretted coming over to say hello to her, hurriedly found an excuse, and left. Emily Gale was left alone, looking at the newly planted flower forest in front of her, and her mood grew more and more. Heavy.

She squatted down and followed the dried up aquatic plants bit by bit. Soon, she found the grassland where the aquatic plants were piled up.

The grassland was newly planted, probably when the soil was filled, there were some aquatic plants.

It was turned up. But now, the water plants are dead, and only dry silk remains... If the old lady's wheelchair was really entangled with this kind of water plants, then according to the maid's words, it might really be. Because of water

The grass was soaked in water, and under the sun, it became transparent, so she could not see clearly when she was in a hurry.

Then, why the old lady's wheelchair slides into the lake easily, can explain!

But why, the old man didn't even check it, so he asked people to fill up the lake?

Why... she suddenly felt a cold heart?

What secrets are still hiding in the bottom of the lake?

Emily Gale's fingers kept trembling as her hand fell on the grass.

"What are you doing?" Suddenly, a voice full of majesty sounded not far away.

Emily Gale was taken aback for a moment, then turned around and saw three figures walking quickly.

"Who let you in?" The Jackson family hurried to her, his face sinking.

The housekeeper followed behind him and immediately explained: "The young master brought her back."

The housekeeper is not only the housekeeper of the main house, he also supervises the entire Jackson family's various matters.

This matter was originally intended to be reported to the master, but the master was absent for these two days and only came back this morning. He had not had time to report.

"What did Joseph bring this woman back for?" The look in Old Man Jackson's eyes watching Jenni was very unkind.

Emily Gale stood up and looked at him lightly.

Since the other party doesn't like herself, she doesn't need to please.

She was never someone who would please others.

"This..."

The butler naturally didn't know what the young master was doing with Emily Gale.

However, these young men and women are beyond their control.

Master Jackson angrily said: "Kick her out!"

Chapter 369

You are presumptuous, "Master, the eldest master brought him back, and I am not good...to drive her out."

The butler looked at the old man and whispered, "Is it necessary to inform the eldest master about this matter? Listen to what the eldest master said?" "Yes, grandpa, it's better to ask eldest brother first about this matter."

Behind the two, a young man walked up.

He looked about twenty-two or three years old, handsome and sunny, looking at Emily Gale with a bright smile on his face.

"You're the Emily Gale who originally wanted to be my sister-in-law?" He smiled, but didn't even look at the old man's displeasure.

"Hello, we met before, uh no, I met you before, but now you, this face has become a bit strange to me."

Emily Gale naturally knew what he meant.

She was originally very ugly, with freckles on her face.

As for this one, it is probably Jackson Peitang, the fifth young master of the Jackson family.

I've seen it, but I haven't said hello directly, so it's a bit strange.

"I'm Emily Gale."

She said lightly, not admitting other identities.

Jackson Peitang's eyes were locked on her face, and his smile deepened.

"It looks really good-looking! I guess the eldest brother broke off the engagement with you before, was terrified by your previous face."

"Now I bring you back again because I regret seeing your true face."

He looked at Old Man Jackson with a hippie smile: "Grandpa, don't you think?" The old man snorted and ignored him.

The housekeeper was a little helpless, the fifth young master, really didn't know how to look at people's faces.

Didn't you see that the master's face is very ugly now, don't you mean to be joking at all?

Jackson Peitang touched a hard nail in front of the old man, could only cough lightly, and then looked at Emily Gale instead.

"Since the elder brother brought you back, you should go back to the eldest brother's Wangjiang Pavilion and wait for him."

Emily Gale expressed gratitude to the fifth young master.

She knew that Young Master Five was looking for a chance for her to stay away from the old man, so as not to be driven out by the old man.

But today, she did not intend to avoid it.

"I will look back at Jiangge, but there are still some questions, I want to ask Master Jackson."

No one spoke, and the atmosphere seemed a bit solemn.

The housekeeper wanted to say something, but Emily Gale stared straight at the old man, and he really didn't mean to shrink back.

This girl, the fifth young master gave her a chance and asked her to leave quickly.

No, she didn't know how to seize the opportunity and even confronted the old man directly.

It's really not afraid of death.

"Master Jackson, I just want to ask you why, after the old lady's accident, you didn't let people find out thoroughly, but immediately filled in this lake where evidence might be hidden?" Emily Gale's question was like A thunderstorm shook Jackson Peitang and the old housekeeper.

At the same time I was shocked!

This girl is so courageous!

She even dared to mention the old lady!

In this home, the old lady's fall into the lake is a prohibition!

It has been more than a month, no one dared to mention it!

And she, when the old lady had an accident, she was the biggest suspect!

Now, she doesn't avoid suspicion, even dare to take the initiative?

Do you mean she is too courageous, or is she too stupid?

It's not a good thing to anger the old man!

Master Jackson's face was cold, and the aura of that figure made people afraid to look directly.

Especially when he squinted his eyes, the coldness under his eyes made people subconsciously want to avoid it.

Emily Gale squeezed her palms tightly, in fact, a little scared.

He and Young Master Jackson are the same type of person, and Young Master Jackson's breath away from strangers is more or less the shadow of the old man.

How weak can someone who can train up Master Jackson?

Emily Gale's heart was panicked at this time, but her grandmother's "accidental" doubts and her determination to expose the "accidental" wish made her brave.

"Master Jackson, I was an eyewitness to this matter at the time. I doubted what was hidden at the bottom of the lake."

"You..."

Jackson Peitang wanted to persuade her, but suddenly felt like she couldn't get in the anger of the two of them. In the field.

The third lady of the Gale family originally thought it was just a vase.

Unexpectedly, after spending some time with Mr. Jackson, he still had the taste of Mr. Jackson.

The overbearing inadvertently reveals, although not to be feared, it is also not to be ignored.

This kind of domineering, and her weak appearance, too inconsistent.

"What do you want to say?" Master Jackson's words were low, and when he opened his mouth, he leaked domineeringly!

Emily Gale pursed her lower lip, and at this point, there was no possibility of shrinking.

"I ask the old man to dig up this piece of soil to let the secrets of the lake surface."

The old butler immediately stopped her from continuing the absurdity: "Miss Gale, you are not qualified..."

"No, I have the qualifications. , Because of this incident, it affects my reputation!" Emily Gale always stared at the old man's eyes, even if his eyes became more frightening, she didn't mean to shrink at all.

"Master Jackson, as the only witness at the time, I have the right to doubt."

Master Jackson narrowed his eyes: "What if I don't agree?" "If Master Jackson doesn't agree, then..."

Emily Gale took a deep breath. , Shen Ning lowered his eyes and said firmly: "Then, I will call the police and tell the police that there is evidence at the bottom of the lake to find the murderer!" "Dare you!" Master Jackson's face sank.

The cold breath caused the old butler and Jackson Peitang's hearts to tremble slightly.

The old man is the same as Jackson Da Young, no

Angry and majestic, angry, really scary!

Does Emily Gale not know the seriousness of the matter?

The old man is angry, minutes...it will be dead!

The old housekeeper hurriedly said: "Miss Gale, the old lady's matter was an accident!" "It's not an accident. I have discovered the murderer's method of committing the crime."

Emily Gale didn't mean to compromise.

She greeted Master Jackson's gaze directly, and said in a deep voice, "If Master Jackson does not agree, I will directly call the police and let the police handle the matter!" "Miss Gale, you are too presumptuous!" The old butler immediately drank. only.

This incident was an accident.

If there is a murderer or murder in the Jackson family, once the matter becomes public, Jackson's shares will be greatly affected.

When the time comes, will she be able to bear the consequences?

"I know that this incident will have a direct impact on the Jackson family."

Even this impact will affect the entire business community in Beiling.

She squeezed her palm tightly, but still refused to give in.

"But, the old lady can't die unclearly! Master Jackson, you filled the bottom of the lake in the first place, is it because you found that things are not as simple as they seem to be?" "You are not calming things down, you are afraid that things will continue. If the investigation continues, more people will be involved!" She took a step forward and spoke sonorously!

"Because you know that it is your admirer who plans all this!"

Chapter 370

Next time, who will hurt?

The old housekeeper was almost frightened by Emily Gale's words.

This girl actually confronted the old man and said that the old lady's death was man-made, and the murderer was in Jackson's house.

If she wasn't really courageous, she was so big that she was lawless.

That is, the brain is really broken!

The old housekeeper thinks the latter is more likely.

"Miss Gale..."

"Grandpa, if she really has evidence, then this lake might as well dig up again and check it out."

Jackson Peitang walked to the old man.

The hippie smile disappeared, and his expression became a little serious.

"When things happened, everyone had doubts in their hearts.

At that time, after all, only Emily Gale was there."

"Although, if things were accidental, it would be good to the Jackson family and the Jackson family, but in case, is it really artificial?" Li Mou swept over, his face gloomy.

Jackson Peitang was a little scared subconsciously, but still met his gaze.

"If the murderer is really hiding in our Jackson's house, then, who knows who will be the next victim?" "Fifth Young Master, you can't talk nonsense about this."

The old housekeeper stared at him and kept on Wink.

How could this guy go crazy with Emily Gale.

Didn't you see that the old man was on the verge of breaking out?

He cautiously said: "The old lady is kind. In the whole Jackson family, no one will hate her."

"The old lady has nothing to do with the world, and it is impossible to have a grudge with others. Such a person, who will intentionally harm her.

She?" What the old butler said, there was no problem.

With the old lady's character, it is impossible to have grudges with others.

Murder should also have a motive. If there is no motive, then murder cannot exist.

"In case, it's because the old lady has discovered some secret, and the other party wants to kill someone?" Although Emily Gale's voice was not loud, it was firmer than ever.

The wind blew on her body, and she looked weak.

I was thin before, but now I am even thinner as if the wind blows.

But her gaze is calmer and calmer than anyone else!

What she said, also because of her stability, seemed a little more convincing.

"Master Jackson, if you cover up this matter just for the Jackson family, then you will become an accomplice of this person!" "As far as I know, the old lady was kind to the Jackson family at the beginning. I have always respected her for so many years because I feel guilty for the old lady!" "Shut up!" "Master Jackson, please see the old lady's favor to the Jackson family, and give her justice!" "It's just nonsense!" Master Jackson suddenly turned around and walked towards the main house.

"Master Jackson..."

"Miss Gale, some things are not as simple as you think

The old housekeeper stopped in front of Emily Gale, and said solemnly: "The death of the old lady is a heavy blow to the master.

The master has been with the old lady for so many years.

Their relationship is clear.

"The old butler sighed slightly: "Miss Gale, you were the biggest suspect in this matter at the beginning. Now, if you continue to entangle you, you won't have a good end, please consider carefully.

"Abandoning these words, the old butler glanced at her again, then turned to chase after Mr. Jackson. Emily Gale followed two steps behind him, and said loudly: "Master Jackson, even if you don't care about this matter, I won't stop there. Give it up!

"But the two of them had already walked away, and they didn't want to pay attention to her at all. Emily Gale stood in the wind, looking at their cold back, expressionless. I don't know how long it took, and behind him, there was a soft coughing voice: " Cough, that..."

Emily Gale was taken aback, but he didn't expect that Young Master Fifth was still here.

She looked back at him and wanted to speak, but suddenly she lost the urge to speak.

"Do you know if it is true? As you said, then our Jackson family must experience a terrible storm?"

Emily Gale didn't speak, she didn't think about it. However, grandma's death was unclear. Is it necessary to bury the truth forever for the sake of the peace of Jackson's family? "Keep the murderer in this house, don't you worry about paying it back?" Will there be another victim?

"Jackson Peitang shrugged and said with a smile: "In fact, this is just your speculation."

"What if it's true?"

"Emily Gale glared at him. Jackson Peitang lowered her head and met her gaze. This little girl was more persistent than he thought. Jackson Peitang didn't speak, but looked at Wangjiang Pavilion's direction.

After a while, she said. : "Did Brother go out today?"

I will send you back.

Emily Gale still stared at the filled lake, her palms pinched tighter and tighter.

"I don't oppose or support this matter, but you'd better discuss it with Big Brother first."

"Discuss with Young Master Jackson... Will Young Master Jackson listen to her?"

"You are the fifth young master of the Jackson family. You should be very clear about the matter back then.

She looked at Jackson Peitang, not sure if he would give herself a clear answer.

"After the accident, I was locked up by the old man. I don't know what happened outside."

When she woke up, people had already been sent outside.

She was even more unclear about the Jackson's affairs.

"Is the wheelchair that the old lady was sitting on at this moment still buried under the lake?"

"Jackson Peitang didn't answer this question. He just looked at the filled lake with her. Whether the wheelchair is still inside, no one knows except the father. Maybe it was sent away by the father a long time ago, too.

Perhaps, as she thought, it was buried at the bottom of the lake.

The ground in front of me is obviously renovated.

But in just over a month, the green grass has taken root, and the trees gradually have a lush feeling.

The new life is thriving.

If there are really any secrets at the bottom of the lake, it seems that they have really become secrets.

"It is impossible to dig this lake again."

Jackson Peitang looked at Emily Gale, who was sitting on the grass, looking at the flowers and trees in front of him, his eyes dimmed.

Jackson Peitang didn't know how to persuade him.

After thinking about it, he said: "Actually, the old housekeeper is right.

It is impossible to have grudges with others based on the character of grandma."

"So, what basis do you think she was murdered? Come, it's all something out of nothing."

Emily Gale still didn't speak, just looking ahead.

Jackson Peitang felt that he couldn't accompany this little girl.

Younger, he looks like eighteen or nineteen at most.

But this reticent posture made him old-fashioned.

"I still have something to do, so I won't accompany you."

He stood behind Emily Gale, looking down at her.

"If you can figure it out for yourself, go back to your eldest brother's place earlier and stop thinking about it."

She still said nothing.

Jackson Peitang looked at her one last time and turned away.

Emily Gale didn't know how long he had been sitting on this grass.

From the shining sun, to the sunset, and then to nightfall.

Until, not far behind, a voice sounded in surprise: "Of course, why are you here?"

Chapter 371

The cold wind bit the bones after Daniel Jackson got off work, he heard that Emily Gale had appeared at Jackson's house.

He originally thought it was impossible, but after inquiring about it, the servant made it true again, and Emily Gale did come back.

However, he was in Wangjiang Pavilion, and he couldn't find a reason to go in and see her.

Unexpectedly, walking around in the backyard, I met her here.

"The wind is so strong, if you dress like this, you will catch a cold!" Daniel Jackson walked behind her, took off his coat and put it on her.

His body temperature still remained on the coat, which was warm, dispelling the chill a lot.

Feeling the warmth, Emily Gale suddenly realized that it was really cold.

She looked up and looked at the man sitting next to her.

This man who once tortured her miserably for Kylena Gale.

Now, he even regarded her as a friend.

The world is really unpredictable!

"Thinking about grandma again?" Daniel Jackson stared at her face stiffened by the cold wind.

Emily Gale nodded, and pulled his coat without speaking.

"Have you eaten?" Seeing her like this, wouldn't it be sitting here for a day?

When I saw her just now, she felt as if she was in samādhi.

Even the hair is covered with a few dead leaves.

Emily Gale shook his head and looked up, only to find that the street lights in the backyard were all on.

Unexpectedly, I sat for a whole afternoon without realizing it!

"There is something on top of her head."

Daniel Jackson stretched out her hand and pulled the dead leaves off her hair.

They were sitting together, the two of them were a little close, looking from a distance, as if they were hugging each other.

Emily Gale felt that this posture seemed a bit too intimate.

She said: "I have something to do, let's go first."

Although Daniel Jackson has changed a lot now, the whole person's aura has changed.

Indeed, not as annoying as before.

Even now, there is a feeling of a graceful son.

But after all, he was the man of the Jackson family, and Emily Gale didn't want to have too much contact with the man of the Jackson family.

She stood up, who knew that her legs were tingling when she just stood up.

Before standing still, he fell forward.

She fell into Daniel Jackson's arms.

Daniel Jackson put his hands on her shoulders, knowing that he should give her a hand, but still a little reluctant to push her away.

"Sorry!" Emily Gale put his hands on his shoulders and rubbed him in his arms for a while, but still couldn't stand firm.

My legs are really numb. I sat here for a whole afternoon, not only numb, but also sore!

After finally waiting for the tingling feeling to pass, Emily Gale was about to step back and stay away from Daniel Jackson.

He hadn't stepped out yet, but he was suddenly confused by a surge of Shenren's chill.

Looking sideways, under a tree not far away, a slender figure stood against the backdrop.

The light hits his back and he can't see his face

Content.

But that chilly breath is enough to freeze the surrounding air.

Daniel Jackson gave Emily Gale a hand, and after she stood firm, she immediately took two steps back.

He was reluctant to bear the unique fragrance on her body, but if he continued to entangle him, he would only harm this girl.

"Big Brother..."

The latter didn't say a word, and the depths of his eyes were colder than the cold wind in winter.

"I'll explain to him."

Daniel Jackson turned and asked.

Emily Gale said indifferently: "If Jackson Er Shao can leave now, it will be my greatest help."

Daniel Jackson was a bit unwilling.

She is no longer his elder brother's fiancée, but why, she is still the elder brother's person?

He squeezed his palms, and feared that he would be embarrassed by entanglement now.

In the end, he could only turn around and take a look at Emily Gale.

"If you need help, just come to me."

Emily Gale ignored it.

She didn't want to find a man from the Jackson family.

When her legs were less numb, she moved towards Hunter Jackson.

"Young Master Jackson..."

His deep eyes hide the invisible cold, just like the wind tonight.

The gaze on her body will make her feel shivering.

Hunter Jackson didn't speak, staring at the girl who walked in front of him.

He is really different from before.

Now, without saying anything, just looking at you indifferently, it will give you a feeling that you are wrong from head to toe.

She almost had the urge to admit his mistake!

It was not because he felt that he was really doing something wrong, but because he was too powerful.

Strong enough to make you obey unconditionally!

No one knew what he was thinking, not even Aspen Li who had been by his side.

There was no trace of emotional fluctuations on that Wannian's frozen face.

The air pressure was so low that it was breathless.

When the cold wind blew, Emily Gale shrank subconsciously.

She had been sitting in the wind for too long, and she had not eaten dinner yet.

Now, there seems to be no energy in the body.

Hunter Jackson's eyes fell, staring at the coat on her.

Emily Gale only remembered that he was still wearing Daniel Jackson's clothes.

Without hesitation, she took off her coat.

Shaking in the cold wind, turning his head back, the coat was returned to Daniel Jackson.

When he looked at Hunter Jackson again, he had already turned around and walked in the direction of Wangjiang Pavilion.

Emily Gale didn't hesitate at all, and quickly followed.

Aspen Li quickly drove the sightseeing car over, and Hunter Jackson took the lead in getting on the bus.

Emily Gale pulled the railing and climbed up with his cold hands and feet uncomfortably.

It is deep winter, and after nightfall, the temperature is only about ten degrees.

She came out at noon with only a thin sweater.

The sweater didn't block the wind. When the tourist bus drove up, she sneezed again and again in the cold.

Hunter Jackson leaned back in his chair and was resting with his eyes closed.

Point to pay attention to the meaning.

Emily Gale didn't expect him to take care of himself.

She sat on the other side of the sightseeing bus, trying to keep the sound of her sneezing as low as possible so as not to disturb him.

After returning to Wangjiang Pavilion, Aspen Li asked the butler to prepare dinner as soon as he entered.

As soon as Hunter Jackson took his seat, Emily Gale immediately sat down, took his bowl, and immersed himself in hard work.

Not because of being hungry, but because of being too cold!

A bowl of warm soup entered my stomach and finally recovered a trace of temperature on my body.

Now I have the strength to speak.

"I found a kind of dry silk of aquatic plants by the lake in the backyard."

"They are very tough and easy to pull. If there are more, the pulling force will be great when they are concentrated."

"This kind of aquatic plants, when they live, It becomes translucent in the sun. If you don't pay attention, ordinary people can't discover its existence."

It was also because of the characteristics of aquatic plants that she would not have discovered it at first!

Hunter Jackson picked up his chopsticks and ate quietly.

Sitting on the side, Aspen Li wanted to ask something, but he didn't seem to have a reason to speak when the young master didn't speak.

Emily Gale was never a person who would give up easily.

She still looked at Hunter Jackson with a firm face.

"Madam Jackson, what happened to the old lady is definitely not an accident!"

"I believe that someone used this kind of waterweed to wrap the old lady's wheelchair to cause the old lady to be pulled into the bottom of the lake!"

Hunter Jackson's expression remained constant.

There was no change, it seemed that what she said was nothing to him.

Emily Gale put down the bowl and squeezed her palms: "Young Master Jackson, as long as the lake is dug up again, I believe that you will definitely discover the hidden secrets at the bottom of the lake!"
