

Love Through Time and Space

Chapter 471

As long as the family can not sleep for a long time together!

These four words completely chilled Emily Gale's whole person.

Aspen Li couldn't bear to see her six gods and no masters.

However, if you give up now, you will lose all your previous efforts.

At exactly this time, Aspen Li answered the phone.

Looking back, he looked at Emily Gale: "Miss Ranran, someone wants to see you."

... Emily Gale and Aspen Li's men went out together.

When only Hunter Jackson and Aspen Li were left in the ward, Aspen Li's hair suddenly felt numb.

"Young master, that, I said that just now, just to... to make Miss Ranran feel bad for you, but not to deliberately damage your image."

The forehead was sweaty, and the young master didn't wake up, making people feel like Mans back!

Hunter Jackson opened his eyes, and his cold glance made Aspen Li scared to breathe.

He panicked, then stammered: "I have studied many articles, and they all say that when a man is weak, it is most likely to arouse a woman's sympathy."

Hunter Jackson hummed and sat up from the hospital bed. Lifted the quilt out of the bed and walked straight to the bathroom.

It didn't take long to come out, the people were still cold.

Aspen Li asked in a low voice, "Young Master, when are you going to pretend to be faint?" "Huh?" "No, no, I mean, how long do you plan to sleep?" How could the wise and martial young master of their family Do something to pretend to be dizzy?

Just now, I just fell asleep accidentally.

"What is her reaction?" Hunter Jackson sat back on the bed, still covering himself with the quilt.

That proud breath, where there is a slight sickness.

"Of course, Miss Ranran was frightened, and her face was pale."

Hunter Jackson felt a pain in his heart, a little bit unbearable.

Aspen Li said again: "It's really not good for us to lie to her like this, but I can see that Miss Ranran still cares about you, Young Master."

"I need you to say?" "Yes, no, Young Master is natural in his heart. Understand."

Aspen Li wiped his sweat.

However, someone interrupted other people's words by himself, but others did not say it, but he was a bit unwilling to hear only this.

"What else is she doing? How much does she care?" "She was flustered and listened to me outside how hard you have been in the past two years..."

"Where is the hard work?" "..."

Goods, do you need to install it in front of him?

Who doesn't know how bitter Joseph has been in the past two years.

However, Aspen Li didn't dare to talk nonsense.

"It's okay, anyway, that... I think, as long as you work harder, you pretend to be more vulnerable..."

"I need to pretend?" "Yes, yes, you don't need it, I just said, you don't Sleep more..."

Before Aspen Li had finished speaking, there was a sound of footsteps outside.

Aspen Li was a little nervous, and quickly walked over and took a look.

I was sure that the person outside was not Emily Gale, so I looked back at Hunter Jackson: "Young Master, it's not..."

But, Young Master on the bed, what are you doing now?

The proud man who just said he didn't need to pretend, was on the hospital bed at this time, his eyes closed... lying dead.

Aspen Li looked speechless.

Master, don't you need to pretend?

What are you doing now?

... Emily Gale never dreamed that it was Zyden Gale who was waiting for her at the end of the corridor.

Seeing Zyden Gale's first glance, she panicked and subconsciously wanted to escape!

Zyden Gale seemed to have guessed that she would be like this a long time ago. He didn't need to think too much. He took a long leg and stood in front of her easily.

"Of course, do you think if you run away now, I can't find you?" However, she did hide deep enough.

If it weren't for Kylene Gale's arrest, the police here and Lingzhou police have contacted and informed them that he still can't find her at all.

One hiding is two years, do you want to continue hiding at this moment?

Emily Gale looked at him, his fingertips trembling with excitement.

After two years of absence, Zyden Gale has lost a lot of weight, and his temperament looks even more gloomy.

There is a feeling of vicissitudes.

She bit her lip and spent at least ten seconds to calm her heart.

Finally, the tone came slowly, and Emily Gale looked at Zyden Gale with a hint of hoarseness in her voice.

"Brother Zyden."

Zyden Gale felt sour and gave her a violent hand, pulling her into his arms.

Emily Gale was frightened and struggling, trying to push him away.

"Don't be afraid! I am not afraid of the pressure of public opinion, I am not afraid of anything! We are relatives, family members, of course, don't let the shadows stay in our hearts, as long as we have a clear conscience, we are not afraid of anything!" Emily Gale almost cried.

She is afraid, she is really afraid.

She and her eldest cousin had nothing, but they were framed by drugs, and video photos were flying all over the sky.

Now, being held by her elder cousin, she is very afraid that a reporter will suddenly jump out, and suddenly someone will put their photos on the Internet.

Then, everyone said that their relationship was improper and that they corrupted Gale's reputation.

She was really scared.

"Don't be afraid."

Zyden Gale patted her on the back lightly, and released her when her mood stabilized a bit.

Looking at her face that was almost unrecognizable after her disguise, Zyden Gale felt sour and hated her incompetence.

"It's all my fault..."

"No, it's my fault."

Emily Gale's heart was calmed for two years. In these two days, he was completely disturbed.

"Actually, we are all right."

Zyden Gale held her arm with a serious face.

"It's those who hurt us, it's their fault, and my only fault is

There was not enough ability to protect you well.

"But now, let's not blame ourselves, okay?"

Of course, come home with me, we are all waiting for you.

Emily Gale shook his head and gave him a light push: "Brother Zyden, my life here is very good and peaceful."

"What he should know. Going back means what he has to face. He should be very clear.

"But that is your home. Can you never go home?"

"Of course Zyden Gale knows that going back is a difficult thing for her. When Miss Sun of the Gale family returns again, public opinion will inevitably cause a violent storm.

The things she has to face will only be better than what she currently imagines. More.

"Of course, Grandpa's health is not good.

"The words that Emily Gale wanted to refuse were completely blocked back in her stomach. Grandpa's body... In the past two years, although she was outside, she has been following the news in Lingzhou.

There is nothing special about Gale's family.

The big news, that is, grandpa is at least okay.

At least, the people are still there. Gale's grandfather, such an important person, if something happens, the major media in Lingzhou will rush to report.

But she can only guarantee Grandpa is still there, but I can't guarantee that Grandpa's body is also healthy. What she has been afraid to face is now being mentioned by Zyden Gale, which immediately makes her feel helpless.

She wants to see Grandpa, and wants to miss it, but she If you go back, Gale's family will also be implicated.

"You know Grandpa, you know what is most important to Grandpa.

"I don't know..."

"You know!"

"Zyden Gale clenched her shoulders once again, anxious: "Of course, do you know?"

Emily Gale bit her lip and didn't speak.

She knew that she actually knew it all along! To grandpa, nothing is more important than being a family. However, if she goes back, it will really affect the reputation of Gale's family. Grandpa and the entire Gale family always live under the pressure of public opinion.

"There is nothing that can't be solved. Even my sister-in-law made such a big mistake at the beginning and almost wanted to commit suicide because of guilt, but in the end, she, I still chose to face it, right?"

Zyden Gale stared at her pale face, his voice was gentle but firm.

"You said that as long as a family is together, any difficulty is not difficult.

"We can carry it, of course, as long as we are together as a family!"

Chapter 472

I just want a wife and children!

When Emily Gale returned to Hunter Jackson's ward, Hunter Jackson was still lying on the bed without any reaction.

"Has the doctor been here?" Emily Gale asked.

Aspen Li nodded: "The doctor said that the current situation of the young master is difficult to explain in medicine."

"But, Miss Ranran, the doctor also said that if you give the young master enough faith to make him willing to wake up, He must be able to wake up."

"Enough faith?" Emily Gale sat on the side of the hospital bed, looking at Hunter Jackson's pale face due to excessive blood loss.

"At least, you have to make him feel that after waking up, there will be a bright future."

A bright future... He is Young Master Jackson, what he wants. Isn't this kind of future good enough?

Emily Gale looked down and looked at Hunter Jackson's tangled eyebrows even in a coma.

Maybe she understood what Aspen Li meant, but she didn't dare to give some promises.

"Miss Ranran, it's not that I'm trying to force you, I just hope you can think clearly, is the past important or is it more worth looking forward to in the future?" Aspen Li left, leaving space for the two of them.

After there was no third person in the room, Emily Gale let himself go, holding Hunter Jackson's palm, his eyes were moist.

The past or the future, which is more important, in fact, does not need any hesitation.

"But I..."

She lowered her eyes, looking at the big palm she was holding.

"I am a person who is overwhelmed by public opinion, and you, the eldest master of the Jackson family, the hope of the whole Jackson family."

She bit her lip, feeling uncomfortable in her heart, even her voice was a little choked.

"Joseph, I already understand your intentions, but I really can't be with you.

The identity of the Jackson's grandma is too noble. Her past will be dug out clearly and thoroughly."

Jackson's grandmother once prescribed medicine to her cousin and tried to do something ethically incompatible. You know how much damage such a person will bring to Jackson's reputation, right?" Joseph Bei's fingers moved, and Emily Gale was taken aback, lowered his head and stared at his hand.

"Joseph, you can hear me, can't you?" Hunter Jackson moved his finger again, and he could actually hear her!

Emily Gale was agitated and immediately held his palm tightly: "Joseph, you wake up, okay?" But this time, he didn't react at all.

Emily Gale still hugged his big palm with both hands, and the doctor said that he wanted to talk to him so that he would have the will to live.

Originally, Emily Gale felt that the matter was not serious enough.

But he never wakes up.

She was uneasy from the beginning to now, really anxious and panicked.

As long as he wakes up, everything is fine!

"War North,

I really didn't mean to avoid you, but I was flustered, and I didn't know if I should forgive you.

"His finger moved slightly again, Emily Gale's heart was sour, and sure enough, he cares about these things.

The young master of Tangtang Jackson's family cares so much about her as a woman or a woman with a bad reputation, why bother? Don't know what to do?

"I originally talked to him in order to ignite his fighting spirit to survive. However, she really didn't know what to do, she really... didn't want to lie to her. Emily Gale leaned on his arm and closed her eyes.

There are tears in his eyes, but I have not let them roll down. Crying is the behavior of the weak, but why, knowing that crying is useless, tears still appear. Hunter Jackson opened his eyes and looked at her soft side. Long hair. I don't know how long it took before he opened his mouth and said softly: "You don't know what to do?

Then, leave yourself to me, let me tell you what to do, okay?

Emily Gale was taken aback, suddenly raised his head, and the moment he met his deep gaze, tears finally rolled down.

"Doctor!"

She hurriedly turned her head and looked out the door, "Doctor, he is awake, he..."

"I woke up long ago."

"Hunter Jackson sat up from the bed. Emily Gale hurriedly went over to help him, but didn't want to. His strength was stronger than her.

She was a little bit incredulous: "You..."

"Yes, I woke up long ago, sorry.

He didn't want to lie to her, but she was afraid that after she "woke up", she thought he was all right and would leave immediately.

After Emily Gale calmed down for two seconds, her face suddenly sank: "You lie to me!"

She stood up and wanted to leave, but Hunter Jackson hugged her from behind.

"Sorry, I didn't mean to lie to you on purpose, I just... worried that you would ignore me."

"Let go."

Emily Gale wanted to struggle, but Hunter Jackson frowned, "Of course, I have a headache."

"You still want to lie to me!"

"Emily Gale turned around and glared at him, angrily: "Hunter Jackson, what are you..."

His frowning action caused her words to swallow back into his stomach. This man is too easy for a woman to feel distressed. I don't want to see it. , But I can't help but want to see it. When I saw it, my heart was pulled together, and I couldn't help myself! Hunter Jackson had a real headache, but he didn't want to use this way of pretending to be fragile to get something. Her pity. He clasped Emily Gale's hand tightly: "Give yourself to me, I will handle everything.

"You can't handle it."

"He doesn't know how much the pressure of public opinion is. Even if he can buy all the platforms and suppress public opinion, after she becomes his wife and the grandmother of the Jackson family, those things will be destroyed. Mentioned again and again. Her two children, also

It was during the time that it happened, at least, in the eyes of others, this time.

Then those rumors will accompany the child's life, so that the child will also be hurt in the future.

"If I am no longer the eldest young master of the Jackson family, what if I am just an ordinary person?" Hunter Jackson hugged her tightly, reluctant to let go for a moment.

"Of course, I really can't give you a sense of security? Is it because of what I did in the past that hurt you too deeply?" "If this is the case, then, in order to give up everything, this determination, isn't it? Can you feel at ease?" "How do you...give up everything?" "I will give Ross the position of President Jackson, and I will leave Beijing to find a place with you and live incognito for a lifetime."

Hunter Jackson is definitely not kidding Yes, with Emily Gale's understanding of him, she knew that what he said at this moment was serious.

It was because of knowing that I was even more panicked.

"I don't want it!" She tried to push him away.

But Hunter Jackson still tightened his arms and said nothing to let go.

"Since you don't want to face it, then, I will accompany you to escape, no matter where you are at the end of the world."

"Hunter Jackson, you are crazy!" The young master of the Jackson family, the president of the Jackson family, this identity, then Noble!

He is crazy to say that he can give up all this.

"No, Hunter Jackson was really crazy two years ago.

It was because he was crazy that he would do something to hurt you, but now, I am sober."

Because I am sober, I know what I really want.

"Of course, in this life, I have not pursued much. I used to be ignorant and always self-centered. I want everything in the world to surrender to me."

"But now, I am completely awake, I just want A home, a home that really belongs to me."

He never said this because he didn't know how to express it.

Now, in front of her, he was actually very nervous.

The first time I said it, I was afraid that my own words would make her unhappy.

Emily Gale lowered his head and watched as he embraced his hand.

The ten distinct fingers were still trembling slightly.

How difficult is it to ask for forgiveness from someone in such a low voice?

"Of course, don't leave me. I really don't want anything. I just want my wife and my children."

"We won't go back, we are incognito. Let's live our own lives, okay?"

Chapter 473

Finale: Where there is you, when the next day is at night, Aspen Li enters the door with a bunch of things.

Emily Gale prepared dinner for Hunter Jackson. When he returned, he happened to see Aspen Li coming out of the ward holding a pile of documents.

"What?" She moved her heart and walked quickly over.

I don't know why, there is a faint anxiety in my heart.

Aspen Li's face was not very good-looking, he was obviously disappointed, but when facing Emily Gale, his expression was respectful.

"The agreement signed by the young master."

Aspen Li looked at her and wanted to talk, but he didn't dare to say anything when he thought of what the young master had explained.

"Forget it, Miss Ranran, you can go in and take care of him. I didn't know what was going on yesterday.

The wound was a little open.

The doctor asked him to rest, but he wouldn't listen to me."

I am afraid there is only one person in the world. Let the young master be obedient.

"What the hell is it? What agreement?" The more Aspen Li avoided this topic, the more anxious Emily Gale felt.

What Hunter Jackson said yesterday, suddenly returned to her mind, she panicked: "Is it..."

"Yes, it was the share transfer letter signed by the young master."

Aspen Li was indeed disappointed, the young master completely gave up all this, This has too much influence on the life of the young master.

As his subordinates, of course he does not want this to happen.

However, since it was Young Master's choice, Aspen Li could only support it.

"The eldest master transferred all his shares in the Jackson family to the third young master, and the eldest master also handed in his resignation and resigned as the president of the Jackson family."

"The eldest master will not return to Beiling anymore. Where will you go in the future? He will accompany you wherever."

Aspen Li looked at Emily Gale, the matter has come to this, he can only wish: "Miss Ranran, don't run away secretly, I don't want to see the young master continue to live the life of walking dead."

"Even you.

After running away, he will still look for you day and night, not to mention that he doesn't need anything now, and will only find you crazier." She could imagine that Hunter Jackson went to various places in the world to find her. Days to go everywhere, groping everywhere.

Does she really bear the heart to see the young master like that?

"Also, Miss Ranran, can you help me beg Young Master, let me follow him, no matter where I go, I will follow him, and at any time, I would like to fight back with him?" Aspen Li was very scared.

The young master doesn't want anything, doesn't he also want people like them?

They have been with the young master for more than ten or twenty years.

If the young master doesn't want them, they really don't know where to go and what to do in the future?

"Naughty!" Emily Gale is thinking now, not what will happen to them in the future, but how can Hunter Jackson really sign these agreements?

"You wait a minute,

Don't send it out first, I'll talk to him.

" "It's useless.

"Aspen Li smiled at her and said helplessly: "As long as you don't want to go back with him, he will definitely not want all this."

"Miss Ranran, don't you understand the temper of the young master?"

"...When Emily Gale walked into the ward, her heart was a little cold and a little sour. Seeing Hunter Jackson changed his clothes, she panicked: "What else do you want to do?"

"Don't do anything, just change your clothes."

"Where are you going?"

"Good, what clothes to change? Hunter Jackson held her hand with a serious expression: "I'm afraid you will run away suddenly. I will change my clothes first."

At least when you run, I can chase it out with dignity. Not wearing a hospital gown and running around the world.

"Her heart suddenly became sour that she had hidden tears for so long, and finally rolled down. This man, a lunatic! That's right, from the first day she knew him, she knew it was flowing from his bones. Blood, crazier than anyone else! I have been entangled for two lifetimes. I have had sadness, hopelessness, happiness, and hardships. Nowadays, can I really choose to forgive, yes, and start over with him? But What about those who were hurt by her and asked her to give hope? In the early morning of the third day, Emily Gale saw the man who gave hope and hurt him. He came back, all in a dusty suit."

"Sorry."

"Emily Gale's tears rolled down when he saw him."

"You said sorry to me because you have decided to be with that person?"

"Jackson Tianyou's expression is very indifferent, there is no sadness, no sadness, and no anger."

It seems that he has already guessed the ending.

"Actually, this is good, at least, I don't need to be pressured."

"God bless..."

What does pressure mean? "Because I know that you don't love me, you just treat me as a friend, a very good friend."

Jackson Tianyou sighed and looked up at Tianyou.

The sadness in that glance was completely concealed when he lowered his head.

There was a smile in his eyes, and he smiled very clearly: "With someone who doesn't love me. Together, it's a lot of pressure. I even thought, can I really make friends with you without scruples?"

Emily Gale bit her lip and her face was a little red. However, thinking that something like that was really going to happen to herself and God, her heart was full, but it was all resisting.

"So, you actually don't want it, so what about me? Can force you?"

"I'm sorry..."

"Don't tell me I'm sorry, you just have to tell me firmly, following that man, you can really be happy for a lifetime."

"But what will Emily Gale give to this promise? Will she be happy forever, she doesn't know

Tao.

"She follows me and will not only be happy for a lifetime, but will also be happy forever."

In the ward, a well-dressed man walked out and held Emily Gale in his arms.

Looking at Jackson Tianyou's eyes, there was a trace of defense, but it was more of a complexity that Emily Gale couldn't understand.

"You should go home too."

Joseph Beidao.

Emily Gale didn't understand, let God go home?

Why do you always feel that something is wrong with this?

Jackson Tianyou was expressionless, and he didn't know how long it took before he said flatly: "If...you are going to have a wedding, then...I will go back too."

"Where are you going back?" Emily Gale couldn't understand. Feeling that their dialogue concealed an aura that she couldn't understand?

Jackson Tianyou looked at her for a long time before taking a deep breath and whispering: "Go back to Jackson's house, back to...my house."

"God you..."

"I am the illegitimate son of Jackson's family, ranking seventh.

"Jackson Tianyou's palm was originally tightly squeezed, but he still resisted this identity a bit.

But in the end, when looking at Emily Gale, the resistance finally faded.

He laughed, and the soft sunlight fell on his face, making this smile gradually clear.

"Let's go home together, sister-in-law."

... Home, in fact, is not far away.

Get on the plane and return to their home soon.

Aspen Li's agreement was not sent out in the end, because Emily Gale said that he should not delay Hunter Jackson's life because of himself.

Hunter Jackson had no opinion on anything, as long as his wife said it, he would just follow it.

Now, besides being a slave of his daughter, he is also a slave of his wife.

But, as a slave, he deserves it.

On the private plane, Zyden Gale and the two children were chatting in front of him.

It was said that they wanted to cultivate feelings.

Aspen Li and Jackson Tianyou sat behind.

After deciding to go home, Jackson Tianyou seemed to smile a lot.

This big boy has always been introverted and has a lot to do with his identity as an illegitimate child.

"You young masters of the rich and aristocratic, changing women is like changing clothes, but you don't know that it will easily ruin a woman's life, or even a child."

God, is a good example.

Hunter Jackson held her hand and said, "Look out of the window."

"What?" The blue sky and white clouds outside the window were beautiful when they first looked at it.

Hunter Jackson's thin lips curled up, together with her, looking at the sky outside the window.

"Heaven and earth as evidence, I am admiring Joseph's life. Except Emily Gale, if I still provoke other women, I will be blessed to be broken and not dead."

"What nonsense!" Emily Gale hurriedly stretched out his hand in fright and slapped him. The big mouth was closed tightly.

"Don't talk nonsense!" "Don't let me talk nonsense, there is a good Method.

"Hunter Jackson looked down at her. Emily Gale looked at him with a grievance: "What can I do?"

"That's..."

Hunter Jackson lowered his head and gently closed her lips: "Stop my mouth!"

"The next second, this k*ss was infinitely deepened by him. Emily Gale was unable to resist, and at this moment, he didn't want to resist anymore.

The hands that had nowhere to put, eventually, wrapped around his neck and hugged him tightly.

The blue sky and white clouds outside the window seemed to prove to them.

As evidenced by heaven and earth, Emily Gale would only have him in this life as a man. No, in the previous life, in the next life, he was the only one.

The plane passed through the clouds, Passing the breeze, all the way forward, the destination is their home.

After living for two lives, finally, she also has a home that truly belongs to her.

The regrets of the previous life, in this life, she will have a lifetime to make up for. , Wherever you are, it is home.

Chapter 474 Final

Fanwai; Freshman she returned to this place.

Public opinion is like a scourge, and she has not been let go for a moment.

Although Hunter Jackson and Zyden Gale acted together to cover all the heat.

But gossip still exists.

As she expected, there was no deviation.

But what?

She has a family who loves her, and a husband who spoils her like his life, as grandpa said, as long as the family is together, what is terrible?

At this moment Emily Gale was standing in front of the French window, looking at the bright sunshine outside.

In the yard, all her family members.

Grandpa is in very good condition today. Since she came back, Grandpa's health has been getting better every day.

I was too sick to be in a wheelchair before, but now, I can live in the yard.

"Oh, the position of this lantern is not beautiful, Lao Ding, what's the matter with you? Hurry up and fix it, it's not symmetrical at all!" "Don't you know that the asymmetry is popular now?" Lao Ding was not to be outdone, and went back: " Old man, you are old and you don't understand trends."

"Speaking as if you were very young."

"Ten years younger than you, but also younger."

"Bah!" "Dad, I have a big day today.

"Gale Qinghe stopped him in due course.

Only then did the old man react, and immediately patted his own mouth, and quickly apologized: "Yes, yes, I blame my old man for being ignorant, not talking, not talking. Heh... Well, old Ding, hurry up and look good."

I know, it's really long-winded."

"Pay attention to your words!" "Miss said, let you pay attention to your own words."

"You..."

"Dad, it's a good day today, don't be angry."

Gale Qinghe's voice again Broke through.

The old man was gone, and he quickly piled up an amiable smile: "Yes, yes, I was wrong again, I am not angry, how can I be angry? You see, how beautiful I smile!" "Grandpa, monster."

Sweet Tian struggled down from Zyden Gale's arms, stepped on her short legs, and ran towards the old man.

Fearing that she would fall, Hao Hao tended to follow her.

The old man was immediately sad: "The grandfather is so good, how can he be a monster?" "Monster, monster."

Tian Tian changed directions halfway and went straight to Lao Ding.

"He is a bad guy, sweet, don't be fooled by him, grandpa is a good guy."

The old mJenni after him.

The two young and old chased in the yard.

In the sun, Grandpa had white hair, but that face was radiantly rosy and shiny. He looked like he had been younger for more than ten years.

Zyden Gale came in from the yard and looked at Emily Gale who had put on her make-up and wedding dress.

Today, I'm getting married!

Just a few days after returning home, I was about to be picked up by the bastard of Hunter Jackson.

The reunion days are too short!

"Grandpa has decided to set up a large-scale enterprise in Beiling. He will sit in the town himself."

Zyden Gale walked to her and looked at the figures in the front yard with her.

"Does he sit in town himself, or find an excuse to live in Beiling?" Emily Gale still doesn't understand his grandfather?

Zyden Gale smiled: "Whether it's going to work or living, it's just that I want to be together often as a family."

Emily Gale didn't say a word, and the smile deepened in his eyes.

Yes, as long as the family is together, how to live is happy.

Suddenly, Zyden Gale's gaze cast into the distant sky: "He's here."

In order to prepare for today's wedding, the front yard of Gale's house was cleared of a large area and turned into a temporary apron.

Now, the helicopter that greets you is getting closer.

In Emily Gale's sight, the shadow of the plane was reflected, but what emerged in his mind was the stiff figure, the face that made a woman completely lost for a lifetime.

he came.

Starting today, she will start a new life.

For the rest of my life, I will grow old with my son and never be separated.
