

LOVED BY AN OLDER MAN

Chapter 4: Who Are You Looking Down On?

The Jiang family had a total of three cars. One was driven away by Jiang Hai, one was driven away by Wei Juan, and the remaining one was supposed to be used by Jiang Yu and Jiang ran. However, most of the time, it was booked in advance by Jiang Ran.

Jiang Yu got out of the car with no expression on her face. At this moment, Jiang Ran, who was dressed in exquisite clothes, walked over.

“Where are you going, sister? Why don’t I ask the driver to send you first?” Jiang ran smiled kindly at Jiang Yu.

Without any explanation, she pulled Jiang Yu into the car.

“Where are you going?” Jiang Ran asked.

“To the car dealership.” Jiang Yu found a temporary job in the car dealership during the summer vacation and sold cars there.

To put it nicely, she was a temporary sales assistant. To put it bluntly, she was a handyman.

It was common for her to serve tea and water to other sales assistants.

But now, even though Jiang Yu already had a 100 million yuan card, she still wanted to finish the job.

In the car, Jiang Yu received a text from Mo Long. “Have you had breakfast?”

Jiang Yu couldn’t help but be stunned. Mo Long was acting like a normal boyfriend and girlfriend. He was constantly asking about her well-being.

Jiang Yu replied, “I’ve eaten. I’m on my way to work.”

Mo long: “Where is it? I’ll pick you up at noon.”

Jiang Yu sent the address of the car dealership where she worked.

Very soon, the car stopped at the entrance of the car dealership. Jiang Yu got out of the car, but she did not expect Jiang Ran to get out as well. “Sister, my boyfriend is also going to buy a car recently. I’ll stay here to take a look so that I can give you some sales.”

Jiang Ran didn’t say anything and swaggered into the shop.

The other shop assistants immediately surrounded her. “Miss, your taste is really good. This is the latest model in our shop!”

“I want her to explain it to me.” Jiang Ran sat on a chair at the side and looked at Jiang Yu with a smile.

Jiang Yu walked over. “Ran Ran, this car is worth 30 million yuan. Are you sure your boyfriend will like this model?”

Jiang Ran’s face stiffened and she stuck her neck out and said with a smile, “Of course, young master Ye doesn’t lack this bit of money.”

However, the best car that young master Ye usually drove only cost 5 million. He didn’t have that much money to squander.

Jiang Ran simply wanted Jiang Yu to serve her on purpose.

Jiang Yu brought Jiang Ran to the side of the luxury car, she introduced it in a businesslike manner, “This is a ventilated and heated memory chair. The length of the cushion can be adjusted, the inner thighs can be tightened, the waist can be tightened, and even the seatbelt can be adjusted by the trolley. It’s very technologically advanced...”

Jiang Ran saw that the other party’s mouth was dry and her tongue was parched, and she immediately felt pleased.

“How about this? I’ll go back and tell young master Ye that I’ll bring him to buy a car next time.” Jiang Ran asked Jiang Yu to bring her tea and water, and then asked her to explain repeatedly.

Because the work motto here was that the customer was the most important, so she endured it and did not flare up.

However, in the end, Jiang Ran still looked as if she was trying to help her with work sales and was about to leave.

Just then, a luxury car stopped at the entrance of the car dealership. Jiang Ran's boyfriend, Young Master Ye, came out from inside.

Jiang Ran quickly went up to him and held his hand. "Why are you here? Didn't you say that I would come over later?"

Young master Ye said dotingly, "I came to see if you've taken a fancy to a handsome guy here after staying here for so long."

Young master Ye looked around, but the young man didn't see him. Instead, he saw a beautiful figure, and his eyes couldn't help but light up.

Jiang Ran hurriedly pulled him back. "Young Master Ye, this is the adopted daughter of our family, Jiang Yu."

Young Master Ye had just seen Jiang Yu's extraordinary temperament and thought that she was the young miss of a rich family. He didn't expect that...

Jiang Ran added, "She sells cars here."

She was an adopted daughter and a car salesman. Her status was low, so she was naturally incomparable to the daughter of a wealthy family.

Jiang Yu revealed a professional smile. "Young Master Ye, are you here to buy a car? Ran Ran had already looked at this car for a long time and was very satisfied. She said that you would definitely like it."

Jiang Yu pointed at the new car model at the side. "It's this one."

Young Master Ye followed her gaze and immediately frowned. He did not need to look to know that the price of this car was beyond what he could afford.

He naturally thought that Jiang Ran would not show him such a car. Jiang Yu must have deliberately pulled Jiang Ran away to prevent her from leaving for the sake of her work.

Young Master Ye's expression turned cold. "A temporary sales assistant dares to sell to me? Who are you looking down on?" Jiang Yu was not even wearing her work clothes.

She was just an adopted daughter, yet she dared to plot against them.

However, Jiang Ran was the one who insisted on Jiang Yu introducing her to him. At this moment, Jiang Ran lowered her head and didn't say a word.

The manager of the car dealership quickly came over. "Young Master Ye, what kind of car do you want to see? Let me introduce it to you. This way, please."

"If you want me to buy a car, that's fine too. Send this unprofessional person out of this car dealership!" When Young Master Ye saw that Jiang Ran didn't say anything, he immediately knew that Jiang Ran and Jiang Yu definitely didn't have a good relationship.

"This..." The manager hesitated for a moment and looked at Jiang Yu.

However, Jiang Yu looked at Jiang ran and said sarcastically, "Is this the sales you want to give me? My good sister!"
