

Loving 2051

Chapter 2051. Conspire (3)

Ah Fei coughed lightly and glanced at Dongfang Liuyun. Only then did he realize that her expression was as calm as water and that she did not reveal any emotions. Only then did he take a deep breath.

“After Fujiwara suddenly returned to Japan, he immediately placed Kenji Fujiwara under house arrest. Kenji Fujiwara was caught off guard and is still being controlled by Fujiwara. Riko Inoue is also in Fujiwara’s hands. He wants to force...”

“He wants Mr. Ge to speak up?”

Dongfang Liuyun had already finished his sentence.

Ah Fei nodded. “That should be his intentions.”

“I got it. You can leave now.”

Dongfang Liuyun, who was sitting on the sofa, could not help but feel a little tired. She waved her hand and gestured for Ah Fei to leave.

“Yes! Oh, that’s right, Miss! Someone specially sent this to me this morning. He said it’s a very important gift. He wants you to check it yourself immediately!”

Ah Fei suddenly remembered the thing he received this morning, so he quickly took it out from his pocket. It was a very well-wrapped box.

“Who gave it to you?” Dongfang Liuyun asked.

“I don’t know. They just said it was a friend from Singapore,” Ah Fei replied.

Singapore?

Dongfang Liuyun was stunned for a moment. A ray of light flashed across her eyes. She immediately reached out to take it and quickly opened it!

There was a USB drive and a note inside. When she opened the note, she saw Qi Lei's familiar handwriting—

'All is well. Take care of yourself, don't worry!'

It was just a simple line of words, but Dongfang Liuyun...

Her eyes were a little hot. Ah Fei could clearly see that her hands, which were holding onto the note, were trembling.

After a long while, Dongfang Liuyun turned her head away. She blinked her eyes and gestured to Ah Fei before Ah Fei left.

The study room fell silent. Dongfang Liuyun lowered her head to look at the note for a long time. She could not help but raise her hand to cover her nose and mouth. After calming down for a long time, she forced the heat in her eyes back.

Holding the note in her hand tightly, she looked at the USB in her hand with some doubt. After a long while, she stood up and walked to the desk. She turned on the computer and connected the USB. Dongfang Liuyun had a tacit understanding of the password. She directly entered her birthday, the documents were immediately unlocked.

Looking at the documents, Dongfang Liuyun was instantly stunned. She was shocked when she saw the rest!

She did not expect for Qi Lei to have done so much in silence!

With these things, it was not difficult for her to take down Dongfang Group, not to mention that she had evidence of Dongfang Rou'er's crime!

Dongfang Liuyun looked at it for a long time before leaning back in her chair.

At this moment, the phone on the side vibrated. Dongfang Liuyun glanced at it indifferently. When she saw the caller ID on the screen, she picked it up.

“The information has been sent to your email. The matter you ordered has been completed. I’m sure you already know about the matter with Fujiwara. Don’t worry. As long as he can suppress it and nothing happens to Mr. Ge, the Jin family might not be able to withstand it. Dongfang Rou’er will no longer have any backing. It all depends on how you deal with Dongfang Ren and Dongfang Yi. If you can’t resolve the conflict between them properly, they might join forces and bite you instead!” The person on the other end of the line said with concern.

“I understand. Thank you.”

The person on the other end of the line was Dongfang Liuyun’s trusted private detective. He was also Dongfang Liuyun’s close friend. Although they did not contact each other often, they had a good relationship. For many of Dongfang Liuyun’s archeological expeditions, she had gotten the information from him. The friendship between the two of them was not ordinary.

“You’re welcome,” the person on the other end replied. Dongfang Liuyun then hung up the phone.

She opened her email and soon saw a bunch of data.

A smile appeared on Dongfang Liuyun’s face. She slowly dialed Dongfang Yi’s number.

The phone rang a few times before Dongfang Yi picked up—

“Hello? Liuyun?”

Dongfang Yi had just finished showering. He was drying his hair with a towel in one hand and picking up the phone with the other. Looking at the caller ID, he naturally knew that it was Dongfang Liuyun calling.

“Second Uncle, it’s quite late, not resting yet? Are you preparing for tomorrow’s shareholders’ meeting?”

Dongfang Liuyun’s voice sounded very indifferent.

“You’ve disappeared for so many days. Could it be that you’re here to question or guard against me? I’m sure you know the current situation of the company. You basically don’t have any hope. If you can support me, I’ll give you some benefits. Otherwise, I’m afraid your Uncle won’t let you take the benefits so easily.”

Dongfang Yi also spoke openly and the door and simply tossed out the bait for Dongfang Liuyun.

Upon hearing this, the corner of Dongfang Liuyun’s mouth curled into a sneer, “Is that so? What benefits does Second Uncle want to give me? What a coincidence, I also want to have a good talk with Second Uncle about this matter. I didn’t know that Second Uncle was so capable to actually have his own private company in City C with quite a generous profit in a year, but it seems that this isn’t too well-behaved. If I hand over this evidence to the police, what do you think you will do?”

Dongfang Yi’s face was instantly filled with shock when he heard Dongfang Liuyun’s words, followed by a wave of gloominess—

“I don’t know what you’re talking about!”

“You don’t know? Alright, I’ll send you some information to your email. You can take a look and then decide whether you want to have a good talk with me.”

Dongfang Yi’s eyes darkened when he heard the notification sound coming from his notebook at the side. He immediately walked over. As expected, he saw that Dongfang Liuyun had sent an email. He hurriedly opened it and his expression instantly turned terrible!

“Tell me! Where did you get these things?!”

Dongfang Yi's fierce tone was heard, but Dongfang Liuyun smiled coldly, "It seems that these things have given Second Uncle quite a shock. You don't have to worry about where I came from. Since I was able to find these things, it means that the things in my hands are beyond your expectations. Second Uncle, what do you think we should talk about now?"

"Did your First Uncle receive the same threat?"

"How can this be considered a threat? The Dongfang Group should have been mine to inherit. It's just that I didn't expect for First Uncle and Second Uncle's ambitions to be so great. You haven't been well-behaved all these years."

Dongfang Liuyun laughed coldly.

Dongfang Yi's expression was incomparably gloomy. He had already done enough to conceal his identity!

These few companies had been operating for many years and had almost always been peaceful. He had already been extremely careful, he did not expect for Dongfang Liuyun to still have been able to catch him!

He really did not know how she had obtained those things!

There must be a mole in the company!

Moreover, there was almost no doubt that Dongfang Liuyun wanted to use these things to blackmail him!

Thinking of the position he was about to obtain, Dongfang Yi hated it very much!

"What do you want?" Dongfang Yi asked coldly!

Chapter 2052. Win or Loss? (1)

For this day, Dongfang Yi had made a lot of preparations. Previously, the matter of Dongfang Yu being transferred out had caused him to lose some of his support. Otherwise, if Dongfang Yu were to enter into a marriage alliance with Dongfang Rou'er, how could he, Dongfang Yi, be so passive today?

There was no other way. This path was not feasible, so he could only find another shortcut. He knew that Dongfang Gan's side could not take down the new mine for a long time, so he tried to work hard in this aspect.

It was not easy to obtain this trump card, but he did not expect Dongfang Liuyun to actually control this evidence and force him to submit!

No wonder Dongfang Liuyun and Dongfang Gan had not appeared recently. Dongfang Yi had long known that Dongfang Gan had woken up!

Thinking about it, he has probably been secretly preparing these things!

This father and daughter duo had really prepared such a good show.

"Second Uncle is a smart person. What do you think I would want from you if I brought out these things to talk to you today?"

Dongfang Liuyun gently leaned against the back of the chair behind her and stretched out her fingertips to support her slightly drowsy head as she asked indifferently.

"You want to make a fuss at the shareholders' meeting tomorrow?" Dongfang Yi gritted his teeth and asked coldly.

Hearing this, Dongfang Liuyun's face immediately turned into a smile, "I told you Second Uncle was a smart man. The ownership of the Dongfang Group had long been known. To harp over something that doesn't belong to you in the first place requires you to pay the price. Second Uncle is a veteran yourself, couldn't you see this clearly? This way of rising to the top doesn't necessarily benefit you. How much price would you have to pay to stabilize it? Moreover, First Uncle won't let you up so easily, right?" Dongfang Liuyun calmly analyzed the situation to Dongfang Yi.

“Actually, Second Uncle, you know best. Compared to First Uncle, Dongfang Rou’er, and the others, your chances of winning aren’t very high. Even if you win, you might not be able to sit firmly. I thought that someone like Second Uncle wouldn’t choose such a risky and unstable thing to do.”

“Since you know this, aren’t you still wanting to sit in that position yourself?”

Dongfang Yi’s tone was a little sarcastic.

“Second Uncle knows what kind of situation I’m in. I won’t steal other people’s things, but other people shouldn’t think of stealing my things either. Second Uncle has never done anything without confidence. If your performance at the shareholders’ meeting tomorrow is satisfactory, I will consider giving you an additional reward. It is the wisest choice for you to guard your position well. It is also the best decision for Second Brother. I don’t think you want Second Brother to stay outside all the time, right?”

Dongfang Liuyun threw out the bait.

“You mean, you can get Ah Yu to transfer back?” Dongfang Yi’s eyes froze and he quickly asked.

“That will depend on Second Uncle’s sincerity. As long as I am not willing, Dongfang Rou’er wouldn’t definitely not rise up. Isn’t her trump card the Jin family?”

Dongfang Liuyun smiled disdainfully. She did not want to go all out like this at first, but since Dongfang Rou’er had taken such a step, she had nothing to worry about.

“Qi Lei is back?”

Hearing Dongfang Liuyun’s words, Dongfang Yi’s eyes flickered—

Since the Jin family was not a trump card, then Dongfang Liuyun must be very confident. She was probably relying on Qi lei. The Qi family was rich and powerful before, not to mention their connections. Dongfang Yi admitted this point.

Previously, the Dongfang family was not very willing to interact with these families. The Mu family also wanted to maintain an attitude of not interfering with each other's business. Furthermore, they were not involved in related businesses, so they naturally maintained this relationship.

However, it was different now. Since Dongfang Liuyun was married to Qi Lei, as her husband, Qi Lei could not ignore this matter.

Dongfang Yi suddenly realized that it was not only beneficial to have a marriage alliance within his line of work. As long as the other party's background was strong enough, it was not a problem at all. After all, with such a background, how simple could it be?

As expected, they were not as farsighted as one little woman.

At this moment, Dongfang Yi felt very unconvinced, but there was more that he could do nothing about.

"Alright, I've said what should be said, and I've analyzed it all for Second Uncle. I think Second Uncle knows what to do. "Tomorrow is the shareholders' meeting. I'm looking forward to Second Uncle's performance at that time. At the same time, let Second Uncle know that I've already won over the shares under Vice President Kang. With the shares that Grandmother gave me, even if not for Grandfather's, I can still compete with you two, not to mention that I still have Grandfather's will in my hands."

Dongfang Liuyun smiled calmly and hung up the phone before Dongfang Yi could react.

Dongfang Liuyun slowly put away her phone and closed her eyes. She took a deep breath and opened her eyes after a long while. One of her hands was still rubbing her temples.

Perhaps it was because she was pregnant, but recently, she felt very tired and her energy was not as strong as before. Fortunately, she was still young and did not have such a strong reaction like the others, she could feel that the child was growing safely in her stomach. She would go to the hospital for a good check-up in a few days. What she needed the most now was to resolve these matters before she could let the child grow up safely.

Dongfang Liuyun reached out to cover her belly. Her gaze softened a little as her starry eyes swept across the table. Unexpectedly, she saw Qi Lei's wedding photo of the two of them.

She could not help but reach out to take the photo. She stared at it for a long time—

“You seem quite confident that I can hold on by myself...”

After muttering these words softly, Mama Wang suddenly knocked on the door. Dongfang Liuyun responded before she pushed the door open and walked in.

“Missus, have a cup of hot milk and some snacks. I was worried that you'd be hungry, so I specially made them.”

She had been serving her so carefully during this period of time. This made Dongfang Liuyun very touched.

“Why aren't you sleeping at this time of night?”

Dongfang Liuyun reached out to take the milk and started eating the pastries as well.

If she did not bring it up, she would not have felt it but she did feel a little hungry at this moment. Mama Wang's cooking had always been very good, especially the pastries. Dongfang Liuyun quite liked them.

“I was worried that it would rain, the weather has been rather gloomy these past two days. I got up to check if the doors and windows were closed properly. I saw that Missus' room was still lit up, so... Missus needs to take care of her body. Carrying young master will be a little tiring. When Master returns, he will definitely be very happy. It's also a good opportunity for Missus to have a good rest.”

Mama Wang also saw the tiredness on Dongfang Liuyun's face. Although her heart was anxious and distressed, she did not know what else she could do.

“He... I don’t know when he’ll be back...”

At the mention of Qi Lei, Dongfang Liuyun suddenly felt lonely and sad.

She had never experienced such emotions before.

Chapter 2053. Win or Loss? (2)

Mama Wang also took in Dongfang Liuyun’s expression. She sighed inwardly and said somewhat helplessly—

“That’s right. If only Master were here at this time! Even the wedding will have to be postponed. Missus, but don’t worry, the wedding can be carried out immediately when Master returns. President Qi has been meticulously preparing before, and now it’s almost done.”

“Let’s put this matter aside for later. It doesn’t matter whether the wedding is held or not.”

Dongfang Liuyun did not care about this. She already had a child and had received the marriage certificate. She did not think that this wedding could be anything much. She felt that it would be good if it could not be held, so as to avoid tiring herself out. In any case, she did not feel that there was anything to look forward to, now that they had been married for so long, she felt even more indifferent.

“Missus, you have to be more attentive. Master has been looking forward to it for a long time. He just wants to give you a perfect wedding.”

Mama Wang smiled.

Dongfang Liuyun chuckled and did not say anything. She quietly ate a few pieces of snacks and drank the milk in the cup. Then, she felt much better.

“Alright, you should go back and rest early.”

Dongfang Liuyun did not say anything else.

Mama Wang nodded and then left the room with the tray.

Dongfang Liuyun naturally could not rest yet. On such a crucial night, she still needed to handle a lot of documents. She had not contacted Dongfang Xue either. Tomorrow was very crucial, so she had to be fully prepared. She had to hit the target in one hit, by taking care of Dongfang Rou'er and also taking care of the hidden dangers of the Dongfang Group, she and Dongfang Gan would have a much easier time later on.

...

It was late, in the wee hours of the morning.

When Mu Yuchen returned to Maple Residence, he saw that the light in the study room was still on. He knew that Xi Xiaye must still be awake.

Mu Yuchen frowned and walked upstairs quickly.

As expected, the moment he returned to his room, he saw a woman who was reading a book attentively.

"Why aren't you sleeping yet? Didn't I tell you to sleep first?" Mu Yuchen said in a low voice as he took off his jacket.

The sudden sound startled Xi Xiaye who was reading. She quickly looked up and saw the man standing by the door. Her expression softened a little as she took the bookmark on the side and put it into the book. Then, she closed the book.

"Wait, how much did you drink? Why does it smell so strong?"

She could smell the alcohol on him from far away.

Xi Xiaye walked over as she said this and reached out to take the windbreaker from him.

Mu Yuchen's handsome face was a little red. Qi Lei was not around, and the project in City B was crucial. This time, President Li came over, so he had to be the host.

When he saw her coming over, he reached out and pulled her over. He could not help but feel a little restless—

Could he be blamed?

Xi Xiaye was only wearing a black nightgown with the collar slightly open. The exquisiteness inside was clearly seen, and he just happened to drink. In the private room of the banquet, President Zhang, who was with President Li, called out to a few young women.

They had quite a lot of fun, but he could not. It had to be Xi Xiaye for him before he could do it. He was used to her delicate fragrance, the scent of other women always felt unclean to him, and he would get goosebumps all over the moment they came close.

He knew very well that he just had to have her.

“What...”

Xi Xiaye just frowned and wanted to say something when he had already lowered his head to kiss her without hesitation. His large hand swiftly reached for her waist.

“Mmm, you smell like alcohol. Go wash up first...”

Xi Xiaye avoided him with some disdain.

“Be good! How long has it been since New Year's Eve?!”

Mu Yuchen immediately grabbed her wrist and glared at her without any explanation.

When he said this, Xi Xiaye was instantly stunned.

After New Year's Eve, because it was new year's, they had been very busy. She even stayed at the Shen residence for a few days and left him alone at home. Then, she visited him on his period. It had been half a month. Looking at his dissatisfied expression, xi Xiaye could only cough a few times—

“Before we got been married, you weren't like this. Aren't you the noble and aloof abstinence type?”

“I don't care about being all noble and aloof abstinent. I'm a layman.”

Mu Yuchen glanced at her a little angrily.

This woman was getting more and more impudent recently. It was obvious that he was not going to let her go?

“Why don't you follow people's example and get a mistress then?”

When Xi Xiaye said this, Mu Yuchen immediately glared at her coldly. The punishing kiss also came over and sealed her up for a moment. When Xi Xiaye was gasping for breath, he gritted his teeth and said in her ear, “Don't even think about it! With me around, why are you still so restless?”

Xi Xiaye laughed softly when she heard his sour tone. She quickly said, “Mr. Mu, you seem to be drunk!”

“Can I still do this to you when I'm drunk?” Mu Yuchen replied snappily as his sexy laughter reached her ears.

Xi Xiaye could feel his cold aura mixed with the smell of alcohol. When she wanted to struggle, he moved even faster. He lifted her up by her waist and walked towards the bedroom in large strides.

Xi Xiaye was a little scared now. This man's words meant that he did not intend to let her off so quickly. She understood him very well.

...

The facts proved that Xi Xiaye's guess was right.

When she fell asleep, it was almost dawn.

Mu Yuchen himself was also in a deep sleep.

When he woke up, the sky was already bright. Xi Xiaye still woke up with a slight rustling sound.

"You're awake?"

When he saw her hugging the blanket and getting up, the man who was standing by the bed wearing a tie also looked over. He seemed to be in good spirits.

"What time is it? I'm so tired..."

Xi Xiaye scratched her messy hair as she felt a little sleepy.

"It's 7:30 a.m. You can still take a half-hour nap."

Mu Yuchen picked up his coat swiftly and answered in a serious tone. You could not tell that the person who was full of bestiality last night was this guy.

Xi Xiaye glared at him and did not go back to sleep anymore. She got out of the bed, picked up the sleeping robe on the ground, and put it on as she walked towards the bathroom.

“It’s the Lantern Festival today. I have to finish my work as soon as possible. I have to go back to the Shen residence for dinner tonight. Xiao Rui and Wei’er have been going to school for the past two days. I have to pick them up from school in the afternoon,” said Xi Xiaye.

“You go pick them up. I have to go to the airport,” Mu Yuchen replied calmly.

“Who would bother Chairman Mu to pick them up personally? Is Mother back?”

Xi Xiaye was a little surprised as she turned to look at him.

“Mother would have Father to pick her up. It’s Qi Lei.”

Mu Yuchen recalled the call that Qi Lei had made last night.

“Qi Lei’s coming back?”

Xi Xiaye looked at Mu Yuchen with some joy.

Chapter 2054. Win or Loss? (3)

It was a cloudy day, and the wind was very cold.

Dongfang Liuyun pulled open the curtains and looked outside. She saw that it was bleak outside, and the cold wind blew the trees in the courtyard until they bent over.

“Missus, it’s cold outside. Remember to bring your coat with you later. I’ll leave it here for you.”

After breakfast, Mama Wang continued to make preparations.

“Mmm, go and rest after you’re done. I want to be alone.”

Dongfang Liuyun turned her head and looked at Mama Wang with a smile.

“Okay, Missus!”

Mama Wang understood and left.

Dongfang Liuyun also withdrew her gaze. Her gaze looked through the glass window and leisurely looked at the scenery outside. After a while, she vaguely heard the sound of a car stopping.

“Missus!”

A moment later, Wang Chun’s voice came from behind.

“I’m here!”

Dongfang Liuyun responded indifferently. The hand behind her was still holding a document. Wang Chun looked at her and felt that her expression was very calm. There was not the slightest fluctuation in her emotions.

“Mmm, Missus did not seem to have a good rest last night. Are you a little nervous today?”

Wang Chun looked at the exhaustion in Dongfang Liuyun’s eyes and asked with concern.

Dongfang Liuyun was indeed not looking too good. She stayed up late last night and woke up early today in order to prepare the materials for today.

Hearing this, Dongfang Liuyun also took a deep breath. “I can’t say that I’m nervous. I’ve already done what needs to be done. Next, it’s up to our luck. I hope that after today, the Dongfang Group will usher in a new era.”

“We will, Missus! As long as they were cleaned up, leaving behind those who were useful and obedient, that was the key. Master had said before that the Dongfang Group was filled with talented people. The key was to be able to arrange them into suitable positions. Vice President Zhang had already drawn up a list of vacancies. Once it was arranged, they would definitely actively resolve the current difficulties. A new broom sweeps clean, Missus has used this principle very well and very cleverly.”

As Wang Chun spoke, his eyes were filled with admiration. “Even the elders of Tai Yu Corporation are full of praise for Missus.”

Wang Chun’s words gave Dongfang Liuyun full recognition.

However, Dongfang Liuyun did not feel proud or satisfied because she knew that Qi Lei had reminded her of these words before.

In terms of skills, Qi Lei might not be as good as her, but in terms of personnel, Qi Lei’s judgment was far more accurate than hers. Perhaps it was because he had come into contact with too many people. His judgment and ability to evaluate people left her in the dust.

“It’s good that you can get through this difficulty. I’m afraid today will be a tough battle, but Dongfang Ren who has lost his support is just a toothless tiger. This time, I must get rid of all those hidden dangers.”

As Dongfang Liuyun said this, determination appeared in her eyes. As she finished speaking, she took a deep breath and handed the document in her hand to Wang Chun.

“Go to the police station and pass these to Captain Wang.”

Wang Chun was stunned for a moment. He took the documents in puzzlement and flipped them open. After taking a quick look, shock appeared in his eyes

“Missus, how could it be her?”

“I didn’t expect it either. It’s my fault for being too careless and letting Uncle Ming die in the sea of fire. When the De Bao House was set on fire, I already sensed that something was wrong. I didn’t expect that they would find out that the items were hid in the shop, that’s quite skillful of them. Fortunately, Uncle Ming is a cautious person. I should have thought of it earlier.”

When Dongfang Liuyun said this, there was a hint of bitterness in her tone.

“Missus, you don’t have to be too sad. A dead person can not be revived. Uncle Ming will understand.”

Wang Chun could not help but comfort her and also tightened the document in his hand.

“No matter what, this tragedy has already been caused. I must let him die in peace. If I hand this thing to Captain Wang, I think he will know what to do.”

Dongfang Liuyun blinked, and her tone contained a hint of sadness, “Too many things have happened recently. Vice President Wang Chun, thank you. I wouldn’t have been able to bear it by myself otherwise. When the matter of the Dongfang Group is settled, I will definitely thank you properly.”

“Missus, don’t say such courteous words. I am President Qi’s person to begin with. It is only right for me to serve the Qi family and Master and Missus. I also admire Missus for being able to hold on so firmly,” Wang Chun replied.

Dongfang Liuyun smiled calmly. “Fortunately, everything seems to be coming to light soon.”

There was some anticipation in her voice.

“After the matter is over, Missus should take care of the fetus. Master should be back. I heard that Wang Xun met President Qi yesterday. I think Master should be better. It’s just that Wang Xun and...”

Wang Chun did not finish his sentence.

Dongfang Liuyun roughly knew what he was going to say. She thought about it and smiled. “These things are their grudges. We can’t meddle in them. Let’s just watch. As long as Qi Lei is safe and sound, it will be a great gift from God.”

“Yes, that makes sense. I...”

Wang Chun wanted to say something, but at that moment, the sound of a car stopping came from outside. The two of them subconsciously turned their heads to look. Only then did they realize that Ah Cai and Secretary Ding were walking in through the door.

“They’re here. It’s time for me to go to the company. Vice President Wang Chun, I’ll leave this matter to you. I hope to see the end of her going against me today.”

As Dongfang Liuyun spoke, her eyes were cold and sharp as a knife.

Wang Chun nodded. “Missus, please be rest assured. I promise to complete the task.”

“Alright!”

Dongfang Liuyun responded and turned around as well. She walked towards the sofa and picked up her coat and briefcase.

“Manager Yun!”

“Miss Liuyun!”

Ah Cai and Secretary Ding’s voices were heard at the same time.

“Let’s go.”

After Dongfang Liuyun said this, her thin figure quickly disappeared at the door.

After the few of them got into the car, they immediately rushed towards the Dongfang Group. Behind them were the bodyguards assigned by Dongfang Gan.

These bodyguards were very useful. It must be known that Dongfang Liuyun had also encountered some accidents recently. For example, when she was walking on the road, a madman suddenly rushed out, or when she passed by a shop, something suddenly fell from the top, but every time, she was promptly protected by the bodyguards, so Dongfang Liuyun did not dare to be careless.

At the headquarters of the Dongfang Group, below the group building that towered into the clouds.

Knowing the importance of today, it had long been surrounded by reporters downstairs. They probably wanted to get first-hand information.

Moreover, all the important figures of the Dongfang Group would be attending today, including Dongfang Gan. It could be seen how important this shareholders' meeting was.

Dongfang Liuyun's car passed through the crowd and stopped at the company entrance. Just as Secretary Ding got out of the car and opened the door for Dongfang Liuyun, a group of reporters swarmed over—

Chapter 2055. Win or Loss? (4)

The bodyguards following behind quickly blocked the group of people.

"Miss Liuyun, quickly go in. The meeting seems like it's about to start!"

Ah Cai held the briefcase in her hand while protecting Dongfang Liuyun.

"Go in, Manager Yun!"

Secretary Ding also stopped the person who stretched out his hand and said.

Dongfang Liuyun nodded and did not pay attention to the crowd of reporters behind her. She walked in.

Dongfang Rou'er, Dongfang Ren, and the others had already arrived in the high-level meeting room of the Dongfang Group. The entire meeting room was almost full. Other than the shareholders who participated in the meeting, there were also some capable executive assistants.

At this moment, in the meeting room, the seats for Dongfang Gan, Dongfang Liuyun, Dongfang Xue and Dongfang Yi were still empty. Everyone else had already arrived.

It was almost time to leave the meeting. Looking at the few empty seats in front of them, some people were also whispering to each other. They must have made some guesses and discussions because of today's meeting.

Dongfang Rou'er was also sitting upright, quietly flipping through the documents in her hands. However, her mind was not on the documents. Her gaze was also a little erratic, and she could not see clearly what kind of emotions were contained within.

Dongfang Ren and Dongfang Xin were sitting beside her. Dongfang Ren looked very calm, but Dongfang Xin's expression was a little gloomy. It was obvious that he was enduring something.

"Father, do you think Uncle and the others will come?" Dongfang Xin lowered his voice and glanced at Dongfang Rou'er as he asked.

They were well aware of Dongfang Gan's matter. Before the company was in such a mess, Dongfang Gan, Dongfang Liuyun, and the others had not appeared. Now that the shareholders' meeting was held, he felt a little uneasy. He had a feeling that something was going to happen. Although Dongfang Rou'er said that everything was well prepared, he still felt a little uneasy.

He did not know when his sister, Dongfang Rou'er, had become so ambitious. He was also clear about the matter of her asking for the shares. She no longer supported her father, Dongfang Ren, with all her might, instead she had asked for Dongfang Ren to support her.

He had always known that Dongfang Rou'er was bold. Initially, he thought that after she married into the Jin family, she would be able to convince the Jin family to support him, Dongfang Xin. He did not expect her to be so smart as to take in that power for her own use. Furthermore, she was so shrewd in obtaining the shares, only then was she qualified to fight for this position. Furthermore, with the support of the Jin family, she had great reputation. The Jin family could also help with the matter of the mines. Dongfang Rou'er's trump card was not small!

This younger sister of his was really amazing. Even he could not see through her now. She was completely different from the docile and obedient person from before.

“At this time, they won’t not come. However, even if they come, they won’t be able to accomplish anything.”

Dongfang Ren was full of confidence in today’s meeting. As long as Dongfang Rou’er could rise up, as her father, he would have a lot of benefits. In any case, he could not let this position fall into the hands of Dongfang Gan and Dongfang Yi.

“Father, I think it’s better for us not to let our guard down. I know Dongfang Liuyun a little, she has been thinking of taking over the Dongfang Group for a long time. She wouldn’t let it go so easily, I’m worried that there will be trouble.”

Dongfang Xin had suffered many losses at Dongfang Liuyun’s hands before, so he was always faintly worried about Dongfang Liuyun.

“Elder Brother, why are you trying to undermine your own prestige!”

When Dongfang Rou’er heard this, she snorted coldly. Dongfang Rou’er had always looked down on this older brother of hers. He was timid and had no manliness at all. He was just an idiot! He was completely useless!

In fact, Dongfang Xin was not that bad. He was just a little more cautious in handling matters. He was not that courageous and did not act so decisively.

However, ever since Dongfang Rou’er obtained a portion of the shares, she looked down on Dongfang Xin even more. She was even very dissatisfied with Dongfang Ren’s previous efforts to nurture Dongfang Xin.

After being reprimanded by Dongfang Rou’er, Dongfang Xin’s expression became even gloomier. The Dongfang person beside him also glared at him with a sullen face. Dongfang Xin had no choice but to stop what he was about to say and remain silent.

“Vice President Yi is here!”

At this moment, a voice came from the side. Dongfang Ren and Dongfang Rou'er exchanged a look. The father and daughter both looked towards the door and indeed saw Dongfang Yi and his assistant walking into the office accompanied by the bodyguards.

“Everyone's so early too?”

Dongfang Yi swept his gaze across the surroundings and his gaze stopped on Dongfang Ren and Dongfang Rou'er. A meaningful glint flashed across his eyes, but it was not difficult to catch a hint of gloominess on his face—

He did not look happy, and there was a hint of fatigue between his brows. It was obvious that he had not had a good rest yesterday.

“Nice to meet you, Vice President Yi!”

Hearing his greeting, everyone could only reply. Dongfang Yi silently withdrew his gaze and sat down on his seat.

Just as he sat down, Dongfang Xue walked in indifferently. Her gaze swept past Dongfang Ren and Dongfang Yi, and she quickly found her seat and sat down.

With the arrival of a few key figures, the entire meeting room suddenly fell silent. Her gaze quickly stopped on a few key major shareholders in front of her.

The Dongfang family was a very large family. The family's shares were divided into many parts. Elder Dongfang's branch only controlled the majority of the shares of the entire group. There were also some who controlled the hands of the other brothers in the family.

Currently, only one of the main seats and the seats that had jumped down were still empty. It was the seats for Dongfang Gan and Dongfang Liuyun.

“Could it be that they are not coming today?”

After waiting for a while, they did not see the father and daughter appear. Someone started to whisper to each other.

“It shouldn’t be. I think I saw President Gan’s car in the parking lot just now.”

“Is President Gan ready?”

“I don’t know. President Gan didn’t make a good start in Myanmar this time, and President Shu has already... sigh, I’m worried...”

“Yeah, I have a feeling that things are going to change for the Dongfang Group this time... Look at the way manager Rou looked at Vice President Yi and Manager Xue just now. It’s obvious that she wants to be neutral. It’s obvious that she has no hope with President Gan.”

“Who said that? Manager Xue doesn’t have much qualifications to begin with. I heard that all the shares in President Shu’s hands have been given to Manager Yun. I don’t know what Manager Xue is thinking.”

“Manager Yun is actually quite capable. It’s just that...”

Just as the people below were still whispering, a low voice suddenly came from outside the door—

“President Gan, Miss Liuyun, you’re here!”

As the voice fell, everyone turned their heads and looked over—

Chapter 2056. Win or Loss? (5)

Indeed it was Dongfang Gan and Dongfang Liuyun!

The father and daughter walked side by side. Their steps were not fast, but they looked steady. Dongfang Gan's face was still sickly pale, and he looked much thinner than before. At a glance, it was as if he had just recovered from a serious illness.

Dongfang Liuyun, who was beside him, was also wearing a cold outfit. She wore a black business suit and a black coat. She looked very cautious and serious, but everyone also noticed that she had changed into a pair of flats.

A few days ago, the media reported that Dongfang Liuyun had appeared at the gynaecology department of Hospital T. They also vaguely guessed that Dongfang Liuyun was pregnant. Now, it seemed that the media was not making wild guesses.

When he thought of this, Dongfang Yi's eyes flickered. He recalled the phone call Dongfang Liuyun had made yesterday. He vaguely guessed that Dongfang Gan and Dongfang Liuyun must have a very big trump card.

Especially Dongfang Liuyun. Even if something happened to her husband, Qi Lei, with her current situation, it was entirely possible for her to inherit Tai Yu Corporation. When that time comes, it was still uncertain who would have a stronger backer!

"President Gan, Nanager Yun!"

At this moment, everyone hurriedly greeted him. Pairs of eyes were staring at Dongfang Gan.

Dongfang Gan waved his hand and gestured for everyone to sit down.

Ah Fei also quickly went over and pulled out a chair for him. Dongfang Liuyun also sat down in his seat with Ah Cai following behind him.

Seeing Ah Cai's appear, everyone was naturally a little surprised. Ah Cai had always been by Dongfang Shuman's side. She could be considered a person of prestige in the Dongfang Group. Initially, they thought that after Dongfang Shuman passed away, she would no longer be able to continue, they did not expect her to actually join Dongfang Liuyun?

Dongfang Rou'er swept a glance at Dongfang Liuyun, her gaze very gloomy!

Of course, she hated him very much. The people she had previously sent back told her that Fujiwara had met Dongfang Liuyun on New Year's Eve. Moreover, they seemed very intimate. Right now, Fujiwara was still unwilling to meet her. He treated her as if she did not exist and went to look for her several times, no one came out to open the door. Only the guard at the door said that Fujiwara did not meet anyone!

It must be because of Dongfang Liuyun!

Fujiwara, Dongfang Liuyun!

Just you wait and see. I want to see whether she, Dongfang Liuyun, is better or I, Dongfang Rou'er, am smarter!

Why am I always being trampled under the feet of that slut Dongfang Liuyun? We are clearly all the daughters of the Dongfang Group, why did Grandfather favor her so much? Why should she be the so-called genius, and her Dongfang Rou'er's talent was not inferior to her Dongfang Liuyun's, yet she had to be trampled under her feet?

She had to be high and mighty, to prove that she, Dongfang Rou'er, was not inferior to Dongfang Liuyun at all. Let this group of blind people see that she, Dongfang Rou'er, was the woman who should be the center of attention.

Just as she was thinking about this, Dongfang Rou'er looked at Dongfang Liuyun across her and a spark shot out from her eyes. Even Dongfang Liuyun, who was far away, could smell the smell of gunpowder.

She raised her head and looked at Dongfang Rou'er with an indifferent expression. Naturally, she could see the provocation and anger in her eyes. She smiled disdainfully and returned Dongfang Rou'er's mocking and disdainful gaze, Dongfang Rou'er almost could not control herself as she clenched the document in her hand tightly.

Dongfang Gan could naturally feel the undercurrent in the air. He glanced at the people below before lowering his gaze and said in a low voice, "The timing is just right. Let's start the meeting."

“I’m sure everyone knows what has happened to the Dongfang Group recently. Unfortunately, I’ve also been in the hospital for quite some time. So many things have happened in the company and I wasn’t able to come out in time to deal with them. It’s my fault, and...”

“Third Uncle, before we talk about the problems in the company, I think we should first talk about the distribution of the company. Since Third Uncle also understands that you’ve been derelict in your duties, and the operation of the entire Dongfang Group is so important, all the shareholders are also considering this issue. Based on the company’s performance this year, Third Uncle, do you think that you still have the ability to manage such a huge company? We are all worried about the future of the company.”

Before Dongfang Gan could finish his sentence, one of the younger shareholders had already opened his mouth. Dongfang Liuyun gave him a sideways glance and knew that he was on Dongfang Rou’er’s side!

Dongfang Gan’s face immediately darkened when he heard this. He frowned at the young man across from him and asked in a deep voice, “What do you mean by that?”

“You have such courage at such a young age. Not bad. You just joined the company not long ago, right? Since when could you interrupt President Gan’s speech? Ah Kai! Do you still have any respect for your elders?”

At this time, Dongfang Ren also came out to say a few words at the right time and glared at the young man.

Dongfang Liuyun gave a dark smile with a faint sneer at the corner of his mouth. He intended to watch silently. Dongfang Xue, who was beside her, did not even raise her head and quietly flipped through the documents in her hand.

After being reprimanded by Dongfang Ren, the man called Ah Kai’s expression froze for a moment. After a while, he calmed his thoughts and hurriedly distributed the documents in his hands as he continued, “I’m not making trouble for no reason. I’m just very concerned about the future development of the company. These are some of the reports and data analysis that I’ve done over the past few days. These data and reports are enough to explain the situation of the Dongfang Group this year. In addition to the recent events, I can’t help but suspect that if this continues, this company will be destroyed just like that.”

As he spoke, data after data were handed out.

Dongfang Gan's expression darkened, but he was still very calm. He had long known that this would only cause a big fuss over these matters. There was already a small crisis in the middle of this year, it was already very good that their Dongfang Group was able to stabilize their position and obtain some profits. If it were any other company, they would have already suffered heavy losses. He did not expect that these people would actually grasp onto such a matter.

After the documents were distributed and read, everyone began to whisper.

"As one of the shareholders of the company, I feel that it is very necessary to reconsider the matter of the person in charge of the company. Moreover, President Shu has already passed away. In theory, we should first clarify the matter of these shares so that we can better manage the company later."

Ah Kai's tone was very firm.

As his voice fell, many people began to nod in agreement.

"The company has such a rule, and President Shu has always been the person who truly runs the company. President Gan is only the acting president. Now that President Shu is no longer here, this matter should be discussed!"

Chapter 2057. Win or Loss? (6)

After hearing the approval tone from many people, Ah Kai's confidence slowly returned, and his tone became a little cold and hard.

"Since everyone agrees with what I said, then President Gan wouldn't mind, right? After all, the future development of the Dongfang Group is of great importance to all of us, and there are still difficult problems waiting for us to solve later! Now that the data has been shown to everyone, I believe that everyone has a good idea of the company's performance last year. Everyone, please give us your opinions!"

The people from Ah Kai's group were not very satisfied with Dongfang Gan's management of the Dongfang Group. Furthermore, they were very close to Dongfang Ren's group. The Jin family had also given them many benefits, now, it was not strange for him to directly stand out and light this fire!

Dongfang Liuyun seemed to have long been prepared, so she was generally very calm about the current situation. She only coldly glanced at Ah Kai, the corners of her mouth curling into a sneer, but did not say anything, she wanted to see who would be so enthusiastic to stand out. In the future, she would also have to clean up properly.

"This, I also feel that Manager Kai is right. Especially during this time of crisis in the company, Manager Rou has helped a lot. Moreover, Vice President Ren is also a senior member of the company. Now that the company's problems have not been solved, we still need the help of the Jin family. The Jin family is also in charge of several mineral veins. If they give Manager Rou face, they wouldn't hesitate to help. Therefore, I think that in this critical moment, Manager Rou should temporarily act as the president of the Dongfang Group. What do you all think?"

When Ah Kai said this, someone immediately agreed.

"I also think this can work. Right now, the most important thing is how to get the company through this difficult time. From the looks of it, this is also a proposal to achieve the best of both worlds. I also agree."

"If that's the case, I think Vice President Yi is more suitable! Yi is also a senior figure, Manager Rou is too young to take on such an important task. Didn't Vice President Yi also find a very good mine in Africa? Vice President Yi has also contributed a lot in this crisis and has handled the matter well. I propose that Vice President Yi be the acting president."

"I agree with Vice President Yi too!"

...

For a moment, the meeting room started to bustling. Dongfang Ren's gloomy gaze swept across Dongfang Yi. His gaze was filled with provocation. Dongfang Rou'er was also a little nervous at this moment, even though she felt that she had made a lot of preparations, at this moment, she still could not help but tremble slightly. It was not for anything else, but for the position of president that she was about to obtain.

In her eyes, this position was already hers because...

“Thank you everyone for your kind words and kindness, as well as your affirmation of me. I will definitely try my best to not disappoint everyone’s expectations. The Dongfang Group belongs to everyone, so...”

“I haven’t even decided to let you be the president yet. Why are you so impatient? You look like you’re about to give your award acceptance speech now?”

Before Dongfang Rou’er could finish her sentence, a clear voice cut her off. That cold tone was clearly filled with disdain. When Dongfang Rou’er raised her gaze, she met Dongfang Liuyun’s gaze that was filled with sarcasm, that gaze was as if she was looking down on a clown!

This understanding made Dongfang Rou’er extremely angry!

“Otherwise, does Fourth Sister think that you can sit in this position? Putting aside the fact that I haven’t seen you appear when the company was in crisis, I don’t think that you have the qualifications to be the successor at all. Everyone present here has clearly seen the situation, right? Also, I don’t seem to have seen Third Uncle show up. I think that the question of whether he can be the president and whether he’s suitable to sit in this position should depend on his ability and performance?”

Dongfang Rou’er’s words were very sharp. She did not care about Dongfang Gan’s face in the slightest and immediately blamed Dongfang Gan for his negligence.

“Have the qualifications?”

As soon as Dongfang Rou’er finished speaking, a faint voice entered. She raised her head and saw that the person who spoke was actually Dongfang Xue.

“What is more qualified than a share certificate?”

Dongfang Xue paused for a moment before she smiled indifferently, "I don't care who is stronger or weaker. I only recognize share certificates now. I will recognize whoever has the most shares. Isn't this a principle that has never changed since ancient times? You can't be thinking of swallowing the entire empire just because of some merit, right? This is not how the ancient emperors fought for the empire. Otherwise, they would just rely on their merit to dominate the empire. Do you think that the Emperor is dead?"

As expected, when Dongfang Xue said this, there were people who immediately agreed.

Dongfang Rou'er's face immediately stiffened and she turned pale for a moment. However, she quickly controlled her emotions and coughed lightly before replying, "Aunt is right. However, since you have said so, I also want to talk about the shares."

"I'm sorry to interrupt. Before President Shu passed away, she made a will that all 20% of her shares would be inherited by Miss Liuyun. This is a notarized document and the legality of the document has been confirmed."

Ah Cai quickly stood up and took out a document from her briefcase and handed it to Dongfang Xue.

Dongfang Xue's beautiful eyes narrowed. She took it and flipped through it a few times before passing it to the next one casually.

"Impossible!"

Dongfang Ren and Dongfang Rou'er clearly did not believe it. Dongfang Shuman treated Dongfang Xue so well. Even if she passed away, she should have divided these shares into three, right? How could all of them be in Dongfang Liuyun's hands?

Moreover, was Dongfang Shuman not very dissatisfied with Dongfang Liuyun?

Dongfang Ren had a faint feeling that things were not looking good. He suddenly realized that it seemed that they had been played by Dongfang Shuman for so many years?

Did Dongfang Shuman really care about Dongfang Liuyun?

Yes, she was her biological granddaughter after all. How could they be so foolish as to think that Dongfang Shuman could really be selfless? She were just doing it for the old man to see!

“Ren, you can take a closer look!”

“Even if all of them are in Liuyun’s hands, she still isn’t qualified, right? It’s only 20%!”

Dongfang Ren took a deep breath, but he was still able to remain calm.

“Not only 20% , when Father passed away, he also made a will. His shares were inherited by Liuyun. Elder Brother didn’t forget about this, right? I personally expressed my support for Third Brother to continue taking charge of the company. Liuyun’s health is very inconvenient now, and Tai Yu Corporation has already agreed to cooperate with our Dongfang Group to jointly develop the project in the east of the city. This morning, Vice President Wang Chun of Tai Yu Corporation informed me that their Master Qi will personally come over to discuss this project with us next week.”

The person who spoke was actually Dongfang Yi!

Chapter 2058. Win or Loss? (7)

Was Dongfang Yi not also dreaming of that position?

At least in the previous exchange, he had also expressed his desire for that position, but now? What was all this?

Moreover, Dongfang Yi’s words revealed many meanings.

First, Elder Dongfang had left a will for Dongfang Liuyun.

Second, he supported Dongfang Gan to continue to control the Dongfang Group.

Third, Dongfang Liuyun's health was inconvenient, so did that not mean...

Fourth, Dongfang Group and Tai Yu Corporation's cooperation in the city east had some progress.

Fifth, Master Qi had personally come to discuss this project. Did that not mean that Qi Lei was fine?

When Dongfang Yi said this, the meeting room seemed to explode with discussion.

Dongfang Rou'er's expression instantly darkened!

She had prepared for so long. It was impossible for her to be destroyed by this news!

How could Qi Lei come back safely? Did Mr. Ge not say that Dongfang Gan was seriously injured and Qi Lei was shot in the chest?

How could he still be alive?

Mr. Ge was a person who only cared about profit. When they reached an agreement, as long as she could take down Dongfang Group, she did not mind letting him take some shares of Dongfang Group. Furthermore, they could work together, taking down the project that Dongfang Liuyun and Lan Xiu had prepared before, and even giving Fujiwara a blow.

Mr. Ge was a very narrow-minded person. Moreover, his entire heart was twisted. Fujiwara had repeatedly not given him any respect. He had even come forward to warn him, causing him to lose his reputation in front of the company. He would definitely take revenge for this.

But Dongfang Rou'er did not care about any of this. The most important thing was how she could take down the Dongfang Group.

She could not lose to Dongfang Liuyun!

But the current situation clearly made her a little panicked, and she could still calm down as soon as possible—

“Grandfather’s will? I’ve never heard of any will. Have you heard of it?”

Dongfang Rou’er seemed to have known that Dongfang Liuyun would do something like this. She smiled coldly and glanced at Dongfang Yi. Her gaze quickly landed on Dongfang Liuyun.

Although she did not know what method she used to force Dongfang Yi to submit, it seemed that the father and daughter pair had come prepared.

“Ah Yi, I’ve never heard of any will that father left behind. Speaking of which, Mother has passed away. Shouldn’t the shares under father’s name be equally distributed?”

Dongfang Ren received his daughter’s gaze and immediately spoke up.

“Big Brother, why are you lying through your teeth? When the will was taken out, you, me, Ah Gan, Ah Xue, Liuyun and Uncle Ming had all seen it before. Why are you lying to yourself?” Dongfang Yi sneered.

“Why don’t I remember this? Ah Yi, I don’t know what’s going on on your side, but you’ve got stakes in the company too. You wouldn’t want the company to be handed over and messed up by someone else, right?”

Dongfang Ren was implying something.

Dongfang Gan, who had been silent the whole time, had a cold smile on his lips. There was still no emotion on his pale face.

“If you can, why don’t you just take out the will and let everyone see it?”

Dongfang Rou’er sneered and leaned back on the chair behind her, staring at Dongfang Liuyun.

Dongfang Gan's eyes turned cold. Just as he was about to say something, Dongfang Liuyun said disdainfully—

“If I had known earlier that this was your plan, I'm sure you must have put in a lot of effort to investigate the will back then, right?”

When Dongfang Liuyun said this, Dongfang Rou'er's expression froze for a moment. The hands on her legs suddenly tightened as she stared coldly at Dongfang Liuyun.

“I don't know what you're talking about. I'm just asking you to take out the will now. Why do you have to put on an act?”

Dongfang Rou'er could not control the surging waves in her heart. She did not dare to admit that at this moment. Looking at Dongfang Liuyun's eyes, she felt more and more uneasy.

Everything was clearly done flawlessly, but why did she feel a strong pressure in front of Dongfang Liuyun and meet her gaze?

Dongfang Liuyun took in her reaction as well. Her clear eyes suddenly dimmed—

“Uncle Ming died for this, right? Dongfang Rou'er, you really had the heart to do it. You searched every corner of De Bao House, but couldn't find the will, so you set it on fire. Do you think you can destroy the will just like that?”

As soon as she said this, the meeting room immediately fell silent!

Everyone stared at Dongfang Liuyun with their eyes wide open. They turned their gazes and stared at Dongfang Rou'er again!

What did Dongfang Liuyun mean by this?

Was the fire at De Bao House caused by Dongfang Rou'er?

Was the fire not an accident?

Even Dongfang Gan and Dongfang Xue had looks of disbelief on their faces. The siblings exchanged a look and their expressions suddenly turned heavy. Dongfang Ren was also shocked as he stared at Dongfang Rou'er in a daze.

How could his daughter do such a thing? She was clearly such an eager and obedient daughter, even though recently she had become a little...

"Dongfang Liuyun! Don't you dare slander me! It's none of my business! I'm just asking you to take out your will, and you're actually pushing this onto me! Don't tell me you can't take it out and want to bite me back?"

Dongfang Rou'er gritted her teeth and clenched her fists tightly.

Dongfang Liuyun straightened her body slightly and crossed his fingers on the table. She looked at Dongfang Rou'er with a faint smile, "Uncle Ming has always liked cleanliness. Every time he finishes his calligraphy practice, he would pick up the words he had practiced and place them on the bookshelf at the side. However, when I went over, I discovered that the paper in the room was all over the floor. The arrangement was also very irregular. Although the other things were very neat, I could still see that someone had gone through his things."

"What you were looking for, I think this should be it, right?"

Dongfang Liuyun extended her hand towards Ah Cai who was beside her. Ah Cai very quickly passed a document to Dongfang Liuyun.

Dongfang Liuyun received it and looked at Dongfang Rou'er with a cold and stern gaze. "If you insist on dying, I will grant you your wish. Dongfang Rou'er, I really don't understand. What can you use to defeat me? Just based on your IQ?"

'Bam!'

The document in her hand was thrown onto the table. Dongfang Xue's eyes flashed as she took the document and started flipping through it.

"It's Father's will. It has Father's signature and Father's personal letter. The notary at that time was Lawyer Kang," Dongfang Xue said calmly as she closed the document and handed it to Dongfang Yi.

Lawyer Kang?

He was previously the chief consultant of the Dongfang Group, a legend in the world of lawyers, an invincible legend, and someone who even song sifting had to admire. His credibility was enough to prove the authenticity of this document!

...

"This is impossible! How could you still have this document in your hands!"

Dongfang Rou'er opened the document and looked at it. Her expression changed drastically, and she could not help but scream out loud!

Chapter 2059. I Missed You So Much... (1)

"How did you know that I don't have it anymore!"

Dongfang Liuyun looked at her meaningfully, taking in her panic.

"You don't have to struggle anymore. I know everything about you. You must still be pinning your hopes on Mr. Ge or the Jin family, right?"

"Nonsense! I don't know what you're talking about! Dongfang Liuyun, you're slandering me. I didn't do anything! Ah Sheng is my husband to begin with. Dongfang Group is in a crisis, naturally he would step up and help us get through it! Who do you think you are? Where were you when the company was in a crisis? Dongfang Liuyun! You're the least qualified person to inherit the company! Grandfather and Grandmother are blind! But we're not!" Dongfang Rou'er said sinisterly.

Her eyes were cold and sharp. You could see that she was forced into a desperate situation.

Dongfang Liuyun gave her a nonchalant glance. At this moment, the phone on the side suddenly vibrated. Dongfang Liuyun glanced at the caller ID and a smile quickly appeared on her cold face, she ignored everyone's doubtful eyes and picked up the phone on the spot.

Soon, a deep voice came from the other end of the phone—

"Miss Dongfang, Mr. Ge has been arrested by the police at the airport after sneaking back to China."

"Okay, I understand," Dongfang Liuyun replied simply and turned to look at Dongfang Rou'er with a faint smile. She only saw that Dongfang Rou'er's face was as pale as a ghost as she stared blankly at the phone in Dongfang Liuyun's hand.

"I know that you sent people to look for Fujiwara, but no one from the Cloud Residence received you, right? In fact, Fujiwara returned to Japan a long time ago. It's all thanks to Fujiwara that Mr. Ge ended up like this so quickly."

Fujiwara's side had probably been in a bloody mess previously. Yuo Fujiwara was caught off guard and was placed under house arrest by Fujiwara. Needless to say, Riko Inoue had become a hostage, the heavy losses suffered by the Inoue family's families were due to Fujiwara's swift actions.

Everything happened too quickly. Before the Inoue family could react, they were caught off guard by Fujiwara. Their vitality was greatly damaged, so there was no time to care about Mr. Ge!

After the matter was settled, it was time to take down Mr. Ge. Mr. Ge knew that it was dangerous, so he fled back to the country in a hurry. However, he probably did not expect that a group of policemen were waiting for him at the airport!

“No! I don’t believe it! I don’t believe it! How could Fujiwara-kun do this? Doesn’t he love you very much? Taking this opportunity, he...”

“Do you think that everyone is as despicable and shameless as you?”

Dongfang Liuyun smiled coldly. “Also, I forgot to tell you that you probably can’t count on the Jin family. Several large orders have been canceled in a row. They should still be worried about this year’s yield. I’m afraid they have no time to care about you.”

“You’re lying! Dongfang Liuyun, this is impossible! This is impossible! It’s impossible for me to lose. How can I lose? Clearly, everything should be mine. How can I lose!”

Faced with such a situation, Dongfang Rou’er immediately lost control. She propped herself up on the table and suddenly stood up. She stared coldly at Dongfang Liuyun and threw the document in her hand at Dongfang Liuyun!

“Stop! Dongfang Rou’er! You’re too impudent!”

Dongfang Gan saw Dongfang Rou’er’s actions and immediately flew into a rage. The pen in his hand also flew out and smashed the document that flew over!

“Someone, take her away!”

“You don’t have the right to take me away! I’m one of the shareholders of the company and I have the right to speak! Scram!”

Dongfang Rou’er’s imposing manner was not small. She also swept a fierce glance at Dongfang Gan. Her gaze turned and glared at Dongfang Liu Yun. Her beautiful face actually forced out a ferocious expression.

“Stop, you can’t go in!”

“There’s a meeting going on inside. Police officers, you can’t go in!”

At this moment, the sound of hurried footsteps and noises could be heard from outside. Before anyone could react, the door of the meeting room had already been pushed open. Captain Wang, who was dressed in a righteous police uniform, walked in with a few policemen.

Captain Wang looked around and his gaze stopped on Dongfang Liuyun’s face for a moment. Soon, his gaze landed on Dongfang Rou’er.

“Miss Dongfang Rou’er, the police suspect that you are related to the fire case at De Bao House. Please follow us back to the police station to assist in the investigation!” Captain Wang said directly.

At that moment, everyone’s eyes widened in shock!

“Could she really be related to the fire at De Bao House?”

“Was Uncle Ming really killed by her?”

“Could it be that she wanted to destroy the will?”

“My God, this woman is really amazing. She almost fooled us!”

“She’s too vicious. I heard that Uncle Ming was burned to death!”

...

After the cold handcuffs were placed on Dongfang Rou’er’s wrist, Dongfang Rou’er finally reacted—

“No! No! You can’t arrest me! It’s not me! You can’t arrest me! I’m the Eldest Mistress of the Jin family, you can’t arrest me!”

“Rou’er!”

Dongfang Ren and Dongfang Xin could not react at all!

They were too shocked!

No matter how much they racked their brains, they still could not believe that Dongfang Rou’er would do such a thing!

How was this possible? How was this possible?

However, they could not think too much. Captain Wang had already ordered his team members to bring them out.

“It wasn’t me! It wasn’t me! It wasn’t me who did it! Father, Father, save me!”

At this moment, Dongfang Rou’er was completely flustered. There were too many things that had happened today that had exceeded her expectations. She simply could not withstand such a series of blows. Furthermore, this time, she was afraid that...

“Rou’er! Rou’er!”

Dongfang Ren and his son turned pale with fright and immediately chased after her.

The meeting room instantly fell silent. It was so quiet that one could only hear the miserable cries and hurried footsteps outside.

Dongfang Liu Yun looked at the door that had been closed once again without batting an eyelid. A cold smile flashed across the corner of her mouth. She raised her gaze and looked at Dongfang Gan who was above him. She said indifferently, “President, let’s continue the meeting.”

It was as if everything that had just happened had never happened.

“Since there is no doubt about this matter regarding the shares, let’s continue with the meeting now.”

Dongfang Gan returned his daughter’s appreciative gaze, and a loving expression could not help but appear on his face—

He knew that his daughter was a very smart person. She was cautious and resourceful, knowing when to hold back and strike back. Most importantly, she was calm and collected in such a situation, and she only waited for an opportunity to counterattack. Such a tenacious character was even more admirable than him as a father. This position, if she was not qualified, who else could be qualified?

Although the oppressive aura in the meeting room had dissipated a little, Dongfang Yi really had a feeling that he had been reborn after a calamity!

This Dongfang Liuyun was indeed an expert in methods and strategies. Either she did not make a move, or she would cut off all their escape routes and sink them completely!

Chapter 2060. I Missed You So Much... (2)

One had to know that he, Dongfang Yi, still had a weakness in her hands!

Next, he could only quietly do what he was supposed to do, or else...

Presumably, Dongfang Ren would not be spared from her, right?

This woman was too powerful!

Dongfang Gan still cared about the kinship with all his brothers, but she did not care at all. Her attacks were merciless and decisive.

Even Dongfang Xue publicly expressed her support for her.

“Second Brother, we’re old, so we have to admit that our best choice is to support the Dongfang Group together. It’s best that we don’t dream about things that don’t belong to us.”

“But, Liuyun is clearly a woman...”

“Wasn’t Mother a woman too? I think that the company has been getting more and more brilliant under her control. As long as the name of the Dongfang Group doesn’t change, the interests of the entire family will not change. This is what we need to do. Dongfang Rou’er is overestimating herself. I hope that we will not see such a thing in the future.”

Dongfang Xue’s tone was very calm. Her eyes were filled with calmness as she looked at Dongfang Yi.

Dongfang Yi was stunned. He could not say anything after that.

After that, everyone naturally did not dare to say anything more. Dongfang Gan announced the new mine at the meeting. There was also a series of instructions. Of course, there were also the tasks assigned to him. There was also an analysis and summary of the performance of the previous year.

The meeting went on for a long time, and the lunch was only a short hour of break. Then, they continued to busy themselves with the meeting.

By the time the meeting ended, it was already past four in the afternoon.

Dongfang Liuyun also dragged herself back to her office, exhausted. She did not pay attention to what the media and reporters were doing outside. She only heard Secretary Ding say that when Dongfang Rou’er was taken away, she was surrounded by those reporters, now, the television network was also reporting this news.

“Have a cup of flower tea, Miss Liuyun!”

Dongfang Liuyun stood by the French window and looked at the display screen. When Dongfang Rou’er was brought into the police car, Ah Cai also brought a cup of hot flower tea over.

“Aunt Cai.”

Dongfang Liuyun quickly retracted his gaze and looked over as she took the flower tea from Ah Cai’s hand.

“Miss Liuyun doesn’t seem to be too happy?”

Ah Cai looked Dongfang Liuyun up and down and asked in a low voice, “Now that everything is calm, Miss Liuyun should be able to breathe a sigh of relief. President Gan has also transferred the names on the list. In the future, the company will be much more peaceful. Miss Liuyun won’t have to worry anymore.”

Dongfang Liuyun smiled when she heard that. As she looked at the smile, she looked a little desolate. She clenched the cup in her hand slightly and slowly turned around to look at the gloomy sky outside.

“This bloody storm seems to have paid a huge price. Grandmother passed away suddenly, my father’s injuries have yet to recover, and Qi Lei has yet to return from his serious injuries. The Dongfang Group has also suffered heavy losses. Just for the position of President, tell me, why is the human heart so vicious? It forced me to be ruthless.”

Dongfang Liuyun’s tone had a hint of a bitter smile. Even though she had won a great victory, when she thought of this, she could not help but feel pain in her heart!

Until now, Qi Lei had not returned!

“Human desires are endless. It’s good that Miss Liuyun has not forgotten her original intentions, but not everyone can resist the temptation. Who doesn’t want to be high up and not be bullied by others? Miss Liuyun is still kind-hearted in the end, even after experiencing so many things.”

Ah Cai was also deeply moved now. She looked at Dongfang Liuyun with appreciation and said with a smile, “Miss Liuyun probably doesn’t know. Just a month ago, President Shu was talking to me about you, Miss Liuyun.”

“Oh? What did Grandmother say about me?” Dongfang Liuyun asked nonchalantly. She lowered her head and took a sip of the flower tea. She knew that Dongfang Liuyun did not like sweet food, so Ah Cai did not put any sugar in it. It tasted a little bitter now.

“President Shu said that, among all the children, she admires you the most. The Elder President had good taste. The one who is most like President Shu herself is actually not Miss Xue, but you. You know how to endure humiliation better than Miss Xue, and you can be calmer and quieter. Even in such a situation, you can still maintain the clearest mind. This is a very rare thing.”

Ah Cai laughed.

When Dongfang Liuyun heard this, a hint of surprise appeared on her face—

She did not expect that Dongfang Shuman to have had such a high evaluation of her.

“Grandmother was very unfortunate. When she passed, she kept wanting to see my father, but the situation at that time... Grandmother was mentally and physically exhausted because of these things. Otherwise, she would not have left so quickly. I was too careless in this matter...”

Dongfang Liuyun’s sigh-like tone carried a hint of self-blame. It was only now that she dared to be sad over Dongfang Shuman’s death...

“How can that be your fault? President Shu’s health collapsed a long time ago. She had been holding on these days. She knew that she didn’t have much time left, so she wanted to seize the time to do a lot of things, such as Lawyer Song’s matter, and persuading Miss Xue to let her wholeheartedly support Miss Liuyun... Unfortunately, President Shu didn’t manage to hold on until the day of your wedding with Master, and the day of the birth of the young master.”

Ah Cai recalled Dongfang Shuman, and her eyes could not help but contain faint tears.

“Grandmother... I will never forget the hope you had for me... Forever.”

After a long time, Dongfang Liuyun finally said this. As her voice fell, she took a deep breath and lowered her head to take another sip of the flower tea. Then, she raised her eyes and looked at the sky outside...

Seeing that she was deep in thought, Ah Cai did not disturb her any further and carefully left.

...

The gloomy sky seemed like it was about to rain. It was just like this in the early spring. It was probably the first rain since the new year.

When Mu Yuchen's car stopped at the airport entrance, the soft drizzle started to fall. Looking at the people passing by, he did not even have time to open his umbrella, he left in a hurry with his luggage in his hands.

Mu Yuchen took a cigarette packet from the side and lit it up. He lowered the car window and waited.

Half of the cigarette was lit. When he turned to look at the door, he suddenly saw a commotion coming from the front

At the VIP entrance, a dozen bodyguards in black blocked a path and stood on both sides to protect someone.

And the person they were protecting was Qi Lei!

He was dressed in a black trench coat with sunglasses on his face. Two bodyguards in black followed closely by his side.

His footsteps were very slow and he looked very thin. It was as if a gust of wind could blow him away. He appeared to be sick and haggard.

But even so, it could not hide the dignity in his actions.
