

CH 13

Luci

Luci stood under the full moon and looked up at the sky, smiled and thanked the Moon Goddess Selena for nally gifting to her, her shift. Then she stretched out her slightly aching muscles from having shifted. She winked right up at that moon, giggled softly to herself and then just started sliding her hands down over her own naked body.

Luci sighed softly to herself, if there was no one out here to sate her needs, she would do it herself. It wasn't like she'd never done that before. Kali chortled inside her mind and even encouraged her to do so. Her body felt different to her now, she still had a softness to her curves, even after her shift. Though she could now feel a slight denition to her abs, and she also now had a slight v-line that was sensitive to the touch as she trailed her ngers along it. She'd gotten a slight muscle enhancement with her shift. That was nice.

She slid her hands back up her body and over her breasts, cupped them and then teased her own n*s, she sighed again as she cupped her own breasts rmer now. They were slightly too large for her own hands, but would be nice for a man to hold; they always had larger hands. She smiled at that thought, and imagined her hands were another's as she caressed them in just the way she knew she liked.

Then she slid one hand down her body as she parted her legs slightly and slipped just one nger over her clit, sighing at the softness of her own touch, light and gentle. Goddess, she was way more sensitive than normal, now that she had shifted and was a true she-wolf.

She'd heard that she-wolves got immense pleasure from s*x, that it was heightened for most, even without their actual mates, they enjoyed s*x. But now she could well imagine just how good it was going to be, when she let a man touch her like this.

If her own touch was giving her more pleasure than it normally would, then she could imagine right this minute just how good it would be for a man to touch her.

'Well, let's nd out' she thought to herself, 'just how much more pleasurable it will be' and she stroked herself rmer, pushed that nger all the way down through her folds, stroked the edge of her core all the way around it and then slid it back up through her folds to roll over her clit once more, continued to do so, enjoying the feeling until she was moaning, pleasure rolling through her at her own touch.

Luci dropped herself down on to her knees and stroked and rubbed herself rmlly, teased her clit even more, and touched herself in long slow strokes that increased her desire and wanton need, "Fuck." She gasped at one point; it was so much better.

Luci closed her eyes and bit her lip as she pushed her nger inside herself. "Oh sweet Goddess." She moaned and started to move against her own hand, rocking the palm of her hand against her clit as she pushed that nger in and out of herself, was going to c*m soon, and she knew it, pleasuring herself from now on was going to be way more fun for her.

"Can I help you?" Came a deeply amused voice from her left.

Luci's eyes opened, and her head turned to look at the man who'd spoken, and she practically drooled at the sight of a very naked Alpha Rafe, unashamedly leaning on a tree not that far away. She slid her eyes over him. Not only was that man naked, his ck was huge and hard; he was ready to help her out, it seemed.

She caught movement to his right and moved her eyes to it, and found his Beta, Jack, standing watching her as well. "Goddess." She sighed. He was also standing there naked and hard; they were both turned on by watching her, and she was turned on herself by the sight of them all hard and clearly wanting her.

"You couldn't handle me." Luci gasped at Rafe, as she pushed harder into herself, and her eyes closed as the pleasure increased. She could already imagine it was his hand touching her.

"Oh, I think I could." Rafe's voice came from right behind her.

"No, one man has ever sated me." She gasped as she felt his hand warm on hers, then he pulled her hand lower and then pushed her own nger harder and deeper inside of herself. She cried out in pleasure from his actions; assisting her to touch herself.

"Well, now. There are two of us here." He chuckled softly, and then her hand was moved out of the way. "What say Luci, I do that for you, kneel over honey." He practically purred at her.

Luci felt his hand sliding all the way up her back, his ngers along her spine slow but rm, pressing against her, pushing her over until she was kneeling on all fours before him. She didn't ght it at all, wanted him to touch her, to have her even.

She gasped as she felt one of his ngers push inside of her. It was longer and much thicker than her own. Luci moaned as he did so. There was no stopping what she knew was coming, she wanted it all and she knew it.

Then he slid that nger out of her just as slowly and was pushing two of his ngers inside of her rm and all slow like, her eyes rolled back in her head at the sensation of it, and she pushed herself back, harder against his hand, wanted them all the way in, needed it, and it felt so damn good.

Her eyes opened, and she turned to look at him over her shoulder. He was already kneeling behind her, smiled right at her as he pulled his ngers nearly all the way out and then thrust them back into her, pleasure ripped through her, "More." Burst from her lips before she could stop it. It felt amazing. She'd never felt this much pleasure before. He didn't deny her needs and gave her what she asked for.

Her eyes moved to his Beta, he was leaned up against a tree just watching, it seemed, he smiled at her and then bowed his head before turning to walk away.

"Wait." She gasped as she rode Alpha Rafe's hand and saw him stop. He turned and smiled right at her, knew she was talking to him.

"You sure you want to go there?" Jack asked.

Luci bit her lip for a moment and felt Alpha Rafe's hand stop moving, glanced at him, he was also smiling now, icked her eyes back to Beta Jack, and realized this was what they would like. One girl between them, could she go there? Yes, she could, wanted to try it, she realized as she looked right at Jack.

She nodded her head. "My needs do run deep." Then she moaned once more as Rafe's hand started moving again. Goddess Jack's ck was big, she was looking right at it as he walked over, it was much bigger than Trent's. Luci licked her lips a little as he stopped in front of her, wanted to taste him and she knew it.

Beta Jack knelt right in front of her, and she moaned as Alpha Rafe picked up the pace, his hand moving harder and faster, his other hand on her hip pulling her back on to his hand as well till she was suddenly crying out. Oh, Goddess, she'd never felt this hot, this good, knew she was going to c*m, let it happen and cried out, "yes, yes, Goddess." as she came, nally able to reach that elusive o*m.

She looked up at Jack, his eyes were right on her, watching her obtain her o*m at his own Alpha's hand. He smiled right down at her, seemed to enjoy the show that was being put on for him a lot, "Are you ready for me, Luci?" he asked almost teasingly.

She nodded up at him, she was ready to taste him, opened her own mouth for him and saw him smirk now, slipped his hand through her hair, and then felt his hard ck slide into her mouth. He groaned as she slid her tongue over him, he kept hold of her head and guided her to do what he liked. A deeper groan came from him as she started to suck him.

She felt her legs being nudged apart and closed her eyes to lose herself in the pleasure these two men were giving her. Luci felt Alpha Rafe slide his hard ck right through her wet folds, was grinding himself against her, not taking her, teasing her only and she knew it, his strokes were light and playful, then became harder and rmer, before barely touching her once more.

It felt so damned good, all of it, he was sliding forward against her at the same time, Jack was pushing into her mouth, and it not only felt amazing, but was turning her on. She was gaining immense pleasure from it, could already feel herself building to another o*m.

She pushed herself back harder against Alpha Rafe, wanting more, needing more, wanted it harder and faster now, as she started cumming and heard Jack state, "Stop messing around Rafe."

She knew he was getting as close as she was. It was not only in his tone, but in his grip on her hair, how tight he had hold of her. Then heard him gasp a minute later, "Rafe, damn it."

Luci heard Alpha Rafe chuckle as he slid back to tease her core with the tip of him for a moment, then he just thrust hard into her, so big and hard one rm thrust till he was all the way in, and she screamed at the sheer size of him, and then Jack was deep throating her as he came. She heard Rafe really laugh now as Jack pulled himself from her.

Her hands were gripping into the ground a moment later as Rafe took her, his thrusts were long and slow at rst, "Of fuck." She moaned as she felt both his hands gripping onto her to pull her back against him, not that he needed to. She was pushing back herself, needed this, and she wanted all of him.

She could feel waves of pleasure ooding through her body, was building to her next o*m. "Oh, sweet goddess," she moaned "Please." She didn't want it to stop, needed this, had wanted it for years, didn't want anything held back from these men, wanted it all, everything they had.

Luci felt hands on her shoulders and she was pulled up and pressed back against Alpha Rafe. His hands were on her hips, he was still thrusting in and out of her, didn't stop at all. He simply adjusted himself to the new position she found herself in. Jack's deep dark green eyes were looking right at her, a smile on his handsome face, then his mouth was on hers a moment later, and she kissed him right back, hungry for more, wound her arms around his neck and found his body pressed right up against hers.

Slid her hands down over his shoulders and along his muscular arms, as she felt his hand slip down her body, and he was suddenly teasing her clit, he rolled his thumb over it in rm circles. Her hands gripped onto his arms tightly, and then she was gasping and moaning as waves of pleasure started building within her.

Didn't think she could handle it for a moment, and then she was suddenly bucking and thrusting furiously as so much pleasure ripped through her body. She was crying out repeatedly as Rafe gripped onto her hips harder and then was really taking her, harder and faster, matching her own needs.

Jack's mouth moved down her neck and to her breast, and he bit down on her n*e. Her hands were suddenly in his hair. Her head was leaned back against Alpha Rafe's shoulder, and she was lost to the pleasure of these two men touching her. Then she was more than crying out, nearly screaming for the Goddess as wave after wave of bliss started to course through her body, as another o*m rolled through her. But then it didn't stop, and she was rolled right into another, and she screamed for the Goddess. It burst out of her as she reached the height of her rst ever multiple o*m.

Luci felt herself start to relax, "Sweet Goddess." She sighed softly as she found Jack looking right into her eyes once more; a smile on his handsome face, and then she heard the pair of them chuckle softly.

"And you didn't think we could handle you." If was Alpha Rafe, and he sounded more than sated, amused as well.

"It was so good." She murmured, as she felt him slip from her body slowly, nearly moaned even at that sensation. Luci leaned back against him and looked at Jack in front of her. Bit her lip as he smiled at her a little knowingly, she'd not even had him yet, but wanted to and she knew it.

"I'll have you at some point." He chuckled softly, understood what she was thinking. "The Alpha's turn tonight."

Her eyes moved to Alpha Rafe behind her, and he tilted her chin all the way up to look down into her eyes, smiled right at her "It was a real delight, Luci." He murmured, and then he leaned down and kissed her all long and slow. She practically melted back into him, and just let him kiss her, didn't care that she was still pressed between the two of them out here in the cold snow-lled forest. It felt really nice to be here with them like this. His mouth left hers, and he looked down at her, "You look tired, honey."

She smiled up at him, she was so relaxed and yes, she was tired, she realized. They had not only helped her out, but had sated all her needs as well, and not just once but multiple times. These two men were so damned good at pleasing her that she wondered what it would be like with Jack behind her and Rafe in front of her.

She looked up at Rafe even as a yawn escaped her, and she sighed softly, smiled when his mouth touched her forehead in a gentle kiss, "Sleep, Luci." He murmured softly.

She nodded and turned to look at Jack, a part of her knew she'd be safe with them, and so she did just that, allowed sleep to claim her, as she leaned on Rafe but rested her head on Jack.
