

Feeling lost

Chapter 37

Lucian's pov

It was really good seeing Aurora at the Queens' pack. She looked amazing as always. Luca was happy she spoke to him and hugged him, then called him my love. At least there are still feelings there, even if it is just for a part of me.

I hated her leaving again, but I couldn't stop myself from watching her get into the car and driving away, not knowing when I would see her again. Even seeing Jessica get what she deserved didn't make me feel much better.

I have been feeling so lost with her gone from the pack and my life. I am just going through the motions and trying to keep things together and the pack running as best as I can.

My mum comes into the oca looking all excited. It is quite nice to see her like this. She hasn't been the same since Aurora left either.

"You will never guess who mated with your cousin Ella" she says, pausing while I look up now interested "Alpha Zander" she says excitedly.

"Great there's a Luna ceremony I won't be allowed to go to" I say glumly.

I am really happy for her, I just hate my family is in another pack I am banned from.

"Of course you will be there" Mum says, shaking her head

"Zander has banned me from his pack. He doesn't want me anywhere near him" I tell her.

"Look I was just talking to your aunt Hattie. She was just on the phone, and she told me Aurora went to town on both Zander and Frank for banning you.

She is full of re that one, she told them she didn't need them to ght her battles, and they should not be keeping family apart basically. Then she told Frank he didn't like it when her dad did it, and Zander would have to put up with the guilt of upsetting his mate if he doesn't change his mind. So now you will be invited to the Luna ceremony, and Frank has lifted his pack ban from you" Mum tells me.

I am shocked Aurora stood up for me like that, I am sure she was thinking mostly of the rest of my family, but it still feels good. I am also happy I can be there for my cousin, and we will see Aurora again sooner than I thought, even if I have to stay away from her at the event.

Luca has perked up a bit hearing all of this. He is happy his mate fought for us. I try and tell him not to get too excited, that Aurora is just a good person, so she does the right thing even if it involves me. He still gets himself carried away and excited about seeing her soon.

"Have they set a date yet" I ask curiously.

"No they just met last night. They haven't had a chance to arrange anything. Aurora and Zander are busy getting to know the family and seeing the pack.

They will sort it when they get back to the Light Moon Pack. Apparently, they had Aurora showing her powers last night. She had both Greg and Frank dizzy ipping and twirling them in the air. Those men have the pups all saying that their auntie Aurora is a superhero. She tired them out, making them y, the kids love her" mum says, laughing.

"Wow, I heard the Queen say she was a special wolf. I just didn't want to ask any questions. Do you know what else she can do" I ask curiously

"Well you should see her wolf, Athena is as big as Luca and beautiful pure white. I know her powers work with the weather. Hattie said she could make storms, huge hail, even thunder. They were all very impressed with her" she tells me

"Mate is very powerful and strong" Luca says, pung out his chest in pride.

"She is, and kind" I reply to him

"She really is quite amazing isn't she? What the hell am I going to do, mum? Will I ever be able to x this? How can I make things right. I miss her so much" I say crying.

"Oh Lucian, I know, honey. I wish I could make things better between you, but you really messed up big. The fact she has gone against them to defend you and also hasn't given you the nal rejection yet means there is still some hope" she tells me

"It is hard to keep up the hope after what I have done. I don't think I deserve another chance with her, so why would she" I say sadly

"You never know what will happen Lucian, if you keep up like this, there will be nothing of you left for her to want or need" Mum advises.

"I guess you are right. Is she going back to stay with the Queen" I ask, desperate to hear as much about her as possible.

"As far as I know, she will be in the Light Moon Pack. She has offered to Luna train Ella, and I think she is helping Zander get the pack sorted as well" Mum tells me

"I don't know if that's harder or easier having her do close by, but then knowing I have to stay away" I say honestly.

"Probably harder, but Aurora said she would be in touch with me as soon as she gets back. Also, Hattie and Gary are coming with Ella to help her settle in, so we will get the chance to spend some time with them" she says.

"It will be good to see them and Greg and Corrine at the ceremony. At least I can hear how she is doing now between all of you.

Also, I now understand why she hid her wolf. Her mum wanted to protect her. She must have sensed her wolf at a young age" I say.

"She has had her since she was born. That's why Ashley called her Aurora. She saw her eyes and named her because of them" mum conrms.

"I am glad she has gotten justice for her mum and herself against them, I just hope she can nd some happiness now" I say

"She will. Her life has been hard, but she has passed through her trials. I am sure the moon goddess will not put her through more" mum says.

"I hope so, mum, I really do" I say, sighing

"I will let you know if I hear anything" she tells me

"thanks mum" I reply as she leaves.

I sit and try and concentrate on more pack work. My mind is lled with thoughts of Aurora, which is making it too hard to concentrate. Shawn being back here has been strange as well, he has been avoiding me, I don't blame him, but I really need to try and clear the air with him. We have been friends since we were pups and couldn't even walk.

I link him and ask him to come to my oca. There is no way I am getting any work done at this moment, so I may as well get this over and done with. I hear a knock and call him in.

"what were you wanting me for" he says in an osh manner.

"Please sit down. We need to talk" I ask nicely

He sighs and sits down.

"Look I know how much I have messed up, and there is nothing I can do to x it with Aurora. I also know I have messed up with you too. I put you through pain as you felt a small amount of what she was going through. I forced you to choose a side that has taken you from your family, and I stopped listening to all the people whom I should have listened to before anyone. I don't know what to do to x things or if that's even possible. I just know I can't completely lose you as well as Aurora. It is all hurting too much. I know I deserve it though" I say, trying to apologise.

"I can tell how much you mean it Lucian, it is hard to forget everything. You were like a brother to me, but I couldn't stand back and let her suffer like that. You have no idea of the pain she has been through before she came here. She didn't need to suffer more. I still love you, Lucian, like family. It will take time to rebuild what we had, and I can't leave Aurora, Theo can not be away from her" he says

"I like the fact you are with her. It makes me feel calmer knowing you are there to help protect her. Not that she needs it by the sounds of things" I say

"She denitely doesn't. It's quite something to watch when she uses her powers. She can interact with the Queen and Luna Dalia's powers, and they can with hers. I was used as target practice to help motivate her at the start. It been an interesting few weeks" he says, laughing.

"It sounds it, I wish I hadn't missed it all. She really is amazing" I say.

"She certainly is" he replies

We spend some time managing to talk normally before we go to eat. It's not perfect, and things are not sorted between us yet, but at least it's a start.
