

Light Moon's Luna ceremony

Chapter 41

We spend a busy two days making sure that as much of the pack stuff is sorted before the ceremony. I have passed my knowledge on to Ella, with her being a Beta she is used to pack affairs and etiquette, so it wasn't too hard.

I have told everyone I will be leaving they are sad to see me go, and Zander is a bit worried about me so I reassure him that we will be in touch all the time for him to check up on me. Julia has let her family know she is moving too, Shawn will be coming back with me and resuming his position as Gamma in the pack, making her the Gamma female.

Her family, I think, are just glad the pack is not far away so they can see each other regularly. I want to have everything wrapped up before Lucian arrives, so I have nothing left to do while he is here. My bags are mostly packed, and the packs will be arriving soon for tomorrow.

It will be good to see some of the people I have grown close to spending time with while at the Royal Pack. I also know the pups from Frank's pack are coming. They have been asking to see me again. The four of them are just so adorable. The two younger ones call me Aunt Rora as they have trouble saying my name.

Lucian arrives before the evening meal along with Nadia. The rest will be here tomorrow as the pack is not far away.

Zander is quite stiff with him but is trying to be polite for Ella's and my sake. Frank and the Clear Lake Pack are the next to arrive just before food, so we all go to eat together.

Frank and Uncle Frederick keep giving Lucian glares until their mates slap the back of their heads, making me laugh.

"Look I know you are all angry with me and for good reason. I promise to never harm Aurora and spend my life loving her and making up for the past" Lucian says to them.

"You better or you will have us to deal with, you are lucky she gave you a chance" uncle Frederick growls

"I understand and agree with you sir" Lucian says respectfully, not taking offence to the threat.

They just nod in acknowledgement. At least the glares have stopped now.

"Aunt Rora, can you play with us and make us y" Halley asks, looking at me with her gorgeous big eyes

"Of course I can, sweetie. We can go out as soon as we have all eaten" I reply to a chorus of cheers from the pups.

The two littlest ones Halley and Adam want me to carry them when we go outside.

"We missed you, Aunt Rora" Adam says

"I missed all of you little cuties too" I say, giving them a kiss on the cheek

"We want a hug and a kiss too, Auntie Aurora" Aiden pouts

Goddess, these pups are so adorable, I put down the two pups and crouch down "come here, you two" I say.

Aiden and Damon run into my arms as I hug them and smother them in kisses, making them giggle. I hear Lucian chuckle, too.

"You are great with the pups, an absolute natural. I can't wait to see you with ours" he says, looking at me in awe.

"They are good pups it is so easy with them" I say

"They are with you because you are a superhero" Greg says, laughing.

"Yeah yeah" I reply. "Right get together who wants to y" I say as the pups line up in front of me.

I lift them in the air so they can play in the sky.

"That is so cool" Lucian says

"Yeah it wasn't as good for us she tossed us about like a rag doll" Frank grumbles

"Are you still moaning about that? You and Greg wanted to y. I can't help it if there was more turbulence on you ight" I say, making everyone laugh.

"Ha ha, very funny" Frank says, rolling his eyes.

The kids ask for some snow too to make a snowman, so I make it snow in a small area, and they have a great time. At this point, Talia joins us and chuckles.

"You know how many people I have heard confused about a snowman in August" she says

"Just keeping the kids amused, Frank had to explain the hundred tennis ball sized hail stones at his pack a couple of weeks ago" I said, chuckling.

Talia's and Emily's pups run over and give me a hug "I have a new trick. Do you want to y" I ask them.

"Yay" they all shout.

"Right line up in a row in front of me" I instruct them.

I lift them up and let them play in the air for 10 minutes while they squeal and laugh.

"This is great. We don't have to worry about them running off" Tristan says

"I know the kids have told everyone in the pack their auntie Aurora is a superhero. She is now their favourite auntie" Greg says.

"It was you that told them that" I said, laughing.

"Boys, what are they like" Talia says to me, rolling her eyes.

"It is great though she totally tires them out, and they are always better behaved" Lillys says

"That's going to make things so much easier when you have pups, I am so jealous" Corrine says.

"You do realise the pups are going to want me to make them y from now on, too. I had only ever used my wind to pull them back before" Talia says, laughing.

We get all the kids tired out as Jayden comes with his then Dalia and Natalie. Talia joins in the fun of it so more of them can y at the same time. I have made more snow for the others to play with. Finally, all kids are exhausted and can be put to bed. We all make our way to our rooms so we are ready for the early start to the day.

We have kitted out a hall full of play equipment and activities and toys for the kids. Each of us are taking turns watching the pups so everyone can get ready. This is what I want the whole family to feel included at my ceremony so I can see all the pups, too.

I have my makeup and hair done, so it is just my dress to put on before it starts. I am happy to stay here and play with them for a while and take away some for their energy. I am making the pups y, Lucian and Shawn are giving some wolf rides, and the pups are having a great time.

I have to say he is really good with the pups. He will make a good dad when the time comes. Luca is in his element getting all the pups' attention.

He can't wait to have pups. Athena tells me purring. She likes the idea of having pups, too. I definitely want a few as well. I have always wanted to be a mother.

Their parents come down ready and thank us for helping with them, then we leave to nish getting ready ourselves Lucian is in my room he just needs a quick shower and to get dressed it is so much easier for men.

I get dressed and make sure my hair is still OK and touch up my make-up as Lucian walks into the room dressed.

"Wow you look stunning" he compliments

"You look pretty good yourself" I say back

"Shall we" he asks, offering his arm to me.

I take his arm, and we go to the area that has been set out outside for the ceremony, we receive a few surprised looks as we enter together. I guess a lot of people think we have still not sorted out our differences then. There are a few disappointed looks from unmated Alpha's and Alpha heirs I notice. They possibly thought they were in with a chance of bagging a special wolf, I think, as I see Lucian glare at them.
