

Light Moon's Luna ceremony 2

Chapter 42

Lucian's pov

Aurora looks stunning as I walk into the room, I still can not believe I am lucky enough to be mated to her, and she has given me another chance.

"Don't screw it up" Luca warns

"I won't buddy, no chance not this time" I assure him.

I make sure to tell her how good she looks before escorting her down to our seats. Pretty much every bloody unmated Alpha blooded male is looking at her and me with a jealous look in their eyes.

I can tell they were hoping for a chance with her. Well, tough fucking luck she is mine, they have no chance now I think giving them a warning look as we pass.

It's not like I blame them. She is gorgeous and a special wolf as well. Every Alpha would be proud to call her their Luna. I denitely am, and I am going to make sure she stays that way and make her proud to call me her mate and Alpha.

Luca has his chest puffed out in pride, knowing she is ours, and they stand no chance with her. I see her giving her brother a reassuring smile as he anxiously awaits his Luna's arrival.

I am so happy for Ella, she will make a fantastic Luna. She has always been strong, kind, and caring. It will be nice having one of my cousins so close by, especially now that Aurora has managed to smooth the way with her family again.

My cousin looks beautiful as she walks with my uncle to the stage. The pack all looks happy she is here. I am glad she has settled in so well.

"Thank you for supporting my cousin and helping her so much" I whisper to Aurora.

"She's my sister now, I adore her she is such a fantastic girl" she says back, smiling

"Yeah I suppose she is, I am so glad you get on with my family so well. They all adore you" I tell her.

"You have a wonderful family" she replies before we concentrate back on to the ceremony.

I really enjoy the Luna ceremony. It is nice seeing Ella so happy, I have a newfound appreciation for it now. I have accepted Aurora into my life. It is great seeing all my family here, too, and Aurora with the pups is amazing.

Luca hasn't stopped going on about wanting to put pups in her since last night. She will make a wonderful mother, all the little ones adore her, and I know the ones at the pack are all excited she is coming back. The thought of Aurora carrying my pups brings a smile to my face, I can't wait for that day to happen she will look even more beautiful than she already does.

This is the rst one of these I am actually enjoying being at, I mean, I enjoyed going to Frank's and Lilly's but that was only because my family stayed in the pack. Now I have my mate with me it just makes the whole experience better. I really wish I had listened to Luca much much earlier. He hasn't stopped rubbing in the fact that he was right either.

Talia joins them on their pack run as she is still linked with the pack for now, I will be changing it as soon as possible. She really looks magnicent, Athena is a stunning wolf as big as Luca easily. I can see all the other Alpha's watching again in envy.

Luca is dying to run with his mate. We will as soon as we are home. It is not our pack, it wouldn't be right.

I see Jessica's brother Cameron walking towards me. He is the new Beta in his dads place. Great, this is going to be awkward.

"I thought it was about time we cleared the air Alpha Lucian" he says formally

"We have known each other for years Cameron you know you can call me Lucian" I say

"Look I think it's best to stick to formalities from now on. As far as I am concerned, you have gotten off lightly, I am under no illusions that you haven't suffered through all this, but you have plenty of blame to accept as well. The fact my sister is dead and you are being given another chance pisses me off. I know she deserves what she got, and I am grateful to Aurora for giving my dad a second chance and making sure my mother and myself wasn't affected by it. You don't deserve her. There are many more Alpha's than would have treated her better and been a better mate to her. I guess the moon goddess has a lot to answer for at times" he says frustrated.

"I know I have done many things wrong, believe me. I have learned my lesson now. I am sorry it came to this, I never thought Jessica was capable of what she did. I also didn't realise the depth of her infatuation with me, I should have stopped it sooner, made different choices, and maybe it would have worked out differently. I am glad you have kept your position, and you and your mum won't lose your father. I know what that is like" I say apologetically

"I don't know if it would have mattered. She rejected her mate before anything happened between you the rst time. She has always been determined to be your Luna. Don't hurt her again because there are many who don't care if she is their mate or not they will happily step in and give her the life she deserves" he warns. "Hell I would if she would take a Beta, she is remarkable" he adds as I growl, unable to help myself.

"Sorry I can't help it, I can see the way they all look at her. I am not blind. I won't give them a chance to take her from me. She will be treated like a queen from now on" I say

"Good because trust me, everyone is watching, I will see you around hopefully at your Luna ceremony" he says, walking away.

Well, that wasn't quite as bad as I thought it would be. He conrmed exactly what I was thinking, I looked at the faces, wondering which one the goddess would have matched her with if she rejected me.

I feel a cold shudder as I think she could have mated tonight with them if the talk didn't go well, as I am overcome with jealousy. Hell, it could even have been Lee. That would be torture. I would have had to leave the pack.

I feel better when she appears at my side again dressed in her gorgeous purple dress. We take our seats at the table beside our families. Thankfully, her family is now relaxing a bit around me, now I have the pups on my side. Those little ones are adorable. I will make sure we spend plenty of time with them before we go back tomorrow.

I really enjoy taking Aurora up onto the dance oor. It feels so good having her so close in my arms as she moves gracefully to the music. She also dances with her uncle, my uncle, brother, cousin, my cousin, the Kings, Jayden, Quinn, and Simon. She has grown really close to so many packs in her time away. I dance with their mates and my mum.

She declines any dances with the unmated males, which puts Luca at ease.

Aurora and the Queen have brought so many packs close together, I mean, everyone is peaceful now adays, but more of us feel like a family now. You can see some of the other packs envy the close bonds from a distance while others try and be friendly and make connections the way it should be done.

I am looking forward to getting her alone again, I was pleasantly surprised when I found out I was staying in her room. I didn't try anything other than hold her all night, I didn't want to push my luck. Both Luca and I were just happy to have her in our arms again.

That's all I am looking forward to tonight. The rest can wait for as long as she needs. Everything will be at her pace what she wants when she wants it.

Shawn has now taken her for a dance, so I asked his new mate if she would like to dance as well. I am so pleased for him. He's a great guy and deserves this. Julia is a nice girl and a Beta too, she will be a good addition to the pack. The fact that she knows Aurora and is friends with her is a bonus.

She is happy to be coming to the pack and likes Shawn's family, I let her know if she needs anything or has any problems she can come to me at anytime as Shawn is like a brother to me.
