

Luna training the Alpha

Chapter 48

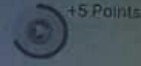

This week I have been showing Lucian a Luna's duties, we have skimmed over the event organisation part of it, I have offered to still do that with the help of the Beta and Gamma females, which he was really grateful about as it is really not his thing.

The other things, such as budgeting, paying the omegas, and job organising, are all things he can grasp really easily as he does similar things with the pack businesses and other aspects for the pack. I have deliberately started with the most boring aspects of it to get them out of the way.

It has taken much longer than it should have as ever time he gets bored he decides he wants to christen his new desk, or office chair, or sofa. He changed out all the furniture in his office when I left, I can't say I am not glad I wouldn't want him to touch me on a surface he has had someone else on.

So basically, we have had just as much sex as we have done work this week. As I am explaining to him about having regular meetings with all staff and being available to them if issues arise and the importance of being in my own office for sensitive problems that may require a female to handle without a males presence. I feel a hand slipping up my top as he starts to kiss and suck on my mark.

"We are never going to get anything done if we stay in the same office" I say, releasing a moan as he tweaks my nipple.

"But it's so much more fun having you here with me, my love. We can still have an extra one when you need it" he argues before pulling me into a kiss before I can argue.

He has my shirt and trousers unbuttoned before he pulls away from the kiss, leaving me panting, as he quickly puts me on the desk, pulling down my trousers and underwear.

"Right I think you need punished for giving all the boring work to learn and wanting get away from me" he says.

"What the hell, you wanted to learn it" I argue, wondering what the hell he is going on about and what he means about punishment.

"That kind of talk just earns you more, baby. Now be a good girl and lie across daddies knee, and I promise you will enjoy it eventually" he says, smirking.

I look at him, not sure what to do, I am slightly intrigued. I am thinking it's not the type of punishment I am used to, and Athena is all for it. I cautiously slide off the desk and approach him.

"Don't worry, my love, I won't hurt you well, not in that way. A little pain can cause a lot of pleasure. Just trust me and lay across my lap" he says, and I nod

"Words baby"

"Yes"

"Yes what" he growls lowly

"Yes daddy" I say, laying on him as he groans, rubbing my ass.

He rummage around in his drawer before I hear a squirting sound, and then I hear it again before I feel him rub something wet on to my a,sshole. I flinch a bit as I wasn't expecting it, then I hear a buzzing sound as he is still rubbing the wet stuff around the hole.

"One day soon, I am going to fu.ck this tight little hole too baby, for now let's get you used to the sensations" he says lowly while pushing this vibrating thing slowly into my a.ss.

It feels slightly uncomfortable at first, and I have the urge to pull away, but he holds me firm, and as it goes in fully, it turns more pleasant. It feels so strange.

"Now baby, I am going to spank that sexy little a.ss, and you are not allowed to c.um yet. Not until I am buried deep inside you" he growls

"Yes daddy"

"Good girl"

He slaps my a.ss unexpectedly, making me jump. It wasn't too hard his next couple were a bit firmer as I found myself moaning, and my core started to tingle. Fu.ck this feels good I think as he slaps me 3 more times and my pussy starts to drip.

He runs his fingers through my folds circling my cl.it then plunging his fingers into my wet pussy several times. I can feel myself wanting to c.um, fu.ck I hope he doesn't make me wait long.

"Please daddy, please let me c.um" I beg him as he pulls his fingers out.

The vibrator is still in my a.ss sending me crazy.

"What did daddy say, you can't c.um until my co.ck is buried deep in your tight little pu.ssy. Only 4 to go now be a good girl or you don't get to c.um again" he warns.

Fu.ck he wouldn't do that would he, sh.it I need to hold on. He delivers the slaps quickly as I tighten my legs and clench my core to hold in my orgasm as best I can, fu.ck I wish he can hurry up.

"Good girl, bend over the desk" he orders.

I move quickly, I can't wait to have him inside me I hear him remove his belt and drop his trousers.

The vibrator is still going strong in my ass and all of a sudden it increases it vibrations my legs almost buckle as he grabs my waist to steady me and chuckles.

He kicks me legs out wider then thrusts in hard and fast in one go going hard and fast straight away, 3 strokes and I am screaming "daddy" at the top of my lungs. He continues his rapid and relentless pace, fu.cking me through my orgasm.

"Fu.ck baby, you feel so good gripping my co.ck" he pants out

I can feel him expanding and his breath quickening as he starts to strum my cl.it. We both c.um hard together. I feel completely boneless as he pulls me down into his lap to catch my breath.

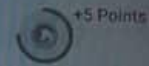

"Goddess I love you so much" he says, kissing my head

"I love you too" I say, cuddling into him and listening to his heartbeat, starting to calm down.

He gets out some wipes to help clean us up, and we get dressed, I am so glad the office is soundproof, or the whole pack would have heard us.

"So is all the Luna duties party planning planning and boring paperwork, we really do get the better end of the deal being Alpha's don't we" he says.

Luna training the Alpha

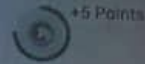

"No, I just thought I would go over all the boring stuff first. The best bits are talking and spending time with the pack. Especially the pups, I visit lots of places to make sure everything is running smoothly and they don't need any help and the youngsters feel safe, and comfortable around us so they know they can approach us if they ever need to" I explain.

"OK that definitely sounds more enjoyable. The only time the pack comes to me is to complain when something is wrong. The rest of the time it's paperwork mostly or meetings and calls with other Alpha's. I thought you just liked to visit the pups" he said

"Oh I do, it's definitely a perk of the job. Even the teenagers are fun to be around, especially since the girls started training. They are enjoying having strong females to look up to in the pack and not being restricted because of rank. It was only warriors daughter that were shown the basics before by their fathers" I tell him.

"I am glad that we are inspiring the younger generation. I am glad I listened to you, I have had nothing but praise from all of the pack about it. I didn't realise how many people wanted the change" he says

"That's why we talk to the pack. It's great to get their opinions and ideas on things. Sometimes they will think of things that we wouldn't and it will improve things in the pack for others. It also helps to identify if there are any issues that we don't know about with pack members, like bullying. I have managed to reduce it just with the training and talking with the students on my experiences with it" I tell him.

"I had no idea there was an issue with bullying, and you told them your story" he says

"Well I told them a very edited version. Just basically that I have experienced bullying throughout my childhood, and it affects your whole life and mental health. That I was one of the lucky ones who had a friend of my mum to train and focus me that helped me get through. Not everyone has that, and we shouldn't make people's lives worse. As a pack, we are family, we don't know when our life can change and we will be in that person's shoes, we don't want someone else treating us the same way. It seemed to hit home" I say

"I am glad you dealt with it so well, I wouldn't have known what to say to them. I probably would have just punished the ones doing it and hoped they learned their lesson. That usually doesn't work" he admits.
