

Life lessons and Luna training

Chapter 49

It is Friday, and we have managed to get through the more boring parts of Luna training, so I am taking Lucian to visit the preschool/nursery and schools today. He's quite excited about this part, especially visiting the younger pups. He loves spending time with them.

We arrive at the preschool and talk to the lady, running it first to make sure they have everything they need and everything is running smoothly.

I then take Lucian with me into one of the rooms with the toddlers, I am swarmed as soon as I enter the room, all of them wanting a hug. They are a bit shy to go to Lucian. They find him a little bit intimidating being the Alpha.

"I have a treat for you all today, Alpha Lucian is here with me to play and read to you all. Who wants to give him a big hug too" I say in an excited voice, hugging him to show them he's not scary.

I get him to crouch down to their level, and a couple of the girls feel brave and join our hug.

"See he's really just a big Teddy bear, and Luca, his wolf, loves pups too" I say to them as if I am telling them a secret.

He chuckles along with the 2 girls, giving him a hug, and more kids come over until all over them have given him a hug, too.

"Right how about Alpha reads us a story, and if you are all good, maybe he will give you some wolf rides" I tell them

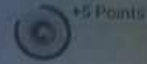

They all cheer and sit around us quietly as I pass Lucian a story book for the pups. He animatedly reads them the story, even changing his voice for the different characters like I do. The kids love listening to him and ask for another story. Until I ask if they would prefer a story or wolf rides, wolf rides won.

Lucian happily went to the bathroom to shift, and I let him back through, Luca loved the pups all hugging and stroking him he was purring like a kitten. He's so big he can fit 3 pups safely at a time. We gave them 5 minutes each, and they all patiently waited their turn.

"Next time, how about I let you fly, or maybe we can make snow men" I tell them

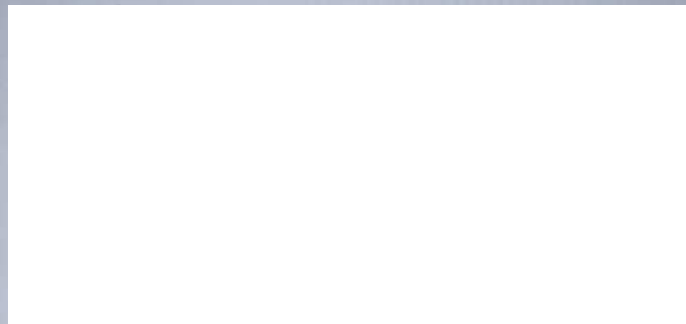

They are all excited about next week now, and they all hug both of us no longer nervous of

"That was great fun, Luca, and I loved spending time with the pups. I can't wait to go back, I think I am going to enjoy sharing the duties now" he tells me, smiling.

"It's my favourite bit too" The older they are, the less fun it is in terms of playing, but it is still fulfilling. Now it is close to lunch, so it is the perfect time for the primary school" I tell him

We get there and talk to the head, go through the same process with him, make sure everything is fine, and then go to the playground. Many kids come to join us, and a group of pups ask Lucian to play football with them. He ropes a teacher in so they have an adult each on their teams and play for 10 minutes while I spend time chatting and playing with some of the other children.

With 10 minutes left of their lunch, we leave for the high school, I like to get there at their lunch as well, which runs later than the primary school. It's the best time to catch any issues if there are any.

Right enough, as we are walking around, I see a girl getting harassed by a few boys. One in particular is being really awful to her.

"You are ugly and disgusting, I don't know why you bother coming here. You make me feel sick looking at you, I told you not to come into my sight useless omega" he spits at her as I see one tear escape her eye.

Lucian looks like he wants to kill them, I put my arm on him to calm him as I mask my scent and walk closer and tap him on the shoulder and clear my throat. Him and his friends go pale when they see me and then look like they will throw up when they spot Lucian.

"I am pretty sure I have already talked to the school about bullying and my thoughts on it. Still, you are standing here talking to Gina like this. Even if she was an omega, there is no excuse for that behaviour. I can tell you right now she has a stronger wolf than you, at least a Gamma if not a Beta, so she must have them in her family somewhere. Regardless warrior class wolf, if you didn't have your friends, she could easily defeat you in both combat and archery. She is more skilled than most of our warriors in archery"

"I apologise for my actions, but you don't need to lie about her to make her look better" he says nervously as Lucian and I chuckle.

"Lie you think your future Luna would lie to you? It's easy to prove you wrong. Oh, and you need your eyes tested, just because she needs new clothes and a haircut doesn't make her unattractive. She is beautiful, I hope for your sake she is not your mate or you will end up rejected and you may not get a second chance. That goes for you two as well as you have helped him so you better pray you have not lost yourselves a diamond" I tell them as the other two look down ashamed

"Mates always forgive each other, and I might not want my mate" he says cockily.

"Trust me, you will, I almost lost my wolf and Alpha position because of how I treated Aurora. Do you not remember how the pack was when she was gone, I wasn't going to be given a second chance, mate, the goddess warned me. Aurora was, she didn't want the other person to lose out on their mate or to make this pack suffer any more or my wolf who had done nothing wrong. I got lucky not everyone does" Lucian warned him.

"Also if it comes to someone leaving the pack because of issues though it, I can tell you it won't be Gina leaving" I warn.

"Do you know the Luna Queen was bullied for her looks? Also, I was always told I wasn't attractive enough that my mate would want me" I tell them

"But you both are really good-looking, so they must have been lying" he says

"Or we could have been late bloomers, or perhaps didn't have the right clothes or hairstyle to make the most of things. An unpolished diamond is still beautiful and precious it just needs uncovered to reveal it's true beauty" I explain to them.

"Now Gina shall I be talking to your cousin about this because I don't think Shawn will be very happy about it, or your uncle for that matter" I ask

"Please don't tell them, Aurora, I can handle it. They just think because mum is an omega and my dad died when I was little, so they never knew he was a Gamma. I must be an omega, too. I really couldn't care less what they say or think" she says.

"Fine, but if it keeps up, I will stick up for you if you kick their a.ss" I tell her as she laughs.

"Thanks Aurora"

"No problem, we are going on that shopping trip soon. I have my dress fitting anyway we can make a day of it, loads of us are going. My sister is the same age as you and is coming too"

"Fine I will let you play dress up with me" she says, rolling her eyes

"I know I was a Tom boy too, but it's more fun than you think, you can still have a blade with a dress if the split is in the right place" I say with a wink

"Ok I can live with that" she says, chuckling

"Look Gina I am sorry I didn't realise the Gamma was your cousin" he tells her

"Save it, Hank. I don't want an apology because of who my family are. Let's just stay out of each others way. You never liked me and my omega mother, so I'm happy for that to continue" she says coldly

"Yeah but I didn't realise you were strong"

"It shouldn't matter, you i***t. The stronger in the pack are supposed to protect the weak. That's the whole point of being a warrior. Apart from protecting the Alpha and Luna, you protect the ones who can't fight, not bully, and ridicule them. I am sure your father will be so proud he has passed his warrior values on so well" she says.

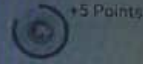

"That's not fair. I will protect the pack" he says indignantly

"All of them or just the ones you see as worthy because I wouldn't feel safe with you to have mine or my families back. I better go, I haven't had the chance to eat yet my food got interrupted. I will see you both soon" she said, waving to us and leaving the 3 of them standing there.

"By the way, that girl is like family to me, so I had better not hear of you causing any more issues for her. I am seriously disappointed that you can't even tell the difference between wolf strengths. Your fathers are honourable men who fought with her father and were close friends with him. They would be so disappointed in you right now. I seriously hope she isn't unlucky enough to be mated to one of you. With her strength I'm sure she will get a better mate" Lucian tells them

"Sorry Alpha" they all say

"Save your apologies, and learn from your mistakes. I don't want to hear of any members of my pack being treated badly for any reason. Do I make myself clear"

"Yes Alpha" they reply before we walk away

"I can't believe they were doing that to her, I am so pi.ssed right now" he tells me

"Gina can handle them, I have seen her in action.

She just doesn't want to yet. She is biding her time to see what happens. Hopefully, now it will stop if it doesn't they will be put in their place by her. You don't need to worry and don't tell Shawn she doesn't want them to worry" I tell him.

"Fine I will keep quiet for now. I may have a word with their fathers. They need to know what their sons have been up to"

"We can do that" I agree
