

Unpleasant news

Chapter 50

We called the 3 boys' fathers into the office when we got back, and they looked confused as they entered.

"Don't worry, none of you have done anything wrong, we just encountered a bit of an issue when we visited the school earlier involving your sons" I tell them.

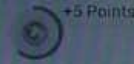

"Now we don't want this getting round as the girl doesn't want her family to know and worry about her or react to it, and quite frankly she is more that capable of dealing with them if she wanted to. Your boys are lucky she hasn't to be honest" I say.

"What did they do" Gordon, Hanks dad asks

"Your son, by the looks of it, was the main instigator. Gina, Derek's daughter, has been getting bullied by them because of her looks and for being an omega. Now it was rather nasty the comments we heard from your sons mouth as the 3 of them cornered her" I tell them.

"That little sh.it, Gina isn't even an omega, and even if she was, he shouldn't be doing that. All those boys know that as a warrior, you have to protect the pack. We don't discriminate because of rank, Gina is a beautiful girl, just like her mum. I am going to kill him" he growls as the other two nod in agreement.

"I can't wait to get my hands on him, I wish my son was half the warrior she is. Fu.cking fool that he is, I don't know what they were thinking" Seb says, shaking his head.

"I know Derek was a great man. He would be so upset that his daughter was being treated this way. They should be punished. I am ashamed of my son acting this way" Larry adds

"This is the way Gina wants it for now. If it continues, then we will take action. We have spoken to the boys and wanted to let you all know. It is up to you if you want to do anything or up their training and education. I can't say I was overly happy about it either" Lucian tells them

"Oh don't worry, we will get it drummed into them, we may even get her to kick their a.ss as a 'training' exercise, of course" Gordon says as we chuckle.

"That sounds like a pretty good idea to me" I agree.

Unpleasant news

They all leave the room looking angry, I know those boys won't get off easily. About 20 minutes later, we get a link that an Alpha Matt from the North Mountain Pack is here for a visit. We tell them to let him in.

"I wonder what he is here for, I don't usually do business with him. I mean, he has been here once before, but he's far away, so there's no point in working too closely" Lucian says.

"We will find out soon enough" I tell him.

The door goes, and the Alpha walks in with a young she wolf holding a pup she must be near my age or a year younger.

"Welcome Alpha Matt, you remember my mate Aurora, and who is this you have with you" Lucian asks as they sit down.

"Really Lucian I am insulted. You don't remember my sister Layla. She was here on the last visit, that's why we are here" he says cockily.

"And why would you be here for your sister exactly"
" Lucian says, confused

"Well, you slept with her, and as you can see now, we have a pup. Now she wouldn't say at first who the father was, she was too upset when she found out you got married. Then she came clean when she heard your Luna left you, only to find out you got back together" He says smugly

"It can't be my pup, I can't remember sleeping with her, and I always wrap up" Lucian says firmly

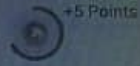

"Oh you slept together, I smelled you all over her in the morning. She excused it as you hugged her as she was upset because she fell and you helped her at the time. You are the only person she has slept with. Now you need to do the right thing. You need to reject your mate and make my sister Luna, I need a Luna so I am happy to accept Aurora as my mate she will be in the same position and won't lose out on anything" he says looking at me with lust.

"That won't be happening. My Luna is Aurora, and she may be pregnant already. I won't give up my mate, Luca doesn't recognise the pup as his" Lucian growls.

"Just because you don't want it to be true doesn't make it true" he replies, grinning

"I would remember sleeping with a virgin. There is only one virgin I have slept with, and it wasn't your sister" Lucian tells him coldly

"Are you calling my sister a liar? You won't get out of this Lucian, why don't we ask Aurora what she thinks. Do you really want to be with a man who keeps hurting you and now has his first born pup with another. This child will inherit the pack, not yours. If you become my Luna, our pups will rule the pack, I can make you happy" he says as Lucian growls

"Lucian is my mate. We have no proof that this pup is his. We will all go to the hospital and do a dna test. If the pup is his, then we will love and care for it as we do our own pups. If the pup is worthy of the pack, he will inherit it. First, we need proof. The pup does not smell like Lucian, and his wolf should be able to tell his pup. Even if I didn't want Lucian, it doesn't mean I am going to jump at the first Alpha that offers me a deal. I couldn't care less about being an Alpha or a Luna. Having my mate is more important. Let's go" I say, getting up and walking to the door as they all look at me stunned.

"Well do we want to get this sorted or not" I say as they get up.

Leyla looks reluctant to follow us, but she doesn't have much choice. Matt is happy to follow and prove the pup is Lucian's.

We get to the hospital and the doctor looks at us confused wondering why we are all here, I link him to take us in a private room to discuss it and he leads us without saying a word.

"Right, now we have some privacy. I would like you to do a dna test on this pup. The mother claims Lucian is the father, and Lucian says he is not. So we need to find out the truth for the pups' sake. I need not tell you how sensitive this issue is and how quickly we need the results" I say to him

"Of course not, Alpha. I will take a blood sample from each, and it will be ready in the morning" he tells me

"Thank you doctor" Lucian tells him

The doctor quickly takes the samples from the three of them, and then we leave the room. I have had rooms made up for you and a crib placed in it for the little one. Food is in one hour that should give you plenty of time to freshen up and feed the little one. Let me know if you need anything else, Lacey will show you to your rooms" I tell them, then leave them with Lacey and take Lucian to his office and link his family and our ranked wolves.

They all arrive quickly and sit down. They look concerned as they see Lucian looking at me nervously.

"Right I will get straight to the point, Alpha Matt turned up today with his sister and her pup, she is claiming Lucian is the father after he slept with her when they visited here" I tell them.

Nadia, Lisa, and Julia glare at him.

"Well you did sleep with her, I am surprised this hasn't happened before now" Fred says, annoyed.

"Look at this point it would be quicker mentioning who he hasn't slept with" I chuckle as they look at me, shocked. "Anyway, Luca doesn't claim the child. We all know wolves can sense their pups, and also, I couldn't smell Lucian as a part of the pup. I think she has lied to her brother, who, by the way, thinks he can get us to reject each other and then take me as his Luna in a fair swap" I laugh

"Is he delusional" Shawn asks

"Possibly, I think he thought this is a great way to get what he wants along with his sister. I have taken them for a dna test and given them a room for the night. We should have the results in the morning, I also told them that the child would be loved by both of us if it was Lucian's so he knew his plan wouldn't work. If the pup is Lucian's this happened before we got together anyway, and we will work something out. I won't let an innocent pup suffer" I tell them

"Thank you, my love, I have been so scared since they said it. I can't even remember sleeping with her, and Luca is adamant that the pup is not ours. I know he wouldn't reject his pup" he says, holding on to me as if he is afraid to let me go

"I know Luca wouldn't either, nor would you. You both love your family too much to neglect one of your own, I feel she is lying. I don't know if it's about sleeping with you or just about the pup, but we will find out tomorrow. Either way, it will be fine. If the pup is yours, I promise to love it like my own" I let him know.

"So we need to put up with them for a night then"
Lee asks

"Oh yes, meal time should be fun, I have a feeling Matt isn't going to be quiet about why he is here" I say

"Great as if I haven't caused enough embarrassment at the pack. They are going to be so pi.ssed at me after this" Lucian groaned

"Yes they will be. You know Aurora is their favourite" Nadia teases him, laughing.
