

Meal time fun

Chapter 51

After we had all finished discussing everything, we all went together to the dining hall. I see Matt enter with his sister and her pup. They head straight for us and take seats directly across, with Matt facing me and Layla facing Lucian.

"Are you not going to hold your pup Lucian, you have not even asked after him, what his name is, how old he is, or if he is well. I would have thought at least you, Luna Nadia, would have been better than this and wanting to spend time with your firstborn grandchild" Matt says loudly enough so the whole room hears.

"My wolf like Lucian's doesn't claim the pup as ours" Nadia answers

"Here let me take him. If he turns out to be Lucian's pup, then I should build a good bond with him. I mean, I will be his stepmum after all, so I want the pup to be comfortable around me. Besides, it must be hard to eat and rest having him all the time" I say, reaching over.

She reluctantly passes him to me, worried how it will look if she doesn't. Matt doesn't look happy at me openly supporting Lucian.

"You know you don't have to put up with this. How many times are you going to let him hurt and embarrass you. I will happily look after you and care for you and make you my Luna if you leave him" Matt says, still projecting his voice.

"That won't be happening, Alpha, for a start, if anything did happen between them, it was before we met, so he didn't do anything to me. Secondly, if I did leave, you are not the first Alpha that has offered me this. I do not care about being a Luna, I care about my mate, and I won't be leaving him for something in his past. I think we should just wait and see what the DNA says don't you, now your raised voice is upsetting the pup" I say calmly, settling the pup back down.

"What is his name" I ask Layla.

"He doesn't have one yet, I wanted his father to name him" she says, looking at Lucian.

"Well we should definitely find his father, then shouldn't we" I say as she scowls at me.

The rest of the meal is fairly silent, Lucian feeds me and himself to make it easier as I am holding the pup. Matt and Layla look annoyed, watching Lucian being so caring and attentive towards me. When the meal is over, I pass the pup back to Layla. He really is a cute pup, but he looks nothing like Lucian.

They get up to leave, not happy with being unable to get the reaction they were after from us. As they get near the door, one of our warriors, Lucas, walks in, looking around frantic before his eyes settle on Layla.

"Layla it really is you, I wasn't sure whether to believe my friend when he said you were here claiming your pup was the Alpha's. That pup is mine isn't it and don't lie about it, Brutus is telling me he is our pup. I know you never slept with the Alpha while you were here. I would have felt it through our mate bond if you had" he says, upset.

"Excuse me, who exactly are you and what are you going on about" Matt asks him

"My name is Lucas, Alpha. I am Layla's mate. We met when you were here last time and mated as soon as our wolves recognised each other. In the morning, she panicked about me being a warrior and tried to reject me, I refused to accept it, hoping to change her mind. Now, I would be happy to accept if that's what she really wants, but I want to be with my pup. I don't want to lose him. What is his name, when was he born and is he strong and healthy" Lucas asks, trying to see him.

Matt is glaring at his sister by the time Lucas has finished speaking and gives a large sigh before he speaks.

"Look Lucas, I really don't know what to think now, but I really hope my sister hasn't lied about this to me and made a fool out of both of us. We are expecting the DNA results on Alpha Lucian tomorrow. If they come back negative, I will believe your claims and make sure you see the pup. He hasn't been named yet, Layla wanted his father to name him. He was born 3 days ago, and he is strong and healthy" Matt tells him.

"Thank you Alpha" Lucas says as Matt dragged Layla away.

When they leave, I walk over to Lucas and give him a hug, I am close to Lucas. He was a strong supporter of me when I first arrived here and was a good friend.

"Don't worry, Lucus, we will get all of this sorted out for you and make sure you get your pup with you" I tell him.

"They are Alpha's. They can do what they want. I don't have the same power as them Aurora" he says, sighing.

"it will be fine. Trust me, I will get in touch with Talia if I have to. She will not let a pup be separated from its father. I know the results will come back negative tomorrow, and if we have to, we will get you a DNA test for more proof. I won't let them stop you from seeing him" I say firmly.

"Thank you, Aurora. I really appreciate you helping me out with this. It must be hard enough on you with all the accusations" he says concerned.

"I am fine. I didn't believe her for a second. I knew Luca would have claimed his pup as soon as he saw him. The fact he denied it told me all I needed to know, so don't worry about me. In fact, why don't you meet us in the morning so you are there for the results. Then we can get everything sorted out straight away" I tell him.

"I will be there, anything to be with my son I will do"
" he says

"Be there at 10, oh and bring your mum she can look after the pup to stop him getting upset if emotions get heightened" I tell him, giving him a hug before he leaves.

Lucian walks over to me, looking sad, I can feel the guilt through our bond. I take his hand and lead him to our room, making him sit on the bed next to me before giving him a hug.

"I am so sorry, my love, I promised I wouldn't cause you any more pain, but I keep hurting you" he says sadly.

"Shh, enough of that, Lucian. You can not help it if a girl decides to use your past reputation against you and lie about you. I am pretty sure you didn't even sleep with her, I don't know why she decided to set you as her target, but you can't be blamed for this" I tell him rubbing his back as he relaxes into the hug.

"Thank you for believing me and supporting me. The pack instantly thought I was at fault again, not that I blame them for it, I haven't exactly been the best role model lately" he says

"When I decided to give you another chance and let you mark me, it was because I knew you had changed Lucian. I also know that despite the circumstances, neither Luca nor you would deny your own pup. I knew straight away you were telling the truth. I will always trust you unless you give me a really good reason to doubt you. Even if he was yours, we would work through it together" I say gently.

"I really don't deserve you, but I am so thankful that I have you. I love you so much" he says, filled with emotion.

"Then show me" I whisper in his ear.

He quickly starts to kiss me slowly and full of love and tenderness as he starts to remove my clothes. As he lays me gently on the bed, he quickly starts to remove his clothes before kissing and stroking me.

He is moving slowly and gently, instead of his usual rough and full of passion way.

I need no foreplay, neither does he we both just want to be connected to each other as soon as possible. He slowly enters me, making love to me using slow, deep thrusts as he gently caresses my body and delicately kisses me on my face and neck.

I can feel all of his love in every thrust, stroke, and kiss he gives me. The slow build-up of pleasure is deliciously teasing. Each touch and movement feels heightened as he brings me to the height of my pleasure and tips me right over the edge, moaning his name loudly. As I clamp tightly around his shaft, he finds his release.

"Fu.ck I love you" he cries out.
