Chapter 52

Lucian and I were ready in his office waiting for everyone to arrive, Lucas arrived first with his mother Maria, and he was looking really anxious about everything. When Matt and his sister Layla entered the room, Layla looked totally pi.ssed off to see him there.

"What the hell is he doing here? He shouldn't be here for this. It is between us, not him" she says angrily.

"I invited him, and since this is our pack, I suggest you settle down. Now he is here in case the results show Lucian is not the father, so we can sort everything out now. Maria is here to have the pup so he doesn't get upset if anyone gets too emotional. So if you could pass him over to her" I say to her.

She stands there looking annoyed while glaring at me. "He still shouldn't be here and will have nothing to do with my pup" she says coldly.

"Is that so, then I may just have to get in touch with Queen Talia then and have a little word with her about it" I warn her.

"What has this got to do with her she shouldn't be involved in my personal business” she says, irritated.

“Well if you really need it explained to you, I will. If Lucas is the father and you are stopping him from seeing his child, that is a dispute between two packs. That is the very definition of a case the Queen will take on to settle it fairly. Knowing the Queen, she won’t be happy about a child being kept from its family” I say, spelling it out to her.

“Just give him to her, Layla. I don’t want my nephew upset if he doesn’t have to be. Think of him for goddess sake” he says, irritated at her.

She hands the pup to Maria while not looking best pleased about it, and Maria takes a seat away from the rest of us. She looks so happy to have the pup in her arms. We sit in an uncomfortable silence until we hear a knock on the door around 10.15. We called the doctor into the room.

“Right well I am glad everyone is here. I will just get straight on it and let you all know the results” he says, opening the envelope in his hands.

“The results clearly state that Alpha Lucian has a 0 per cent chance of being the pups father. Now I will tell you that the test has been done three times, twice by me and another time by a different doctor, so we could be sure to have an accurate result. I will go now and let you all talk this through, I will be in the hospital if you need me for anything else" he says before leaving the room.

"Why the hell would you lie about this Layla, you could have ruined people's lives. I am so disappointed in you right now. I apologise to both of you for all of the trouble that has been caused because of this" Matt says.

"Like you didn't want Aurora for yourself as well, don't lecture me you was happy to jump in to get a shot at her" she shouts at him, making the little one cry.

Lucas is straight up taking the pup from his mum to calm him down instantly. He glares at Layla while sitting down.

"Please try to keep your voice down so you don't upset our son again" he says, irritated.

"Lucas I think it is about time you give your son a name" Matt says to him.

"No, why should he get to name him. He's not getting to pick his name" Layla complains.

"Shut up, Layla. You were the one that wanted his father to name him, so that is what will happen. Go ahead, Lucas, it is about time my nephew had a name" he says.

"Well I would like to name him Marcus after my father and one of the greatest warriors this pack has had, is there a family name you would like to add to his name as well" Lucas offers

"That's very kind of you to offer that Lucas, if you don't mind, I would like our father's name Lance in it as well. He was a great man and Alpha before he passed away" Matt says emotionally.

"Marcus Lance Davis, it is then" Lucas says happily, smiling at his son.

"What position are you in at the moment Lucas" Matt asks him.

"I am one of the elite warriors in the pack Alpha" he answers respectfully.

"Lucas is actually as strong, if not stronger than our Gamma, and even our Beta has a hard time defeating him. When I started training here, I set my sights on beating Lucas as he was the toughest warrior we had. He is only in this position because all of our ranked positions are filled already. His wolf is definitely higher than a warrior level" I tell Matt.

"I thought that too when I met him, and Lucas from now on, please call me Matt. We are family. Now I don't know if you would be interested but it would solve all of our problems, I believe. I would like you to become my new Gamma, we don't have one at present as the previous Gamma just had a daughter and she is moving to be with her Beta mate, we had hoped her mate would take the position originally. I can tell you are strong enough for the position, and it means you will be beside your son growing up. Your family would also be welcome in the pack if they move. Now, this offer does not mean you have to accept my sister. You can still accept the rejection and become my Gamma" Matt offers him.

"I would like that, it is a very generous offer and if it means I get to be with my son then all the better. What do you think, mum, and do you think dad will want to move" he says

"I would love to be beside my grand baby, and I know your father will feel exactly the same way, too. I think you should take the offer" Maria told him.

"This isn't fair Matt, why is he getting a position, and I am left on my own. You should be sticking up for me, not him, he should only be Gamma if he is my mate and he should only get to see Marcus if he is with me or I wont let him near him" she says stropily.

"Enough Layla, I am so embarrassed and ashamed of you right now, I dread to think what mum will say. Did you forget she was a warrior when she mated to dad? He never cared about her rank at all. Just the bond was enough for him, and you threw it away. You also will not be keeping him from his son. That is something I will not let you away with. You have also been warned with Queen Talia being involved, and I don't think you want everything you have been up to to come out to her" Matt says disappointed.

"You wanted Aurora without the bond. How is it different. How would it have looked that an Alpha's daughter was mated to a warrior" she says, pouting.

"I have searched every pack for my mate, I don't even think I have one. I thought he was just causing her more pain so she would be better with me anyway. If I had my true mate, she could be an omega for all I care about. Why can't you see that.

"I can't believe you would make up sleeping with someone just so you could look better in front of your friends" he says, shaking his head.

"I will give you a chance to prove yourself to me before I accept the rejection. If you can prove you are changed and you don't just want me because your brother gave me a position in the pack, I will give this a go" Lucas says to Layla.

"Why should I prove anything? You should just accept me" she tells him stubbornly.

"Fine I can just accept it now and see if my 2nd chance mate is at this pack. That way, she can leave with us when we go" Lucas warns her.

"Fine then, I will prove it to you then" she says, upset at not getting her way.

"Can I take the little one to meet his granddad? He has been eager to meet him" Maria asks

"Ok, but can you get him back to me in an hour he will be due a feed then, and I have nothing prepared for him" Layla says reluctantly.

"Of course, my dear, I will make sure he is back with you for his feed in plenty of time" she says, smiling at Layla before leaving with Lucas.

"You would be best going to your room and staying out of trouble for now, Layla. You are very lucky Lucas is giving you any chance at all with him. I really hope you appreciate and make the most of this opportunity. It is about time you acted less spoiled and more responsible. You are a mother now" Matt scolds her.

She strops off away in the direction of her room as Matt sighs in frustration.

"Goddess I really hope she learns her lesson. Again, I am truly sorry for what she has done and also my part in it. I am just glad we managed to get it all sorted. Lucas seems like a good guy, I am glad I managed to find my nephews father for him " he says to us.

"He is a good guy. He has been a great friend to me, and he will make a fantastic Gamma for you and your pack. It was a good decision on your part " I tell him.

We keep chatting as we walk through the packhouse when Matt starts to perk up and look around frantically before picking up his pace. As we are nearing the entrance to the packhouse, he picks up speed, breaking away from us as we hear his wolf shout out "mine" Oh sh.it, I think.
