Chapter 56

Goddess, I have been so horny lately not like Lucian has complained at all he is ready for me 24 hours a day. I have managed to escape from everyone and snuck back to Lucian's office, making sure I locked the door behind me so we don't have any surprise visitors.

I go straight over to him and drop to my knees and quickly pull out his co.ck, it becomes hard in my hand instantly as I quickly engulf it in my mouth sucking and licking it just the way he likes it.

"Fu.ck baby, that feels so good" he moans as he starts to thrust up into my mouth.

I can tell it won't take him long as his excitement takes over, and I clasp his balls in my hands, fondling them as he continues to fu.ck my mouth hard. I can feel his balls tighten in my hands as he spurts down my throat and growls his release out before pulling me up to sit on his desk.

"Well that was a nice surprise. Now, what does my naughty girl want" he says huskily to me.

"I need you now, I want you to fu.ck me hard and fast daddy" I say with a sexy purr.

He quickly removes my clothes, not needing to be asked twice before laying me on the desk with my legs spread wide. After admiring the view for a second, he thrusts straight in up to the hilt and starts a punishing pace pounding into me hard and fast as he sucks on my sensitive n*s.

I am a complete moaning mess as I c.um quickly. He suddenly pulls out and flips me round so that I am bent over the desk and pulls one leg up on the desk. At this angle, when he thrusts in, it goes so deep I scream out in pleasure as he grunts and moans behind me, rubbing my cl.it to increase the sensations.

Each hard fast stroke at this angle is hitting all the sensitive spots inside me, his fingers move faster and firmer against my cl.it making my stomach tighten and legs start to shake as I feel my orgasm start to hit. My walls clamp around his co.ck as I scream out my release, and he growls out his release as he fills me up to the brim.

He takes some wipes and a towel before cleaning me up and then himself, and we quickly get dressed before he pulls me into his lap for a cuddle.

"You know I think your breasts are getting bigger, and they are even more sensitive to my touch. Do you think maybe you could be pregnant" he asks, trying not to sound too hopeful.

"You know that could explain why I am so horny all of the time at the moment" I say, thinking about it.

"Can we go and find out, like now" he says, not bothering to hide that he is excited now.

"Fine let's go then" I say, going to get up.

He stops me carrying me in his arms quickly to the hospital as if the building is on fire. We get there and speak to the doctor present. He asks for a urine sample, which I go off to do before returning it to him. He quickly tests it while we are in his office, and he let's us know the results are positive.

He then takes me for some blood tests to check on mine and the babies health and then takes us for a scan to see the pup. We are thinking it was probably from my heat 5 weeks ago, but we will find out for sure once we have been checked out.

Lucian is beaming as he looks at the screen while holding my hand. The doctor puts the wand on my tummy, and the black and white image appears on the screen. You can just make out the small shape.

Just as we are getting started, we get a link from Fred that Lisa is in labour and she needs me at the hospital, we let him know we will be there soon.

"Right let's have a little look here then. We have one strong looking pup. Everything looks in place and healthy. You are correct with your estimate. The pup is 5 weeks old, just now in another 9 weeks, we can tell you the s*x if you like. The heartbeat is good and strong" he says as a quick heartbeat fills the room.

"I will get some prints printed off some pictures for you, and then you can be off once we get the blood results" he says

"Actually doctor could you link the results, Lisa is in labour and needs Aurora there with her, so we need to leave" Lucian tells him.

"Of course Alpha's, I will link you both, and congratulations on your new arrival come back in 4 weeks for a scan to check on the progress" he doctor says passing the pictures to Lucian.

Lucian quickly cleans the gel off of my stomach, gives it a quick kiss, and picks me up to carry me to Lisa and Fred. I hope he is not going to try and carry me everywhere from now on. Nadia, Shawn, and Julia are looking at us strangely as we arrive. Thankfully, Lee and Suzie arriving distract them as he puts me down. His smile does not go unnoticed, though.

"What has got you so happy? It can't just be the baby arriving after that entrance" Shawn says, laughing.

I nod to him to let him know he can give them the news.

"Aurora is 5 weeks pregnant with my child, we are going to be parents" he says excitedly.

Everyone congratulates us before we hear Fred's voice.

"Congratulations, I am really happy for you, but I really need Aurora before Lisa kills me. The pup is not going to wait much longer" he says desperately.

I give Lucian a quick kiss and rush into the room to hear Lisa shouting and swearing while calling Fred all of the names under the sun. No wonder he was desperate to get me in here. I quickly go next to Lisa and take her hand, giving her words of encouragement. She starts to calm down now that I am in the room and Fred looks so relieved.

She is either having a quick labour or she waited at home for a while because this is moving fast. In half an hour, she is pushing out her son, and her cries are replaced by his as Fred cuts the chord, telling Lisa how much he loves her and how proud of her he is.

While a nurse is cleaning the pup, I help Lisa get cleaned and changed, and another nurse changes the bedding. Lisa gives the pup a quick feed before everyone joins us.

"Aurora we wanted to ask you if you would be Anthony's godmother" Lisa asks, passing him to me once she has finished.

"I would be honoured. He is gorgeous even if he does look more like his daddy than his beautiful mummy" I say, cooing at him.

Everyone joins us in the room. They ask Lucian if he would also be a godparent to the pup, his full name, Anthony Frederick. Lucian was over the moon to be asked, I passed him the pup next for a cuddle.

"Oh Lisa, I have some news for you. Little Anthony will have a playmate in a few months" I tell her.

"Really oh my goddess, that is great news. I am so excited for you. Our pups will grow up together" she says, hugging me.

"He will actually have one a bit sooner than that, Julia is 7 weeks pregnant" Shawn announces.

Everyone goes and congratulates the two of them. We are all really happy for them, not at all surprised by it. They barely left their room when she first came here, I mean, they still disappear every chance they get. Not that me and Lucian are much better to be fair.

"Wow this is great. All of them are going to grow up together. I am so excited. At least I won't grow huge on my own. Oh and you never know Suzie might not be far behind I see a new mark on both of your necks, couldn't make it much past 12 I see" I say teasing them as Suzie turns bright red.

"Yes about that. I can't believe you never told me Lee, welcome to the family, Suzie dear" Nadia says, giving her a hug.

Nadia is great. I know she will become a mother figure for her, too, like she has done for me. Suzie could really do with a proper mother figure in her life for once, someone to look out for her best interests instead of their own.

"Thank you, Nadia. I really appreciate how welcoming everyone has been to me since I came here. I just never thought I would be staying" she said genuinely.

Lee hugs her close to him and kisses her on the top of her head. It is nice seeing them getting along so well with everything sorted out now. I want them both to be happy. They both really deserve it.

Zander was a bit upset when he heard she had mated to Lee. He was happy for her. He knew Lee would look after her. He just didn't want to lose both his sisters to different packs. The only thing that kept him happier about it was the fact that our packs are so close, and he knows she will be with me, and he can see the two of us whenever he wants.
