

Matt gets his mate

Chapter 58

The three troublemakers decided to leave straight away without any pleasantries to anyone, but you could hear the disagreement between Luna Claire and Alpha Thomas in the car park.

"I can not believe you embarrassed me like that Claire" he shouts at her.

"Oh do shut up, Thomas, for goddess sake. I am sick of your crap. Our girls will not be putting up with everything I have had to, and if you keep on talking to me like that, I swear I will finally reject your sexist a.ss. I have had enough of you" she shouts back.

He goes completely silent and quickly gets into the car embarrassed by the display. While she keeps her head up and turns to wave at us with a smile on her face. Good on her, it is about time she stood up against him.

A few of the Alpha's and Luna's came over and double-checked with Lucian and I that the invitations were right and the pups were invited to the ceremony. They also reminded us of their ages, I reassured them it was correct, and I had a plan for the kids and an area built especially for them and childcare organised.

They all were rather excited about it after that and promised to bring the pups and congratulated us on our pregnancy. Lucian was telling everyone we talked to. He was so happy about it that he could not keep it in.

Everyone left except for the packs related to Talia and I, who all were staying another night so we could spend time together catching up. We spent the day in the garden again as it was lovely out, and Luca was giving his wolf rides.

I made some snow for the pups. They love that I can make it snow for them at any time of the year, and Talia and I took turns making them fly.

They were all curious about my plans for the Alpha ceremony, especially with inviting all the pups to attend it. I explained about the area I was having built for the event and how it would be great for the pack pups in the future anyway, so it was an investment.

I also explained how I thought it would be good to help build bonds with the next generation of pack leaders by them meeting and playing at a young age. There was also simply the fact that I love seeing the pups, and it makes the event less boring.

"I think it is a fantastic idea, and I really hope it catches on, I remember my dad telling me there used to be an activities camp for the ranked kids. That was where most of our parents met and became friends for the first time" Tristan said.

"I can't wait to see this play area. We have loads of pups in the pack now. It might give me a few idea's of my own to build one" Jayden says.

"Yeah I know it would be good to have something like that here, and when we have these boring meetings, the pups can come and play. I also agree that we need something to make these events less stuffy and formal. Maybe if the pups are there, they will not want to talk business all the time" Talia says.

I show them some of the designs and pictures of the play to give them an idea of what it will look like fully completed. It goes to all age ranges, and each section is fenced off so the younger ones do not get hurt on the older ones sections.

Before we go to eat in the evening, Talia takes us to a quiet spot near a stream with plenty of tree coverage. It is Gina's shift tonight, and she wanted her to have somewhere quiet and secluded that she would also be able to see her wolf.

Talia also gave her a dressing gown so she did not have to wait naked for her shift to happen. She could just tear out of it without worrying about ruining her clothes. It was really thoughtful of her.

Gina has asked me to be there along with Shawn and Lucian. She also asked Matt.

It is said that if you have met your mate before having your first shift, them being present can help to ease the pain and shorten the time it takes. I hope it is true the first time is always the worst.

Either way, it will be good for him to be there for her and her to finally recognise him as her mate.

We all eat together again in the evening in a private room, there are so many of us we would just disrupt the pack if we took over the dining hall. Then we sat in a private family room to chat and play with the pups until they fell asleep.

Once the pups were all asleep their parents too them up to bed and the rest of our family and friends shortly followed leaving the 5 of us in the room waiting on the time to leave for Gina's first shift.

At 11.40, we started to make our way to the area, I don't know who was more excited about it, Gina or Matt. The poor man has been waiting so long for this moment. When we reach the area Gina quickly goes behind a tree to undress and put on her robe, with just over a minute to spare she steps out and crouches down on the ground ready for the shift to happen.

The tell tale signs are soon heard as the snapping of bones and Gina's painful whimpers fill the air. Matt quickly moves to rub her back and let the mate bond do its magic. After around 10 minutes, a beautiful large honey blonde wolf stood in Gina's place.

She was easily as big as Shawn if not slightly bigger, I knew she would be a strong wolf. I could tell she was of Beta strength just like I had thought. Matt was mesmerised by her as he gently stroked her fur, and she nuzzled into him purring contentedly.

"Would you like to come and see yourself Mala" I asked her gently while stroking her soft fur.

She padded carefully to the water to have a look, " wow I am huge" Gina said to me through the link.

"Yes you are, I knew you would be, I did say you were probably a Beta. Mala is beautiful Gina" I tell her.

"Maybe you should shift back now sweetheart, the first time is really tiring, and I don't want you to wear yourself out" Matt says, concerned.

Mala looks to him and nods before going behind the tree that she left her clothes earlier. She reappears a few minutes later dressed and runs up to Matt, jumping into his arms saying "mine".

He catches her with a large smile on his face as he kisses her, then hugs her close. Shawn quickly clears his throat, and Gina blushes, remembering she has an audience.

"I would appreciate it if you didn't do that in front of me. Remember, she is my little cousin, so please try and keep your hands to yourself" Shawn says with a grimace as I chuckle.

"I will, but I am not putting her down. She is tired after her shift, so I will carry her back. I have to look after my mate" he says, refusing to put her down.

We walk back to the castle, and I see Matt and Gina slip ahead and sneak into the same room. Luckily for Shawn, he was a bit behind, so he didn't have to go to bed with those thoughts in his head. I was exhausted with the pregnancy and staying up later, so Lucian got me tucked straight into bed and stroked my stomach, talking to our pup as I drifted off to sleep.

I woke up early and refreshed in the morning, determined to make up for falling asleep straight away last night. I slipped off my clothes and slid on top of Lucian slowly grinding against his morning wood while kissing his mark.

He moaned lowly, starting to wake up as he lifted my hips and slammed into me.

"Now this is the perfect way to start the day" he says sleepily in my ear as I straighten up and start to ride him.

I start off slowly grinding and circling on him to give him a chance to wake up a bit more before I begin to ride him hard as he matches my thrusts while pinching and stroking my n*s and breasts as they bounce with each movement.

I can feel him getting close as he starts to rub and press on my cl.it, sending me over the edge as I feel him fill me up. He then carries me off into the shower for a quick round two as we have to rush down to breakfast to meet everyone.

Matt and Gina are running just as late as us, as they step in to the room proudly displaying their new marks, Matt has a protective arm around her to let all the males know she is his mate and not available. He looks so proud to have her in his arms.

We leave just after breakfast, I always hate saying goodbye to everyone, but at least I know we will be seeing each other in less than a week at our pack. Plus, all of the pups will be there, so it will be even better.

Matt is really happy because Lucian offered to drive back, and I will sit in the front with him, which means he can cuddle up to Gina the whole way back. Shawn, on the other hand, is not thrilled about it and has warned them there had better be no pda in front of him.
