

Regrets

Chapter 6

Lucian's pov

I am really stressed out at the moment, Luca has stopped talking to me. He was angry enough that I was ignoring Aurora, but when I hit her for slapping Jessica, he almost completely cut me off, only talking to me to complain when I sleep with her.

I still can't believe I hit her, I never meant to it was just a knee-jerk reaction when I saw Jessica being hurt.

I have known her practically all my life, and I have always been protective of her. I regretted it as soon as it happened, but I didn't get the chance to make it right. Anyway, if I apologise now, it might give her the wrong impression.

I need to stay away from her. I can't let the mate bond distract me and pull me towards her. No matter how much my body craves it. I don't need a Luna, especially not a weak woless one.

I have been sleeping with Jessica every night to distract me and sort out my urges, Shawn has stopped talking to me because of it.

I can't believe that after all these years of friendship, he is acting like this. He should be on my side, just as my frustration is starting to get to me. Jessica walks into my oce in a barely there dress. This is the distraction I need right now.

"Baby you look stressed. Is there anything I could do to help?" she purrs at me.

"Lock the door and get you a.ss over here" I growl sexily at her.

She locks it and runs over, giggling, sitting on my lap before kissing me.

"Bend over the desk sexy" I order her.

She gets in to position straight away as I rip off her panties and plunge my nger into her hole. She is already dripping before I have even started.

Without bothering with any foreplay I thrust straight in and start pounding into her.

Luca is trying to shout at me I block him out as it's distracting, he keeps persisting he's not usually this bad. I have to close down the link completely so I can concentrate on what I am doing.

He's probably just wanting to moan at me about Aurora again anyway. I continue to thrust in and out as Jessica squeals and moans like a porn star until I nd my release. I pull out just before so it lands on her a.ss. I take a few tissues to clean her off.

"You were amazing baby" she says, sitting on my knee kissing me.

We stay like this for a while before I keep feeling someone pushing at my head trying to link me.

I eventually put my block down, and my mum's frantic voice comes through telling me Aurora has been attacked and she is in the hospital.

"I tried to tell you she was in danger a.sshole, but you were too busy with the bi.tch to care" Luca growls at me before shutting me off.

Sh.it this is bad. I hope she is ok. I don't want her hurt. I should have been there what have I done?

"I need to go now" I say, rushing out of the door and leaving a startled Jessica as I run to the hospital.

As I get through the doors and walk towards Aurora, Shawn punches me in the face.

What the fu.ck is he doing that for? I know he's not happy with me, but there is no need for that.

What the fu.ck was that for?" I snarl at him.

"She almost died because of you, you bas.tard" he growls.

"What do you mean?" I say, feeling really uneasy

"I was attacked by 5 rogues, I had killed 3 when I yet again felt the pains of you cheating on me. Which stopped me from being able to defend myself against the last two. Luckily Shawn being the Gamma feels when I am in pain, so he rushed to help me. I couldn't call for help as you haven't made me a member of the pack. I have reached the limit. It is one thing not wanting me and causing me pain. Even breaking my nose last week was bad, but almost killing me I am done. I Aurora Storm reject you, Lucian Grey, as my mate and Alpha" she says.

Fu.ck fu.ck fu.ck no she can't do that, I don't want her to reject me, I really screwed up this time, I didn't realise how much pain I put her in all this time, and she managed to keep going.

It's my fault she almost died, I almost killed my mate. How did she manage to kill 3 rogues on her own and ght off another 2. There is more to her than she is letting on.

"I Lucian Grey, do not accept your rejection" I state rmly the pain from her rejection starts to ease now that I have refused the rejection. Fu.ck, that was painful.

"You are a selsh pr.ick. You cause me constant pain from sleeping with others. Do you like me being in agony? What have I ever done to deserve this? I have done everything you have asked. Will you only be happy when I am nally dead?" she yells.

"No, don't say that" I roar "I know I have messed up, I never meant this to happen to you I will make it right you will become a member of the pack so you are safe and we will sort things out. I will not lose you, Aurora, you are my mate" I say.

"You already have, you made it clear we are not mates, and after your behaviour, I don't want to be near you. I mean, you have come here saying all these words while you stink of s*x and your sl.ut" she sneers.

"Jessica is not a sl.ut" I defend.

"Still defending her, I see. What is she then? She is sleeping with a married man. I suppose that's ne I mean why should I expect you to take my side over her? I mean you broke my nose for her, what should I expect now, you want me while you still fu.ck her. I don't know about her, but that won't work for me. She can have you, I will be gone the second I can get away, and I don't want to join this pack. I would never want you as my Alpha" she spits as I roar in anger at her words.

I know I have badly fu.cked up with her, but I have offered to make things right, so she should be willing to make things work too. Obviously, I don't expect her to share me, Jessica will understand that I am now going to be with my mate.

"You will go no where, I won't be with anyone else. I will be locking you in the room until I can pick you to stay where you are" I say, picking her up and carrying her back to her room past everyone while they look at us shocked.

I place her down on the bed gently and she shouts at me "you can't fu.cking keep me locked up in here"

"Watch me" I say, walking out and locking the door behind me.

As I get to my oce, Jessica is still sitting there. Sh.it I better get this over with.
