

A rejection or two

Chapter 60

We decided to take this chat into our conference room, Lisa and Fred took over greeting the last couple of groups that were still to arrive for us. Talia and the twins, Lucian and I, Thomas, Claire, Sydney, Rhia, Jacob, Jack, Dan and Jacob's Luna Sandra who didn't have a clue about it either was present along with Nate and the young Beta Wayne.

"Have either of the two of you met your mate"
Talia asked them.

Dan immediately answers in the negative while Jack looks away awkwardly.

"I shall take that as a yes then from you, Jack. Now tell me, have you rejected her" she demands an answer this time.

"No I haven't rejected her yet, but she knows I will" he says, not wanting to.

"Why have you not done it yet if you have made it clear you will" she demands

"I was keeping my options open, just in case, and so she can not move on to someone else before me" he says.

A rejection or two

"Is the girl here and who is she" Talia demands again

"She is here. It is Lucia, our Betas daughter" he grits out. Talia nods at me, and I send out a link for her to be sent up.

"I take it Luna Claire and Luna Sandra neither of you had any knowledge of this arrangement" Talia asks as they shake their heads and glare at their mates.

"Well Thomas, how about you explain it to me" she asks in her queen voice so he can not lie.

"Sydney is to marry and mate with Jack so she can become Luna of his pack, and then Dan will marry and mate with Rhia, and he will become Alpha of our pack. Both packs will benefit along with both of our children as they will all rule the packs, and we know each others pack shares our values" he says.

"This is the last straw Thomas, I warned you I will reject you. I can not stay with you any longer, I will not have you doing this to our daughters" Claire growls at him.

"I will not accept it Claire" he says back, annoyed.

"Oh yes, you will. If that is what she wants, you have dictated to her long enough now silence" Talia orders.

A rejection or two

"Sydney who do you want to be with? It is obvious your mate wants you" Talia says as Nate nods and smiles at Sydney.

"I want to be with my mate, I do not want to be with a man I do not love and force my sister to be with someone just so my father can get his own way" she says confidently

"Now Rhia, what about you? I am guessing you would prefer to be with your mate too" Talia asks

"Yes Wayne and I want to be together, we were planning on him giving up his beta position and moving pack if we had to" she admits.

"Have you trained Rhia" Talia asks

"Yes I am trained up to elite level. Mum made sure we were" Rhea replies

"Good, that makes things easier then" Talia says.

There was a knock on the door at that moment, and a pretty red head came into the room.

"Lucia come in and take a seat" I tell her.

Once she is sitting, Talia turns to her to start asking questions.

"Do you want to be mated to Jack any longer" Talia asks her.

"No I do not. He didn't accept me. He sleeps with others and then tries to get me to sleep with him and also tells me he is going to reject me anyway. He is just after my virginity before he goes through with the rejection or waiting for the marking to do the job for him so he doesn't feel the pain. He has Alpha ordered me not to reject him after I tried and not to leave the pack" she says pissed off.

"Right well I think I have everything I need, and I have made my decision. I do not even have to think about it in the slightest" Talia says.

"Luna Claire, you can go ahead and reject Thomas, and Thomas will accept it" she puts her queen voice in when talking to Thomas.

Claire wastes no time and does it instantly, and Thomas has no choice but to accept. Thomas looks in more pain than she does as her daughters give her comfort.

"Now all Jack's orders to you are void, and he will accept your rejection if you chose to give it Lucia" Talia says in her Queen voice.

Again, Lucia instantly gives her rejection to Jack, and he also has no choice but to accept it as he feels the pain. Lucia doesn't even wince. The betrayal pains have prepared her for this and damaged the bond enough on her side to make it easier for her.

"As for the rest of it, Sydney, you are free to go with your mate and be in his pack, and Rhia, you as an Alpha should be running your fathers pack. Do you accept a challenge against him for the Alpha title" Talia asks Rhia looks at her mum, sister, and mate. They all nod to her in encouragement "I do" she says.

"Excellent, the challenge is set for next Saturday. Aurora, would you like to attend and help me with crowd control" Talia asks

"I would love to" I answer

"Excuse me, can I move packs? I do not want to stay in the same pack as him" Lucia asks

"Oh dear, you won't be. Trust me, by the time you go home, you will know exactly where you will be going and with whom. Now, on you go, I suggest you pop along to the obstacle course. There may be someone waiting to meet you" Talia says with a wink.

"You are not fit to be Alpha, how dare you try and challenge me" Thomas shouts at Rhia, finally getting his pain under control.

"You are the one that is not fit to be Alpha father. You do not treat your people right, and you just tried to sell off your daughters. I suggest Luna Sandra, you check that Fiona hasn't been bargained away" Rhia says

A rejection or two

"She is only 16, he wouldn't " Sandra says, looking at Jacob as he looks away.

"Who did you promise our daughter to" she roars

"Who do you think, Alpha Phillip's boy Graham, our daughter will be a Luna, and he knows she will behave" Jacob says.

Sandra is so pissed at him that she rejects him there, and then, as he goes to refuse, Talia growls at him, and he accepts it.

"All of you are free to stay here for the time being until the challenge and Luna Sandra if you need somewhere permanent you and your daughter are welcome here full time unless there is another pack you would prefer. Thomas, Jacob, Jack and Dan, I would prefer if you left the territory so there will not be any further disputes at my celebration” I say, and Talia agrees.

Claire, Rhia, and Wayne decide to stay until the challenge, and so does Sandra as she wants to see how it ends. Sandra and her daughter are planning on moving to her birth pack as she still has family there, and they treat women equally in that pack, so it will be a better environment for Fiona.

Once the men have been escorted off of the territory, we make our way down to the guests again. We find a very happy Gamma Callum from my brothers pack with his arms around Lucia. I make sure to introduce Ella and Kat to her and quickly fill them in on her story so they know how best to support her.

Talia and I have a quiet chat with Graham. He had not been told of any arrangement yet and was seriously pi.ssed off about it as he wanted his true mate and hated his father's outdated ideals. He assured us there would not be any problems from his end, and he would make sure his little sister was also not subjected to it either.

He is due to get his title in 6 months, so his dad was not waiting until Fiona was of age, and they were married to pass it along anyway.

A rejection or two

Talia has also spoken to both his parents and warned Philip that he will be subject to disciplinary actions if he withholds the title or tries to force a mating on his children. She also told his Luna that Claire and Sandra have rejected their mates, and they were forced to accept because of their actions, so to speak to her if she needs anything.

She let her know she would keep it in mind if it got to that stage. That was enough for Philip to stop complaining and start to behave himself. He knew his friends had been rejected and kicked out and that his mate would protect her pups if she needed to and that his son was on her side now.

We will just have to see if the young Alpha will be granted a second chance after the way he treated his first mate. Not everyone is. It is just the ones who deserve it, so he had better change his ways now, or he will live a long, lonely life.
