

Another female Alpha

Chapter 63

Alpha Nate asked if he could stay in the pack along with his mate Sydney as she really wanted to be there to support her sisters challenge against her father the following Saturday. We have plenty of room, so Lucian and I were more than happy to accommodate them.

It was best for Rhia to have as much support around her as possible. She trained all week with Lee, Lucian, and Nate, offering to help her so she had more experience against Alpha males while I showed her some extra tips I had picked up from Talia while training with her.

Both girls were doing really well, and I do not think any of us were surprised when both couples came down the morning of my ceremony already marked and mated. It will definitely give Rhia the edge in her challenge as having her true mate marking her will give her extra strength in the fight.

Talia, Zander and I sent warriors with Lucia just in case she had any issues collecting her belongings from the pack, her brother was and parents were so angry with the way she had been treated they asked if they could move to my brothers pack. Even knowing her brother would lose the chance of becoming a beta.

Talia and I have also offered some warriors to escort Sandra and her daughter to their pack to collect their things and make sure they get to her birth pack safely.

Talia arrived on Friday with her normal escort and the additional warriors for Sandra. A couple of our warriors will drive the moving truck I have offered them for their things. Her ex mate has no choice but to comply with it being the Queens' orders.

It is good to see things starting to change in packs, in only a week I will not be the only female Alpha and a few weeks after that Sydney will also become an Alpha as Nate wants her to be joint Alpha at his pack. He liked the idea of how we work things between us here, and he wants his mate to be equal to him in all ways. Claire is thrilled for both of her daughters, and Nate's pack is only a couple of hours away, so it is not too far for the grandkids.

Sandra and Claire have been doing great since they have rejected their mates. They are lively and vibrant. I could always tell Claire had a bit of a fighting spirit, and I think it helped to give Sandra the push she needed to get out from under her mates control. Fiona is glad to be leaving, she does not have a great relationship with her father and brothers, they saw her as less because she is a girl. I have been helping her train this week since she has been here to get her started on it.

Being an Alpha female, she is picking it up quickly, and Sydney and Rhia have been giving her extra lessons too, so she will be prepared to go into her new pack. It is always nice to see women supporting and encouraging other women to be stronger and better. Instead of trying to pull them down or try and seduce their men out of jealousy.

I wake up early on the day of the challenge horny as fu.ck. Well, there is nothing really unusual about that at the moment. I swear since Lucian put a pup in me Athena and I are constantly thinking about s*x, it doesn't help that he sleeps naked and his morning wood is pressed against my naked a.ss because my t-shirt has ridden up.

I wiggle and grind against his hard co.ck to try and wake up the rest of him. It doesn't take too long before I hear a moan and a low growl.

"Do you want to play my love" he says huskily with his voice still full of sleep.

"Yes daddy I need you to fu.ck me now" I purr at him.

He lifts my leg over his hip and strokes my wet pu.ssy before slamming into me, "fu.ck baby, you are soaked already, you naughty girl" he growls nibbling my ear.

He takes me hard and fast just the way I like it while teasing my sensitive n*s with one hand and rubbing my cl.it with the other. It doesn't take long before I am screaming his name as my first orgasm hits.

He quickly moves me on to all fours as slams back into me, I love this position, he can go so much deeper and harder this way and my n*s rub against the pillow I am leaning on with each thrust giving me extra sensations. By the time he starts to rub my cl.it again, I am a complete mess moaning and mewling. My body is so sensitive to his touch right now.

I can feel he is getting close and is determined to push me over the edge again before him as he starts to slam into me faster and harder as I scream incoherently and clamp around his co.ck helping him to get his release as he growls out my name.

We quickly shower after and head down to meet everyone, we will be leaving after breakfast their pack is only 2 hours away so we will get there nice and early for the challenge and get it over and done with so Sandra and her daughter can get their things and move to their new pack. Also so Nate and Sydney can get her things together to move to his pack.

Talia and the twins have left their pups behind with the twins' parents because it is just a short trip, and they will be busy the entire time. We all eat together and make sure Rhia is sorted for her challenge before we set off.

We arrive at the Golden Falls Pack around 11, Thomas is already out front with his Beta, Gamma, and pack warriors ready for our arrival. He also has his friends Alpha Philip and Alpha Jacob and his two sons with him. He looks fairly confident as he stands there. This will definitely be his downfall. He does not think Rhia can possibly match him.

We quickly make a circle half with his people, the other half with ours as Thomas and Rhia stand in the centre of it.

"A challenge for Alpha has been set. The winner shall take over as the Alpha of the pack. The fight shall be until one opponent either submits or dies. If the opponent submits you can not take their lives, if anyone interferes with the fight, they shall be dealt with" Talia states

"Are you both ready" she asks

They give her a nod, "begin" she says, initiating the start of the challenge.

Thomas charges towards Rhia straight away, deciding to go in hard and fast, thinking he can take her down quickly. Rhia easily dodges him, giving him a firm kick to the back on his way past. He gets pissed straight away as he lands on the ground and turns into his wolf, charging her again.

Rhia stands her ground until the last moment when she sees him about to pounce, then she drops down and uses her legs against his exposed stomach to launch him into a tree. He takes a moment to shake off the impact as Rhia changes into her wolf and goes more on the attack now.

She keeps her weak areas covered so he does not get a chance to injure them, he on the other hand is too angry to think about covering his as she soon manages to get her claws on his stomach. It is a nasty gash but not a critical wound.

We can see Thomas is tiring, Rhia has had him running in circles, and he is covered in wounds while she only has a bad scratch on her front right leg. Rhia decides it is time to finish this as she pounces on him, clamping her jaws on his neck as he tries to wriggle free. It is no use he can not escape her now he will have to surrender so his wolf can heal his neck and other wounds.

Finally, after a couple of minutes trying to struggle as she gradually grips tighter, he gives up. Rhia releases him instantly and trots over to her mate Wayne, who is standing ready with a long t-shirt for her. Her mum, sister, Sandra, Talia, and I circle her to give her some cover as she changes back and puts on the top.

"Rhia is now the new Alpha having won her challenge" Talia announced.

Several pack members cheered for her and bared their necks as a sign of respect.

"If anyone is not happy with the change of leadership, they are welcome to leave the pack, I am sure you will be welcomed in another pack. Be warned that if you are thinking of moving to Alpha Philip's pack, it will be run differently once his son takes over, so chose wisely" Rhia says.

In the end, around 15 members, including her father, left with Alpha Jacob. It is no loss for her she is better off without people like that within the pack. Sandra and her daughter got everything settled in their old pack without too much trouble and were on their way to their new pack.

Rhia insisted we all stay for lunch before we set off for home again, and I, for one wasn't going to complain. I am always either hungry or horny with this little one growing inside me.
