Chapter 8-9

Lucian's pov

"You do have a wolf? She must want this bond even if you don't? I know Luca has always wanted it even when I was being too selfish to be with you" I say, surprised.

"She doesn't want you either. She did until you hurt her too much. Now she hates you, too. That's why she was happy to reject you" she spits at me.

No no no this is bad. The wolf always wants the bond.

"I told you there was more to our mate, I better not lose her because of you" Luca growls.

"What am I going to do?" I say to him

"I don't know but sort it, you should have listened to me, now mate hates us" he whimpers.

"Aurora, please don't punish Luca because of me, give us a chance to make it right. Why have you hidden your wolf?" I plead and ask her.

"None of your business, and you should have thought of your wolf before now I never treated you like crap because of Athena and because your wolf had never harmed us" she states.

Aurora's pov

I am really starting to get pissed off with this conversation when I notice his eyes changing from blue to Black.

"My love, you are so beautiful. I have wanted to talk to you for so long, but my stupid human wouldn't let me. I never cared if you had a wolf or not, but I am happy meeting Athena, too. Now I have two amazing women to love" Luca growls silkily.

"Mmm I like this, mate. Shame about the human" Athena purrs.

"I have to agree, Athena, if only he can stay like this" I sigh at her.

"It's nice to meet you Luca, you are quite the charmer" I say as he purrs.

"It's easy next to you. Please don't leave me because of him. I love you" he says sadly.

"Oh Luca, it's hard the pain he's caused us, we almost died because of him" I say sadly. I don't want to hurt him. I like Luca.

"I know I tried to stop him, I tried to talk to him, and he made me weak, keeping me away from you. I tried to tell him you were in danger. I was pushed too far down to take control. I am sorry for letting you down" he says sadly.

"You have nothing to be sorry for, you didn't do anything wrong" I reassure him stroking his cheek as he leans into my touch.

The next thing I know he's kissing me while Athena is cheering like a teenage girl. My first proper kiss, the last one was just a peck at the wedding, so it was not a full-on one like this. I have no experience with boys, I am just trying to keep up he tugs my hair, causing me to gasp, and he takes the opportunity to plunge his tongue in my mouth, totally dominating me.

It feels needy, passionate, and full of wanting. I can feel my body reacting as I become wet with arousal. He growls with lust as he smells it.

"I bet you taste even better there" he growls as he pulls away from the kiss.

I blush bright red at his comment.

"You look beautiful when you blush my sweet mate, don't be shy around me, are you innocent? Is that why you are so shy?" he growls.

"I'm not answering that" I stutter, fuck he has me really flustered.

"I will take that as yes, you have no idea how happy that makes me little mate" he purrs.

"Enough stop teasing me" I say, giving him a playful slap.

"Ok beautiful anything for you, I'm sorry, I have to give control back now. Please don't leave the pack. I will make sure I can speak to you again soon" he purrs.

"Ok Luca we will stay for now. If anything else happens, I will leave, though. I won't forgive him for what he's done yet. He doesn't deserve to get off that easily" I say.

"Thank you, my love" he says before his eyes turn back to blue.

What the hell am I letting myself in for? Why did I agree to this?

"Thank you for agreeing to stay" Lucian says.

"I didn't do it for you" I retort.

"I know but as long as you will be here that's fine for now, I will leave the door unlocked from now on we have to start learning to trust each other" he says sadly before leaving the room.

I decide to spend the rest of the night in my room thinking about things. I can go back to normal tomorrow tonight, I will try and sort out my head.

Athena is not much help she has already fallen for Luca. She needs to realise we can not separate the two of them they come as a package.

I get up nice and early and go to training. The warriors look really happy to see me, after they all check that I am definitely here to train. We get started.

Lucian appears around halfway during training to observe, it's the first time I have seen him here.

I am sparring with Fred today he wants to challenge me as I have beaten all of his top warriors, Lucian doesn't look pleased. I don't know why. If it's because he thinks Fred is too strong for me or he doesn't want me around other men. Either way that's his problem. I need a challenge, so he will just have to put up with it.

"Shouldn't you be putting her with someone more matched to her abilities?" Lucian asks while I snort

"Who do you suggest, Alpha? She has beaten the top warriors, so that leaves you and me be my guest if you want to step in instead" Fred challenges.

"Fine keep it as it is" he grumbles.

We get in the ring to spar "human, wolf or both?" Fred asks me.

"Both make it a challenge for me

He starts in his human form we circle each other and size one another up, he makes the first move as I dodge out the way just in time, he's much faster than the warriors we exchange blows for several minutes before I get the upper hand and send him flying.

He changes into his wolf and charges towards us keeping low as he knows I often slide under my opponents so I run towards him and jump in the air instead landing behind before quickly turning round and pouncing on his back. I lock my legs round his neck while delivering blows to his face as he tries to buck me off but I'm gripped on too tight he finally dropped to the ground and pats his paw on the earth signalling that he submits.

I remove myself from him as he turns back, and one of the warriors throws him some shorts.

"Well done, Aurora, I thought I was going to get you when I changed, but yet again, you surprised us, I thought I knew all your moves" he compliments.

"Always have to keep some tricks in the bag" I say, smiling.

"how are we going to challenge you now?" he ponders.

"I'm sure we can think of something, I might need to take on two at a time" I suggest.

"Now there's an idea, as if you don't embarrass us enough" he jokes laughing.

The warriors are all congratulating me as I walk to the side to get my water bottle.

"That was a really good fight. How did you learn to fight like that?" Lucian asks

"My mum's Gamma trained me from the age of 10. I wasn't allowed to train with the pack, so he gave me private lessons" I say, shrugging.

"That's really young to train" he says, shocked.

"Yeah probably. Why isn't there more women training in this pack?" I ask.

"Eh well the men have always protected the women they have never needed to train" he says obliviously.

"So if they are attacked by a rogue, like I was and no one is around, what do you expect them to do until someone shows up to help them?" I say, trying to get him to see sense.

"Well it hasn't been a problem before" he says.

"It was the other day for me. No one was near to me. It's just as well I was trained. My mum was killed by rogues. That's one of the reasons I wanted to be able to protect myself. I think everyone should have the same opportunity to protect themselves" I say.

"I can see your point, I will think about it" he replies.

"Ok but I think we should give them a choice, not make it for them" I advise.

"Are you going to train them?" he asks.

"If that's what it takes to get you to agree to keep them safe, then yes. I will train them" I counter.

"Fine we will call a meeting later and propose it to them" he agrees.

"Thank you, let me know when and I will be there" I say.

"After lunch, where are you going now" he asks.

"To see the kids and thank them maybe tell a story or two to them" I say.

"Ok I will see you at lunch" he says, walking off.

I had a lovely morning with the pups they were all excited to see me, and happy that I loved their pictures and cards. I got loads of hugs and told them a couple of stories they were sad when I said I had to leave, but I promised to come back soon.

I went for lunch it was my first time around the pack since the incident and Lucian's announcement to them, I can feel everyone looking at me. This isn't uncomfortable at all. Three women approach me before I get to my seat. Great, here we go.

"Excuse me, Luna, we just wanted to apologise to you"

"Yeah we had no idea who you were or that you were mates"

"We will understand if you hate us and never want to see us again. If we had known, we wouldn't have gone near the Alpha" they take turns saying.

Ok, that I was not expecting.

"Look girls, I don't blame you. You had no idea what was happening. How could you? I am not going to hold it against you. It would be different if you were aware of it, let's just put this behind us" I say to them as they look surprised and relieved

"Thank you Luna" they say together

"No problem" I say, leaving them to take my seat.

When I get there, Nadia turns to me and says "Are you ok?"

"Yeah I'm good they wanted to let me know they had no idea we were mates and to apologise to me" I say.

"You know the blonde one and the red head slapped Lucian when they found out and all three called him out" she laughs.

"Good on them, at least they weren't just apologising to me to get on my good side. They put themselves in the ring line to give him hell because they knew he was in the wrong. I told them I didn't blame them and we could put it behind us. They looked quite shocked" I mused.

"They probably expected to get their heads ripped off. Everyone has discovered how talented a warrior you are now and respects you for it" she replies as I chuckle.

"If I was going to rip someone's head off, it would be Lucian's or Jessica's. They both definitely knew about it. It's a shame a nice wolf like Luca is stuck with him. Sorry, I know he's your son" I say.

"Don't apologise, I couldn't agree more at the moment. There are plenty of other women who wouldn't be as level-headed about it and have taken it out on those girls too" she says.

"No point, they were brave to confront him and to apologise to me" I reply.

Lucian finally appears and reminds everyone that there is a meeting to attend after lunch before he sits and eats. Everyone is curious around the table about what the meeting is about, but he says they will find out with everyone else.

We finish eating and move through to the meeting room. I stand on the stage with the pack leaders as Lucian starts the announcement.

"If I can get everyone's attention, please. After the Rogue attack it has been brought to my attention that the females of this pack should be given the opportunity to be trained so they are able to defend themselves if they ever find themselves in this situation" he says.

"About time" Nadia says loudly.

"Your new Luna Aurora has brought this issue to my attention and has also agreed to train anyone who wants it" he continues.

There are several murmurs of approval before I hear that irritating shrill voice.

"Now is a wolfess girl supposed to show anyone how to protect themselves" Jessica sneers, which causes several growls to be heard.

"Would you like to test me yourself? I will welcome the challenge. Tell me, have you ever fought off 5 rogues yourself?" I challenge.

You almost died, so I don't think you can boast" she mocks.

"I killed 3. I would have killed the rest if you hadn't started fucking my mate. Good timing to get me out the way. I am happy to fight you. I will even stay in human form, and you can be in your wolf" I say, challenging her again as she looks flustered with my comments.

"It's not like you have a choice to stay as a human" she mocks.

"Who ever said I was wolfess? I can't ever remember saying that. Everyone just likes to assume things. Why don't you say hello, Athena?" I say.

Athena pulls forward, letting her aura free as my eyes swirl green and purple.

"Hello bitch are you finished spouting crap? Are you going to accept Aurora's challenge? I promise not to play nice. She can have all the fun this time. If you are not going to, back the fuck off and shut up, you are not even a part of this pack slut" Athena says menacingly as she then pulls back her strong aura and retreats.

"Well you heard the lady. If there is nothing else, keep it zipped. As for everyone else, if you are unsure if I am qualified enough, speak to the warriors or Beta Fred. I have been training with them since I came here they know how skilled I am. I am available to chat. If anyone has any questions, feel free to approach me. Training starts tomorrow morning at the same time as the men" I say.

"Thanks for sticking up for me. You really showed me and everyone else that I was your priority over your ex" I say to Lucian, walking away.

"Wait Aurora, I saw you handling it, so I didn't want to step on your toes" he tries to justify.

"If it was anyone else disrespecting me, would you have even let them finish speaking before you stopped them? You are supposed to be my mate as I said before I knew in that situation you wouldn't take my side now everyone knows it as well, if they didn't already" I say and walk away not letting him stop me this time.
