

Lucky Bride 152

Chapter 152: Wrong From The Start (Part 1)

Liu Sanniang looked at Miao Zhen and said, "Your grandson and Xu Xue are not fated. You forced them to marry."

Miao Zhen sneered. "So what if it's forced? They're already tightly tied together. Once the love poison is in effect, their hearts will never change."

Liu Sanniang squatted down and grabbed Miao Zhen's hand. "It's not up to you whether love poison can be removed or not. If you don't want to remove the poison, I can only do it myself."

Miao Zhen's body was weak. She had used a lot of strength in a short period of time and was even injured by the backlash. She seemed to have no strength left and was panting.

When Liu Sanniang was about to attack her mental defense, she immediately resisted.

However, Liu Sanniang's strength was unstoppable. Her strength was sharp and penetrated Miao Zhen's mental defense instantly. Miao Zhen felt a sharp pain in her heart.

Liu Sanniang sensed Miao Zhen's memories and frowned. "I see."

Miao Zhen's body trembled, and fear appeared on her face. She begged. "Stop, stop."

Miao Zhen could feel that Liu Sanniang's strength was extremely terrifying. It revealed all the pain and scars she had hidden in her heart.

Liu Sanniang opened her eyes and looked at Miao Zhen. "You've been forcing things all your life. You were wrong from the beginning."

Miao Zhen broke down. She suppressed the fear in her heart and looked at Liu Sanniang viciously. "Stop it. If you don't stop, I'll kill you."

Liu Sanniang's strength was too terrifying. If this continued, Liu Sanniang would know how to deal with her sooner or later. She had carefully planned this for many years and wouldn't allow anyone to destroy it at this moment.

Miao Zhen activated the worm king in her body. She wanted Liu Sanniang to die.

The worm king was awakened by her and rolled around in her mind, biting her flesh. Miao Zhen opened her mouth and a black worm flew out from her mouth towards Liu Sanniang.

As long as the worm king bit Liu Sanniang, she would be poisoned and die immediately.

However, a figure flashed past. Miao Zhen felt a sharp pain in her heart and completely lost the ability to resist.

Chu Yan stepped on the worm king and killed it, his expression unchanged.

Black blood flowed from the corner of Miao Zhen's mouth. She did not expect that the worm king she had raised for decades would be trampled to death just like that.

Miao Zhen was indignant. The sense of danger that Liu Sanniang gave her made her ignore the fact that she still had another enemy lurking around.

The worm king was trampled to death, and she was severely injured by the backlash. Even if she looked fine now, her internal organs would slowly be invaded by the poison. She would die within a few days, and her body would rot from the inside. She would only die when her internal organs were all rotten.

Miao Zhen said weakly, "Young lady, I'm not your match. I'm willing to remove the love poison. Please let me go."

Liu Sanniang did not let go of Miao Zhen. Her expression was solemn. "You've been using poison since you were young. Your ability is extraordinary, and you even know mystic techniques. You're smart and your cultivation level has increased rapidly, but you're narrow-minded. You fell in love with your fellow cultivator, but he didn't like you. When you saw him with his lover, your eyes turned red with jealousy."

"So you tried to refine the love poison. You were narrow-minded and competitive. What you wanted, you had to get it. Because he didn't love you, you used love poison to make him fall in love with you. You got what you wanted. He heartlessly abandoned the person he loved to be with you. Even when he found out that the person he loved couldn't take the blow and committed suicide, he still didn't change his mind. He only had you in his heart. He was your puppet. You enjoyed his gentleness towards you. For twenty years, the two of you seemed to be very loving. You weren't pregnant for twenty years. You were unwilling to give up and used a forbidden technique to get pregnant. However, one day, he suddenly woke up. He remembered that he had been muddle-headed for decades. He remembered that the woman he loved couldn't take the blow and committed suicide. He lost the hope to live and killed himself."

"You hated him for abandoning you and the child, but it never occurred to you that you were the one who forced him to be with you. He didn't belong to you in the first place."

"Your child should not have existed in the first place. Your pregnancy showed signs of premature birth. The doctor said that you could not keep the child, but you weren't willing to accept the reality. You used a forbidden technique to absorb the spiritual energy of a mountain range and saved the child. Your son fell in love with a girl. You poisoned the girl and she fell in love with your son. However, you forgot that your son wasn't supposed to live in the first place. He suddenly died and you were dealt a blow. When he died, the girl could not live. She was pregnant. Once again, you used a forbidden technique to save the child. When the child was born, the girl died."

"You named your grandson Zhang Tianyou, hoping that the heavens would protect him. You complained that the heavens were too cruel to you and took away your love several times in a row. Did you forget that whether it was your fellow cultivator, your son, or your grandson, you forced them to be with you. They didn't belong to you to begin with. How could the heavens protect them?"

Liu Sanniang opened her eyes and looked at Miao Zhen with suppressed anger. "Is this what you want to hide? In order to give Zhang Tianyou a healthy body, you are willing to exchange the lives of hundreds of people in the fishing village."

Miao Zhen looked at Liu Sanniang viciously. "What do you know? What do you know? I've suffered my entire life, and I loved him. Why didn't he love me? In what way was I inferior to that pathetic girl? He would rather love that kind of woman than love me. What was all my hard work for? It's the heavens that are unfair. If the heavens are unwilling to give me what I want, I'll fight for it myself. Am I wrong?"

She was not wrong, but the heavens were.

She had worked so hard. Why couldn't she get the person she loved? She had used love poison, but so what? It was true that they had been in love for twenty years. Wasn't it true? Didn't he have any feelings for her after so long?

It had been twenty years since they had loved each other. But one day he woke up and killed himself without saying a word. God knew how much pain and despair she felt when she saw his corpse. Their child was in her stomach at that point.

Liu Sanniang looked at Miao Zhen. She knew that it was impossible for Miao Zhen to realize her mistake. She had never felt that she was wrong.

Liu Sanniang said calmly, "You're not wrong. You just did what you thought was right."

Miao Zhen nodded firmly. "Yes, I'm not wrong. What's wrong is the heavens above. If the heavens had eyes, I wouldn't have suffered my entire life. If I was not fated with him, why did they make me fall in love with him? Since I was in love with him, he was mine. No one could stop me!"
