

Lucky Bride 315

Chapter 315: What's The Price?

Looking at her fair skin, Miao Yin smiled smugly.

After Mrs. Wei left Yuqiong Pavilion, she immediately returned to the mansion.

Wei Shilai had already woken up. After resting, he was full of energy. After coming out, he asked casually. "Where's Madam?"

The servant replied. "Madam went out to buy some groceries."

Wei Shilai frowned. There was no need for her to go buy the groceries personally. After Wei Shilai thought of a possibility, his face instantly darkened.

He was about to go out when Mrs. Wei returned.

Mrs. Wei looked at Wei Shilai and knew that he was angry. She closed the door. "If you are going to blame me, I won't resist."

Wei Shilai sighed. "The matter concerning Miao Yin hasn't been fully investigated yet. Why are you so rash?"

Madam Wei said, "I'm not being rash. Sir, you might have really misunderstood Miss Miao Yin. I saw with my own eyes today that General Fu's crippled arm was cured. Why can't my infertility be treated?"

Wei Shilai frowned. "Is the General Fu you are talking about Fu Gui?"

Mrs. Wei nodded.

Wei Shilai fell silent. Fu Gui was a mighty general. One of his arms had been crippled on the battlefield.

Mrs. Wei continued. "In the beginning, General Fu probably didn't believe it either. But when he came out, he revealed that crippled arm and mounted the horse with it."

Wei Shilai didn't know what to say. "Is Miss Miao Yin really that amazing? Madam, the more amazing she is, the stranger she is. I know you too well, be patient and wait."

Mrs. Wei thought for a moment and did not say that she had already seen Miss Miao Yin. She nodded. "Don't worry. I know what to do. If nothing bad happens in a few days, you can't stop me from going to see her."

Wei Shilai opened his mouth. "Miss Liu..."

Mrs. Wei interrupted Wei Shilai. "I know that Miss Liu is a good person, but she can't treat me. I'm not a fool. I know what's the right thing to do. Don't worry."

She would wait and see and find a time to test Miao Yin again.

When it was dark, Wei Shilai went to meet Liu Sanniang. The three of them did not speak and went straight to Yuqiong Pavilion.

This time, Yuqiong Pavilion was still filled with people, but it was very quiet.

Everyone was polite and behaved themselves well. Yuqiong Pavilion had already become a sacred place for them.

After Miao Yin showed up, she started singing softly. Everyone closed their eyes and became intoxicated by her beautiful singing.

Liu Sanniang did not chant the scriptures. She just listened quietly.

The painful cries in Miao Yin's voice had already subsided a little. Liu Sanniang looked at Miao Yin, who was dancing on the stage, and realized that the bloody sins on her had also decreased.

As time passed, the entire Yuqiong Pavilion was immersed in a beautiful dream. Even Wei Shilai, who was beside Liu Sanniang, closed his eyes and was intoxicated.

Miao Yin's ability had taken a leap.

How did she get rid of her bloody sins?

Liu Sanniang couldn't help but look at Chu Yan. Chu Yan tilted his head to look at her and smiled gently. Liu Sanniang heaved a sigh of relief. Even when everyone was intoxicated by Miao Yin's voice, Chu Yan would still be awake.

As the sky gradually brightened, Miao Yin stopped singing and said gently, "Thank you for listening. If you need my help, please let Miao Yin know. I will definitely help you with all I can."

People opened their eyes and said one after another, "Miss Miao Yin, my hand hurts. Can it be treated?"

"Miss Miao Yin, my head hurts..."

Miao Yin smiled gently. "I can cure anything and everything. You just have to pay a little price, which is giving up a little of what you love the most."

People quietened down, trying to figure out what they loved the most.

"Money, I love money the most. It won't hurt to give up a little of my money in exchange for good health."

Someone shouted, and the rest followed suit. "Yes, yes, yes, we're willing to give up some money."

Wei Shilai opened his eyes. "Is giving up some money enough?"

Seeing a doctor would cost money too and it wouldn't guarantee recovery.

If that was the case, giving up some money for Miao Yin to treat them didn't seem all that bad.

Liu Sanniang did not believe that it took only some money to get treated.

Life and death were both irreversible.

Could giving up a little money make one's deteriorating body better? That was impossible.

She looked worriedly at the crazy crowd. In the face of greed, no one was an exception.

A person with a missing eye went up. Miao Yin reached out and touched his hand. "Are you willing to give it up?"

The man nodded without hesitation. "Yes, I'm willing. I can give you any amount of money."

In the capital, most people were rich. If they could buy good health with some money, that seemed like a fair trade.

Miao Yin smiled gently. The one-eyed person was stunned to see Miao Yin up close.

His face was full of happy smiles as he muttered to himself. "Hehehe, I touched the hand of Goddess."

Under everyone's gaze, one of the man's eye sockets gradually bulged out. He closed his eyes as if he was not used to it. He reached out to cover his eyes. "My eyes hurt..."

Miao Yin said gently, "It needs to grow back, so it will naturally hurt a little. Just bear with it."

After letting out some cries of pain, the man stopped and slowly let go of his hand. There was a bright eye in his originally empty eye socket. He was immediately overjoyed. "Hahaha, I can see now. My eye has grown back."

After witnessing this miracle being performed, countless people went crazy.

Elated, the man walked out of Yuqiong Pavilion.

Without thinking, Liu Sanniang followed him. Wei Shilai opened his mouth and said, "Miss Liu..." Before he could finish speaking, Liu Sanniang had already walked out of his sight.

Wei Shilai looked back at the stage. In a short while, Miao Yin had already started to treat another person. There were still many people waiting to be treated.

Wei Shilai thought for a moment and stood up to leave. For some reason, he found all these miracles extremely fishy.
