

Lucky Bride 319

Chapter 319: Can You Get Used To This New Arm?

Liu Sanniang thought for a moment and decided to go back first.

When General Black saw her return, he was overjoyed. Liu Sanniang squatted down and held the dog's head. "General Black, you know what I want you to do, right?"

General Black barked twice.

Liu Sanniang smiled. "Go and help Minister Wei."

Liu Sanniang untied his leash. General Black shook his body and glanced at Liu Sanniang before running out.

She smiled. She was right. General Black really understood her.

A dog like General Black was really rare.

He could fight alongside her against the millions of evildoers in this world.

Chu Yan looked at Liu Sanniang with a smile on his face. At this moment, she seemed to be covered in a bright light. His heart was pounding. He walked over and held Liu Sanniang's hand. "Let's go."

Liu Sanniang nodded. Not only did she have General Black to help her, but she also had Chu Yan who was walking the same path as her.

If she wanted to know who Miao Yin had saved, Liu Sanniang felt that it was necessary to go to Yuqiong Pavilion. Chu Yan pinched her palm and said, "Follow me. Even if her stench is divided into ten million portions, it's still hers. Fortunately, it's not much."

Liu Sanniang looked at Chu Yan. Was he going to smell out those who were saved by Miao Yin?

Chu Yan squeezed Liu Sanniang's palm and bent down. "Come up."

Liu Sanniang looked at his back.

Chu Yan said in a low voice, "We don't have much time left. We'll walk faster with you on my back."

Liu Sanniang climbed on his back and Chu Yan carried her effortlessly.

They stopped at a house.

Chu Yan put Liu Sanniang down. She walked over and looked up.

On the top of the door was the word 'Fu Mansion'.

Liu Sanniang went forward and knocked on the door. The door opened quickly. The servant looked at Liu Sanniang in a daze. "Miss, who are you looking for?"

Liu Sanniang said, "I'm looking for the master of the mansion."

The servant looked at Liu Sanniang and said calmly, "My master doesn't have the time to meet guests at the moment. Please leave."

“Did something happen to your master?”

Liu Sanniang asked.

The servant was a little impatient. “Miss, what exactly do you want? Everyone in the capital knows about what happened to my master. His crippled arm was cured by Miss Miao Yin, the goddess in Yuqiong Pavilion.”

The servant thought that Liu Sanniang was here to ask about whether it was true that General Fu’s crippled arm was cured.

Liu Sanniang responded calmly. “I’m talking about General Fu losing his loved one.”

The servant’s face turned pale. “How do you know?”

Fu Gui’s daughter suddenly died, which had dealt a huge blow to Fu Gui. This news was still kept a secret. Not many people outside Fu mansion knew about it.

Liu Sanniang said in a composed voice, “Take me to see your master. I can help him.”

The servant quickly invited Liu Sanniang in.

Fu Gui had locked himself in the study room. The servants were all trembling in fear. Mrs. Wei and a concubine didn’t even dare to go in to comfort him.

Mrs. Fu wiped her tears. “General, this is not appropriate. Jiaojiao is already gone. We can’t just leave her here like this. She needs to be buried.”

Fu Gui had four sons and one daughter, so he naturally doted on his daughter very much. However, his daughter was already dead. The most important thing was to bury her.

The concubine comforted her. “Madam, give General some time. He will understand. He just wants to spend some more time with Jiaojiao.”

“She is my daughter too. Do I not want to spend more time with her? But she’s already dead.”

Now that her daughter was gone, the most important thing was not to be sad, but to bury her and let her go in peace.

When she said that she wanted to be buried Jiaojiao, Fu Gui shot her a fierce look, as if he wanted to kill her.

The weather was hot and moist now. If the corpse lay on the bed for a few days, it would rot. At that time, wouldn’t the scene be more gut-wrenching to watch?

The servant brought Liu Sanniang over. Mrs. Fu shouted angrily, “You idiot, why are you still letting people in at this time?”

The servant replied in fear. “Madam, please forgive me. I brought this girl in because she said that she could save Miss’s life.”

Mrs. Fu glanced at Liu Sanniang and flared up. "You stupid thing, how can you believe whatever she says? Hurry up and chase her out. Even Miss Miao Yin from Yuqiong Pavilion can't do anything. Is she better than a goddess?"

The servant frowned. It made sense.

Fu Jiaojiao was the apple of Fu Gui's eyes. When he found out that his daughter was dying, he immediately went to Yuqiong to ask Miao Yin to save his daughter

But he came back disappointed.

The servant sighed and looked at Liu Sanniang and Chu Yan. "Please go back."

"Creak."

The door of the study opened and a burly man walked out. His eyes were bloodshot. Mrs. Fu called out. "General..."

Fu Gui ignored her and asked Liu Sanniang with a long face. "You said you can save my daughter?"

Fu Gui's expression was terrifyingly sinister, and his entire body exuded danger. He had a murderous aura, and it was obvious that the consequences of angering him were not good.

Liu Sanniang's expression remained calm as her gaze landed on Fu Gui's right arm. She could tell at a glance that something was wrong with this new arm. Liu Sanniang slowly said, "General Fu, are you satisfied with this new arm? Are you used to it?"

Fu Gui repeated impatiently. "Let me ask you again. Can you save my daughter?"
