

Lucky Bride 376

376 Truth Revealed

Liu San grabbed her hand and dragged her out. "Shut up. It's us who killed Yinni-ang."

The three brothers did not dare to speak up. They also wanted to blame Liu Sanni-ang, but they did not have the cheek to do so.

Madam Bai grabbed the door tightly and refused to let go. She stared at Liu Sanni-ang with a vicious expression.

Liu San used all his might but he couldn't move Madam Bai. Looking at Liu Sanni-ang's calm face, he felt frustrated and ashamed.

Liu Sanni-ang wasn't their daughter. What right did they have to ask her to sacrifice herself for Yinni-ang?

Liu San only wanted to take Madam Bai home as soon as possible and ask her more about it.

Madam Bai was just an ordinary woman who did not have much strength, but now, her fingers seemed to have glued to the door and couldn't be removed.

Liu Sanni-ang slowly walked over. She reached out and grabbed Madam Bai's fingers, removing them from the door one by one.

Madam Bai looked at Liu Sanni-ang with hatred in her eyes. "You will die a horrible death, Liu Sanni-ang."

Liu Sanni-ang looked at Madam Bai indifferently. "Perhaps."

She didn't know what kind of path she would have to take or what dangers she would encounter. Perhaps she would really die a horrible death. However, as long as she was alive, she would not let these evil sources exist. She would find out those who were hiding in the dark.

She had a clear conscience about the matter regarding Liu Yinni-ang.

She did not mind if Madam Bai cursed or accused her.

Liu San looked at Liu Sanni-ang as she removed Madam Bai's fingers off the door. Then he left with Madam Bai in his arms.

The three brothers followed suit.

Chu Yan walked to Liu Sanni-ang's side and stood beside her.

"The snacks are ready. It's time to eat it."

Chu Yan spoke softly as if nothing had happened.

Neither Madam Bai nor Liu San was worthy of his attention.

Liu Sanni-ang nodded and returned to the house. The sugarcoated snacks Chu Yan made were exquisite and small. They were all her favorites.

On this path, having Chu Yan accompany her was enough.

Liu San took Madam Bai home and threw her down. The three brothers were shocked. They had never seen their father look so terrifying.

Liu San said coldly, "Close the door."

Liu Xiaoshan closed the door.

Only then did Liu San shout coldly. "Kneel."

The three brothers knelt down obediently.

Liu San looked at Madam Bai. "Tell me, did Liu Shun beat Yinniag to death?"

Madam Bai said angrily, "Liu San, are you a man? It's clearly Liu Sanniag..."

Before Madam Bai could finish, Liu San slapped her so hard that the corner of Madam Bai's mouth was instantly swollen. Her head tilted to the side, and her mind was filled with a buzzing sound.

It took her a while to come back to her senses. She looked at Liu San in disappointment and sadness. "Liu San, you're not a man. You..."

There was another slap on her face. Madam Bai cried and grabbed at Liu San, screaming. She could not accept being slapped by her husband.

Liu San pushed Madam Bai away and said coldly, "Stop mentioning Sanniag. Why didn't you tell us that Liu Shun hit Yinniag?"

Madam Bai said, "Liu Shun was the one who gave you jobs. He is not someone we can offend at all. Sanniag is different. She is..."

Madam Bai wanted to say that Liu Sanniag was a psychic and that as long as she was willing to help, Liu Shun would let Liu Yinniag go, but Liu San did not want to listen.

He was extremely disappointed in her. "You can't afford to offend Liu Shun, so you pinned the blame on Sanniag? Do you f*cking have no brain? We have hands and feet. We can rely on ourselves. Because Liu Shun gave us jobs, so you tolerated him beating our daughter. What's wrong with you?"

Liu Dashan and his brothers turned pale. They had a hard time coming to terms with the fact that they were the cause of their sister's death.

Liu Dashan said, "Father, we didn't know about it..."

Humans were selfish. They didn't want to have the blame pinned on them, so they consciously tried to push the blame away.

However, before Liu Dashan could finish, Liu San kicked Liu Dashan in the stomach. "Did you really not know anything about this, or did you pretend to not know anything about this because you didn't want to lose all the fame and fortune in the capital?"

Liu San was heartbroken. He blamed his son, but what about himself? Had he also turned a blind eye towards his daughter? He had long noticed that every time his daughter came back home, she always looked much paler and thinner.

Liu San hammered his chest with his fists in self-blame.

The three brothers lowered their heads in guilt.

The capital was quite different from Yong County. They discovered things they didn't know existed and were unwilling to part with the wealth and power.

Sometimes, even if they felt something unusual with Liu Sanniang, they would be deceived by their selfish desires and not think too much about it.

Madam Bai opened her mouth. "It was Liu Sanniang who was supposed to marry Liu Shun. Our daughter..."

Liu San said in a choked voice, "Don't lie to yourself. Sanniang's family won't push her into the abyss. How stupid I was? Why didn't I listen to them?"

Liu San slapped himself twice.

Madam Bai opened her mouth but was lost for words.

After being slapped a few times by Liu San, she seemed to be more awake. She remembered what kind of person Wei Shiyu was.

Wei Shiyu doted on Liu Sanniang very much. She would not let Liu Sanniang marry Liu Shun. Even if Liu Sanniang really married him, if she found out that her daughter was abused, she would not let Liu Sanniang continue to suffer.

Madam Bai was in pain. What had she done? What had she done as a mother?

She, just like the others, was completely blinded by fame and fortune.

Madam Bai covered her face as tears streamed down her face.

Liu San gritted his teeth. "Report it to the authorities. We have to report it to the authorities. That bastard killed my daughter. We can't just let him go unpunished."

Madam Bai said, "We have no evidence. How can we persuade the authorities?"

Liu San looked at Madam Bai coldly. "Before Yinniang died, you went to look for Sanniang. What did she say?"

Madam Bai's heart ached. "She said that the only way out is to leave Liu Shun. She said that I will lose my daughter. She knows everything."

However, Madam Bai did not do anything to stop the tragedy. She felt like her heart was being torn into two.

Liu San glared at Madam Bai and gritted his teeth, but in the end, he did not hit her. "We have to report it to the authorities no matter what. We can't let Yinniang die for nothing."