

Lucky Bride 404

404 Love

Jiang Xiaoyan's expression was also very ugly. She had completely forgotten about this big black dog.

The coachman and the maids looked at Jiang Xiaoyan and asked for her opinion.

The coachman said hesitantly, "Madam..."

This dog was really too big, like a half-sized calf. Moreover, it didn't look good-tempered.

As if to prove a point, General Black opened his mouth and yawned, letting the coachman and maids see his sharp teeth. With these teeth, it would not be a problem to bite off a head.

As expected, the coachman and the maids took a step back in fear.

With a cold expression, Jiang Xiaoyan snorted. "Let's go back."

Liu Sanniang looked at Jiang Xiaoyan without saying anything.

After Jiang Xiaoyan turned around and left, the coachman and maids followed suit. However, when Jiang Xiaoyan reached the door, she stopped suddenly and turned around. "Miss Liu, even if you don't help me, I won't give up. I've sacrificed so much. I won't give it up!"

She would kill anyone who tried to snatch what she had from her.

Wang Ru was hiding herself too well. As long as she exposed her true colors and let Hu Futan see it clearly, he would understand. He was just deceived.

Jiang Xiaoyan left.

General Black walked over slowly and closed the door with his body.

After Jiang Xiaoyan left, Liu Sanniang returned to the house. She received an invitation from Yi Zilan. He was getting married in a few days. At the thought of this, Liu Sanniang prepared to draw some talismans for him.

She had already made it very clear to Jiang Xiaoyan that her marriage was over, but Jiang Xiaoyan refused to listen to her.

Even when knowing it was a dead end, she still would not turn back.

Liu Sanniang picked up a brush and dipped it in the cinnabar before drawing a few talismans in one go. These talismans seemed to be carved in her mind. She knew all of them, but she could not draw some of them yet because she was not strong enough.

However, the simple ones like Safety Talisman and Evil Warding Talisman were no longer a problem.

Liu Sanniang felt that she should master some more talismans to help herself tide over the upcoming storm.

She put away all the completed talismans and began to practice the more complicated talismans. She gathered her strength on the brush. From the moment she put the brush down, it must not stop. She had to draw it in one go.

When Chu Yan returned, Liu Sanniang was resting and looked a little tired.

Chu Yan silently went to the kitchen and put down the ingredients he had bought. His Sanniang was still growing, so she naturally had to eat well.

When they were eating, Chu Yan picked up some food for her. Liu Sanniang was already used to him doing that. She picked some food for him as well.

Chu Yan smiled in satisfaction. Gradually, he had quietly but surely integrated into her life.

Liu Sanniang mentioned her conversation with Jiang Xiaoyan today. Chu Yan looked at her. "Do you know why she's like this?"

Liu Sanniang shook her head. She didn't know.

She knew that Jiang Xiaoyan was an intelligent woman. But why was such an intelligent woman unwilling to turn back when the road ahead of her was a dead end.

Jiang Xiaoyan knew that her marriage was forced. She felt that she could replace Wang Ru, but after more than ten years, reality was right in front of her. She could not replace her at all.

She was filled with anger and resentment, making her fall deeper and deeper, unable to think rationally. However, her husband did not have her in his heart. Why did she have to make herself suffer so much?

"Because of love."

Chu Yan looked at Liu Sanniang. Love was the same for both mortals and immortals.

Liu Sanniang was confused because the experience of love was what she lacked the most.

It was already dark outside after dinner.

After washing up, Liu Sanniang went to bed.

In a daze, she felt like she was in the clouds.

She opened her eyes. Looking at the sea of white fog, she felt inexplicably afraid. She even wanted to cry.

She did not move at all. Aggrievedness welled up in her heart, making her cry uncontrollably.

Her mind was in a mess. She felt as if she knew everything, but at the same time, she was ignorant of everything. She stood rooted to the ground.

When the wind blew past her, she felt cold.

The white cloud seemed to be blown away by something, revealing a figure in black. Looking at the figure walking over, she felt at ease and was no longer afraid.

The man went to her side and picked her up. Then, he turned into a dragon, and she rode on him.

“Wow...”

She liked it. She reached out to stroke the scales on his body. They were cool and smooth. She rested her face on his back and whispered. “I like you...”

The scales disappeared, and the dragon became human. He held her. “Put your hands down.”

She nodded obediently. She felt strange. She couldn’t even see his face clearly, but she wanted to reach out and hug him. Her heart was pounding.

The man placed her on the bed. Liu Sanniang asked. “Can you turn into a dragon again?”

The man sat down. “Close your eyes.”

Liu Sanniang wanted to be obedient because she felt that the man’s gaze was a little dangerous. She felt that he probably wanted to eat her.

However, she still mustered up her courage to repeat her words. “Turn into a dragon. I still want to touch your scales.”

The man covered her eyes with his hand and said in a low voice, “No, be a good girl. Close your eyes.”

Liu Sanniang couldn’t disobey what he said. She closed her eyes and fell asleep again.

And so the dream ended.

When Liu Sanniang woke up, she recalled this dream and couldn’t help but blush. Intimacy was still mysterious to her.

In the room separated by a wall, Chu Yan’s expression was cold. His rut had not occurred for a long time. Now because of a dream, his rut was in full swing.

He couldn’t stand it when she ran her hand over his scales. He wanted more, but even if it was a dream, he couldn’t cross the line. It was too early to do so. He’d finally entered into her life, and he didn’t want to ruin it. Many things had to be induced step by step.

At this moment, Chu Yan was no longer sleepy.

During the day, looking at Liu Sanniang sitting quietly in front of her, Chu Yan felt tortured.

Liu Sanniang also felt the danger again and was wondering what happened to Chu Yan.

Why did she feel that he wanted to swallow her?

Liu Sanniang quietly returned to her room and closed the door. She did not go anywhere and practiced drawing talismans and embroidery.

On the fifth of May, Yi Zilan got married. Many people came over to congratulate him. Yi Zilan was already 32 years old. Those around his age were already married and had children. Only Yi Zilan was still a bachelor before this day.
