

Lucky Bride 417

417 Returning The Blood Sin

But before they could give chase, the big dog returned.

The turn of events stunned Wang Ru and Yan Zhen.

General Black walked up to Wang Ru's side, bit the other box, and walked out.

Its eyes were cold. Wang Ru and Yan Zhen did not dare to move when they saw it, but once it left, they quickly chased after it.

Hu Futan was stunned and stumbled out as well. He knew that Liu Sanniang was here, but why was she here?

Hu Futan felt as if he was half alive and half dead. His life had been smooth-sailing all these years because someone had protected him. Now that that person was dead, he had to face the storm himself.

He remembered that Jiang Xiaoyan had gone to look for Liu Sanniang, but she refused her several times. Why?

After Jiang Xiaoyan died, Liu Sanniang had been waiting. The evil seed Wu Yu sowed wasn't Jiang Xiaoyan, but Wang Ru. Liu Sanniang was waiting for Wang Ru to dig out the box.

She tried to save Jiang Xiaoyan but to no avail.

Jiang Xiaoyan refused to turn back, even if she knew that the path ahead was death.

Liu Sanniang patted General Black's head. "Good job."

The mighty dog slowly walked to Chu Yan's side. There were two boxes on the ground. Liu Sanniang had already squatted down. She opened it and placed a talisman in it.

Wang Ru and Yan Zhen chased after the dog and came to a stop when they saw Liu Sanniang. Wang Ru froze and was a little afraid. However, when she saw Liu Sanniang take out the talisman, she pounced on her. "What are you doing? Get lost..."

Liu Sanniang closed her eyes and began to chant the scripture.

Wang Ru was sent flying by a force before she could even touch the corner of Liu Sanniang's clothes.

Her body flew out like a kite with a broken string.

Yan Zhen, who was about to attack, was stunned. He looked at Chu Yan in a daze.

Chu Yan's expression was cold and he did not even look at Yan Zhen. However, if he wanted to attack Liu Sanniang, Chu Yan would kick him mercilessly.

Yan Zhen gritted his teeth and ran towards Wang Ru. She spat out two mouthfuls of blood and her chest caved in. Yan Zhen was stunned.

He reached out to touch her. Two of Wang Ru's bones were broken, and she was in extreme pain.

She opened her mouth, but she did not even have the strength to cry out in pain. She could not even make a sound.

Yan Zhen's heart sank and he was terrified. He didn't even see how Chu Yan had attacked.

Chu Yan's expression was calm as if he had only reached out to pat the dust off his clothes. He didn't use much strength, but his kick was already so powerful. What would happen if he exerted all his strength?

Yan Zhen hugged Wang Ru and gritted his teeth to suppress his anger.

After Liu Sanniang finished chanting the scripture, an aura disappeared and a golden light entered her body. She reached out and the baby's corpse in the box disappeared. Some black things condensed in her palm. It was a blood sin.

Hu Futan asked weakly. "Miss Liu, what is this?"

Liu Sanniang glanced at Hu Futan. "Blood sin."

Hu Futan looked at the two empty boxes and felt pain in his heart. He realized that Liu Sanniang was quite capable.

"Miss Liu, why didn't you try to save my wife?"

He could tell that Liu Sanniang was here to put an end to this matter, but why didn't she make a move earlier? If she had made a move earlier, he and Jiang Xiaoyan wouldn't have come to this point, and he wouldn't have to live the rest of his life in guilt.

Liu Sanniang looked at Hu Futan and said calmly, "Why didn't you choose her?"

Jiang Xiaoyan had sacrificed so much for him. Her love for him was so deep. Why did he have to let her down?

Hu Futan was speechless. He no longer had the courage to look at Liu Sanniang and lowered his head.

Liu Sanniang ignored him and waved her hand. The blood sin automatically split into two and headed towards Wang Ru and Yan Zhen.

Most of it landed on Wang Ru.

When Hu Futan saw this scene, he was very puzzled. "Why did Miss Liu do this?"

Jiang Xiaoyan was already dead. Why was she doing this?

Liu Sanniang ignored Hu Futan and walked towards Wang Ru.

She looked at Wang Ru. "Who gave you that black pill?"

Wang Ru trembled and looked at Liu Sanniang. "What did you do to me? What do you want? Take that thing away. I can give you a lot of money. You're like that monk, you're a capable person, right? I can do anything you want. I'm willing to pay any price."

"I won't help you. That thing is a blood sin. What I did was to return all the sins which belong to you. Why would I help you? It's fine if you don't tell me."

She was no longer unfamiliar with the black pills. What were these pills made of? They seemed to have a lot of power. If ordinary people could become psychics, they could also use heaven-defying techniques.

To give birth to a child, one had to be pregnant for ten months. However, Wang Ru had only been pregnant for a few days. A day was like a month. All of this was no longer normal.

Wang Ru did not know what the blood sin was, but she knew that it was not a good thing. There was no benefit in getting involved.

Liu Sanniang grabbed Wang Ru's hand and forcefully broke through her mental defenses. She could not find the memory of where the pill came from. Wang Ru was extremely ambitious and was a perfect incubator for evil seeds. The more a person was like this, the more powerful she would be.

She swallowed it and cut off Wang Ru's path.

However, with the blood sin back to her, Wang Ru would suffer the consequences of her evil-doing.

Liu Sanniang let go of her. Wang Ru collapsed and looked at Liu Sanniang with hatred. "You devil, what did you take from me?"

Liu Sanniang must have taken something away, or she would not have let go.

Liu Sanniang didn't answer. She turned around and left.

She glanced at Hu Futan, who had his head lowered in guilt.

Liu Sanniang walked towards Chu Yan. "Alright, we can go home now."

Chu Yan held her hand and squeezed it gently. "Let's go home."

Liu Sanniang missed home badly. Her brother was getting married in June, so how could she not be there to witness it?

A lesson she learned was that there were many things that could not be rushed. She had to wait for an opportunity to eliminate those evil sources. It was not easy to find that opportunity in the vast darkness.

Hu Futan watched them leave. He looked at Wang Ru and Yan Zhen and walked out numbly. With the blood sin bearing down on her, Wang Ru wouldn't have a good time in this life.

Hu Futuan was the same. He knew that he deserved it. He just wanted to take a look at the place where Jiang Xiaoyan was resting in peace and remember it. Perhaps he would never come back in this life. The Hu family should have ceased to exist long ago.
