

Lucky Bride 432

432 The Only Daughter (Part 2)

Su Yuanyang felt as if something was stuck in his throat. He wanted to shout out that it was impossible and that it was not true.

However, Old Madam Su seemed to know what he was thinking. She removed the strands of hair and pulled out a strand from her hair. When her hair approached the blood, it didn't doge.

Su Yuanyang's entire body seemed to have been drained of energy. He sat on the ground. "How... how is this possible?"

None of the three children were his.

"Why didn't you tell me?"

Su Yuanyang almost broke down. Hearing this from Liu Sanniang, he didn't believe it. However, hearing this from his mother, he had to believe it.

Old Madam Su sighed. "I chose her for you. It's my fault. I didn't expect her to treat you like this. She couldn't even tolerate a girl who was born lacking intelligence."

Su Yuanyang scratched his head. "Mother, what should we do now? Has Xiaowu been captured by her? I only have one daughter. If anything happens to her, I will be childless."

Although there were three more children in the mansion, they were not his children. This came as a huge humiliation to Su Yuanyang.

Old Madam Su looked a little worried. "Don't panic. Where is Miss Liu? Can you bring her here to see me? As long as she can save Xiaowu and bring her back home, I will definitely protect Xiaowu this time."

Su Yuanyang felt a little down. "I... I can't have children anymore?"

Even if Su Xiaowu was his only child now, he could remarry. As long as he had a few more children, Su Xiaowu would not be his only child.

A hint of helplessness flashed across Old Madam Su's eyes. Su Yuanyang understood what she meant and almost lost control. "W-Who did this?! How dare she do this to me??"

The three children were not his, yet she was still so ruthless as to make him lose his fertility. How dare she do this? He doted on her so much, how could she do this to him!

Old Madam Su felt a little guilty. "It's all my fault for inviting a wolf into our house."

Su Yuanyang covered his face. "What should I do? Mother, please show me the way. Tell me what to do. I really don't know what to do."

Old Madam Su sighed and felt her heart ache. She stretched out her hand and stroked Su Yuanyang's back. "Son, it's my fault for being blind and inviting evil into our house. I've harmed you. As the magistrate of Chuzhou, you must maintain your composure and not do anything stupid. I've tested the three children. They don't know that you're not their biological father. Although you are not related by blood, they still treat you as their biological father. Xiaowu is the only biological daughter you have. She lacks intelligence. If you can find her, just bring her back and take good care of her.”

Su Yuanyang was in a daze. All of this was too much for him, but he had to admit that it was the truth.

Su Yuanyang went to Fulin Inn and saw Liu Sanniang and Chu Yan. He walked in. “Where is Xiaowu? How can I find her? Miss Liu, please help.”

Liu Sanniang looked at Su Yuanyang and said, “I want to see Old Madam Su.”

Su Yuanyang did not ask Liu Sanniang why she wanted to see Old Madam Su. He replied with a nod. “Miss Liu, please follow me back to the mansion.”

When Liu Sanniang and Chu Yan followed Su Yuanyang back to the Su mansion, it was already dark. Su Yuanyang’s heart was in a mess. He brought them to the temple hall and knocked on the door.

Old Madam Su’s voice sounded. “Come in.”

Liu Sanniang and Chu Yan walked in.

Old Madam Su looked at Liu Sanniang sharply. “Miss Liu, if you know where my granddaughter is, please send her home to reunite with our family.”

Liu Sanniang looked at Old Madam Su. “Old Madam Su, you are from the Mystic Sect. Why did you break the rules?”

Old Madam Su frowned. “I had my own reasons. I didn’t harm anyone. When I was young, I did many good deeds and accumulated a lot of merit.”

Old Madam Su was a little shocked to find that Liu Sanniang could actually tell she had resorted to a forbidden technique. Although she took five years of lifespan from her son, Su Yuanyang knew it and gave it out willingly. She had never harmed anyone.

In her opinion, as long as she had not harmed anyone, it was not considered evil.

Su Xiaowu was Su Yuanyang’s only child. Although she was silly, as long as she was alive, they had to find her.

Liu Sanniang said matter-of-factly, “Dying is the natural part of the circle of life.”

Old Madam Su frowned. “The heavens were unfair to me. I’ve never harmed anyone and have done good deeds, but I still have to suffer such unfairness. Miss Liu, tell me, why is this?”

She had done many good deeds, but in the end, nothing good ever came of it. Her only son suffered great humiliation, and her only granddaughter was a fool who lacked intelligence.

Not only that, her granddaughter’s whereabouts were unknown. If she died, her son would forever be childless.

Liu Sanniang looked at Old Madam Su and walked forward. “Have you really done many good deeds? The heavens have always been fair. Old Madam Su, why don’t you take a look at the evil seed you spread?”

Madam Su was stunned. Her eyes were cold when she realized that Liu Sanniang was here to subdue her. She was about to counterattack when Liu Sanniang grabbed her hand and she felt a powerful force pressing down on her.

Old Madam Su gritted her teeth and resisted with all her might.

She looked into Liu Sanniang's eyes and said fiercely, "What kind of evil are you? Why can't you tell right from wrong?!"

Old Madam Su was filled with hatred. She had already led a wolf into her house once, but she did not expect she would open the door to another wolf. She thought that Liu Sanniang was here to help her find her lost granddaughter, but in the end, Liu Sanniang was here just to deal with her.
