

Lucky Bride 433

433 Don't Be Muddle-headed

Liu Sanniang's expression was calm as she forcefully broke through Old Madam Su's defenses and led her to see the karmas she had caused. From the moment Liu Sanniang saw Old Madam Su, she could see a thick black aura lingering around her. It was all karma.

Old Madam Su said that she had done many good deeds. But it was obvious that she had no idea how many sins she had accumulated.

Madam Su was stunned for a moment before she was brought to see something by Liu Sanniang.

When she was young, she was once a disciple of the Kunlun Sect. Before she married a commoner and had children with him, she had traveled through many parts of the world and saved many people. She was born with the ability to save people with her spiritual qi.

But now, what she saw was that every time she saved someone, her body would be wrapped in a trace of black aura. She knew that this black aura was not good. This was the karma that people in the Xuan Sect feared the most.

However, while she was saving, this black aura landed and accumulated on her.

How could this be? She was clearly saving people.

Old Madam Su suddenly widened her eyes and panted heavily. She felt that something in her memory had been taken away. Blood flowed out of the corner of her mouth, and a powerful force rushed out of her body, attacking Liu Sanniang. Almost instantly, it shattered Liu Sanniang's internal organs.

Liu Sanniang was forced to let go of Old Madam Su's hand. The blood on her face faded. She felt a pair of hands holding her shoulders, and a pure force entered her body.

Liu Sanniang swallowed the blood in her mouth. Her internal organs were gradually repairing themselves, and she said, "I'm fine."

Some people did evil deliberately while some people were not aware of it. When Liu Sanniang heard Old Madam Su shout that she was treated unfairly, she felt something was wrong.

Old Madam Su was not aware of it. She thought that she had saved people and was doing good deeds. She did not know that saving people was also harming people. All the sins and karma would go back to her.

Old Madam Su looked at Liu Sanniang, and her widened eyes became hollow. She seemed to refuse to believe that all of this was true. "Why do I have to suffer karma after saving people? Didn't I save them? Why did my deeds turn out to be sins?"

Those people were suffering from illness. It was her spiritual qi that saved them from illness and allowed them to have a new life. Why had these become sins?

Liu Sanniang looked at Old Madam Su. "Old Madam, you should go and see what happened to the people you saved."

All the sins and karma, big and small, were caused by her saving people.

Old Madam Su swallowed the blood in her throat.

Only then did Su Yuanyang come back to his senses. He went forward to support Old Madam Su and called out worriedly. "Mother, how are you feeling?"

Old Madam Su reached out and patted the back of Su Yuanyang's hand. "I'm fine."

Su Yuanyang looked worried. "You're already like this, yet you're still saying that you're fine."

Old Madam Su's expression was dark. "Go out. I want to talk to Miss Liu alone."

She would not be able to rest in peace until she found out the reason for her karma.

Su Yuanyang looked at Liu Sanniang and then at Old Madam Su. He stood up and left.

As soon as the door closed, Old Madam Su exhaled a foul breath that was filled with the smell of blood and decay. "Miss Liu, did the people I saved really not have a good ending?"

Only by committing evil would she suffer from karma and sins. How could saving people be harming people? She didn't understand.

Liu Sanniang looked at Old Madam Su and said calmly, "You'll only know when you see it yourself."

Old Madam Su's expression darkened. "I've been cultivating since I was young and have dedicated my life to eliminating evil. I've psychic ability and saved countless people, but now, these have become sins."

She did not want to believe it, but after everything that happened in her family, she felt that her life was shrouded in heavy sins.

She only had one son, Su Yuanyang, and his son only had one daughter who lacked intelligence. Even the woman she chose for her son turned out to be an ungrateful wolf.

Liu Sanniang's expression was calm. The internal organs that had been shattered by the force coming out of Old Madam Su had already healed. She looked at Old Madam Su and her eyes hurt. She gathered her energy and pushed away the layers of black aura. She exhaled and closed her eyes. "It's not too late to make up for it now."

Old Madam Su looked at Liu Sanniang in a daze. "It's not too late? Miss, you're also a psychic. You should know that my life was extended. How can it still not be late?"

She felt that her entire life was like a joke. When she was about to die, she realized that it was all a scam.

Old Madam Su felt a headache coming on. "I can't even remember who planted the evil seed on me."

Since she was evil to begin with, the people she saved had all been harmed by her, and she had to suffer the karma of that.

Liu Sanniang opened her eyes. "If you can't remember him, find him."

Liu Sanniang thought of the dream she had before. The golden light was his reward. She did not know what he wanted to do, but she knew that there was no such thing in this world as getting rewarded for spreading evil.

Old Madam Su looked at Liu Sanniang and opened her mouth. "It's indeed time to find him."

She had lived her entire life, but she wasn't even as clear-minded as a girl. Old Madam Su looked at her and said, "Thank you for your reminder."

If it weren't for Liu Sanniang, she would never have woken up in this lifetime to realize that she was a person laden with sins.

Old Madam Su recalled the news from the capital. She looked at Liu Sanniang and asked. "Miss Liu, is the world really going to be in chaos?"

The True Buddha wouldn't appear unless the world was in a state of chaos, but it still seemed perfectly orderly.

No one in the Mystic Sect had noticed anything unusual in this world. Old Madam Su couldn't believe it either.

The compassion for the world in Liu Sanniang's eyes shocked Old Madam Su. She did not dare to look into Liu Sanniang's eyes. What if she ignored it?

As if she knew what Old Madam Su was thinking, Liu Sanniang said calmly, "If Old Madam chooses to ignore it, you won't have another chance."
