

Lucky Bride 436

436 Exposed (Part 2)

With Su Xiaowu gone, she thought that Old Madam Su would have no choice but take out the book, especially since Old Madam Su was seriously ill and on the verge of death.

She knew that she was about to die, but no matter how Li Xuelian served her, Old Madam Su had no intention of giving the book to her.

Li Xuelian was angry. She wanted to get Su Xiaowu back and use her to threaten Old Madam Su. However, it wasn't easy to find a missing person.

Old Madam Su did not die after she became seriously ill. Li Xuelian wanted the medical book even more. How could a dying person continue to live? This must have something to do with the book. However, no matter how she asked, Old Madam Su refused to tell her the answer.

Just as she was frustrated, Li Guanfeng brought Su Xiaowu to her door. Looking at Su Xiaowu, she knew that this girl was the key to open Old Madam Su's mouth. The person she loved was also surnamed Su. Wasn't this fate? The two Su families were both rich families.

When she obtained the Kunlun Medical Book, she could bring her children to reunite with their father.

Even a psychic like Madam Su could not resist Liu Sanniang, let alone the children.

Since they were young, they had been told that their biological father was not Su Yuanyang, but they still called him father and enjoyed his love. They even fought for this love.

Su Yuanyang, who had personally experienced this memory, almost went crazy as he pounced on Madam Su. He grabbed her shoulders and shook her. "Where is Xiaowu? Where is she?"

Liu Sanniang withdrew her power. At this moment, she finally understood what opportunity was in store for her.

Madam Su's expression was vicious. "If you want to see Su Xiaowu, you have to let us go. Otherwise, you can forget about seeing Su Xiaowu for the rest of your life. You only have one daughter. Husband, you have to think carefully."

Since she had been exposed, there was no need for her to pretend. With the three children by her side, she became vulnerable.

Su Yuanyang wanted to strangle Madam Su. "You vicious woman, you'll die a horrible death."

He looked at the three children and was even more furious. They were simply wolf cubs. Once they grew up, they would turn around and bite his neck to death.

He had doted on them for so many years, but they played him like a fool.

Li Xuelian's expression was cold. She looked at Old Madam Su coldly and said, "Old Madam, if you want to see Su Xiaowu, exchange the Kunlun Medical Book for her."

Old Madam Su's expression darkened. "Li Xuelian, you still want to threaten us at a time like this? Who do you think you are? Son, chop off one of Su Junchen's hands and send it to Su Shiquan. Let's see if he wants his son's life!"

"No!"

Li Xuelian gritted her teeth. She did not believe that Old Madam Su and Su Yuanyang would do this. She had been Madam Su for many years. However, she knew that she was not Su Yuanyang's wife. Instead, she was Su Shiquan's Madam Su. Her staying here was only temporary.

When she got what she wanted, she would leave without looking back. She felt that Old Madam Su probably knew something. At first, she was a little worried that Old Madam Su would expose her, but this worry was unnecessary over the years.

Old Madam Su had never thought of letting her son see the truth. Li Xuelian thought as long as Old Madam Su wanted to protect his son's dignity, she would keep quiet.

However, once Old Madam Su lay bare everything, Li Xuelian would have no advantage at all.

Her children were all here!

Li Xuelian hugged the three children tightly and glared at Old Madam Su.

Old Madam Su thought about the humiliation that her son suffered all these years and said again, "Chop off this bastard's hand. Let's see if your bones are harder than mine."

The youngest, Su Xiaoling, was so frightened that she cried out loud. She looked at Su Yuanyang and shouted. "Father, I am afraid."

Su Yuanyang looked away. In the past, he liked Su Xiaoling the most and doted on her the most. She was smart and cute, but when he thought about how she was not his child and how she already knew who her biological father was, Su Yuanyang felt disgusted.

Their existence kept telling him that he was fooled by them.

If he was deceived for his entire life and didn't even know until he died, he would accept it.

However, at this point, he couldn't take this humiliation lying down.

Li Xuelian gritted her teeth and said, "Let us go. I'll return Su Xiaowu to you."

Li Xuelian was afraid that Old Madam Su wouldn't agree, so she shouted. "If there's no room for negotiation, we'll fight you to the death. If we die here, Su Xiaowu will also die without an intact corpse. You can also tell the public that we died of an illness. After all, it's better than letting the world know that your son raised someone else's children for many years."

Old Madam Su gritted her teeth. "Deal."

Although this was the shame of her son's life, Xiaowu's life was more important than anything else.

When Su Yuanyang thought of Su Xiaowu, his heart was filled with guilt. In his memory, he despised Su Xiaowu because she lacked intelligence. She did not know anything, so he was always more biased towards the other children.

Even if Su Xiaowu was bullied, he would just turn a blind eye to it.

Now that he thought about it, his heart ached terribly. His voice was hoarse. "Send Xiaowu here. Then, your family can leave Chuzhou."

After all, Su Yuanyang was the magistrate of Chuzhou. Even if Su Shiquan was from a medical family, it was not difficult for him to make a medical family disappear.

Li Xuelian thought that she had a good grasp of Old Madam Su and Su Yuanyang, but in fact, she did not.

She sent someone to deliver a letter to Su Shiquan and asked him to bring Su Xiaowu and the others over.

The most important thing now was to endure it till then.

Su Shiquan knew that he was at a disadvantage. It was inevitable that he would have to use Su Xiaowu, Li Guanfeng, and the others to exchange for his children and Li Xuelian.

Old Madam Su did not want to make this matter known to the entire city. If she could, she hoped to keep this matter hidden.

Su Shiquan sent Su Xiaowu over, and Su Yuanyang released Li Xuelian and the children.

After all of this finished, the sky was still dark. Li Guanfeng looked at Liu Sanniang and lowered his eyes. "Miss Liu, I lost."
