

Lucky Bride 451

451 Marquis Su's Opposition

Su Yanyu felt disgusted when he thought about it. "Miss Liu, you don't know how much I used to like to eat the food of Suzhai Pavilion. If I knew what the food was made of, I wouldn't eat it even if I was beaten to death. I'm so traumatized that I don't even want to eat out in the future."

"What's wrong with the food in Suzhai Pavilion? Why don't you want to eat out anymore?"

A deep voice suddenly sounded in the room. Su Yanyu looked over and saw his parents walking into the main hall. He shouted. "Father, Mother, why are you here?"

Marquis Su and Mrs. Su came together. Marquis Su had also heard from the butler that Su Yanyu was entertaining an important guest with the best tea. Moreover, it was a female guest.

They had never seen Su Yanyu treating anyone with such a good attitude. Marquis Su and Mrs. Su were curious. Since there was an esteemed guest, it was only right for them to come to greet her. They also wanted to know why their son wanted to curry favor with her.

One had to know that Su Yanyu never bothered to curry favor with even the Crown Prince. Naturally, his status could not compare to the Crown Prince. However, as long as he did not go against the Crown Prince, they would have nothing to do with each other.

As long as the current emperor was still on the throne and Su Yanxue was still the favored consort, Su Yanyu could do whatever he wanted in the capital.

Marquis Su and Mrs. Su walked in and glanced at Su Yanyu before sizing up Liu Sanniang.

After scrutinizing her, they were shocked.

Liu Sanniang was beautiful and had a calm expression, looking like a living Buddha.

Chu Yan was silent. He was handsome, but he was too cold. Their auras were on par with each other.

Marquis Su knew what was going on. "So it's Miss Liu. Nice to meet you."

Liu Sanniang had become well-known in the capital. She was a psychic, but she had not teamed up with either the Crown Prince or the Third Prince. She did not depend on anyone and was still safe. This was unbelievable.

Marquis Su smiled.

Mrs. Su also smiled slightly.

Su Yanyu looked at his parents and smiled. "Father, Mother, you came at the right time. I have something to tell you."

Apparently, his parents were also impressed by Liu Sanniang. Su Yanyu was happy. This showed that his evaluation of Liu Sanniang was right.

Marquis Su looked at Su Yanyu. "What's the matter?"

Su Yanyu immediately told them about the incident at Suzhai Pavilion. After narrating it, he added. "When Mu Cong ate the food, it looked like he was eating sh*t... I knew that something was wrong with him, so I asked."

Marquis Su frowned. So this was the reason why Su Yanyu didn't want them to eat the food.

Su Yanyu coughed. "Father, Mother, I had no choice at that time. The fewer people who know about this, the less danger there will be."

Marquis Su looked at Su Yanyu. "Then why did you tell us now?"

Su Yanyu looked at Liu Sanniang and patted his chest. "How many times has Suzhai Pavilion sent food to the palace to serve the consort? I will expose Suzhai Pavilion for Sister's sake. Sister is pregnant. It's best not to eat such food."

If Su Yanxue could be conferred the title of Noble Consort because of giving birth to a prince, her status would rise, and it was also extremely beneficial to the Su family.

Marquis Su looked at Liu Sanniang. "Miss Liu, it's our duty to stop the villain. However, I only have one son. This is too dangerous. Miss Liu, how can you ensure my son's safety?"

Liu Sanniang smiled faintly. "It's dangerous for one person to know. It's dangerous for ten people to know. What about when a hundred people and a thousand people know? The more people know about the truth, the safer it will be."

If Hui Zhen was not stopped, this evil source would grow stronger and stronger sooner or later. Wouldn't it endanger everyone then?

This was not saving people, but saving oneself.

Marquis Su was speechless.

Su Yanyu felt that what Liu Sanniang said made sense. He said to Marquis Su, "Father, don't worry. This is just a small matter. There's nothing to worry about me."

Marquis Su looked at Liu Sanniang deeply. "Although that's the case, it's dangerous for my son to bear the brunt. Just as Miss Liu said, it's dangerous for one person to know. But if a thousand people know, Hui Zhen can't kill them all, so it's fine to let someone else bear the brunt, right?"

Liu Sanniang shook her head. "Only Young Marquis Su can do this."

Without Su Yanyu, the others could only kick up an insignificant fuss. It might even have the opposite effect. At that time, it would also make things worse.

Marquis Su was surprised by Liu Sanniang's straightforwardness. He stopped beating around the bush and asked directly. "What benefits can my son gain from doing such a dangerous thing?"

Liu Sanniang said calmly, "That's up to karma."

All good deeds and bad deeds would produce different karma.

Marquis Su was obviously dissatisfied with this answer. "Miss Liu, you are a straightforward person, so I won't beat around the bush with you. Please tell me bluntly what benefits can my son get? If you can't tell me, then I won't let my son take this risk."

After Marquis Su finished speaking, Su Yanyu glared at him. "Father!"

Marquis Su raised his hand and interrupted Su Yanyu.

Su Yanyu gritted his teeth, but he had to shut up. This was a family rule.

Marquis Su continued. "My son is rich and noble. Even if he doesn't get involved, he won't lose anything. Miss Liu, am I right?"

He wanted Liu Sanniang to say something. Marquis Su kept looking at her and did not let go of any change in her expression. He thought that Liu Sanniang would be unhappy and sneer at him. After all, psychics were all high and mighty, but Liu Sanniang showed nothing that betrayed her emotion.
