

Lucky Bride 526

526 Miss Liu, We'll Meet Again If Fate allows

Zhang Shuangshuang looked at Liu Sanniang and suddenly cried. "Miss Liu, will I be fine in the future?"

Liu Sanniang smiled. "Don't worry. You have a prosperous fate."

Su Yanyu looked at Liu Sanniang and couldn't help but ask. "Will Zhang Heng lose all his wealth after losing his daughter?"

Liu Sanniang nodded.

Zhang Shuangshuang broke off the engagement in the way she wanted. For a moment, this matter became a much-talked-about topic in the capital.

Li Jing and Zhang Yufei's engagement did not go smoothly. The day that was supposed to be sunny suddenly started raining, causing the Li family to get wet all over.

Zhang Shuangshuang sold the title deeds in her hands and left the capital with Qing Mei. Before leaving, she went to Liu Sanniang's courtyard to thank her.

Liu Sanniang invited her into the courtyard. Zhang Shuangshuang smiled. "Miss Liu, thank you."

Liu Sanniang replied calmly. "You're welcome."

Zhang Shuangshuang took out a box. "Miss Liu, this is a token of my appreciation. Please accept it."

Liu Sanniang did not refuse.

"Miss Liu, we'll meet again if fate allows."

Zhang Shuangshuang finished her cup of tea. This was the best tea she had ever tasted. It was sweet and warm to the core.

Liu Sanniang smiled. "Goodbye."

Qing Mei smiled. "Miss, let's go."

Two days later, when Zhang Heng found out that Zhang Shuangshuang had sold all the title deeds, she and Qing Mei had already left the capital.

After Zhang Shuangshuang and her maid left, Liu Sanniang opened the box. Inside the box was the title deed to a mansion. Liu Sanniang only needed to write her name and the new title deed would take effect immediately.

Su Yanyu came to give General Black food as usual.

He met Zhang Shuangshuang and her maid outside. Zhang Shuangshuang smiled at him. "Lord Su, thank you."

Su Yanyu looked at her. "Are you leaving the capital?"

Zhang Shuangshuang nodded. "Yes."

There was no need for her to stay in the capital. Once she left, people would gradually forget her.

Su Yanyu thought of Zhang Heng and smiled. "It's good to leave this sad place. Have a safe trip."

Zhang Shuangshuang looked at Su Yanyu. She seemed to know why Su Yanyu was helping her. She said gently, "Thank you. I also wish you success."

Su Yanyu smiled. "Thank you for your kind words. Goodbye."

Zhang Shuangshuang and Qing Mei got into the carriage and left.

Su Yanyu entered the courtyard and brought the fragrant chicken to General Black.

Just as Liu Sanniang was about to speak, Su Yanyu stood up and left.

Was he really going to wait three years?

Two days later, something big happened to the Left Censor-in-chief's family. A group of people came over with title deeds to claim the properties. Zhang Heng looked at the titles deeds they were holding and was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood.

You Xuerou cried until her eyes were swollen. She thought that she could always control Zhang Shuangshuang, but she didn't expect that when Zhang Shuangshuang changed completely, she would take everything away. The Zhang family turned so poor instantly that they did not have money to make new winter clothes.

However, the bigger problem was that Zhang Yufei was going to get married on the 20th of December, and they didn't have the money to prepare dowry for her.

Zhang Heng was resentful. Every time the court ended, he could hear his colleagues shaking their heads and sighing, discussing his family matters. They said that he had sent the God of Fortune away by cutting ties with his daughter and would not be lucky for the rest of his life.

However, he naturally did not dare to flare up at his colleagues, so he could only lose it when he returned home.

You Xuerou, who used to be doted upon by him, was now an eyesore. He couldn't help but vent all his anger on You Xuerou. "In the past ten years, have you only bought two shops?"

You Xuerou's eyes were swollen from crying. In the past, when she stabbed Zhang Shuangshuang in the back, she used to feel extremely satisfied, but when Zhang Shuangshuang struck back, it was fatal. She did not even have the chance to make a comeback.

You Xuerou looked at Zhang Heng aggrievedly. "Master, it's not that easy to do business."

Zhang Heng gritted his teeth. "How difficult can it be? Sun Miaomiao could manage to increase the family assets multifold in a few years, why couldn't you? If you can't do this and can't do that, then what can you do?"

You Xuerou felt extremely aggrieved.

Sun Miaomiao, Zhang Shuangshuang's mother, was out all year round and was busier than men, which gave her an opportunity to steal business from the men. That was not something ordinary women were capable of doing, Sun Miaomiao could do it, but she really could not.

You Xuerou had a beautiful face and a delicate figure. Due to this, she was doted on and never had to worry about money. It was very satisfying for her to spend the money Sun Miaomiao had accumulated over the years and bully her daughter.

But now that they had nothing, Zhang Heng lost his patience.

You Xuerou felt wronged, but she could not say anything.

Seeing her like this, Zhang Heng did not flare up again. However, now that he had become the laughing stock in the imperial court, he felt embarrassed.

Zhang Heng looked at You Xuerou. "You're not inferior to Sun Miaomiao. I'll hand the family business to you. You have to prove to those who mock me that I didn't send the God of Fortune away."

If the Zhang family continued to decline, he would have to admit the fact that abandoning his daughter was the worst choice he'd made. If the Zhang family managed to prosper, it would be a slap on the faces of those who were making fun of him.

You Xuerou nodded. "I will."

No matter how displeased she was, what Zhang Shuangshuang took away belonged to her. This was the truth, and it was also a fact that she had taught You Xuerou and her daughter a bitter, unforgettable lesson.